

Trust in general

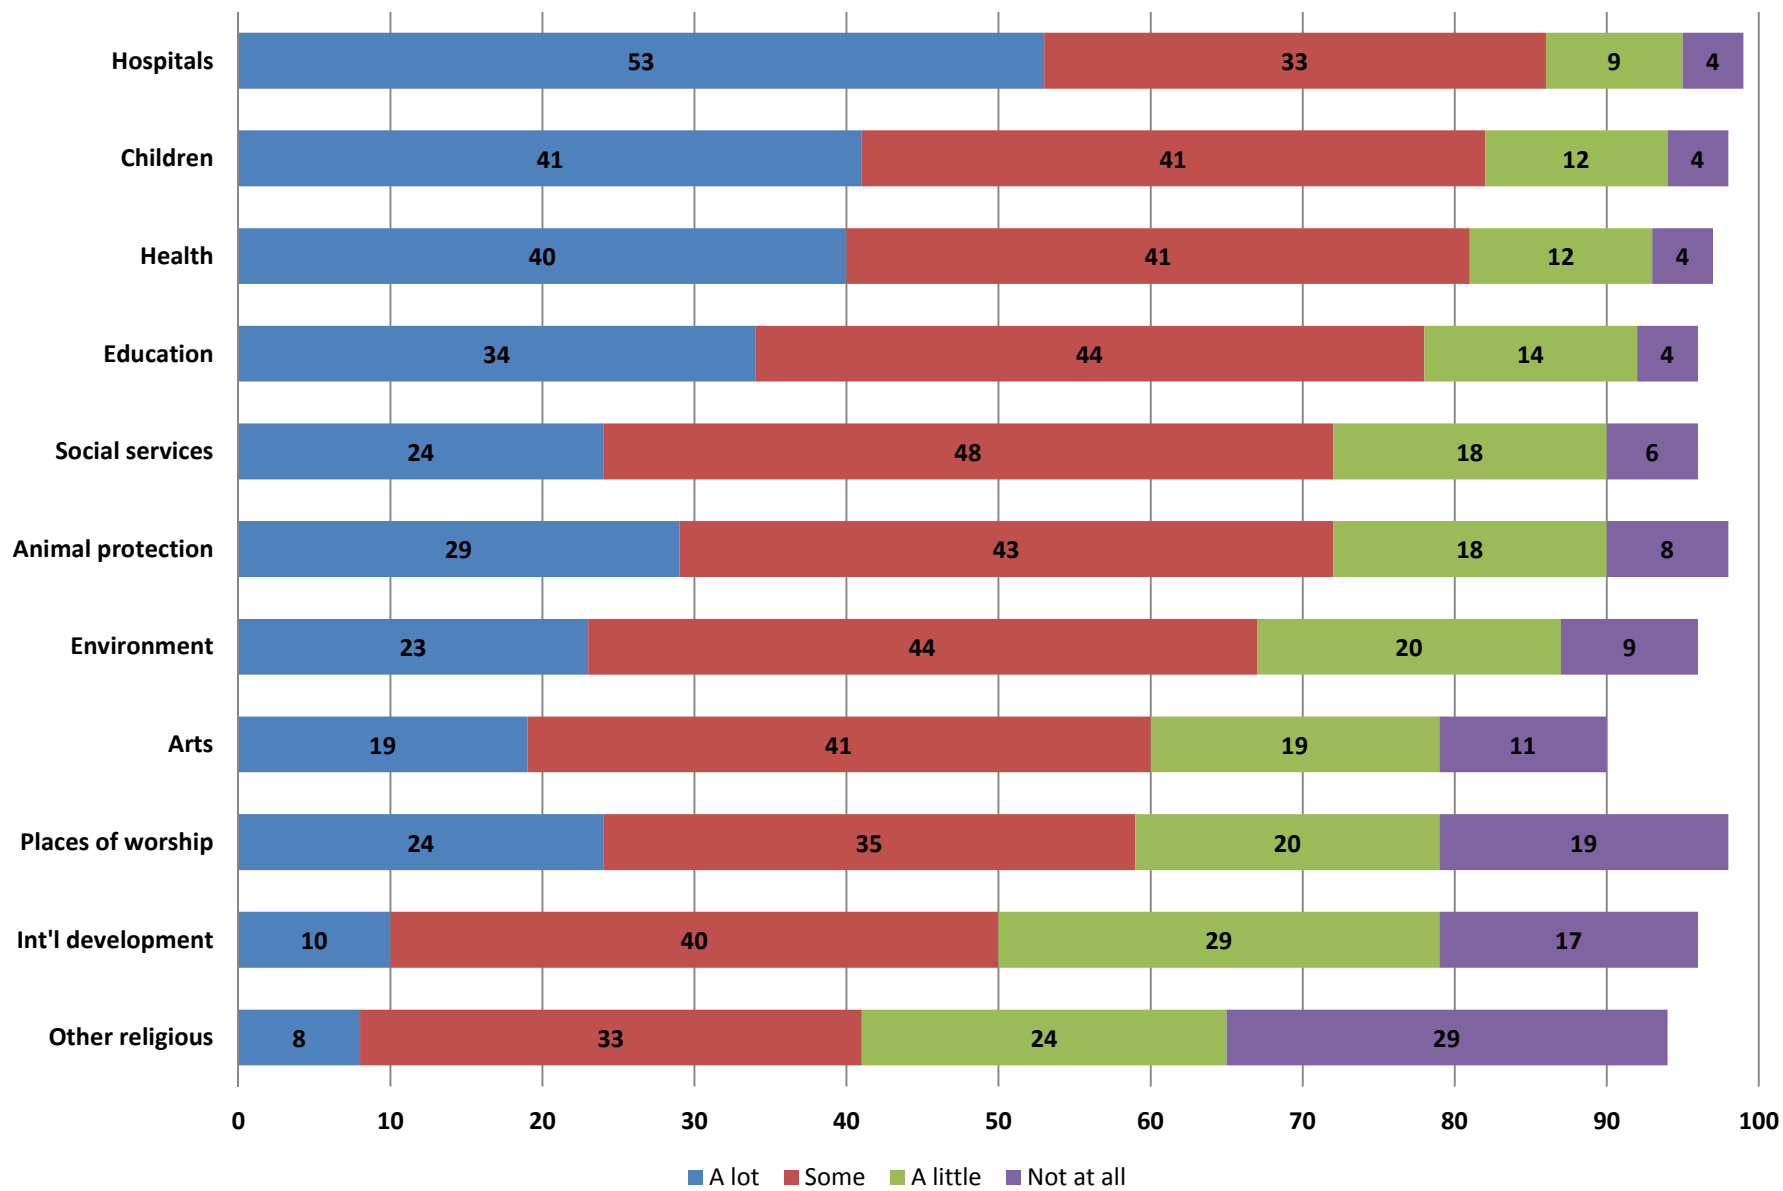

Trust in charities by age

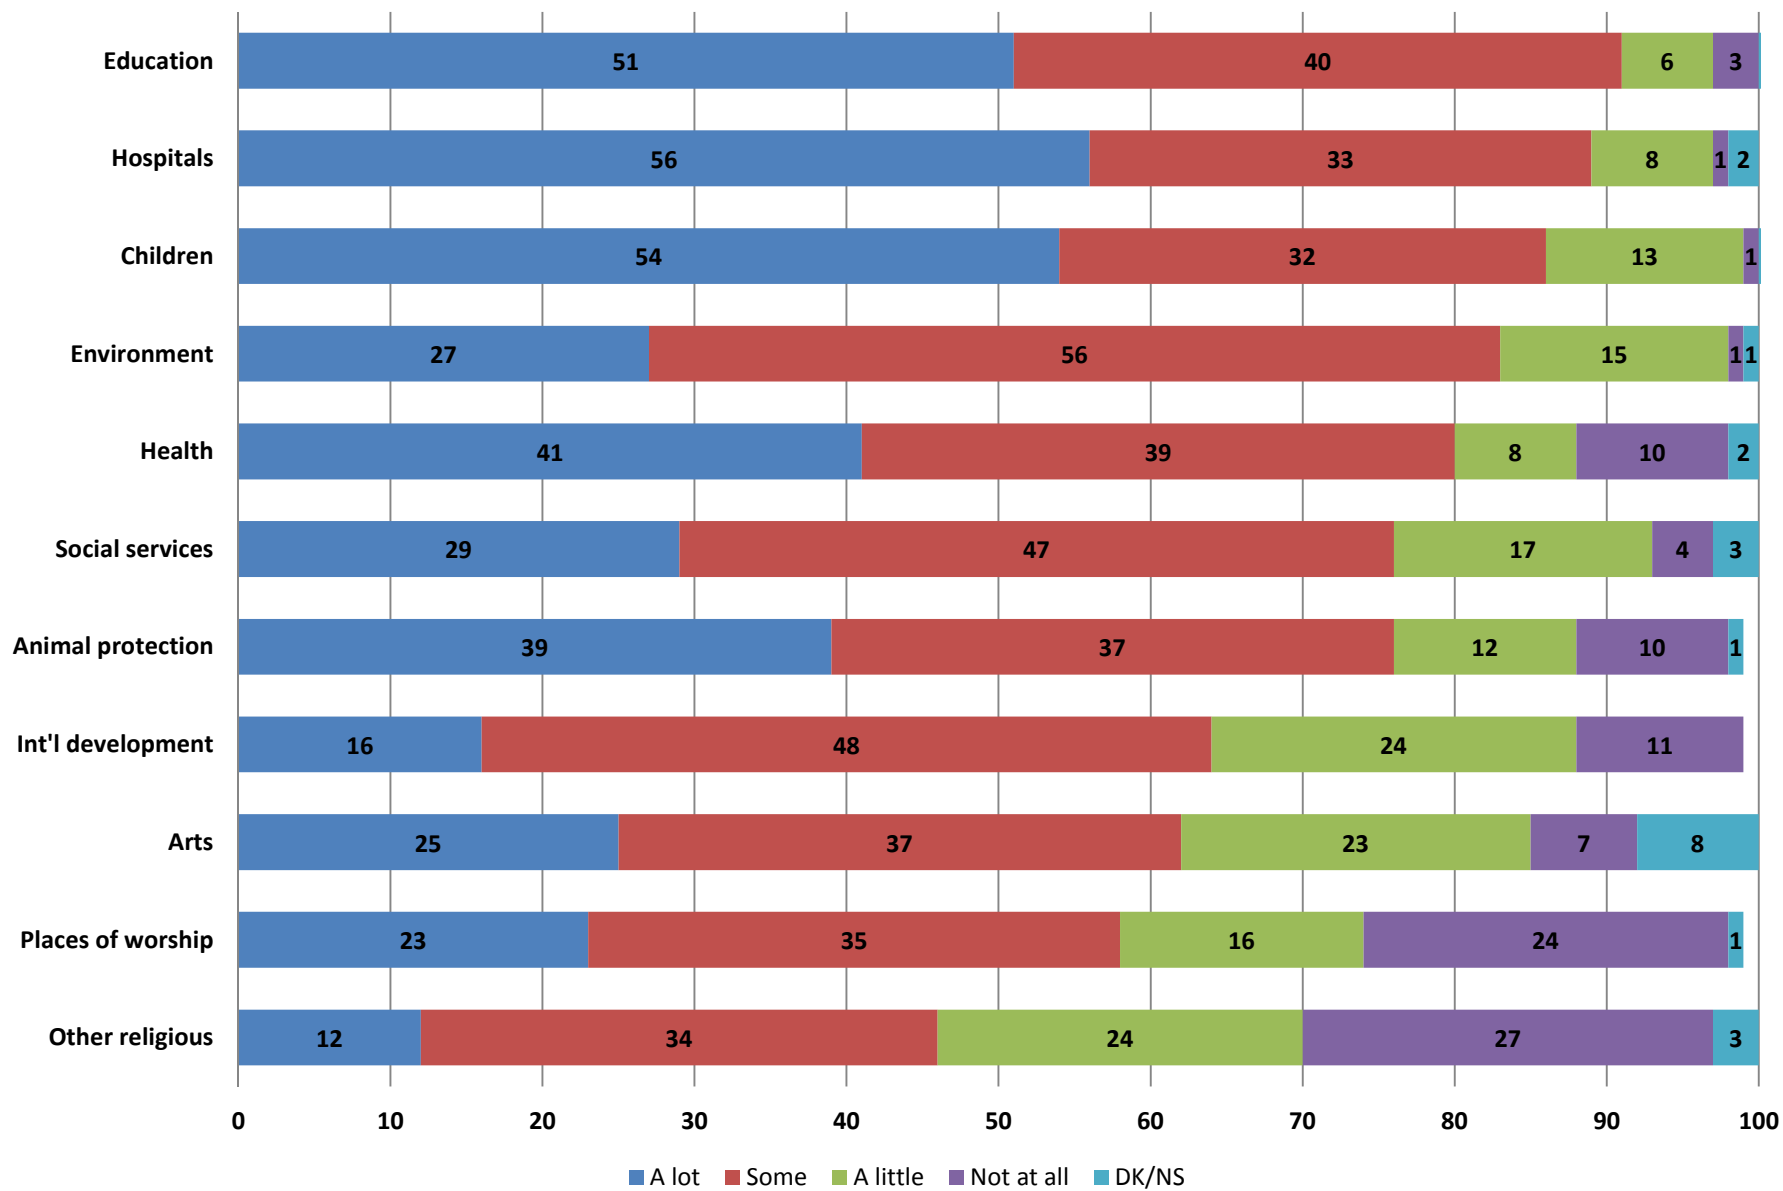

Trust in general by household income

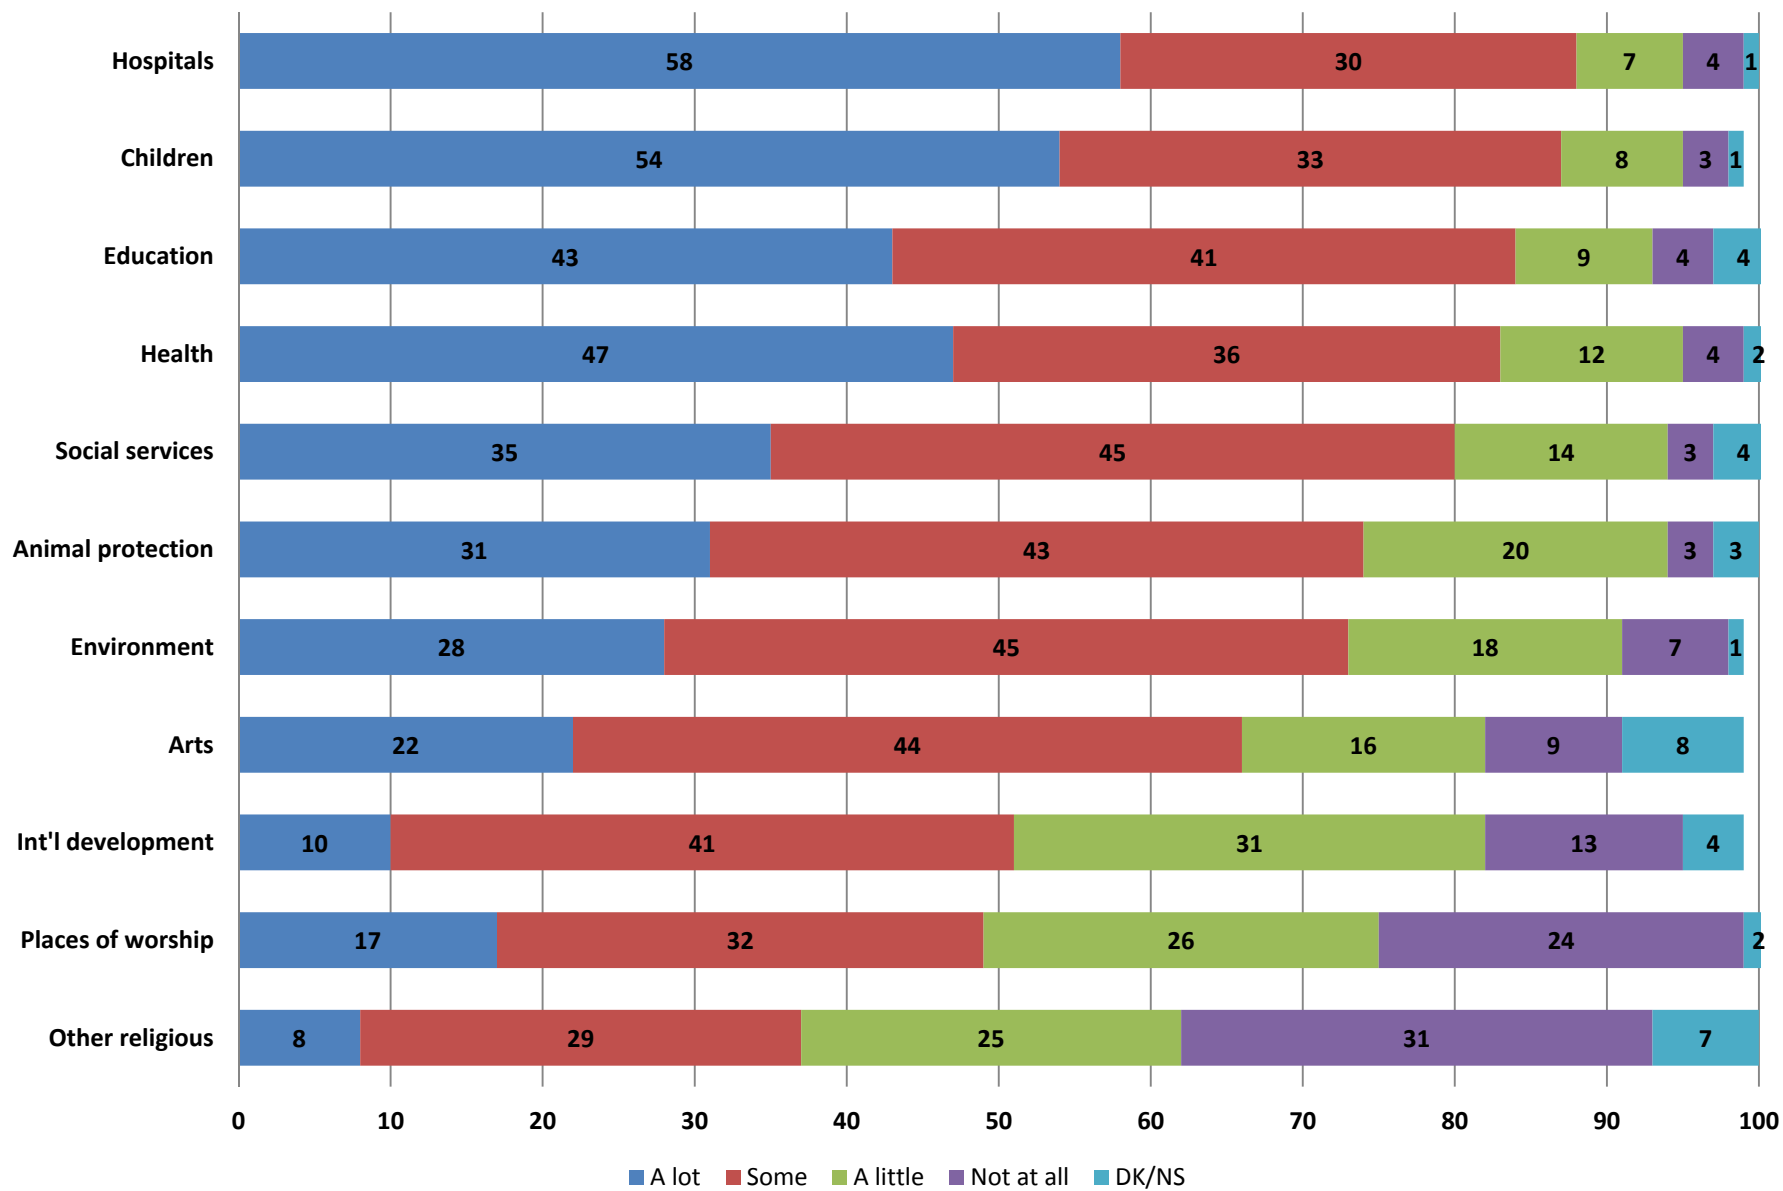

Trust by type of charity - Canada

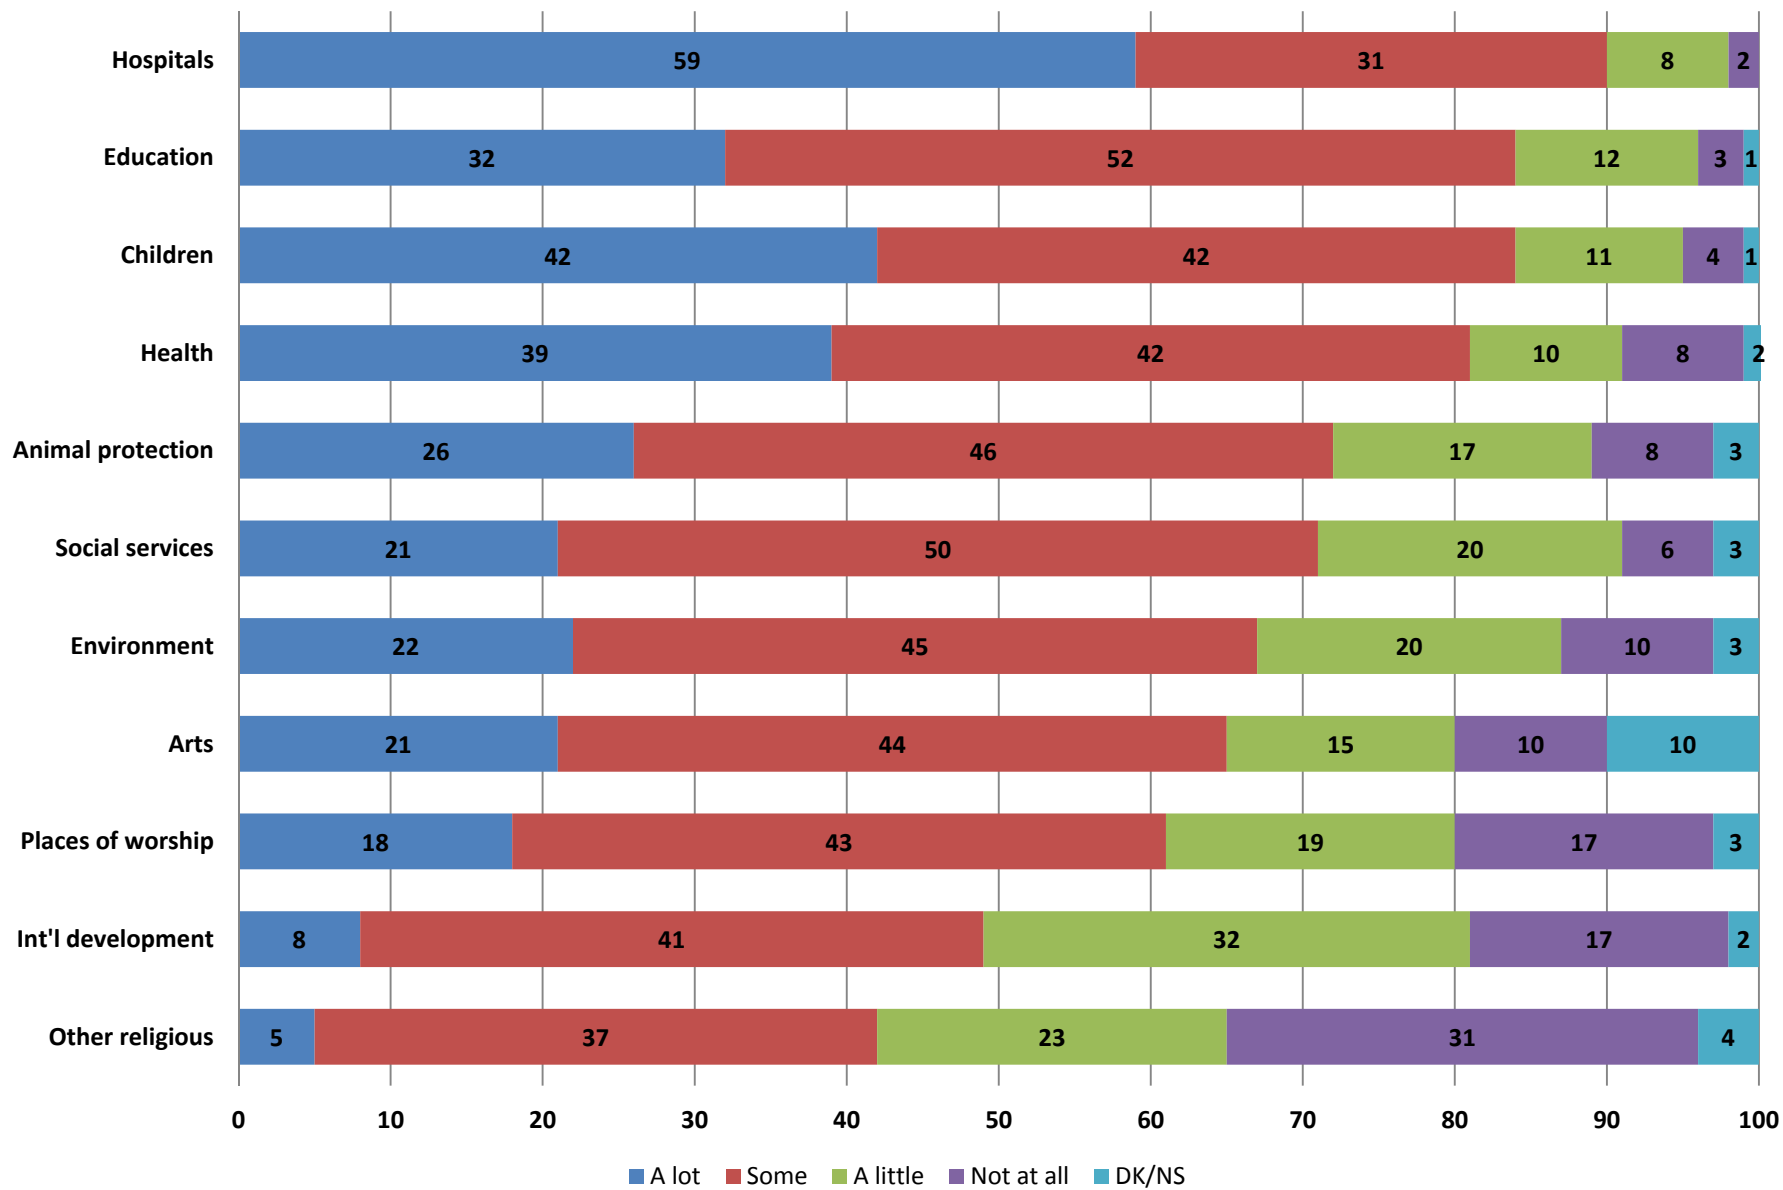

Trust by type of charity - Ages 18-24

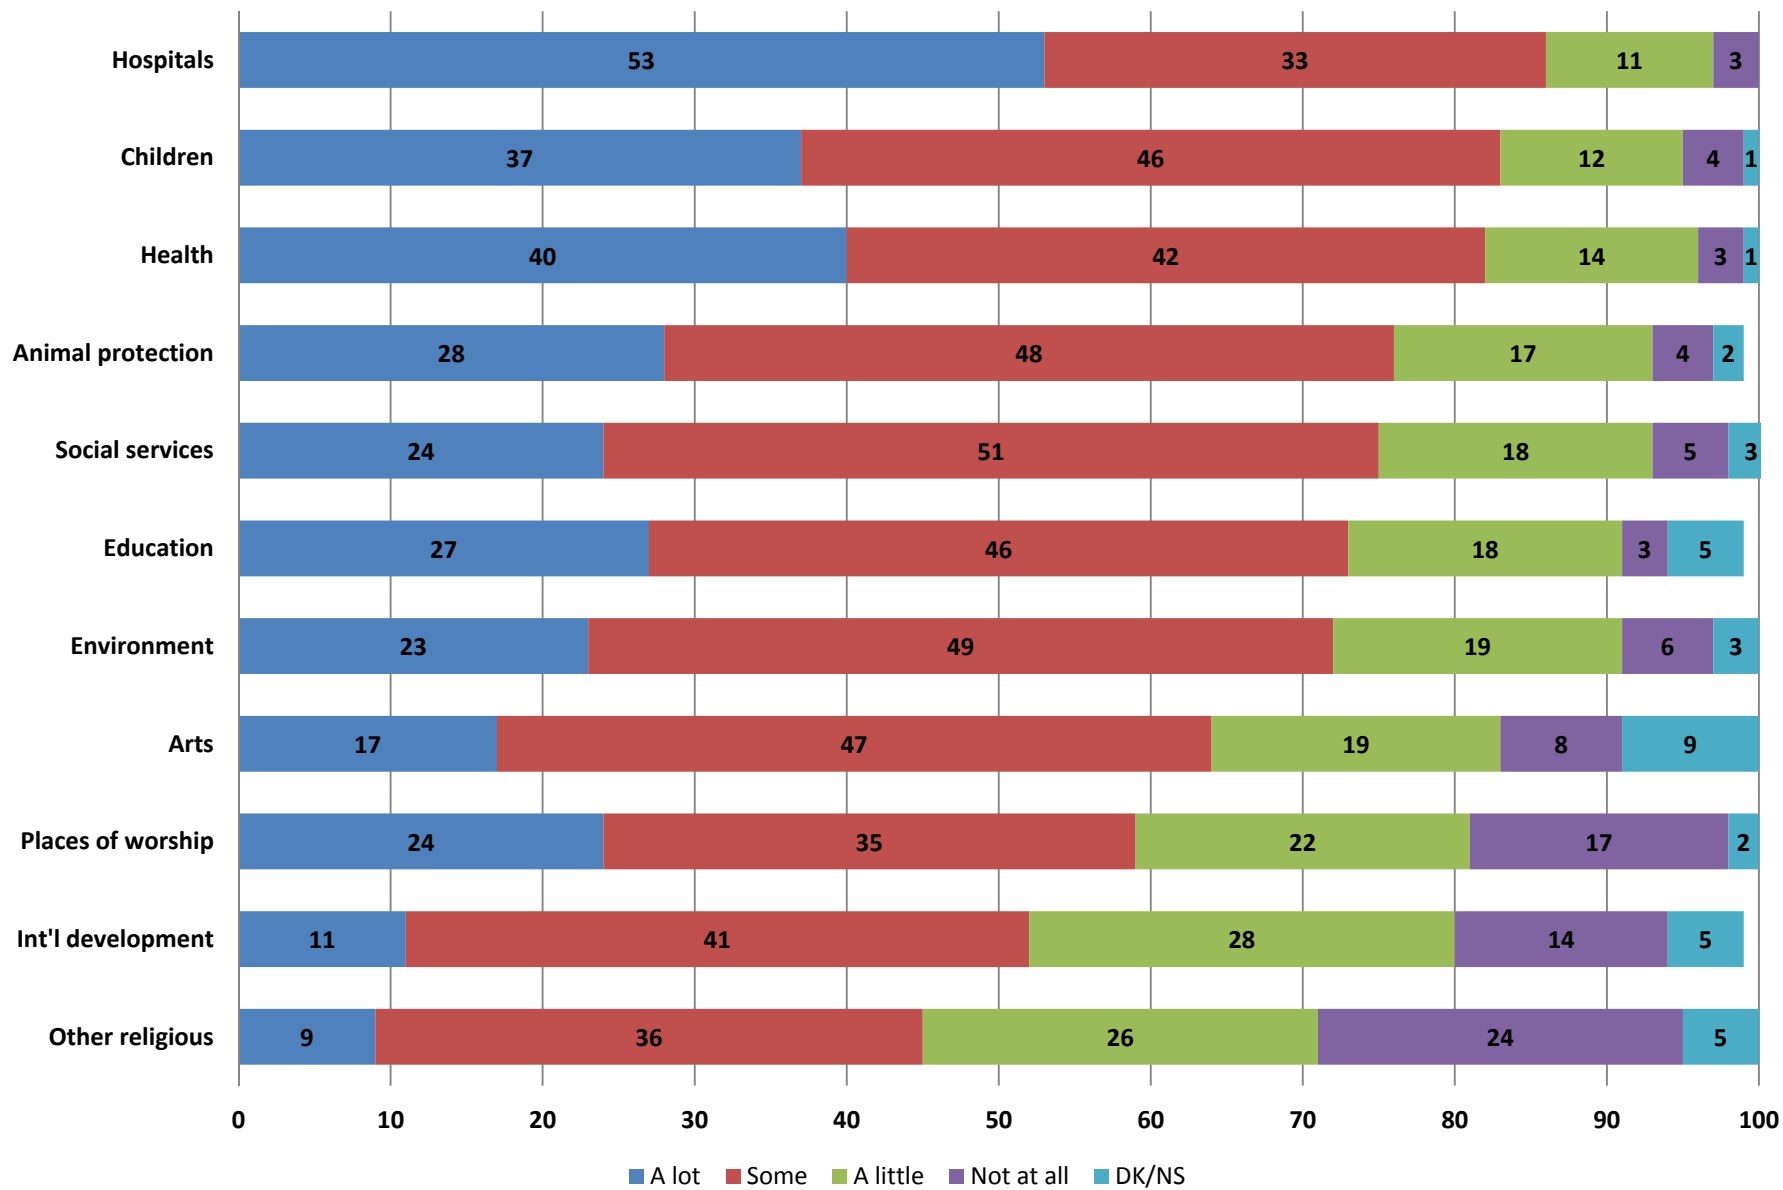

Trust by type of charity - ages 25-34

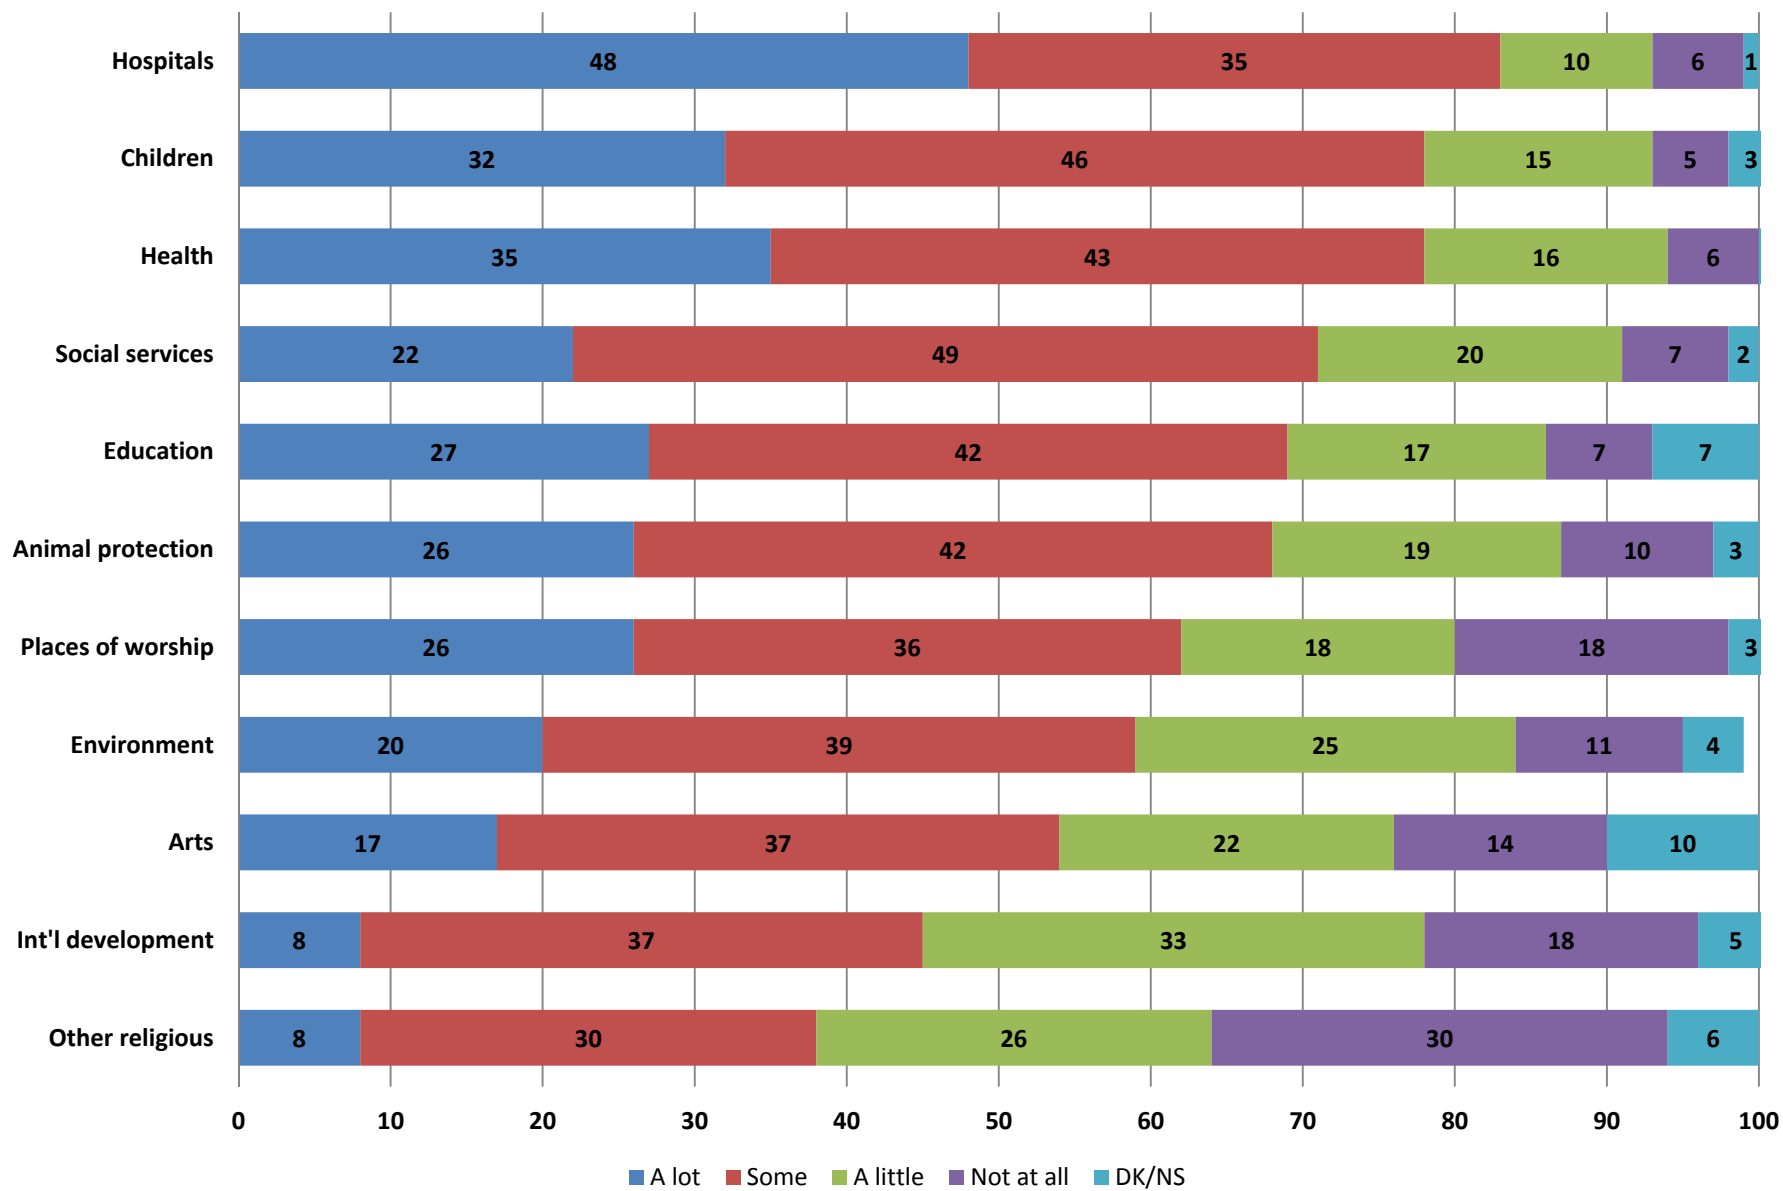

Trust by type of charity - ages 35-44

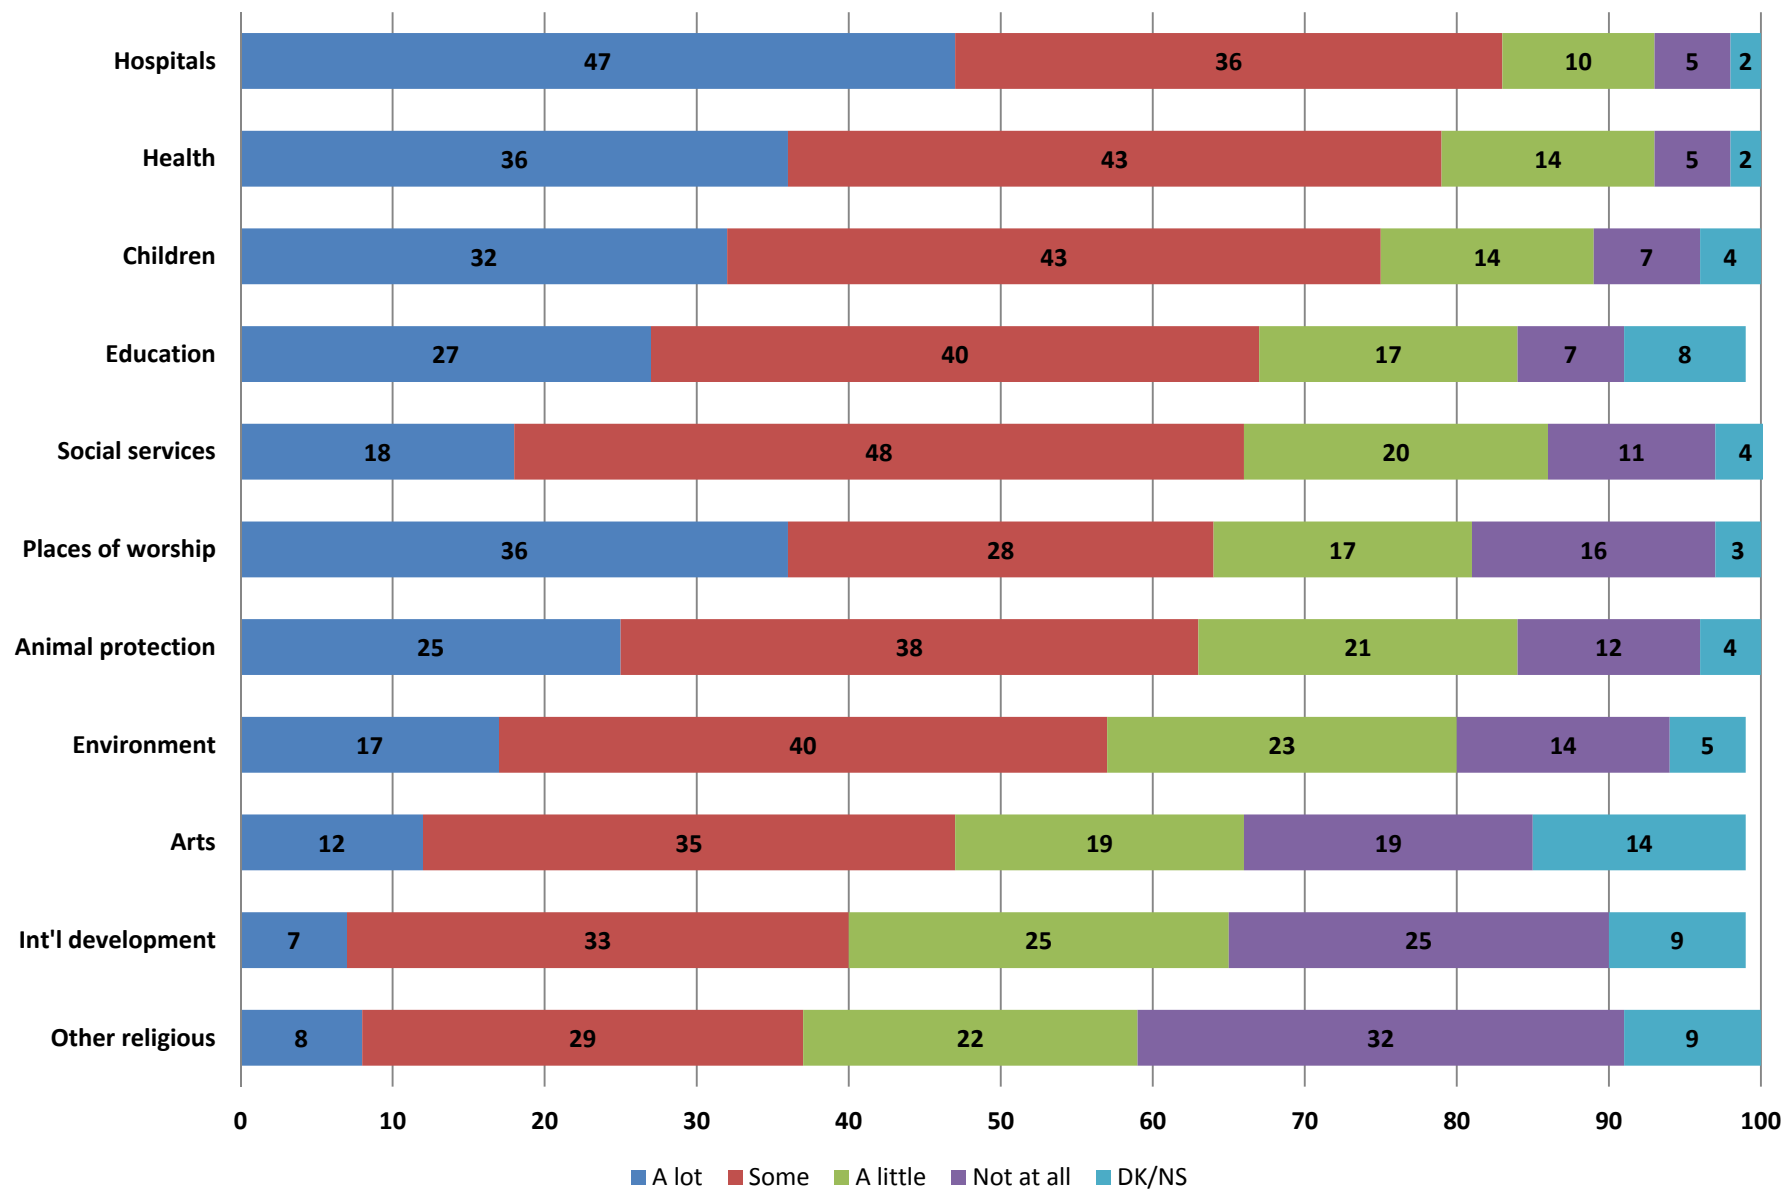

Trust by type of charity - ages 45-54

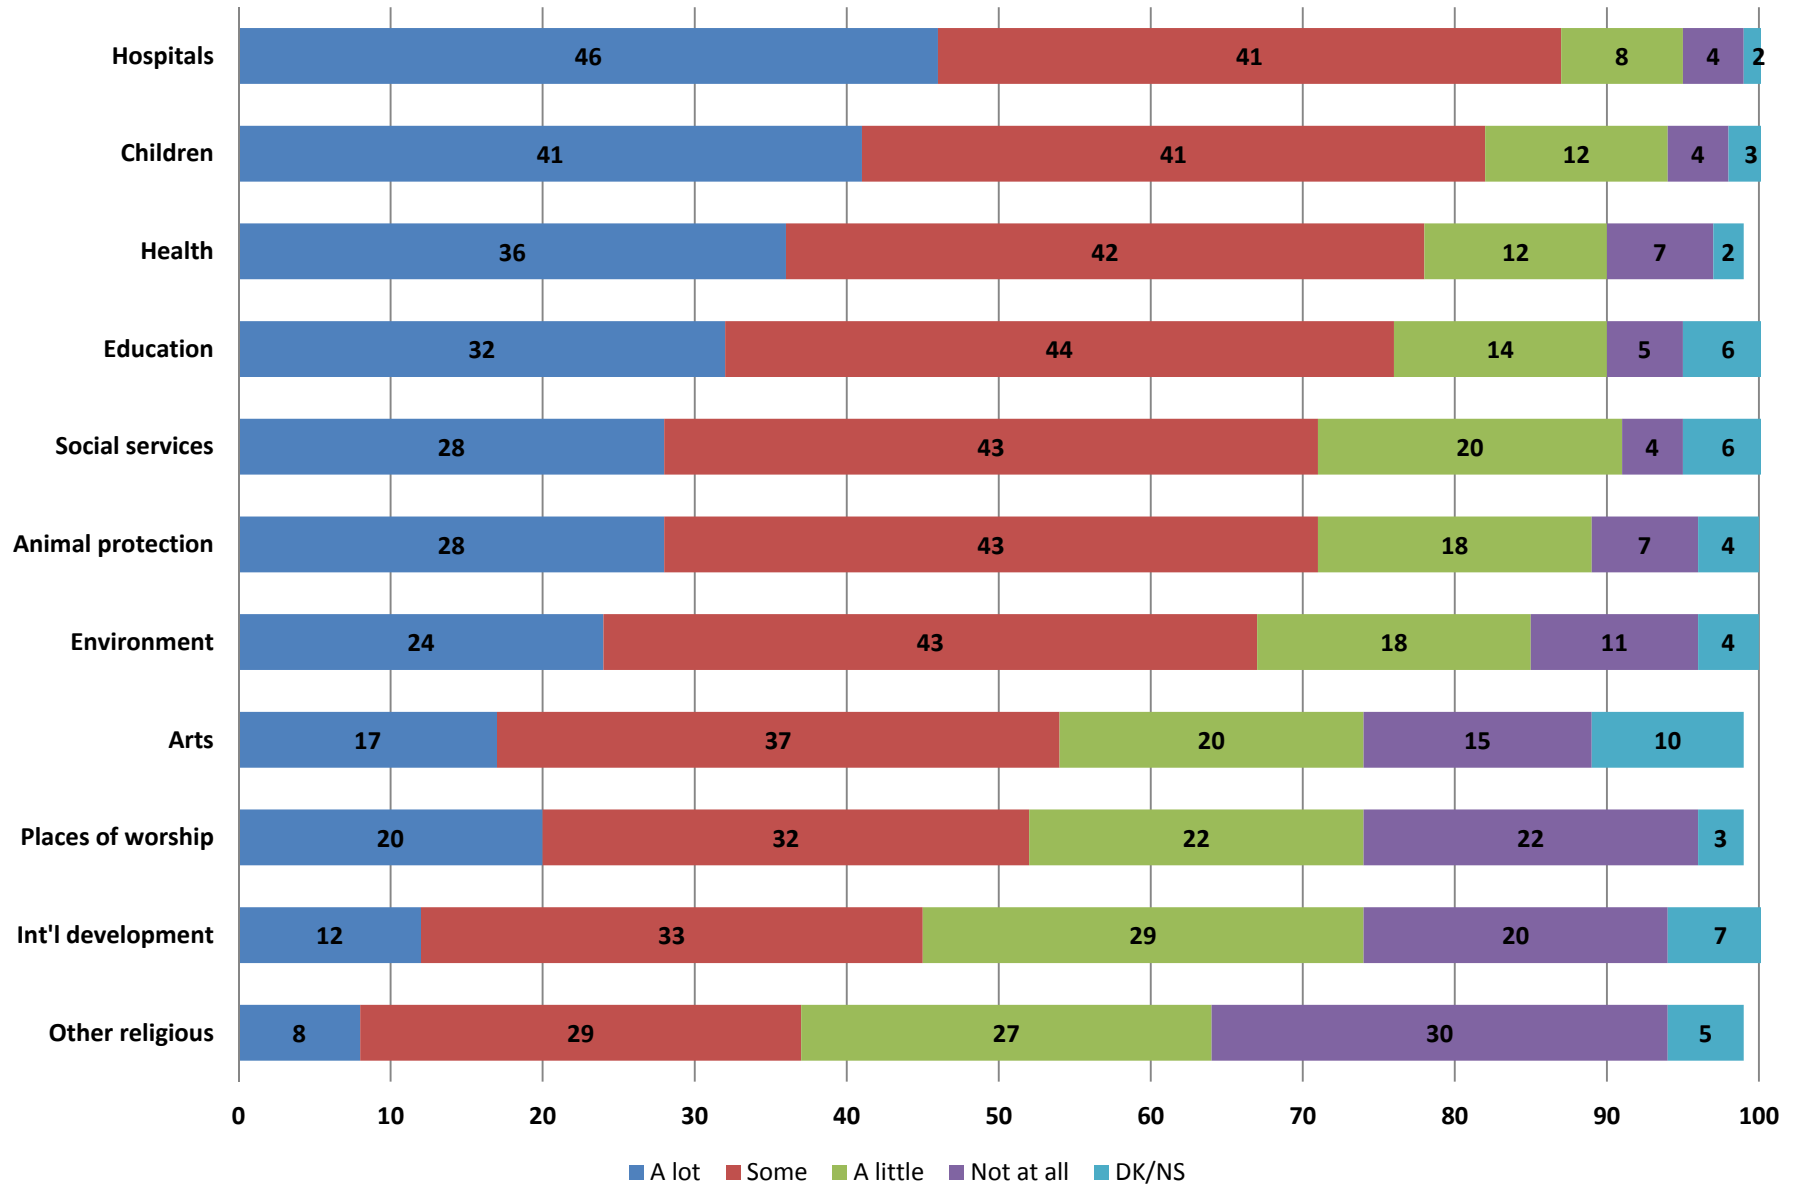

Trust by type of charity - ages 55-64

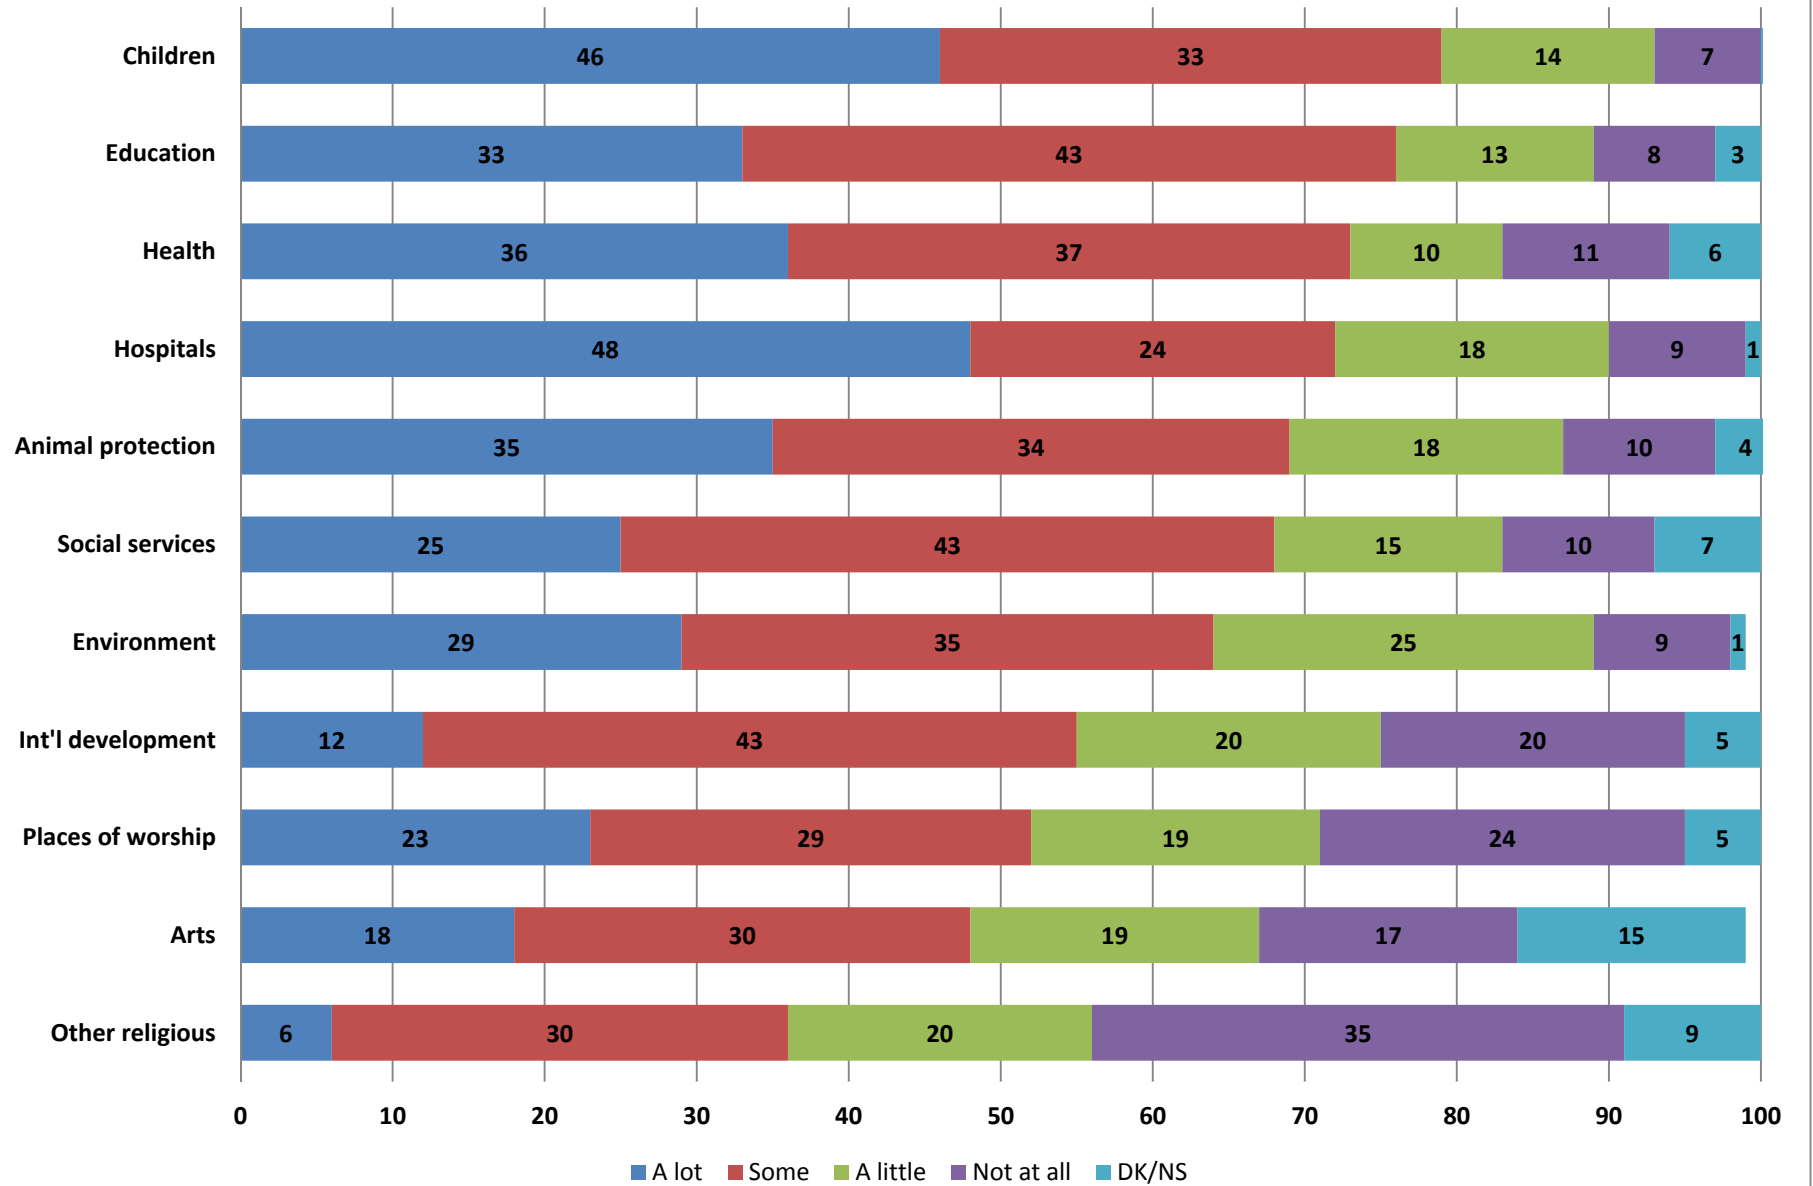

Trust by type of charity - ages 65 and older

Trust by type of charity - income $20,000 to $49,999

Trust by type of charity - income less than $20,000

Trust by type of charity - income $50,000 to $74,999

Trust by type of charity - income $75,000 - $99,999

Trust by type of charity - income $100,000 to $149,999

Trust by type of charity - income $150,000 or higher

Trust in animal protection charities

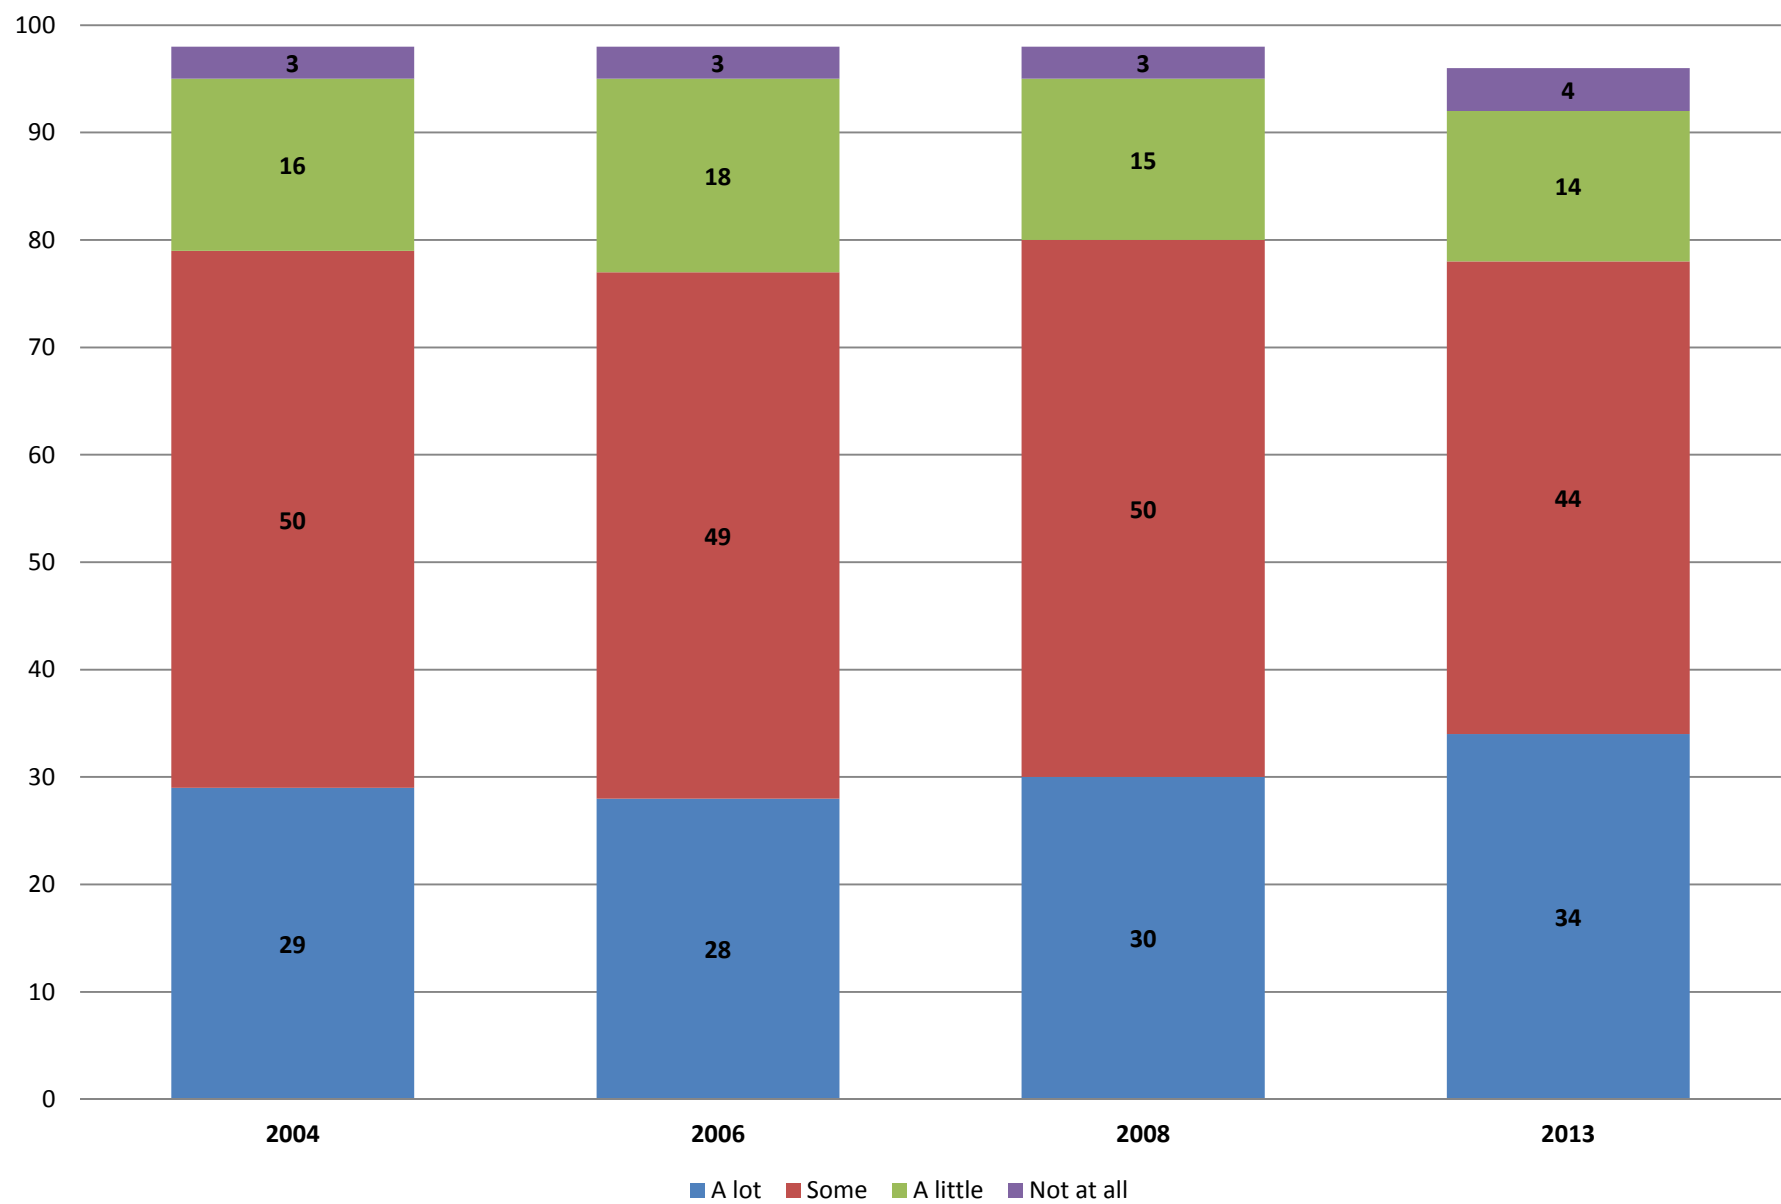

Trust in arts charities

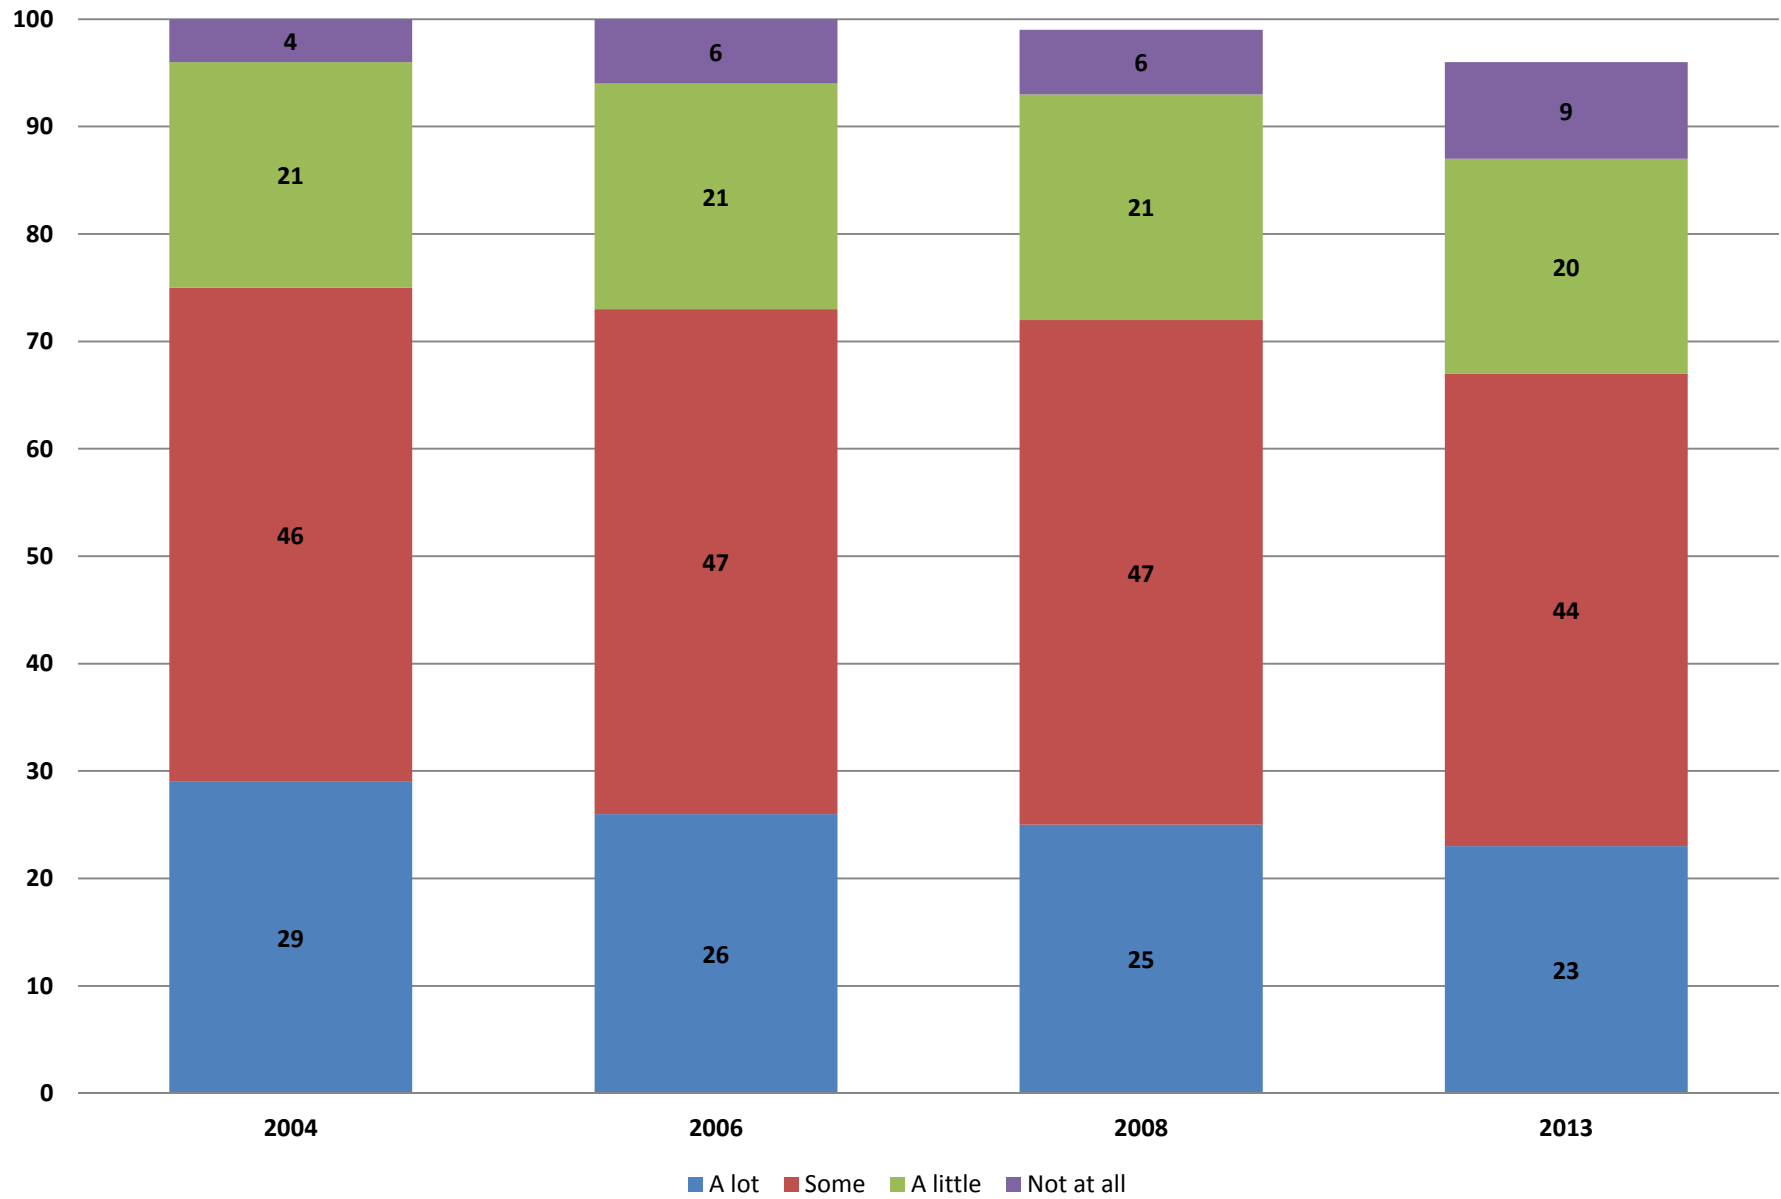

Trust in children's charities

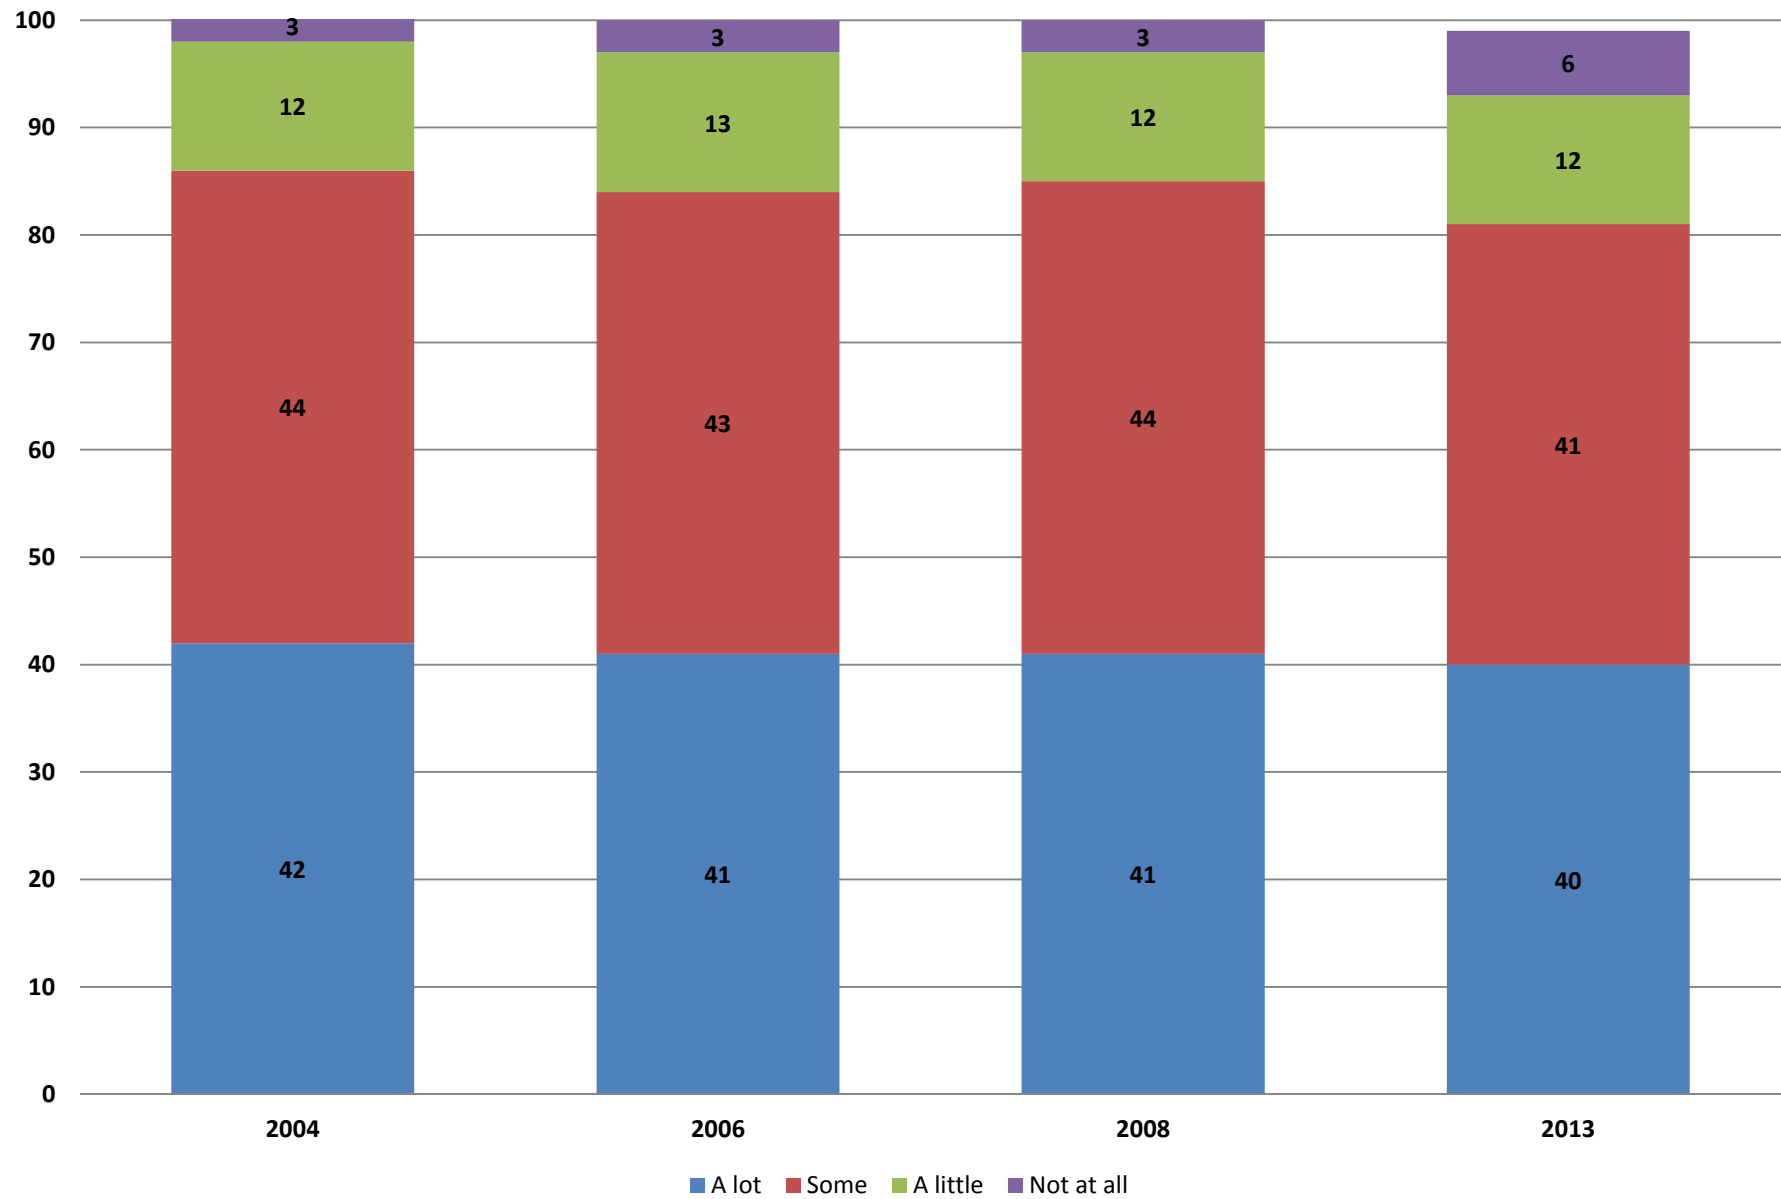

Trust in education charities

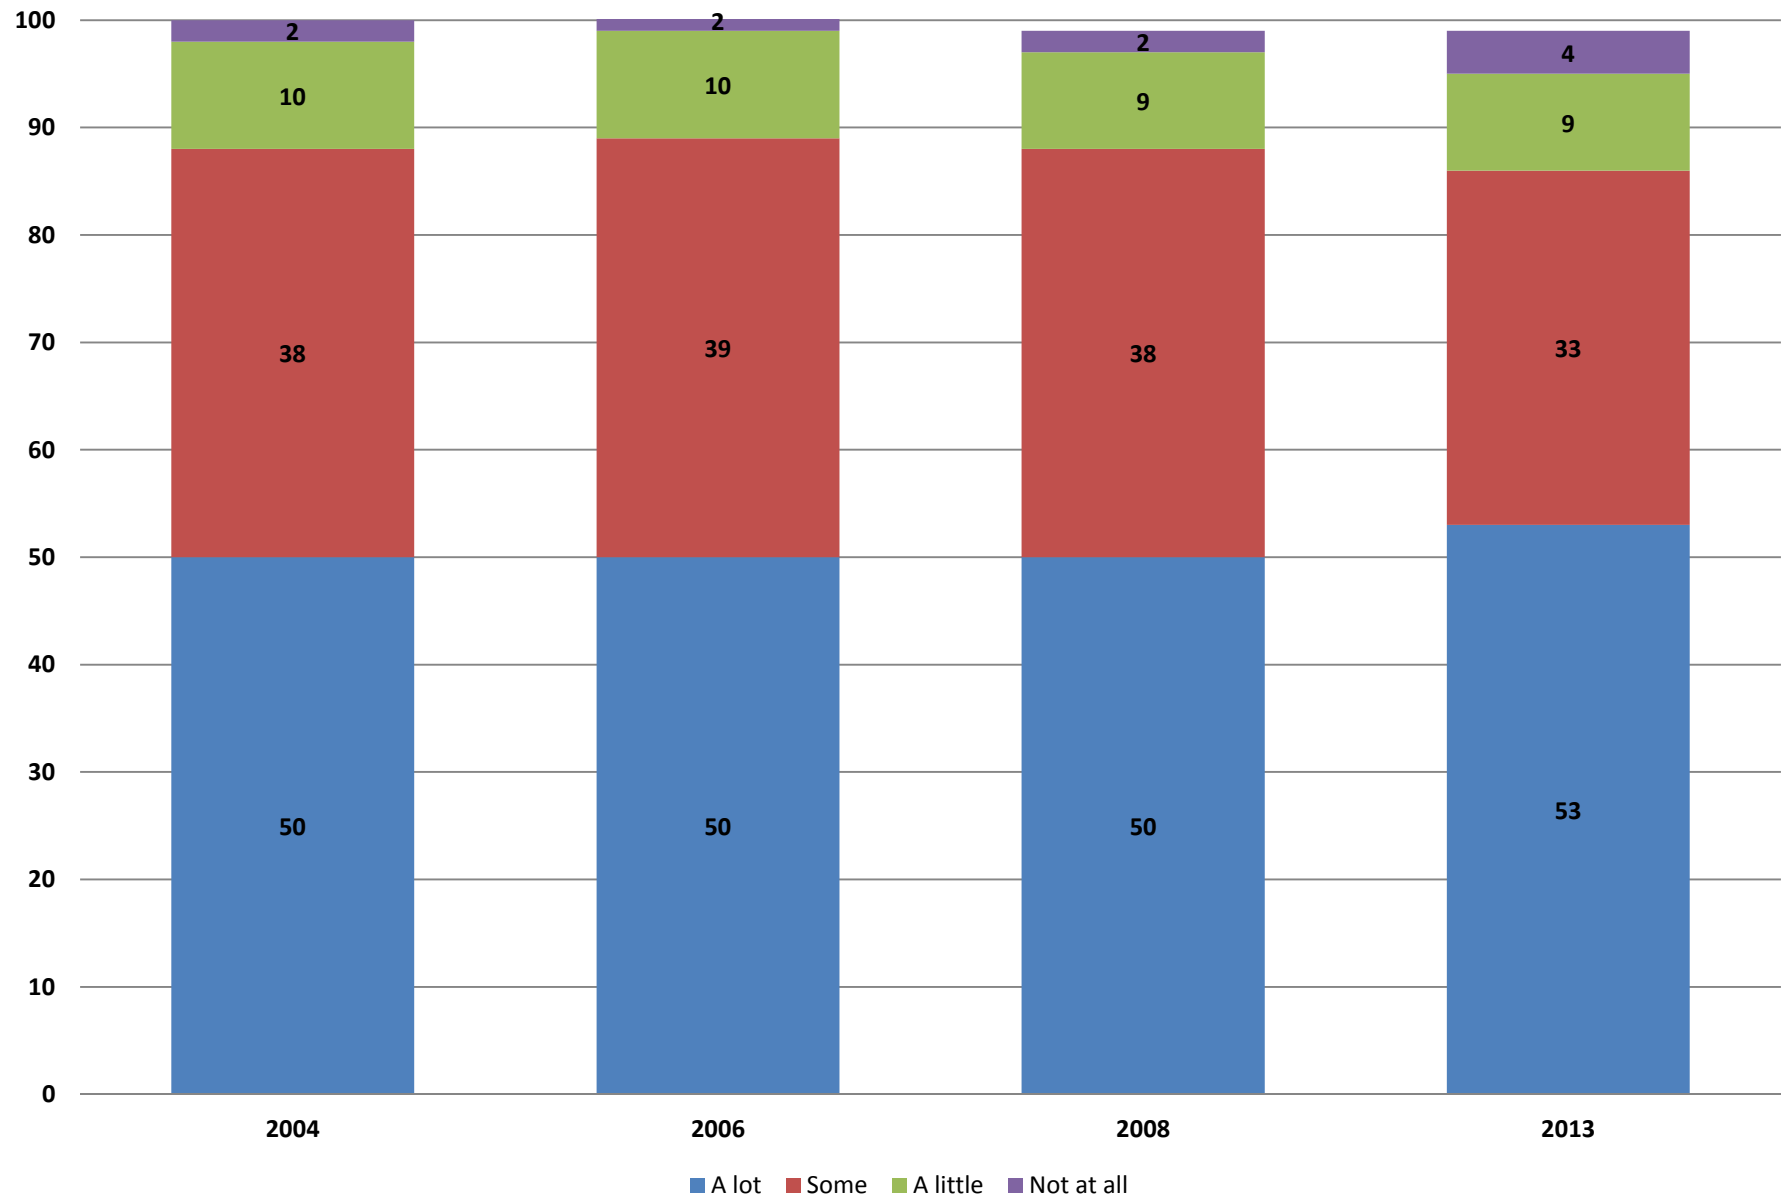

Trust in environmental charities

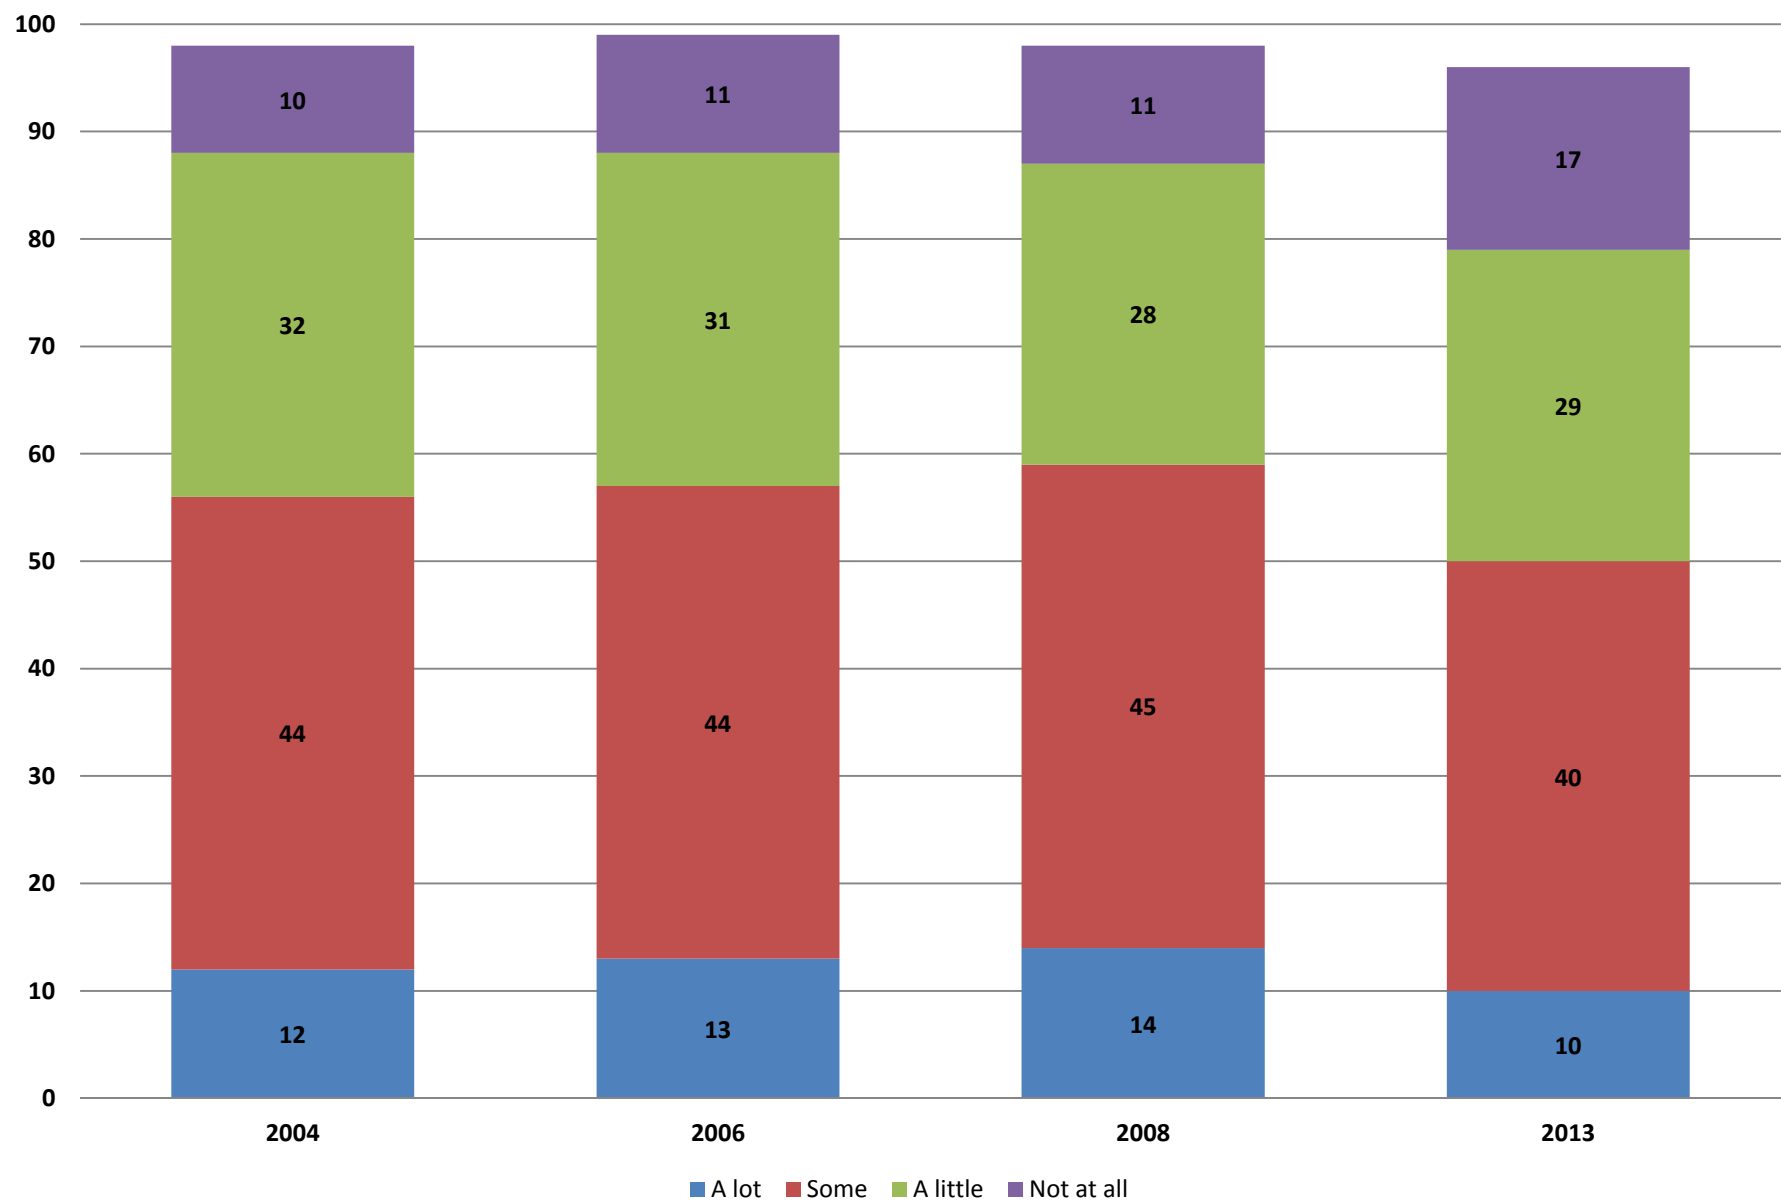

Trust in health charities

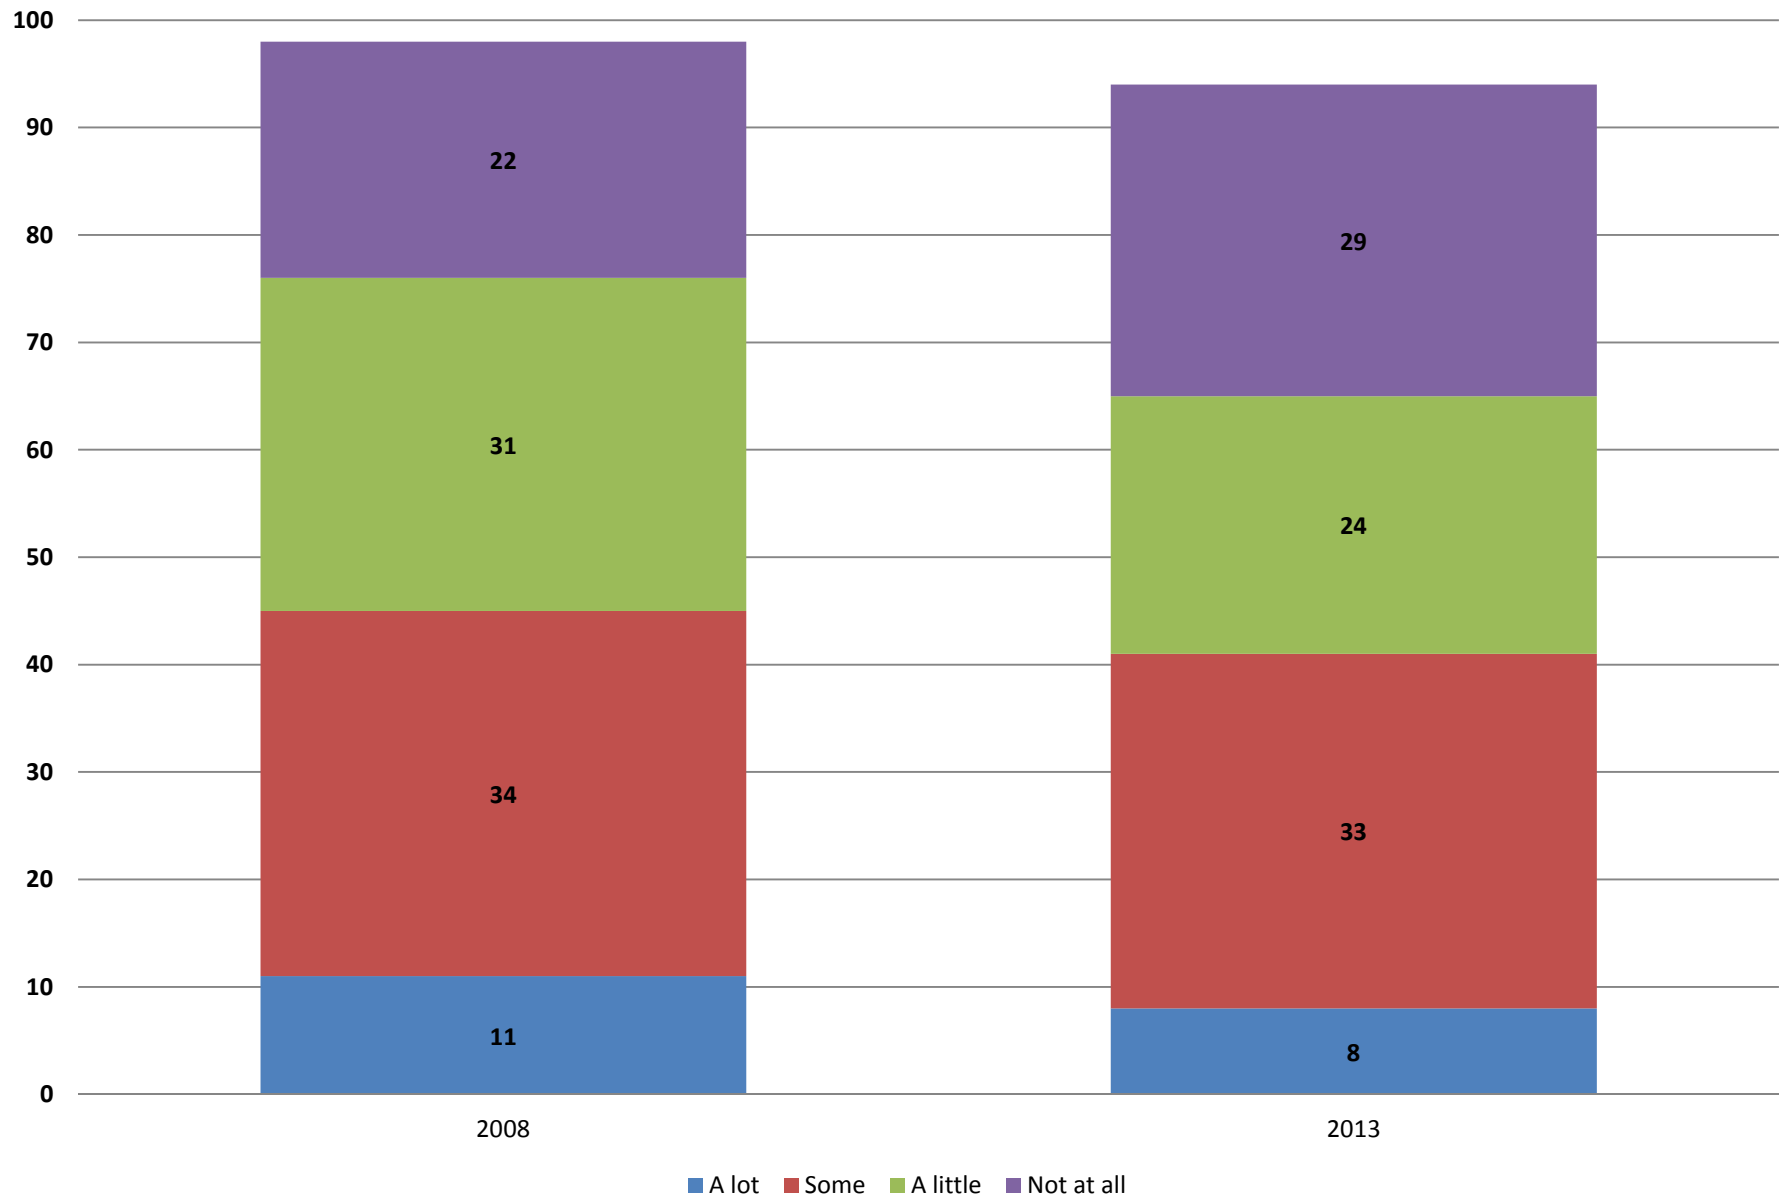

Trust in hospitals

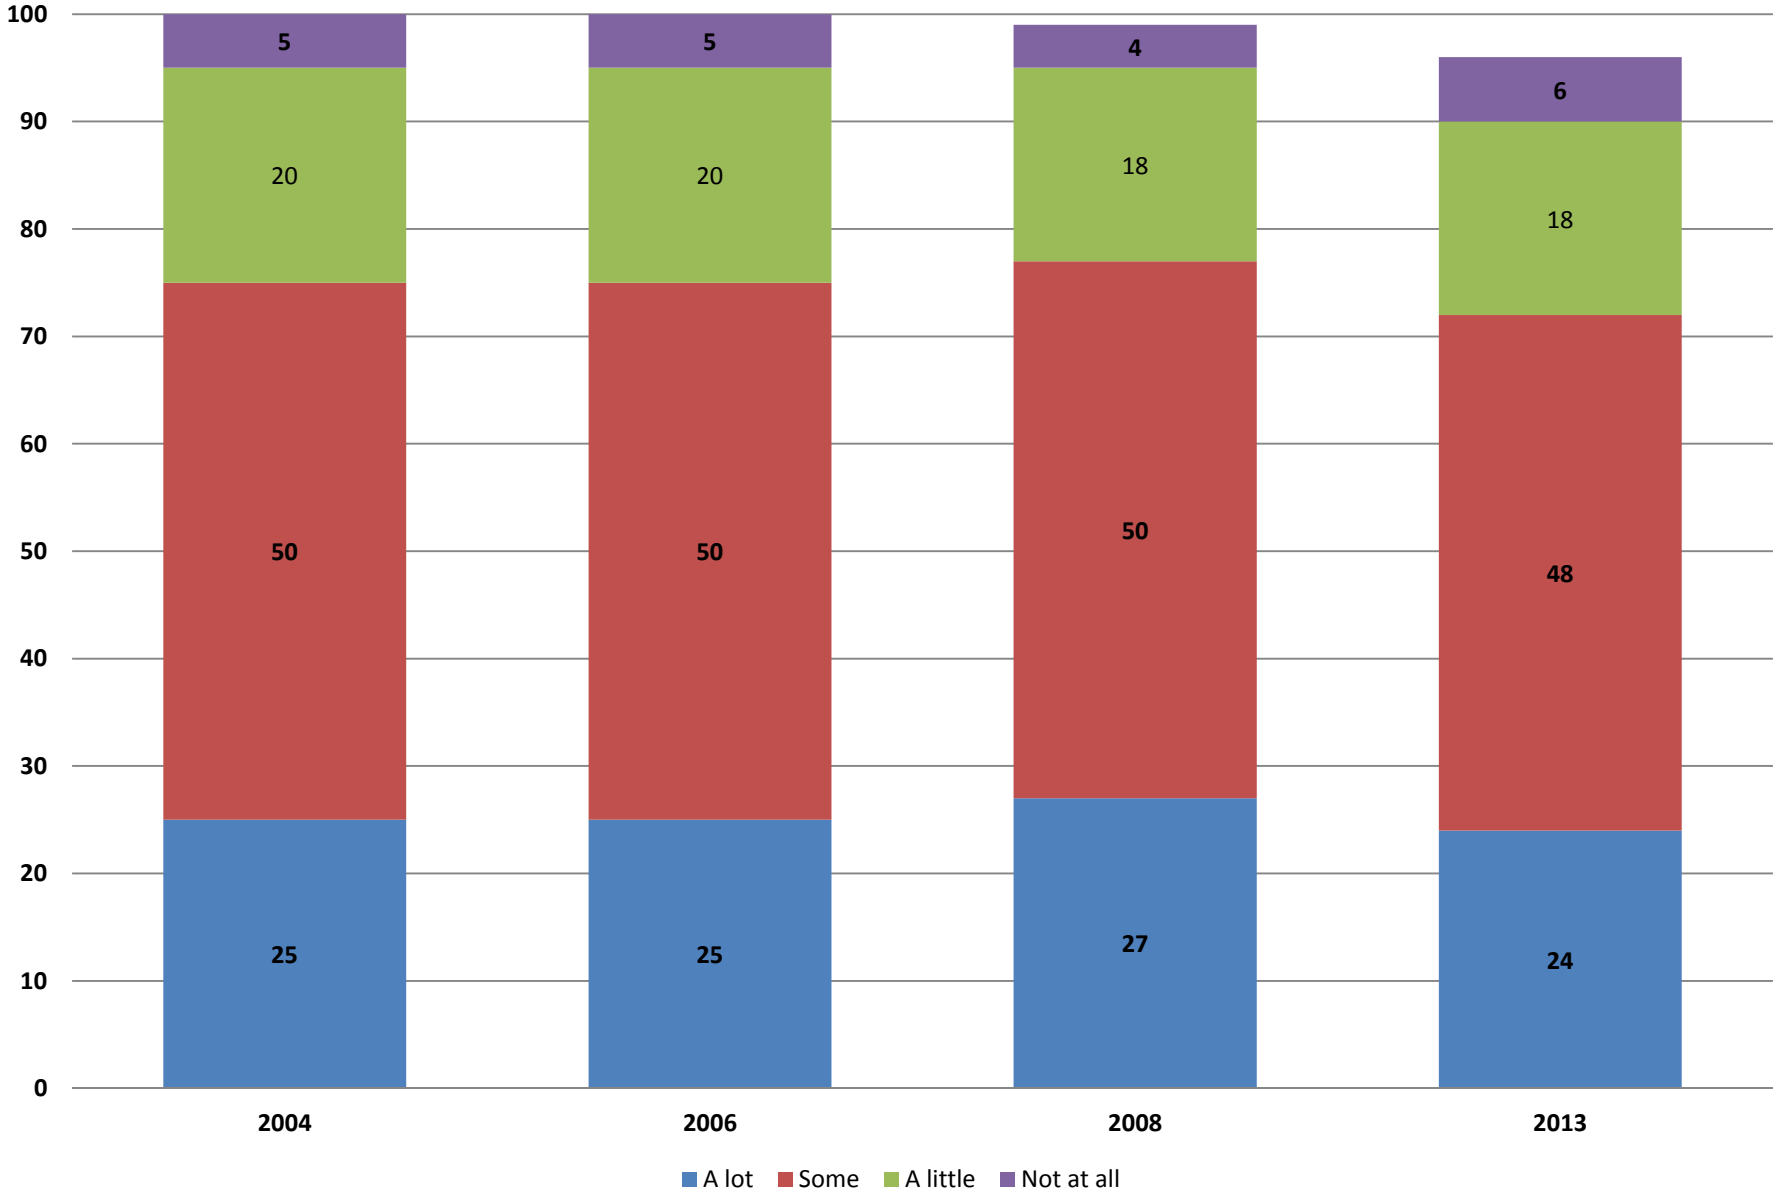

Trust in international development charities

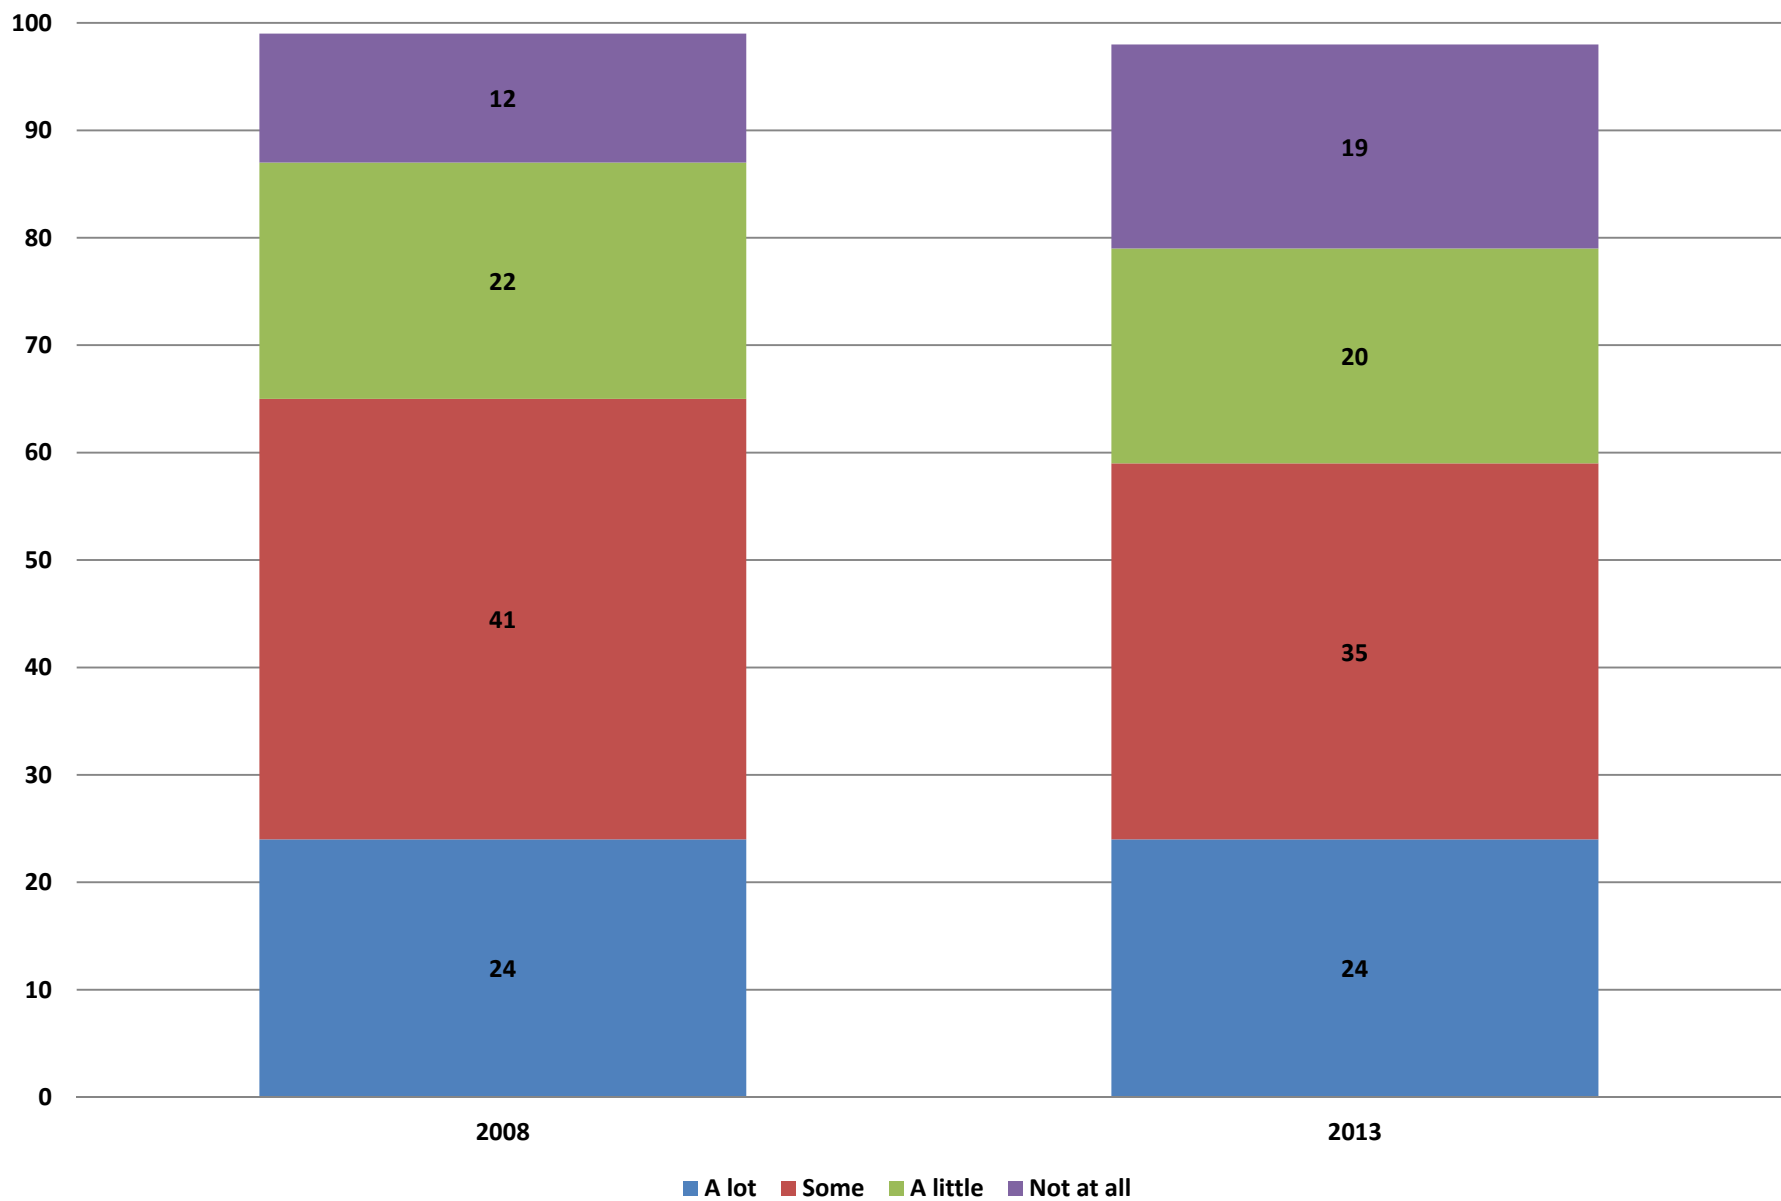

Trust in religious organizations other than places of worship

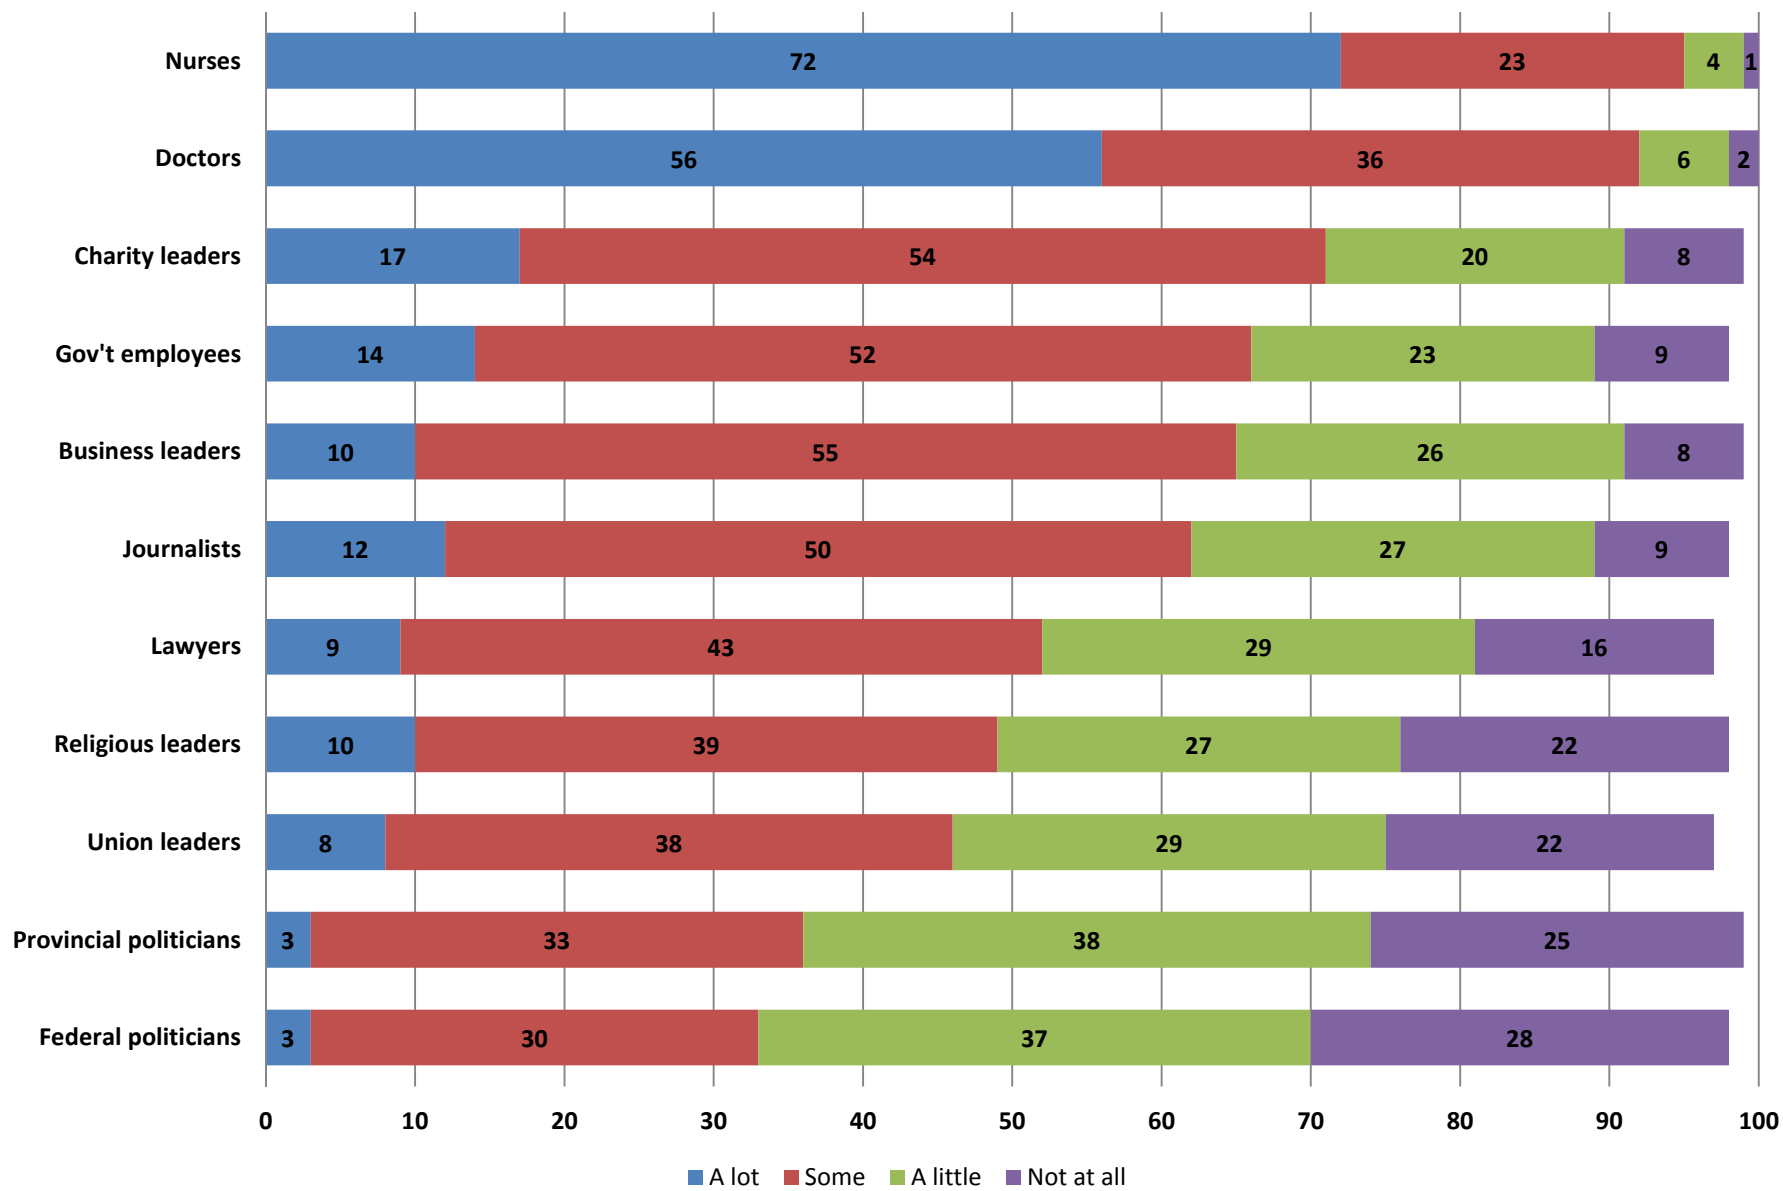

Trust in social-service charities

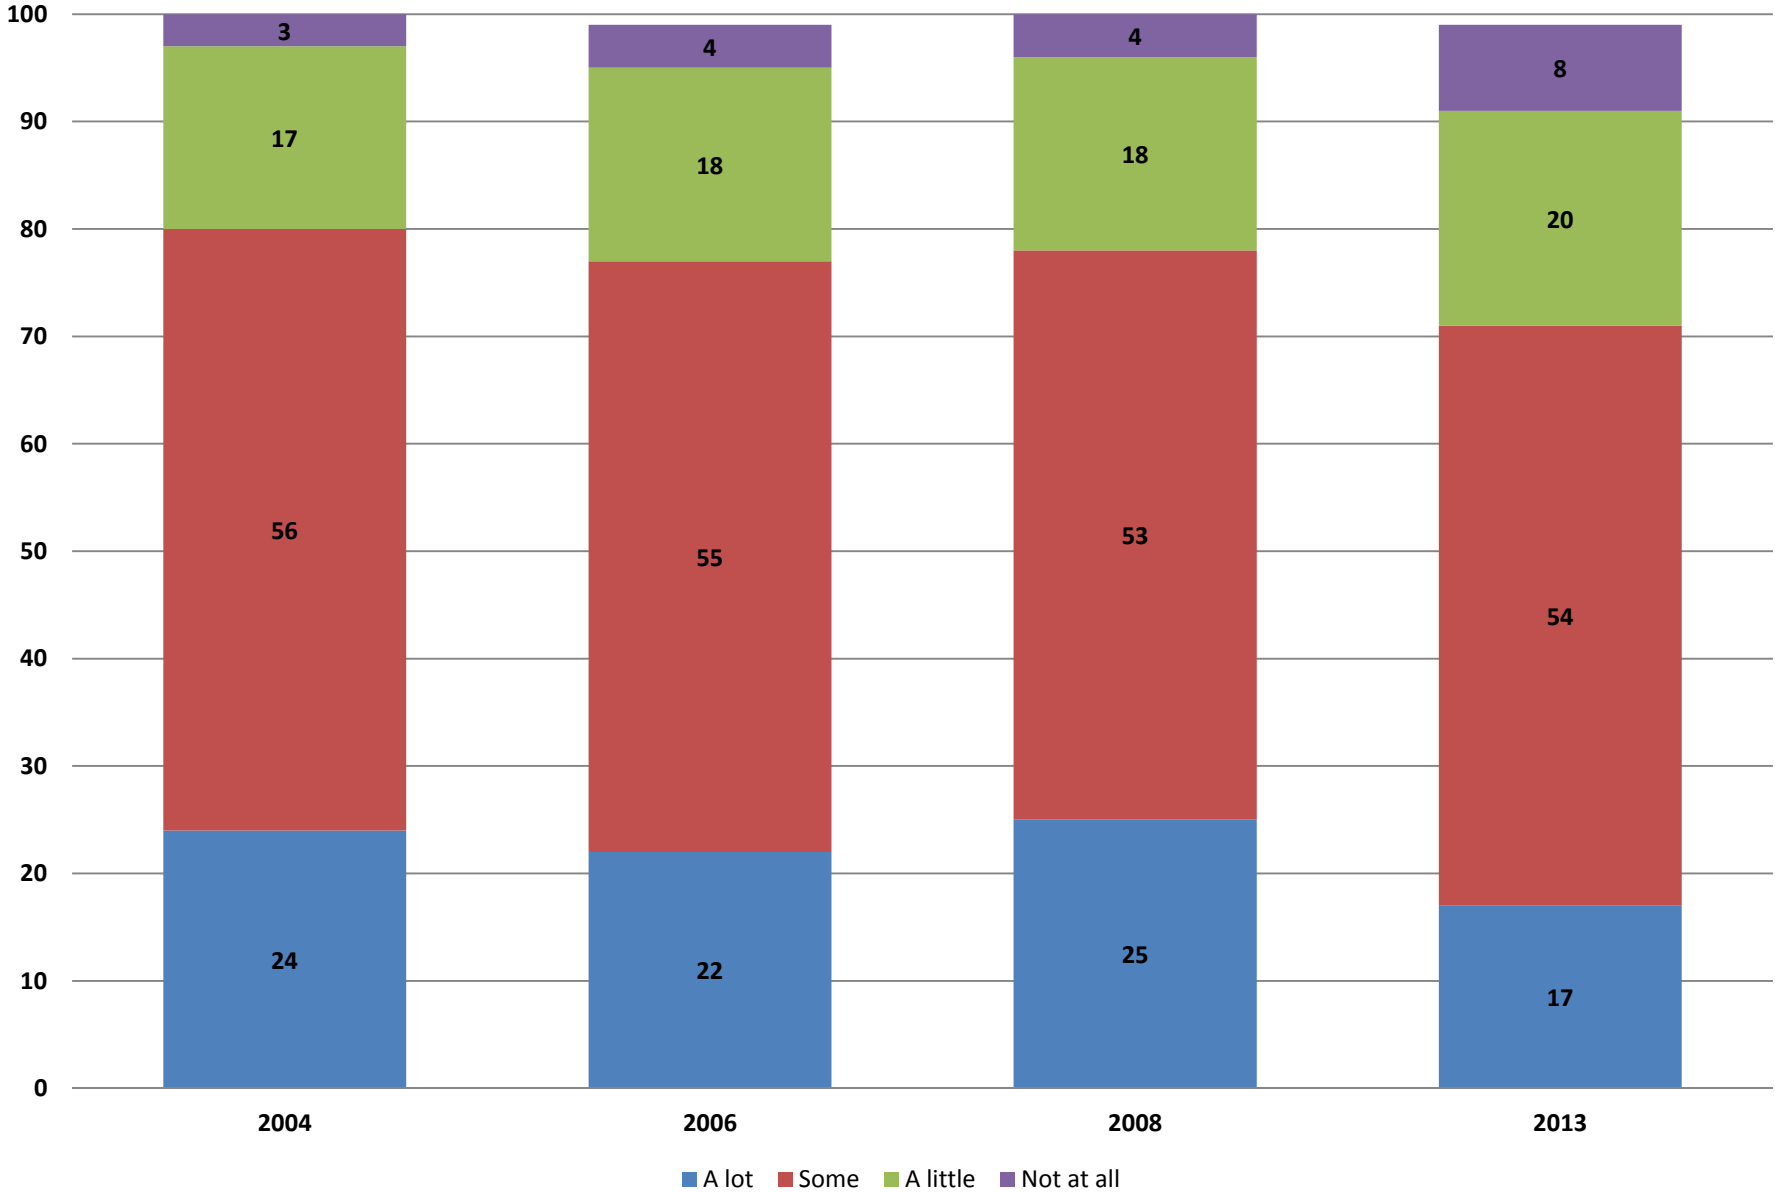

Trust in churches and places of worship

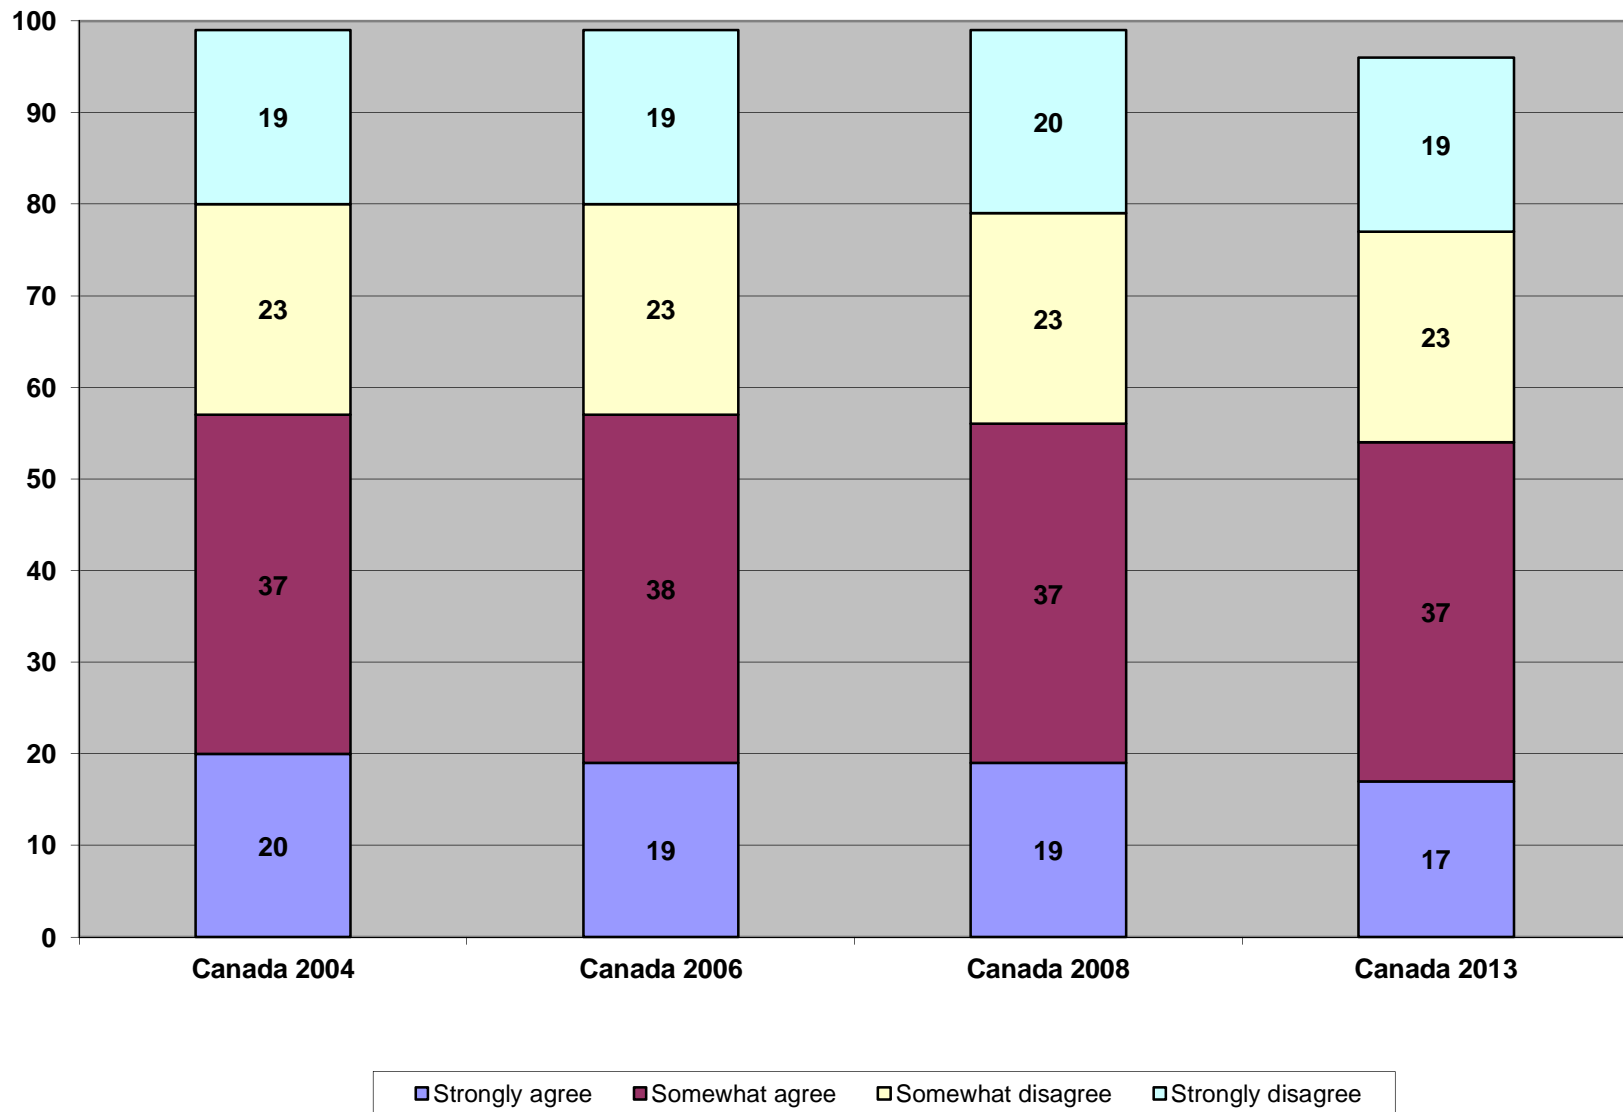

Trust in professions - Canada

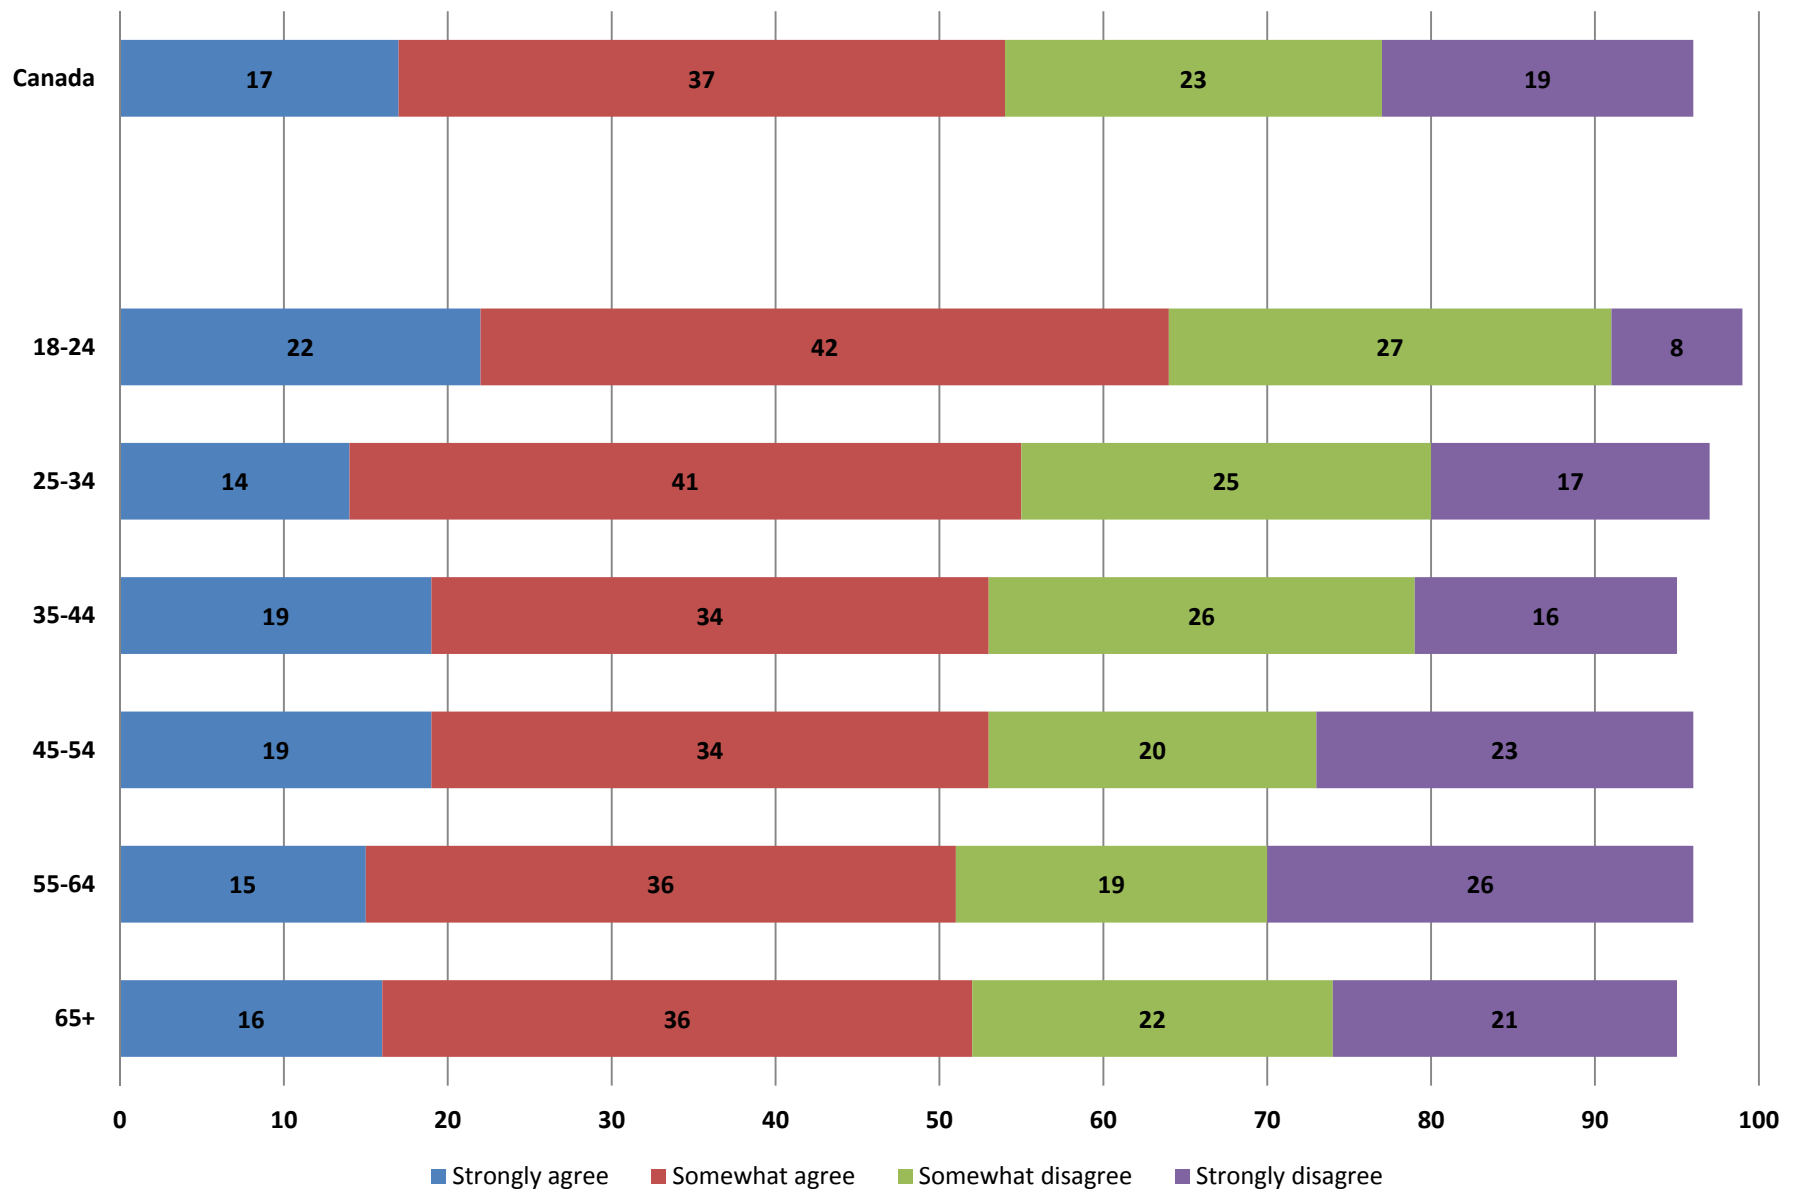

Trust in charity leaders over time

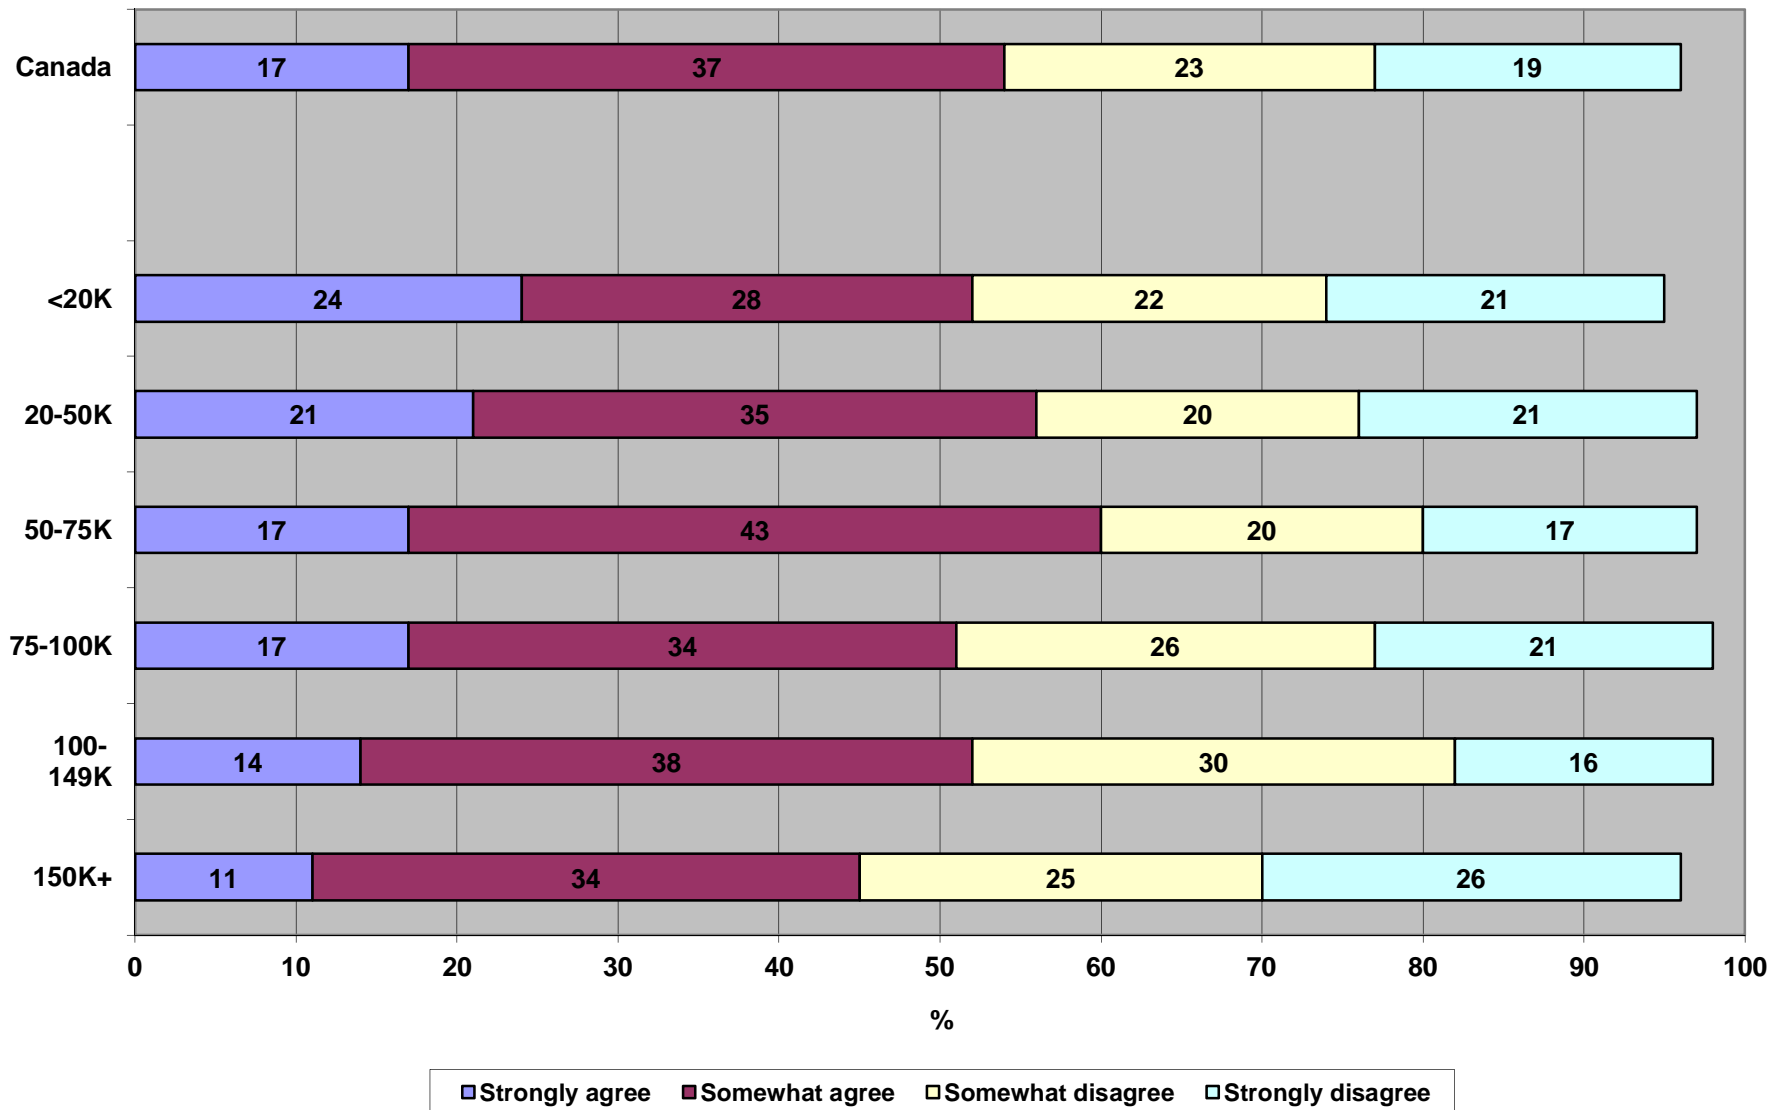

Charities should be expected to deliver defunded programs

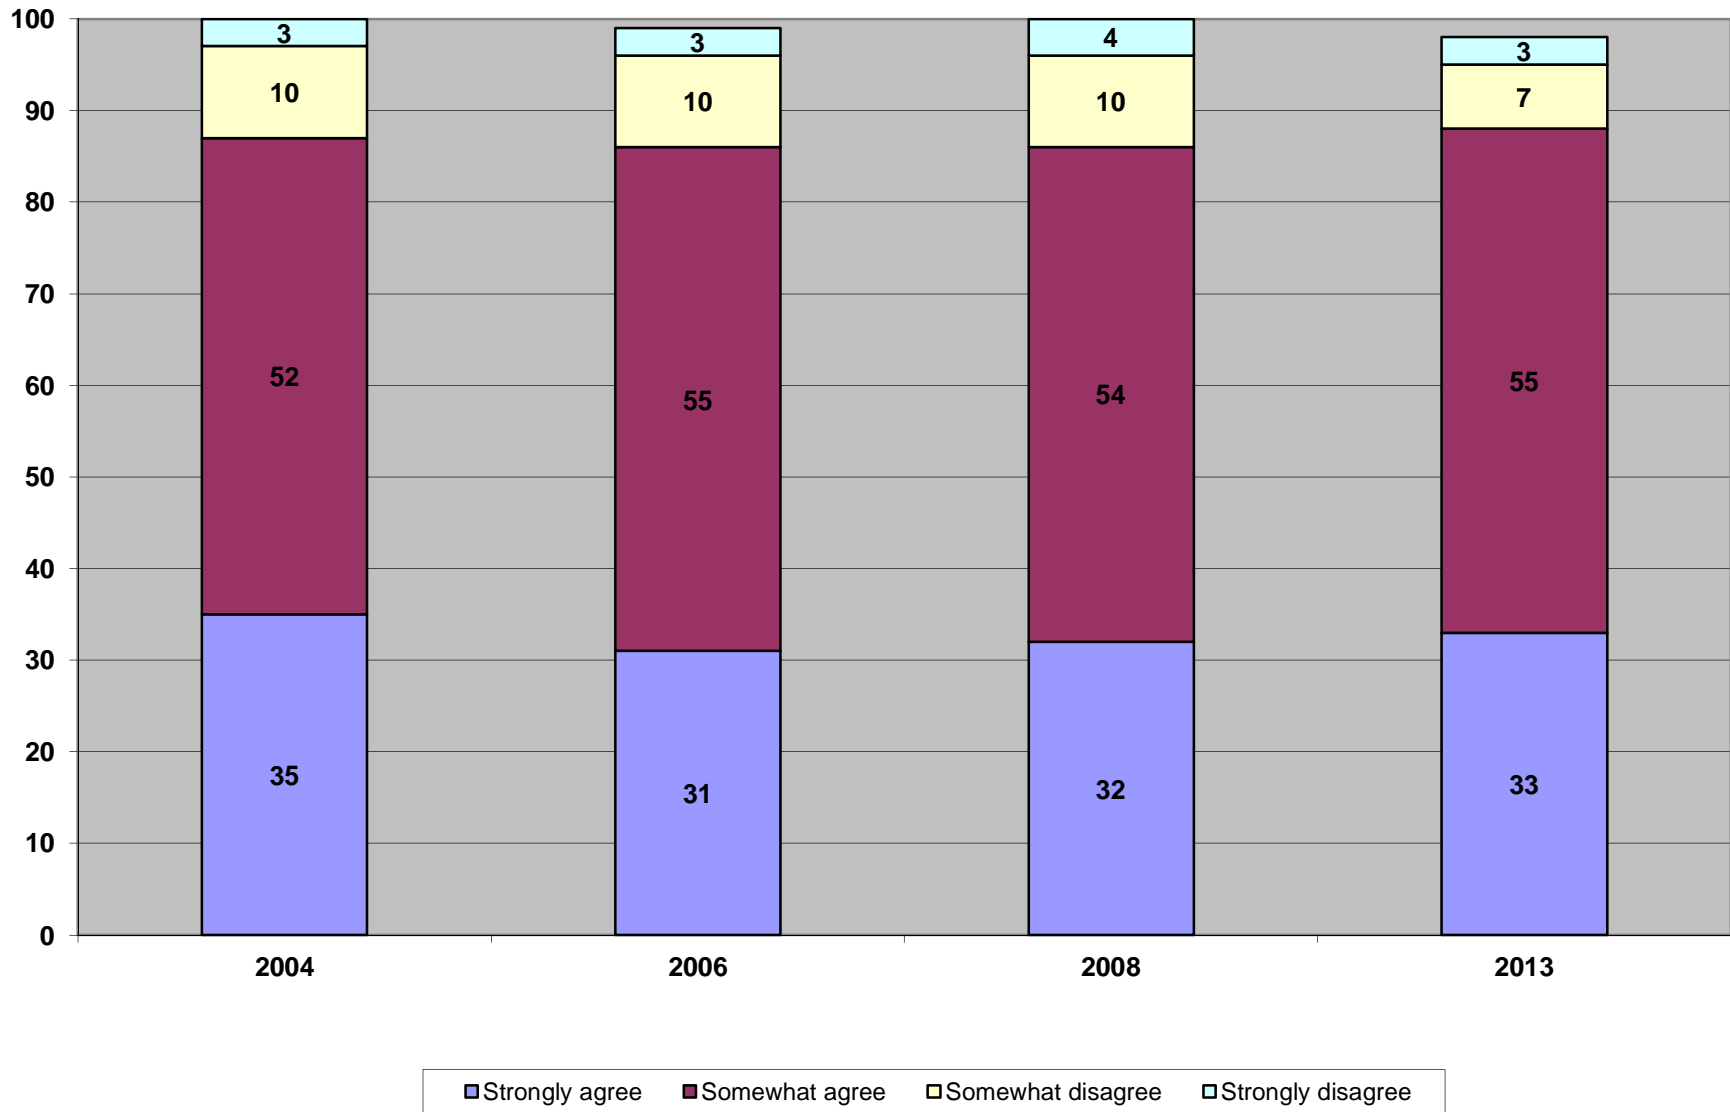

Charities should be expected to deliver defunded programs (by age)

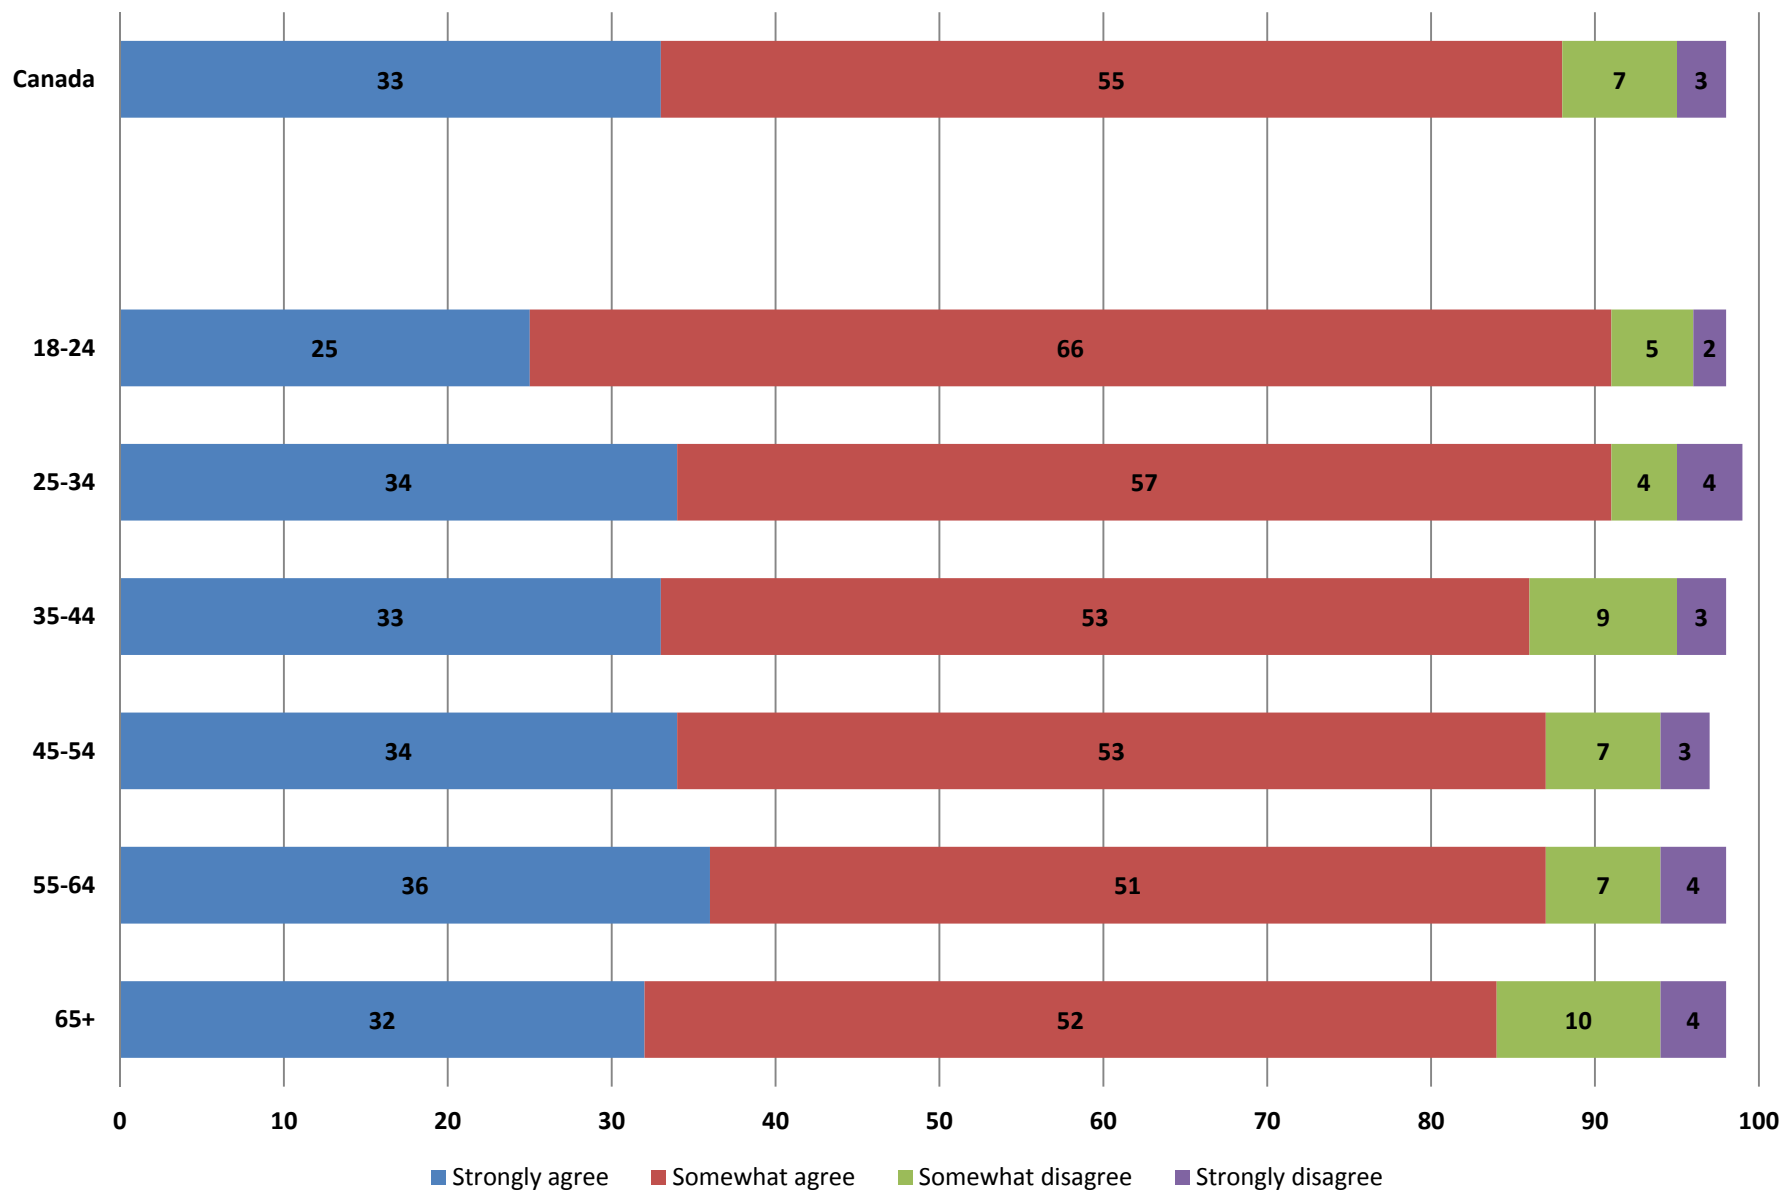

Charities should be expected to deliver defunded programs (by income)

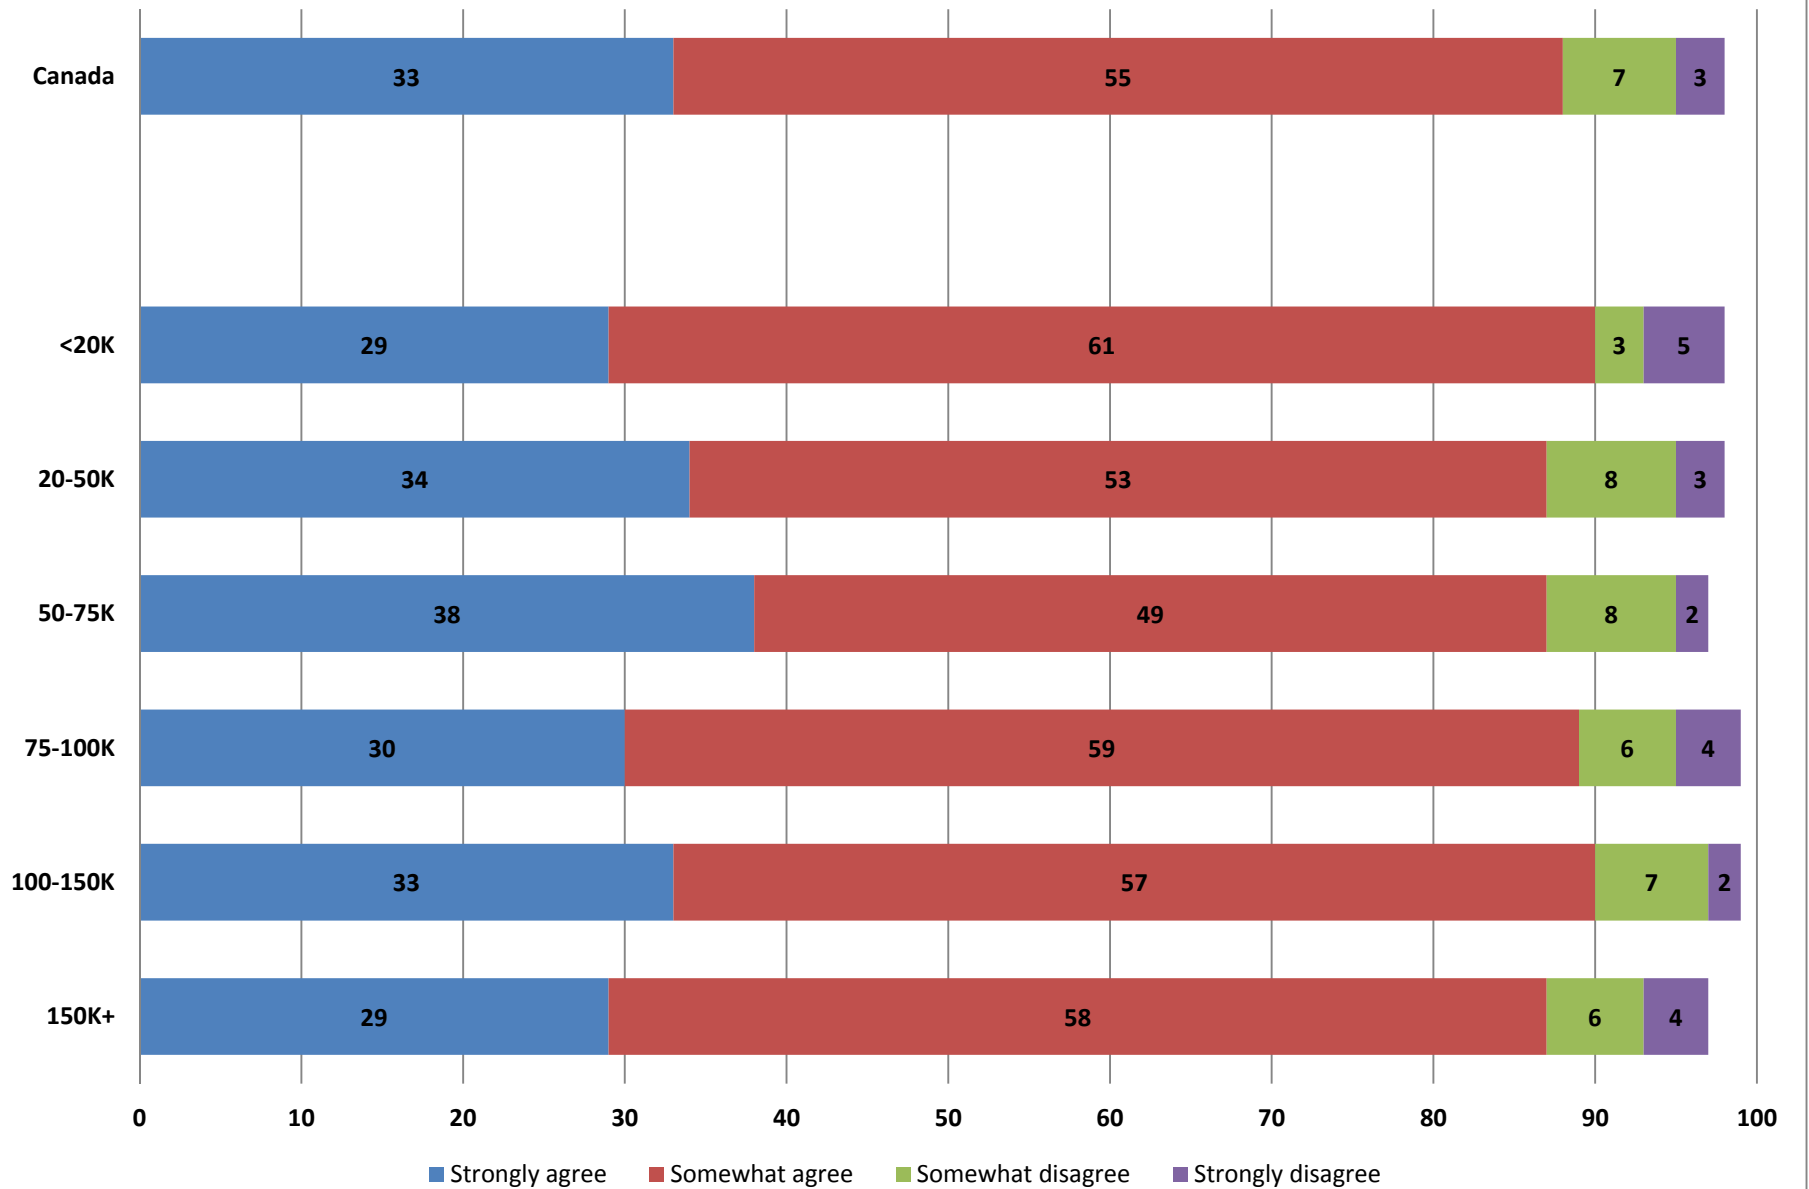

Charities generally improve our quality of life

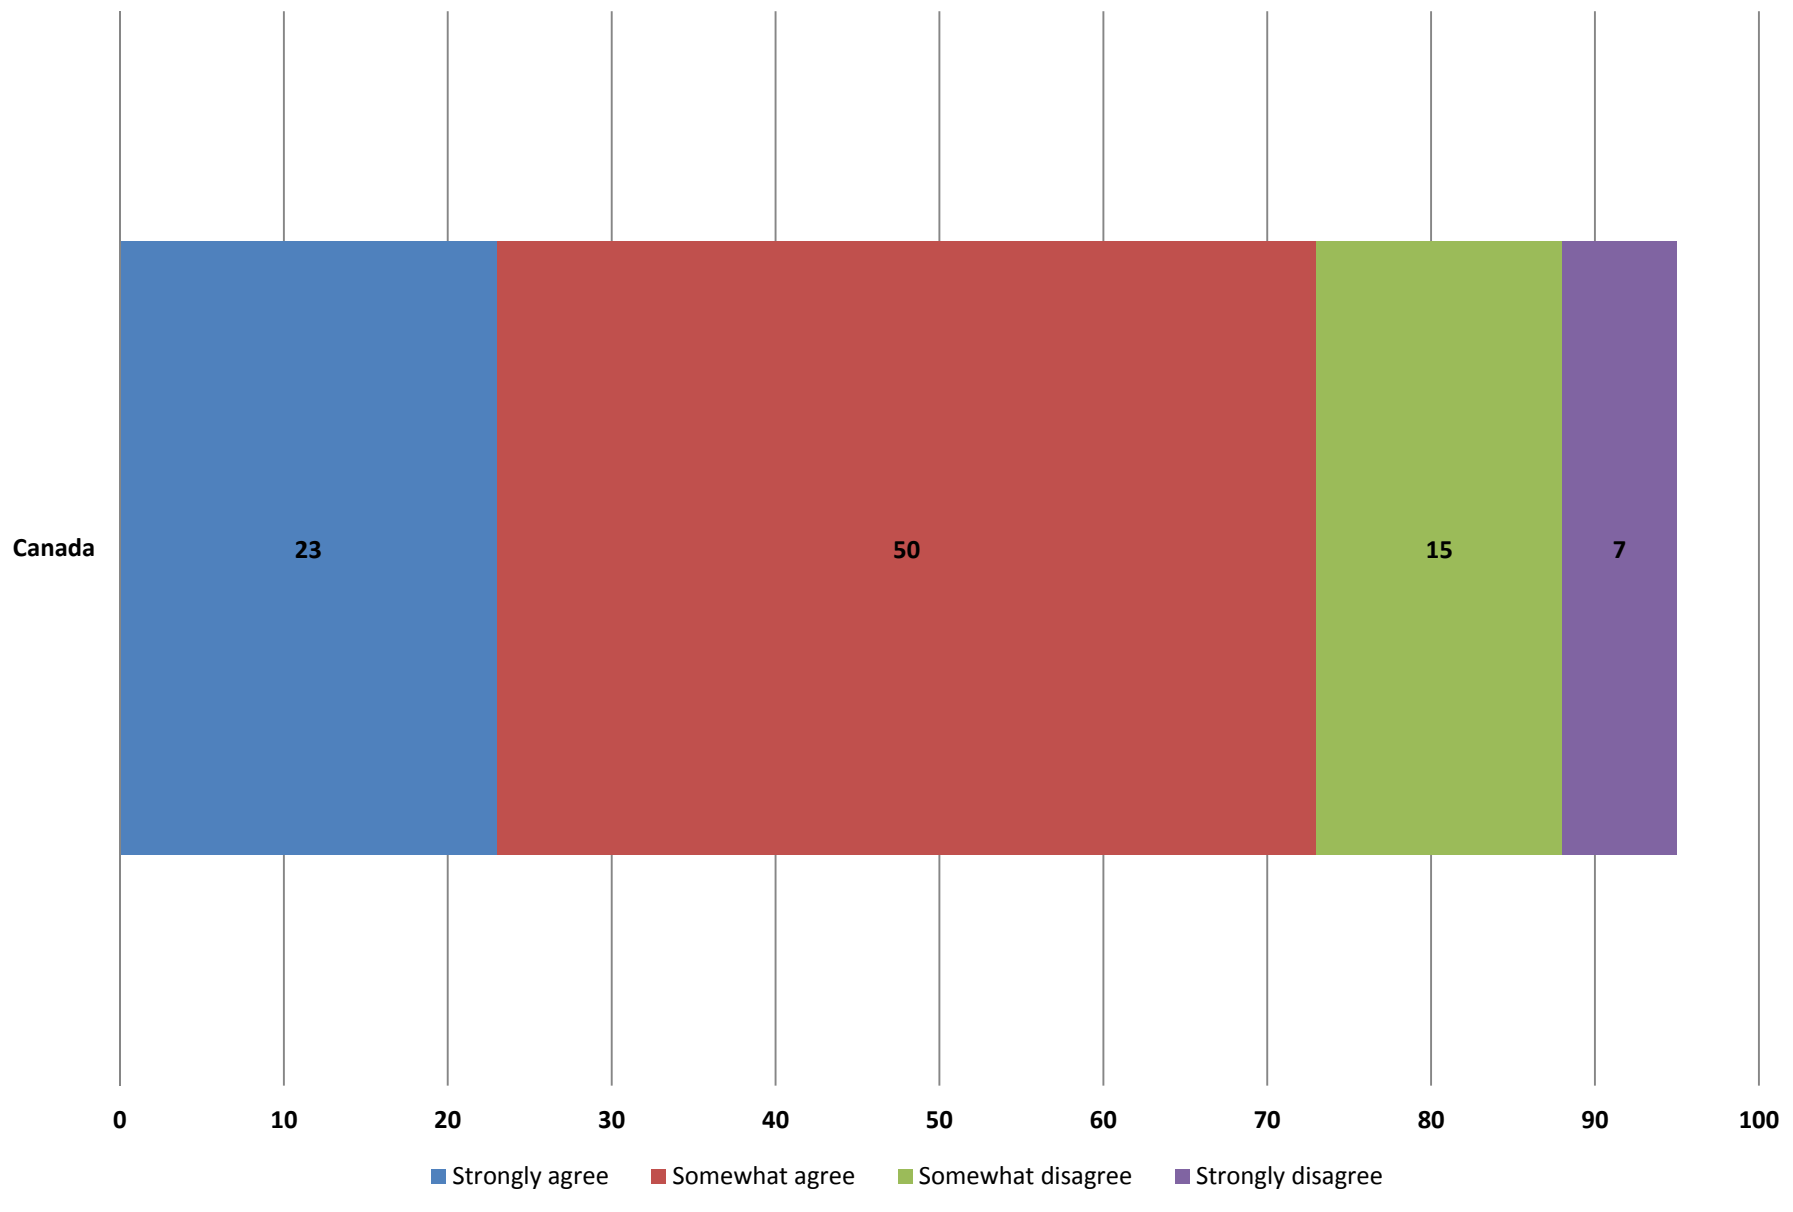

Charities generally improve our quality of life (by age)

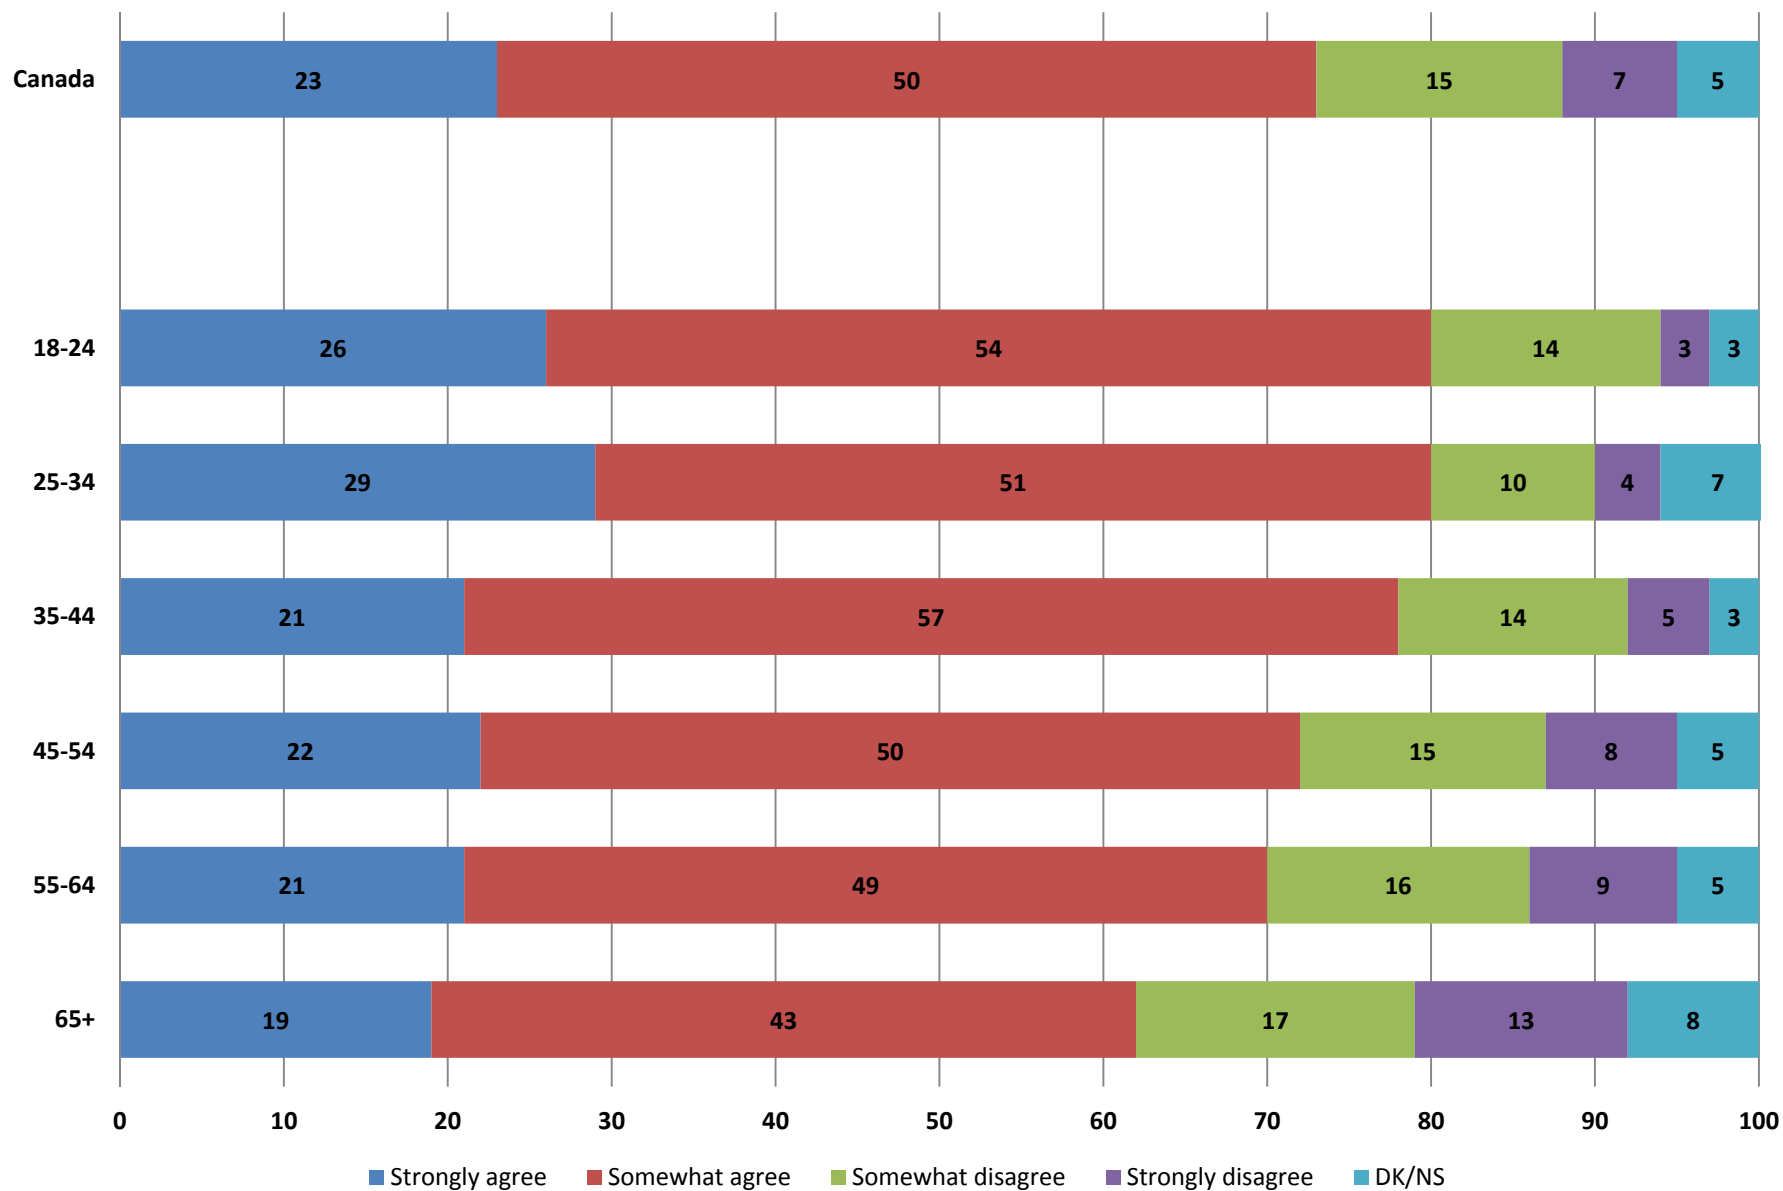

Charities generally improve our quality of life (by income)

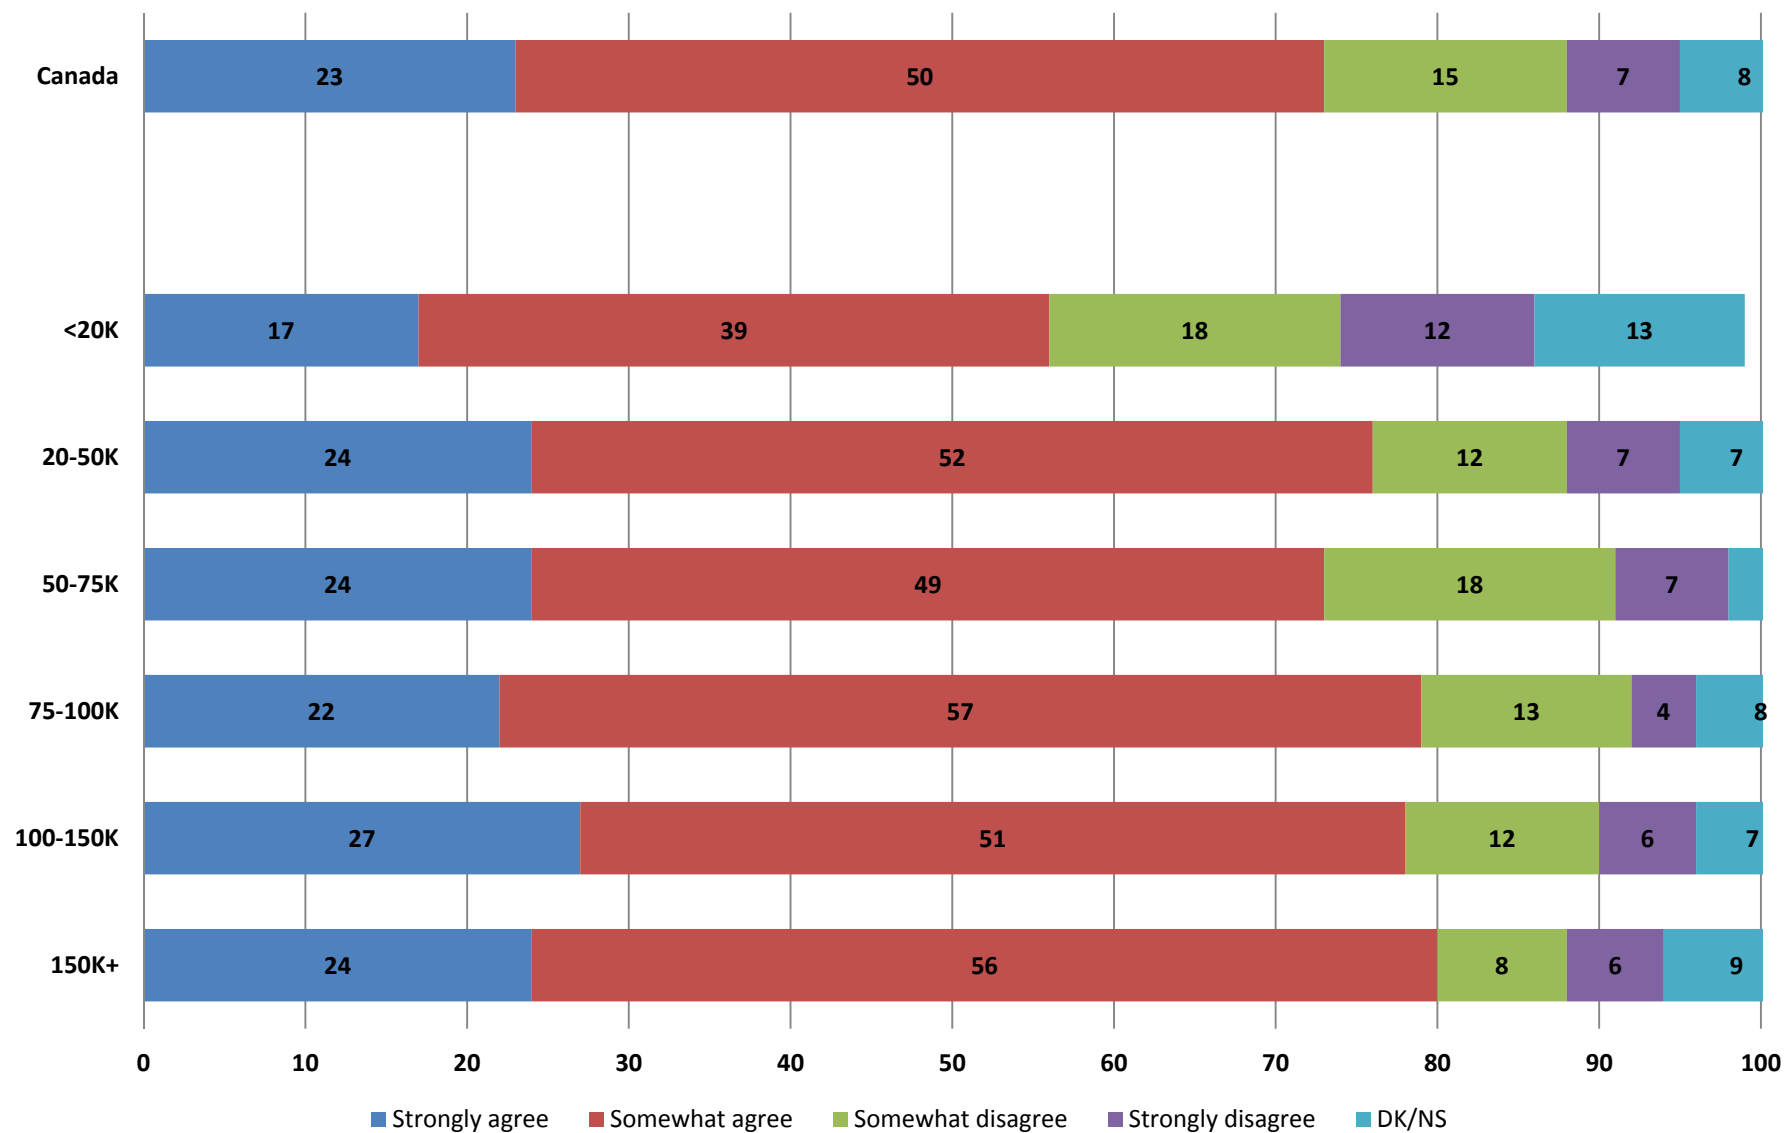

Charities spend too much on salaries and administration

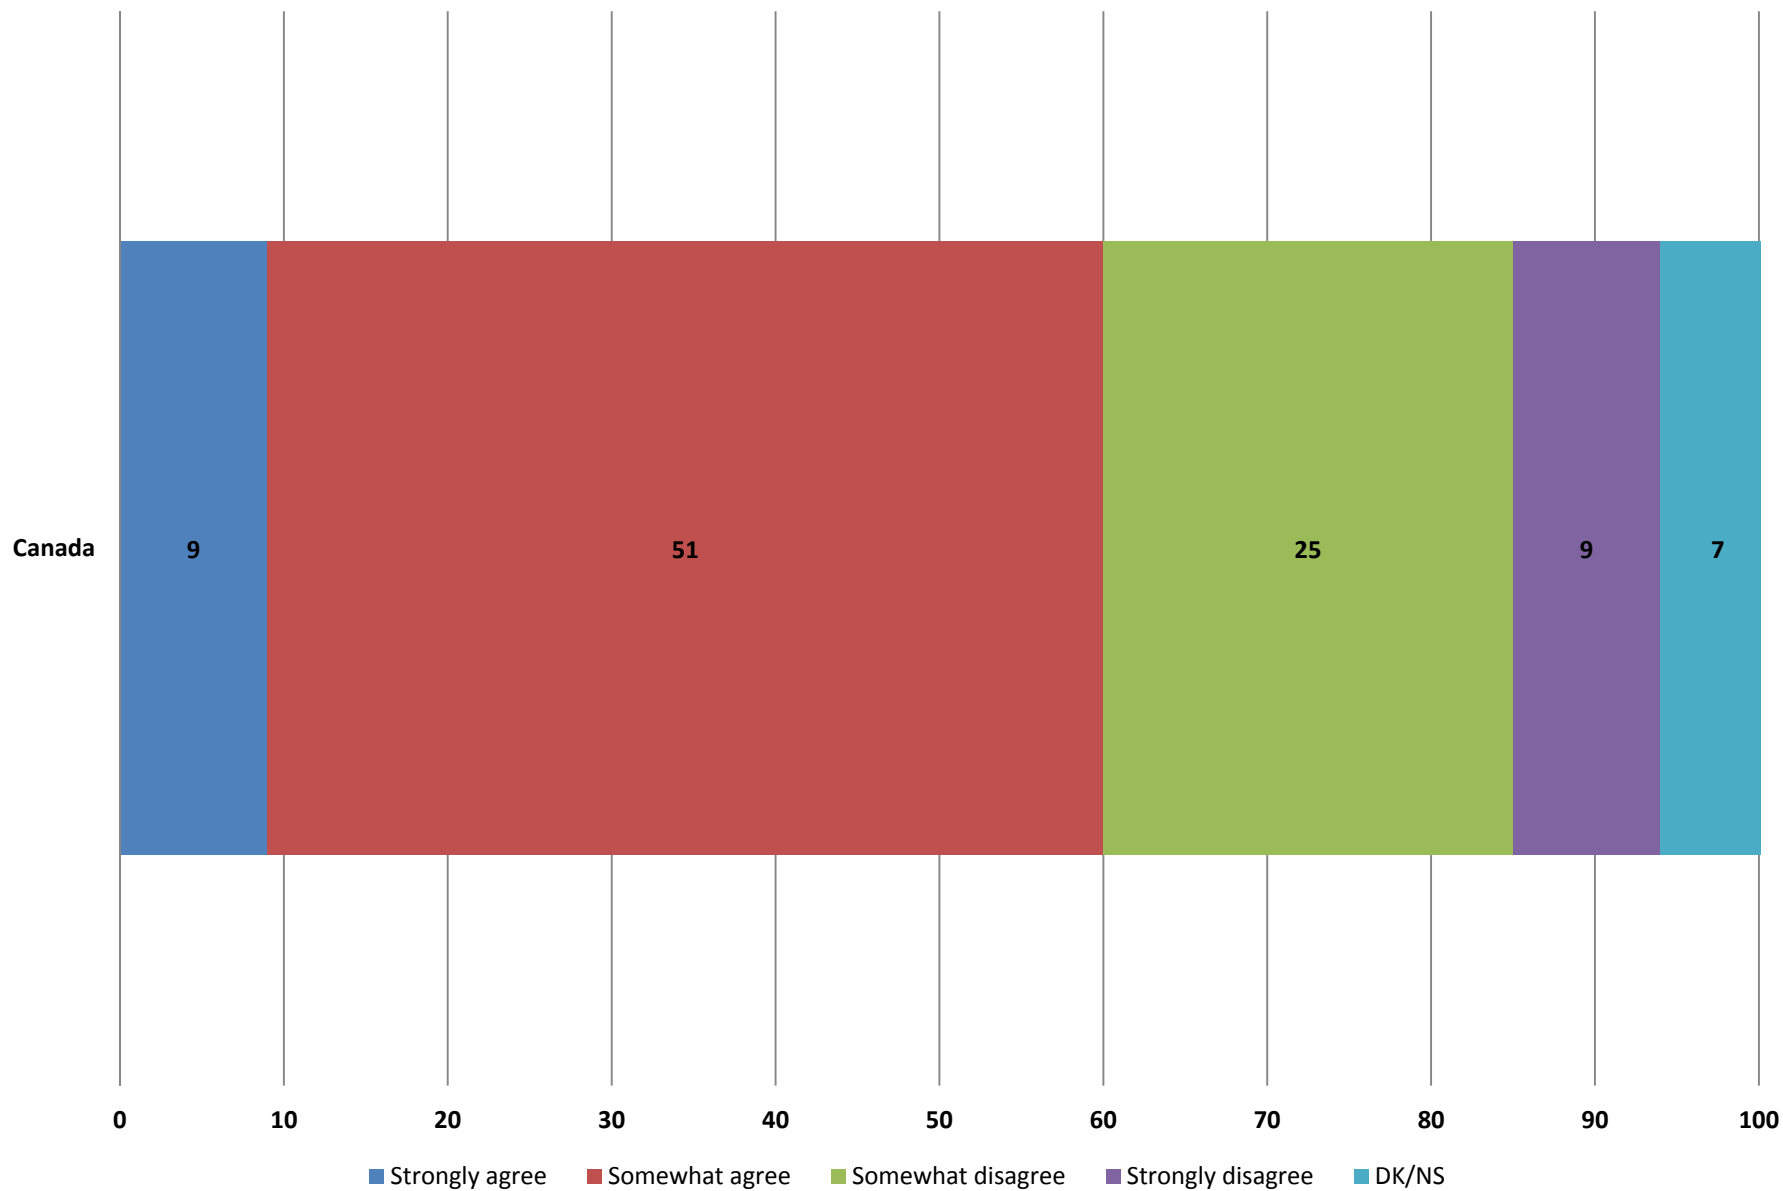

Charities spend too much on salaries and administration (by age)

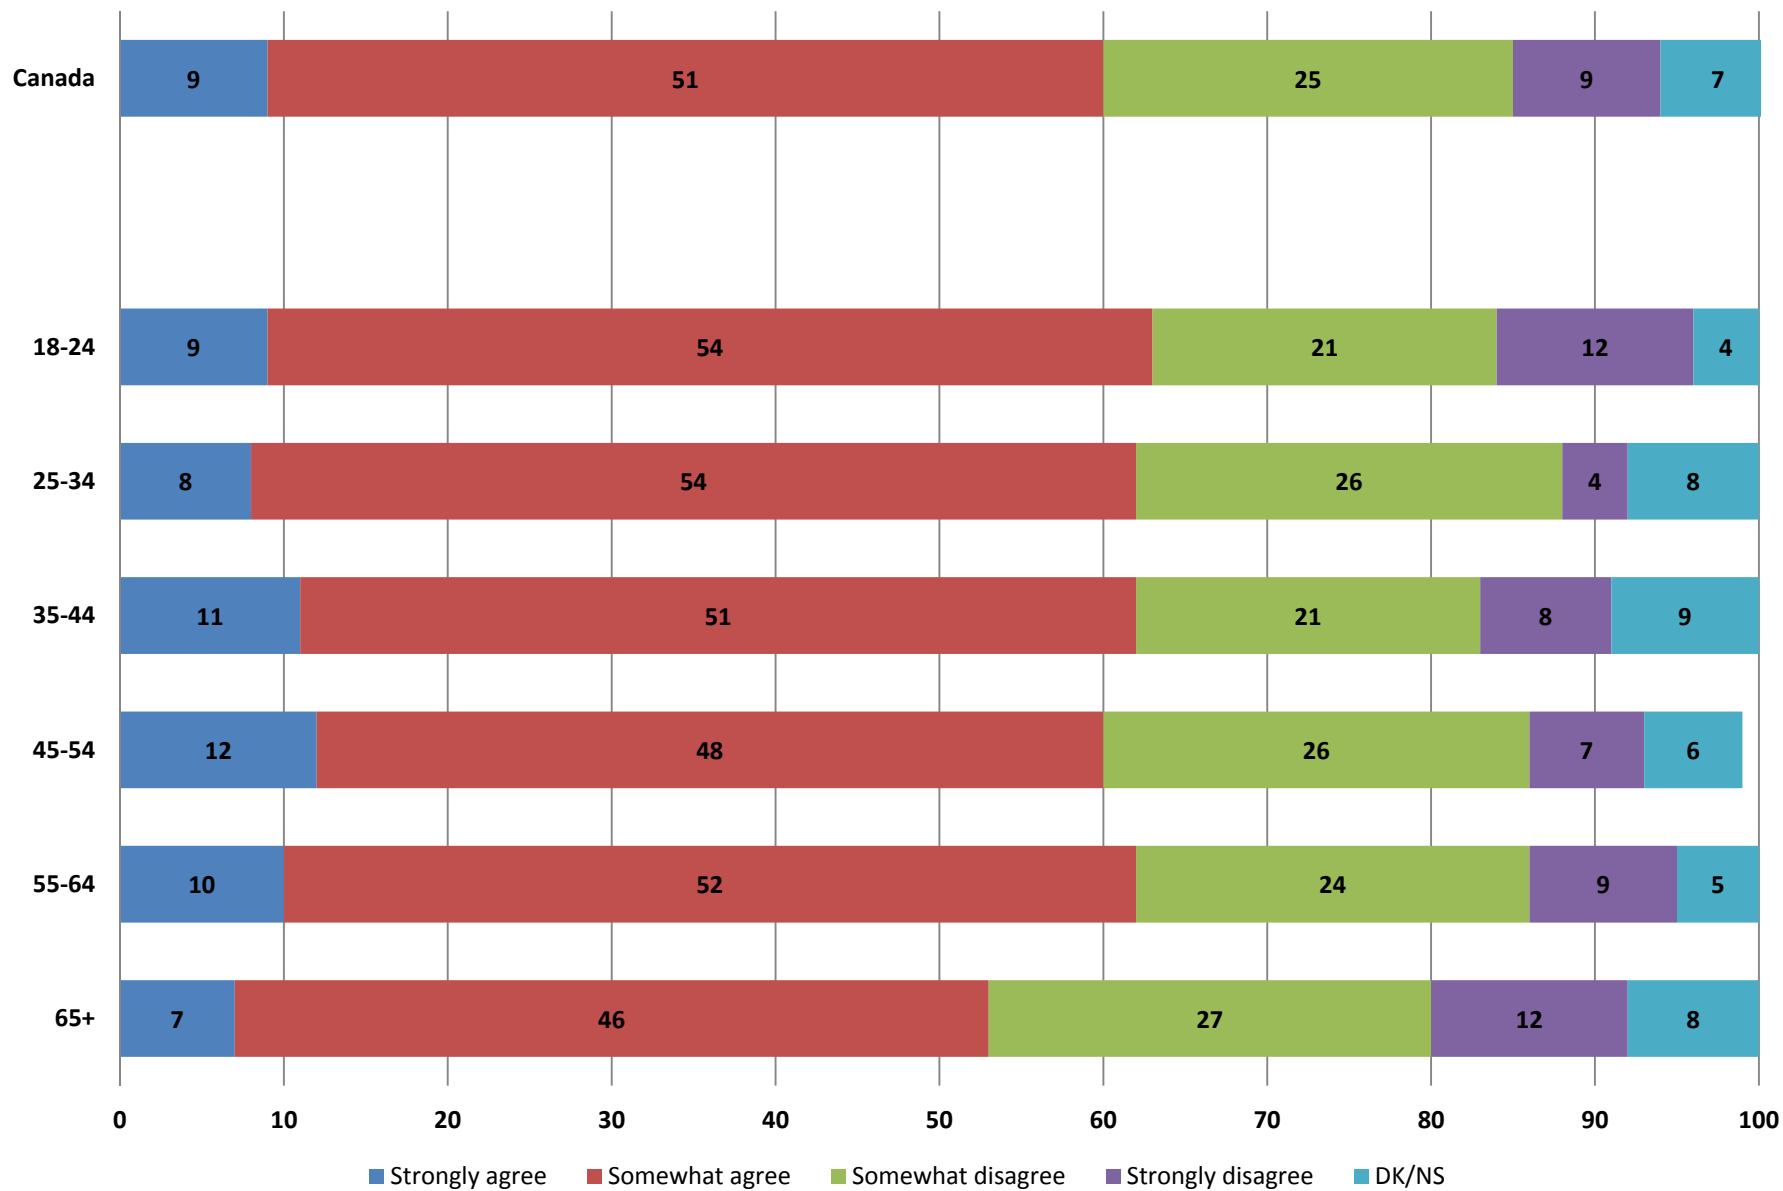

Charities spend too much on salaries and administration (by household income)

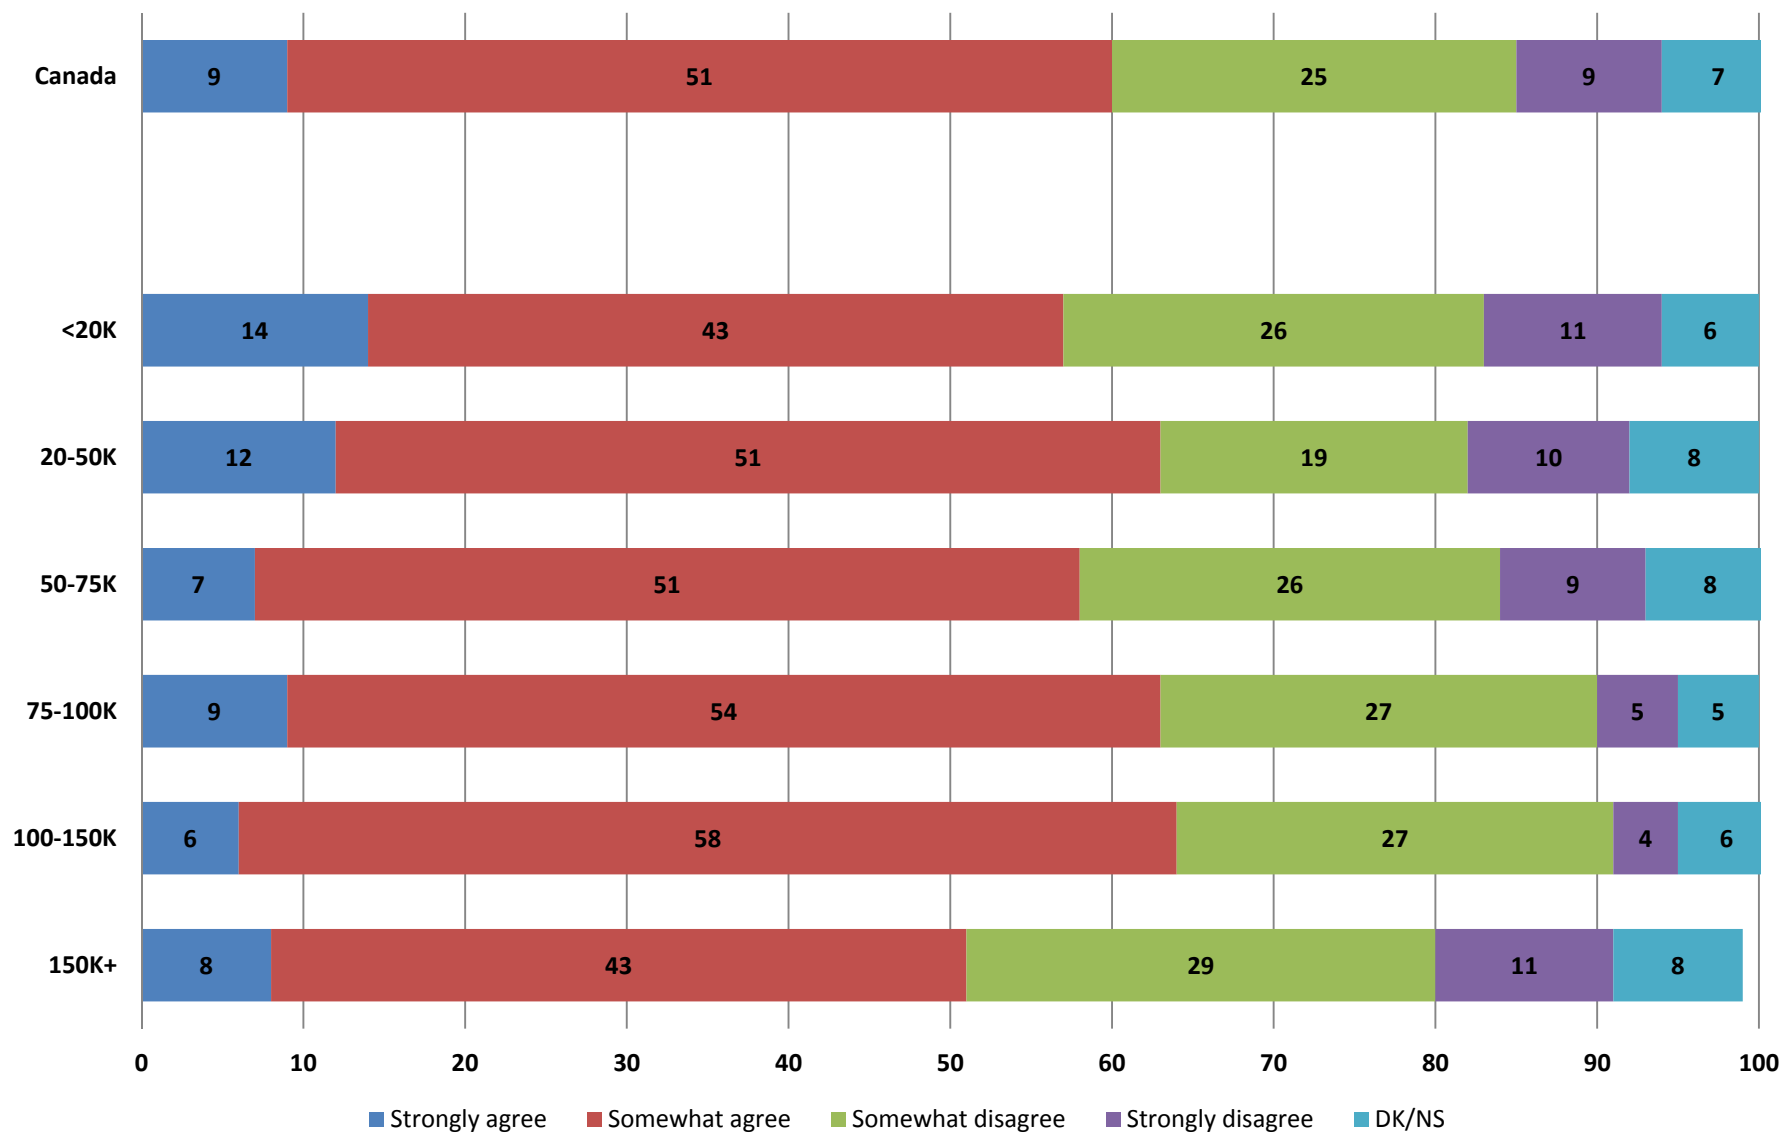

Charities are very good at spending money wisely

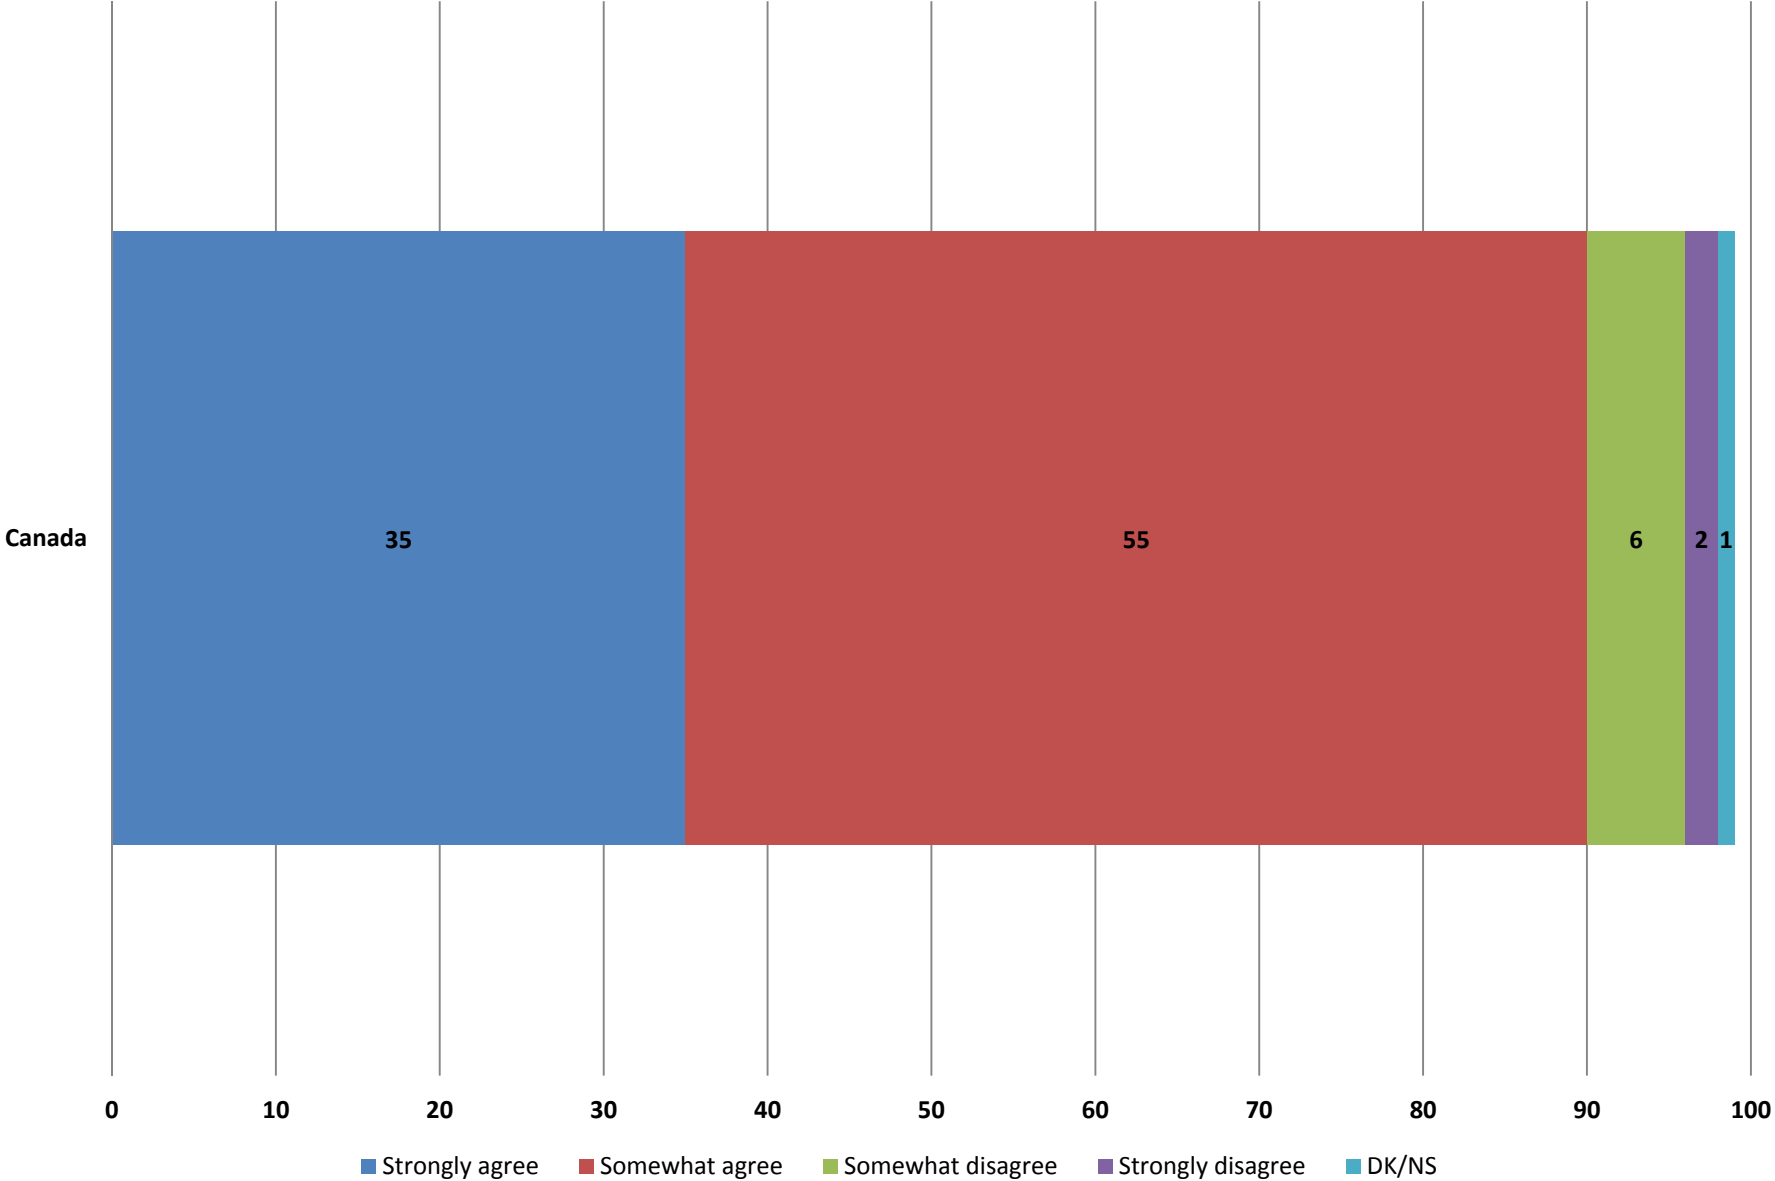

Charities are very good at spending money wisely (by age)

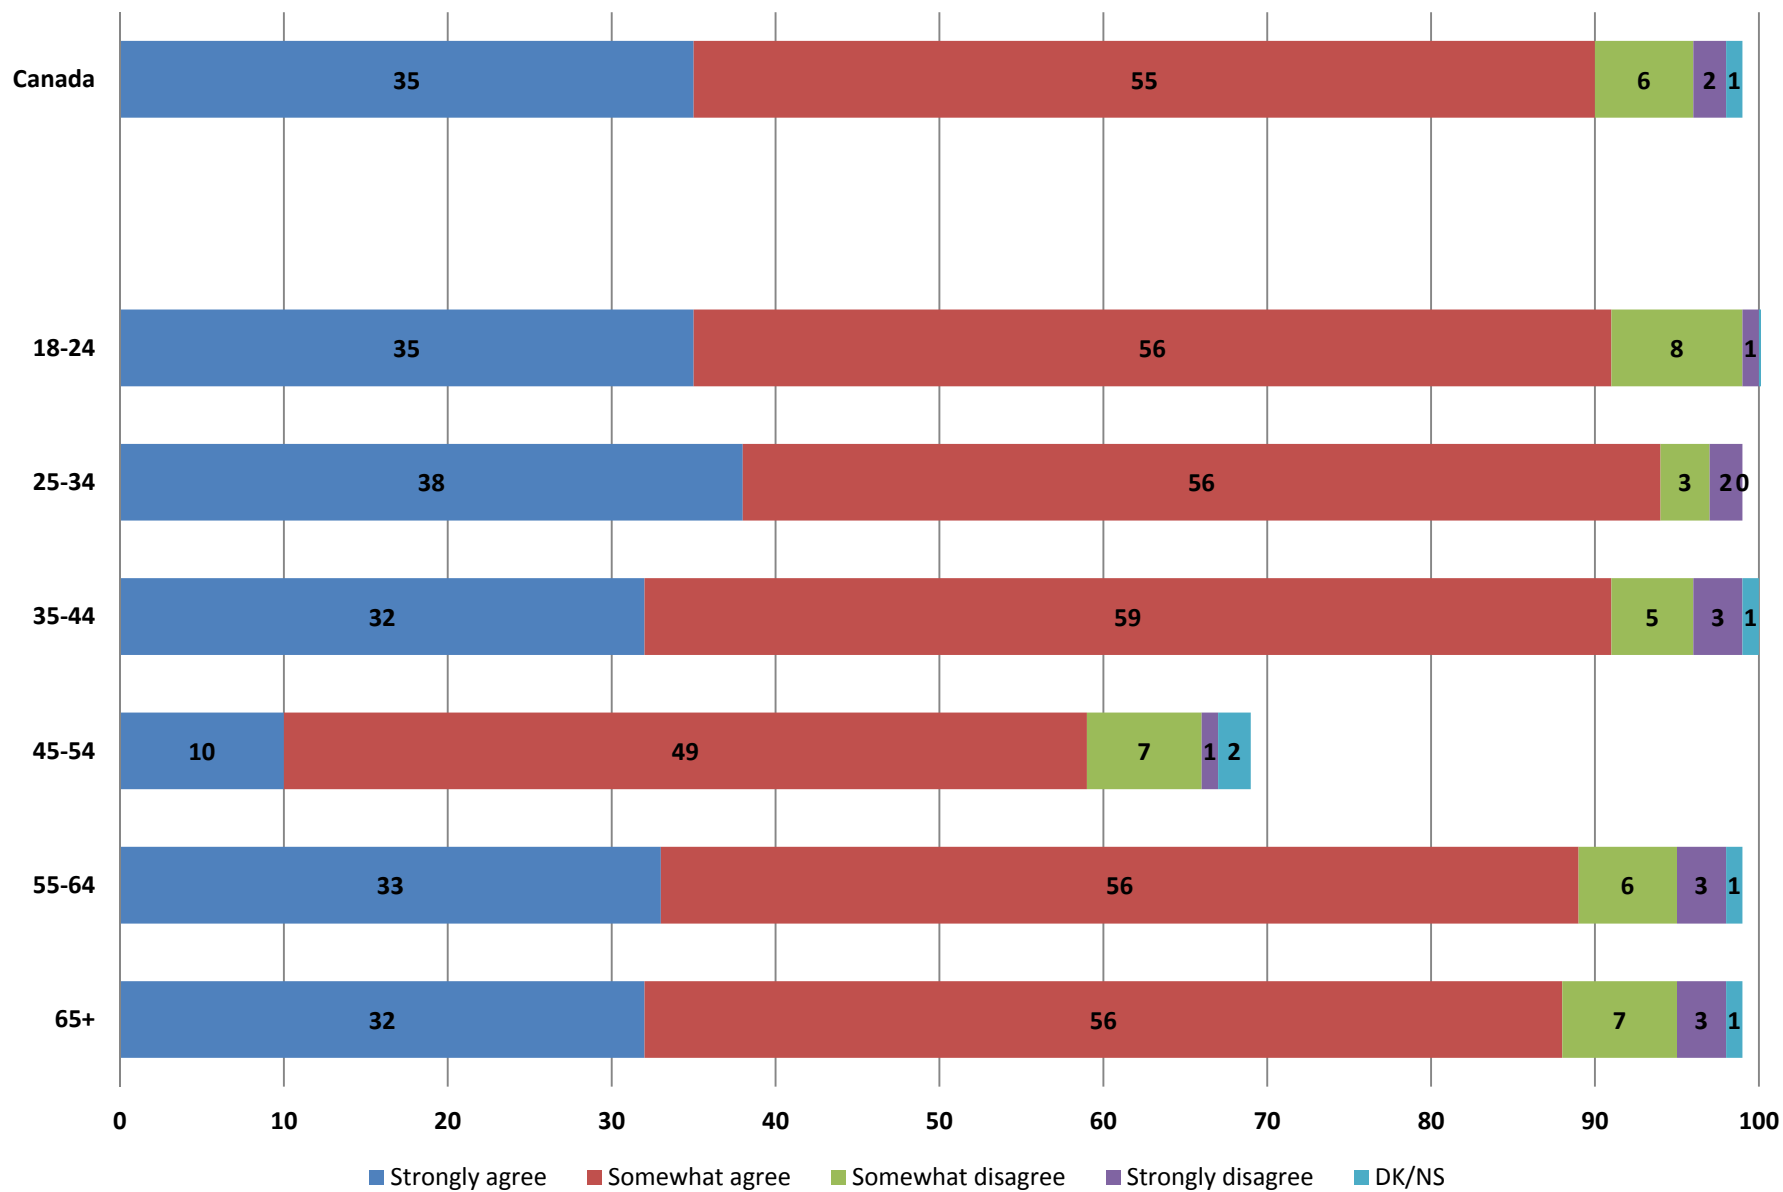

Charities are very good at spending money wisely (by household income)

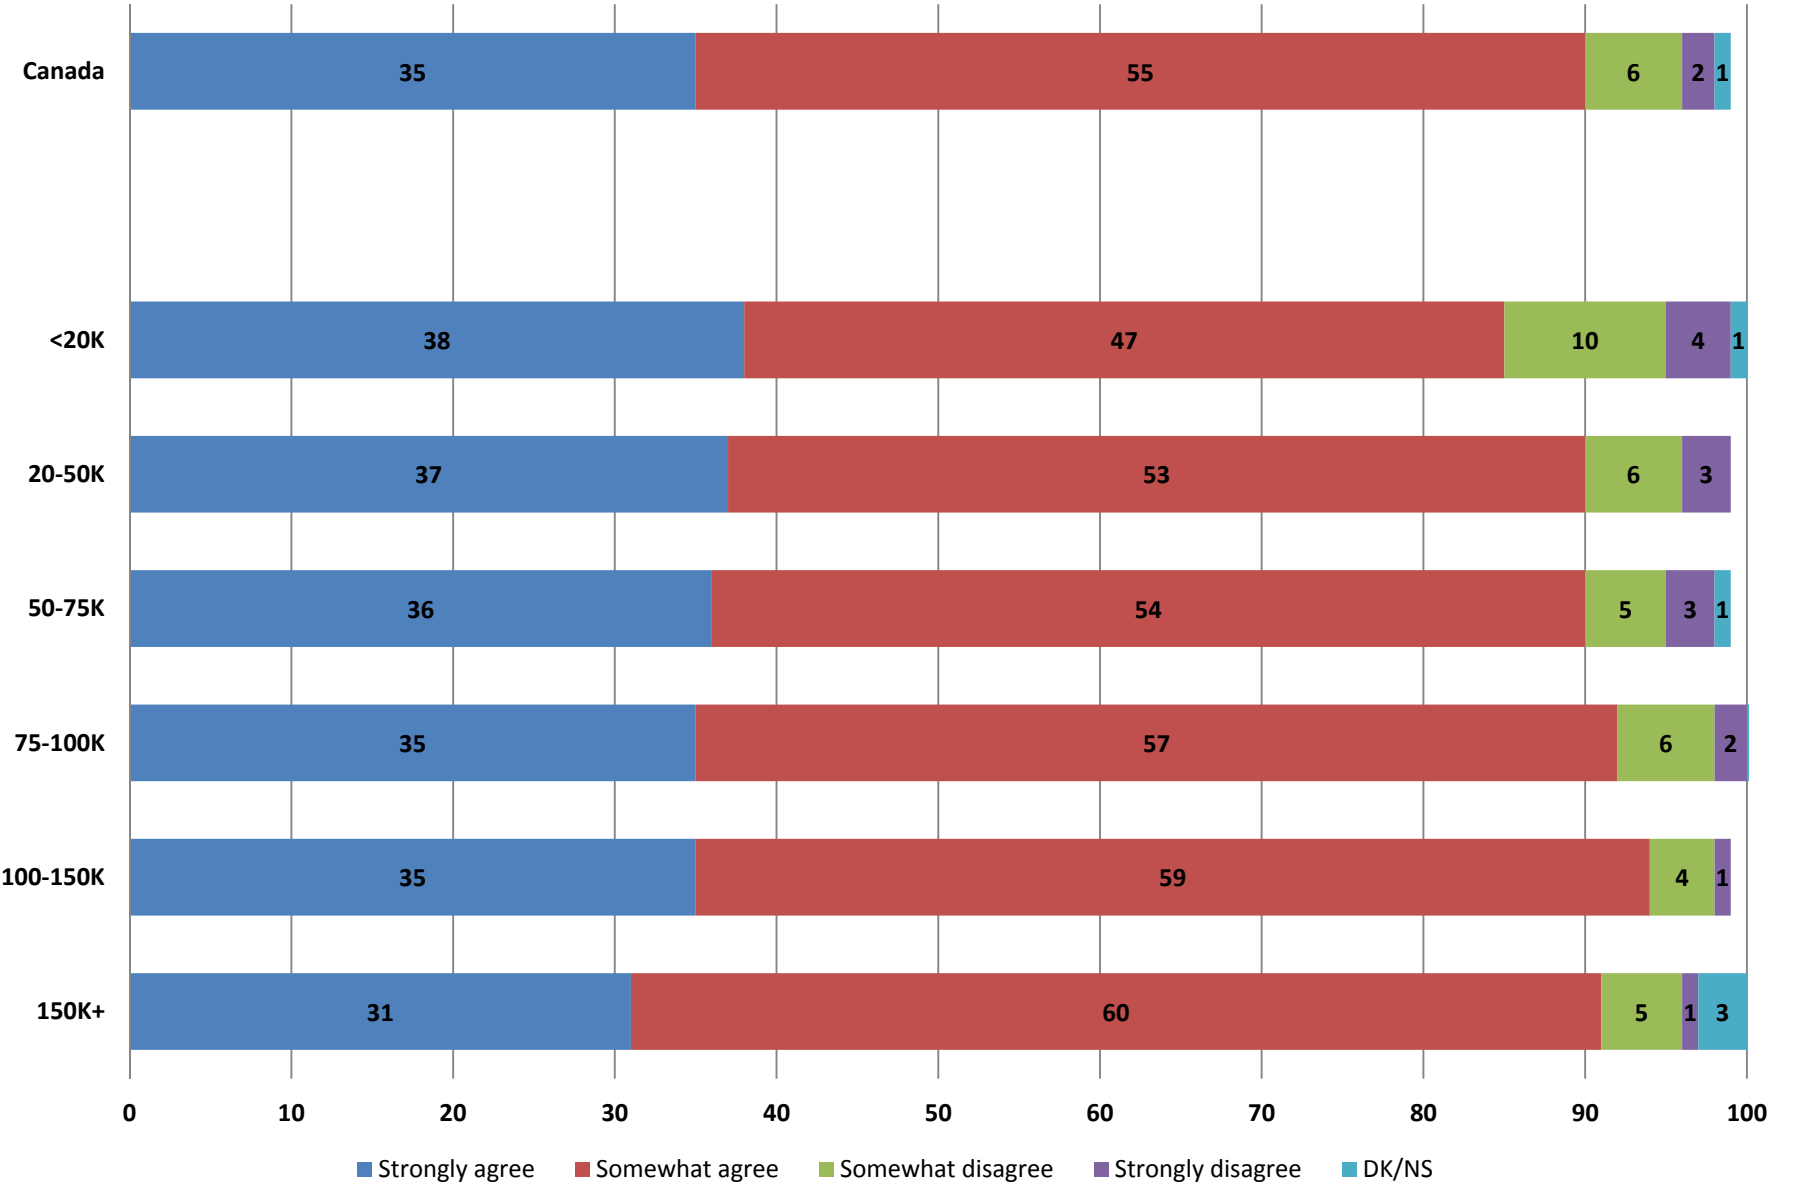

Charities are very good at helping people

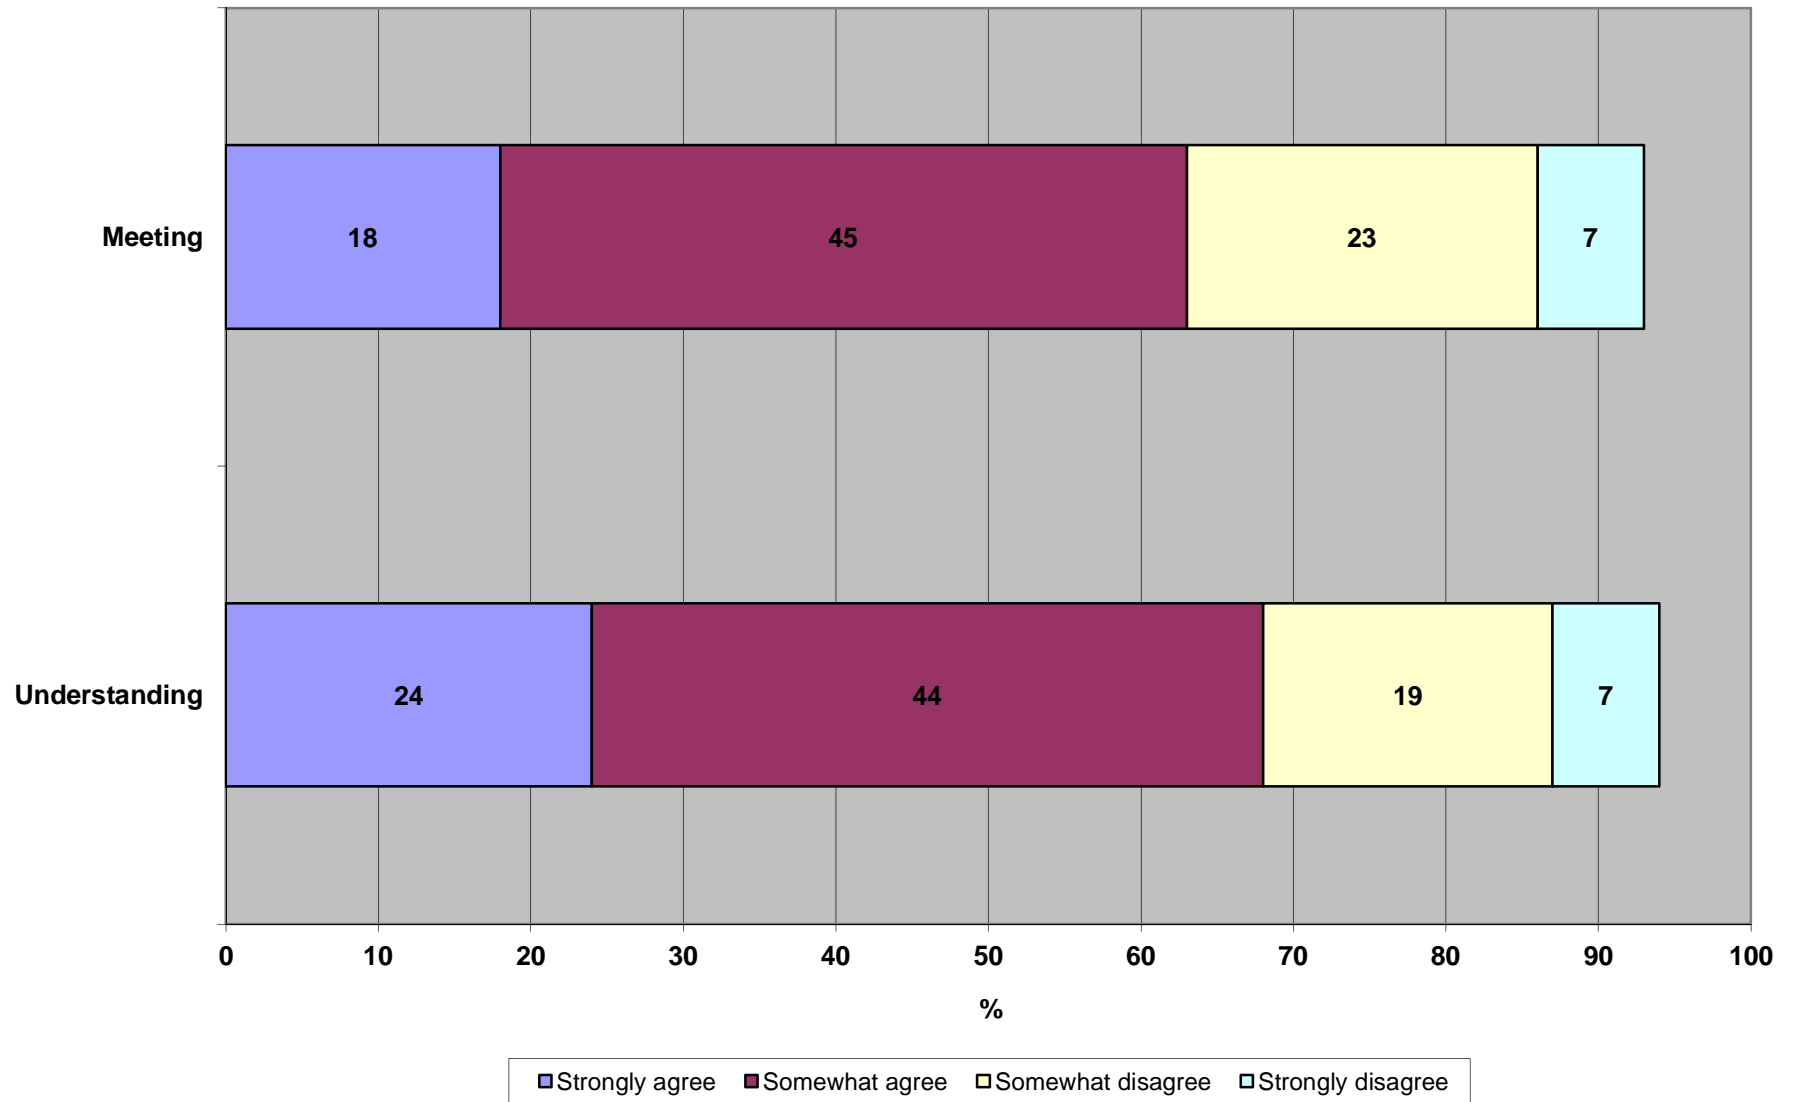

Charities are very good at helping people

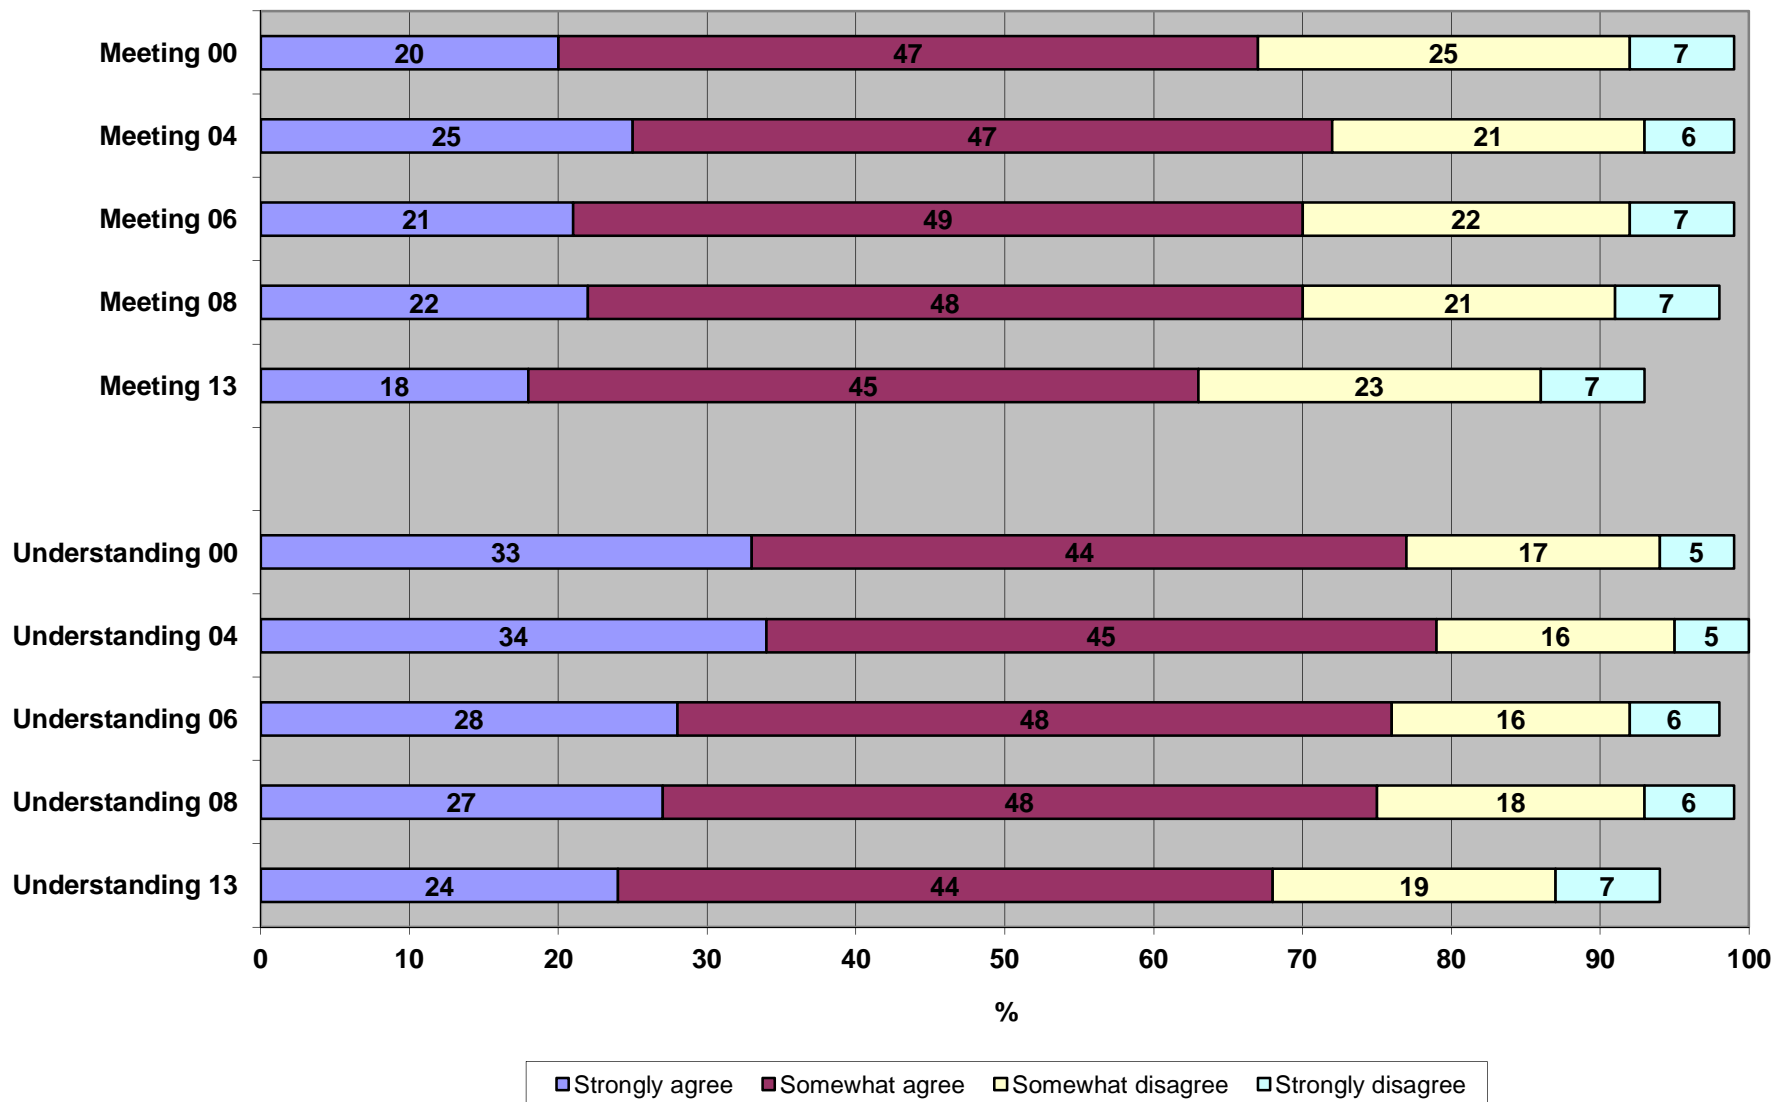

Charities are very good at helping people

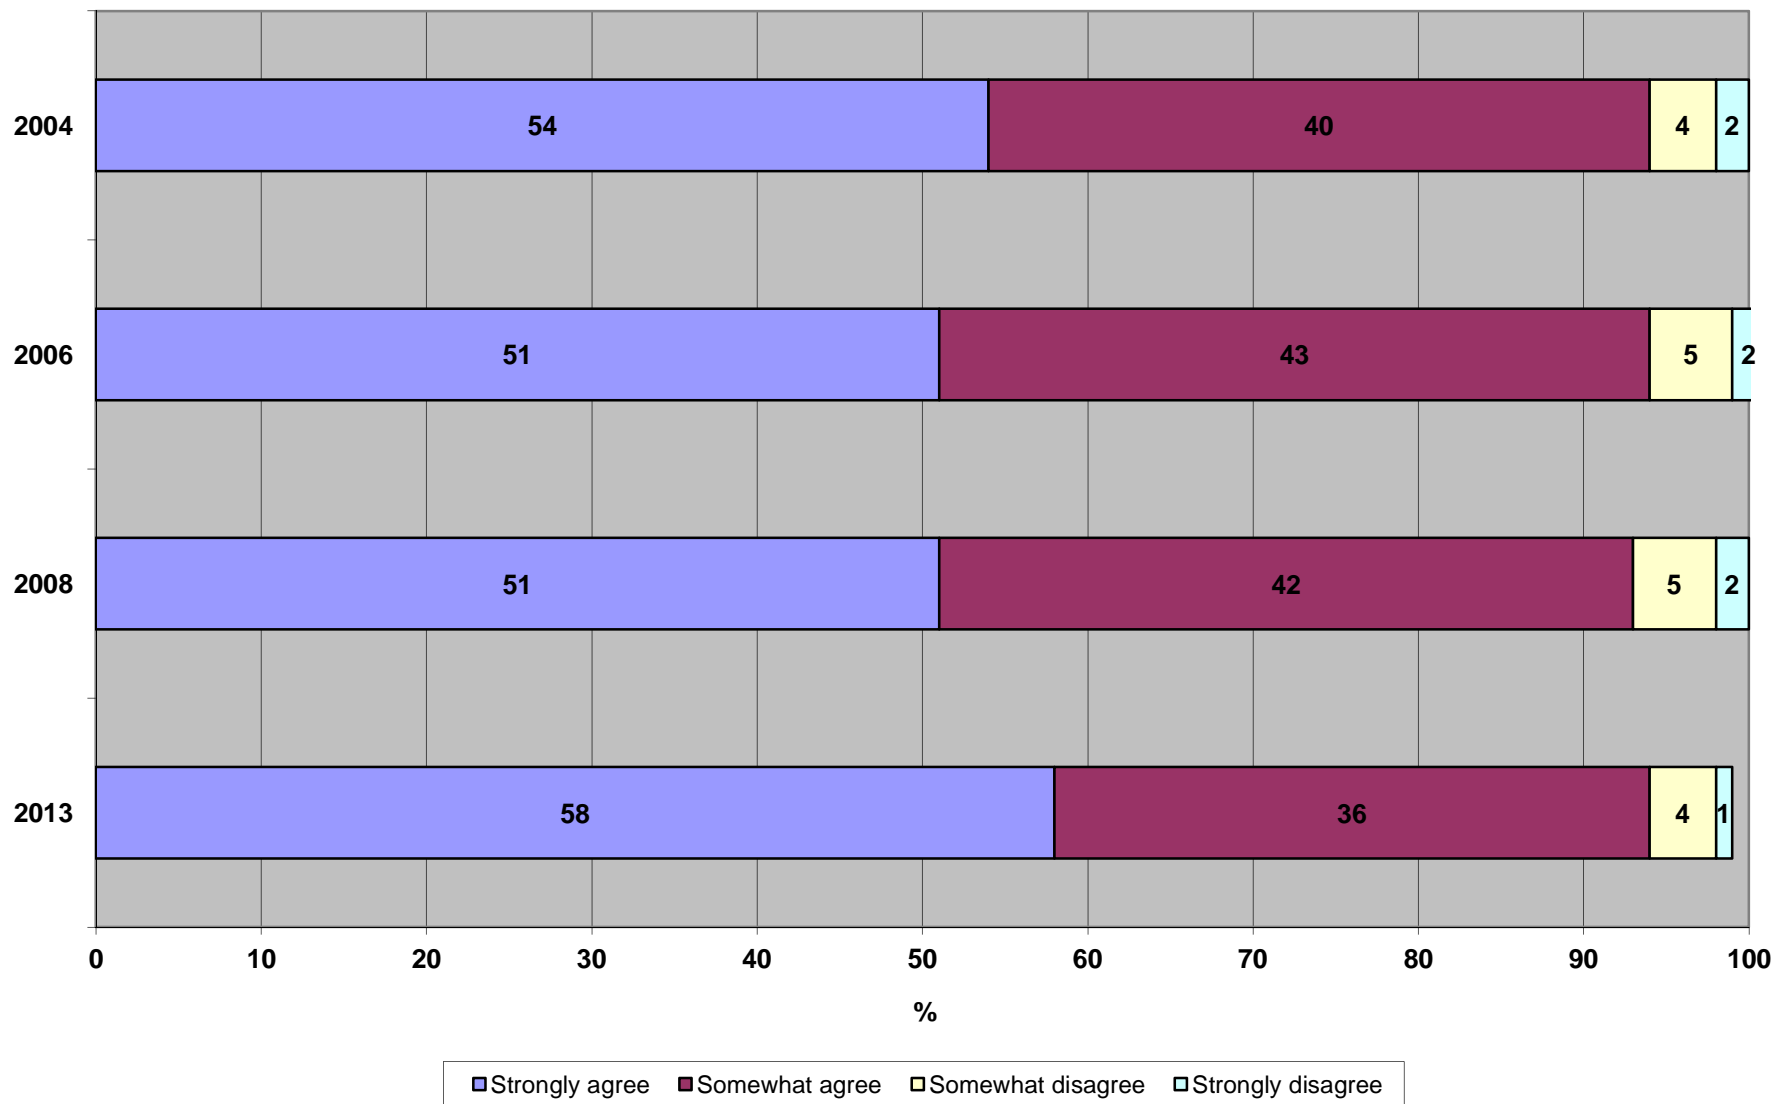

Charities are better than government at ... the needs of Canadians (Canada)

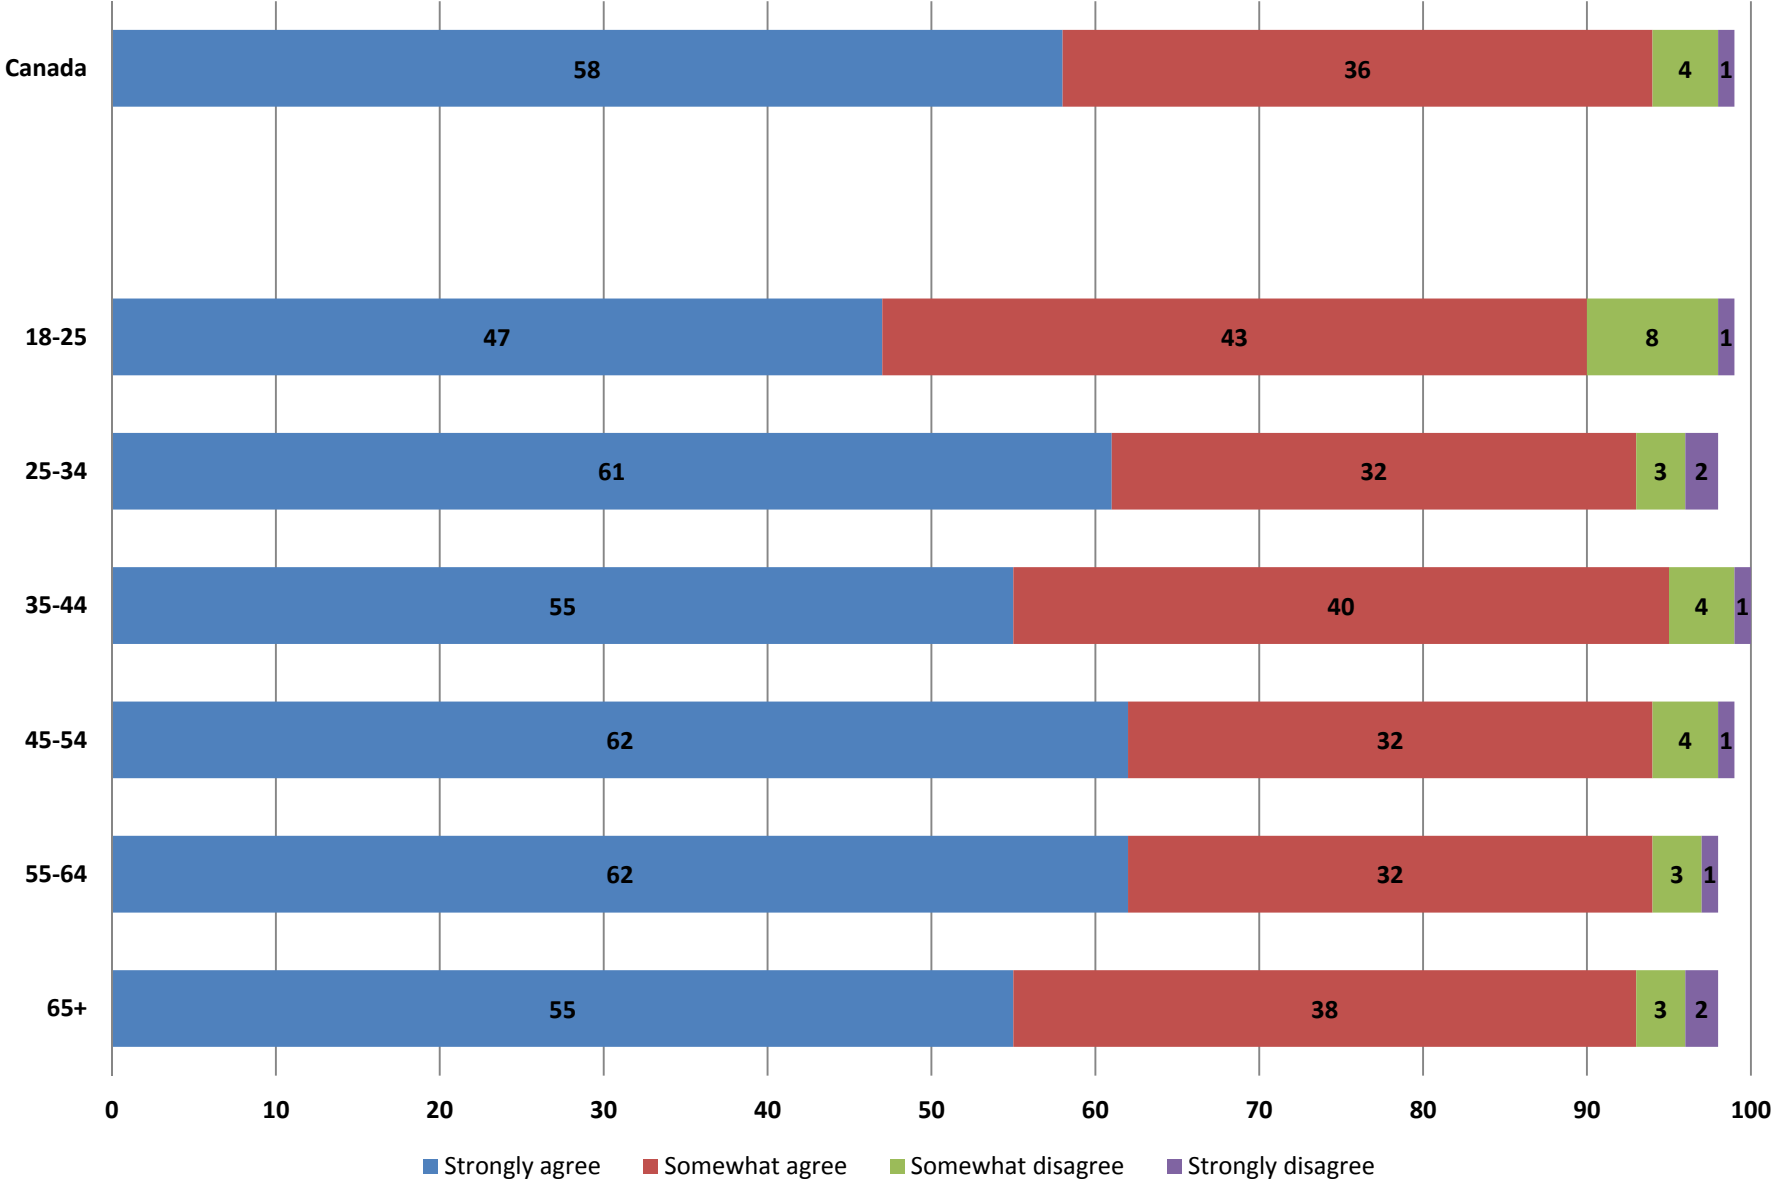

Charities are better than government at ... the needs of Canadians (Canada)

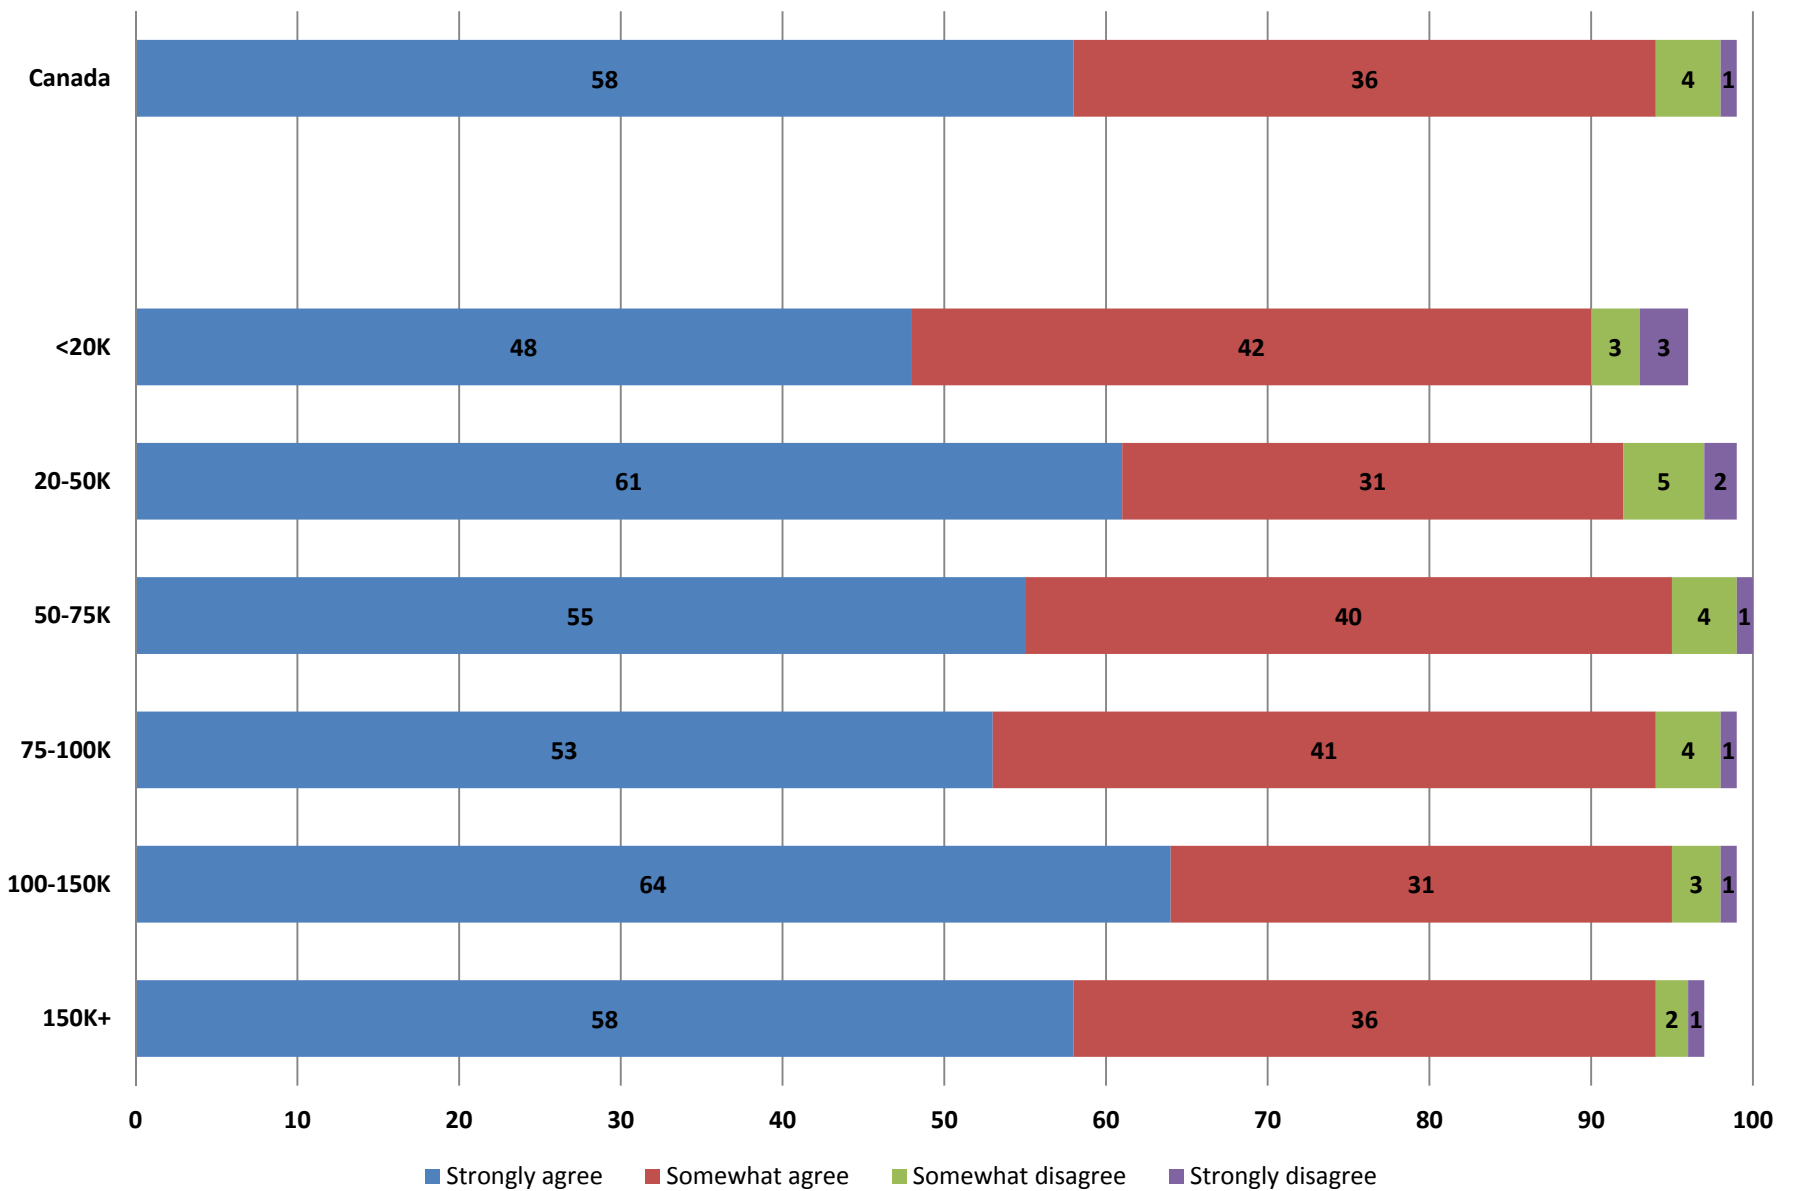

Charities are important to Canadians (Canada)

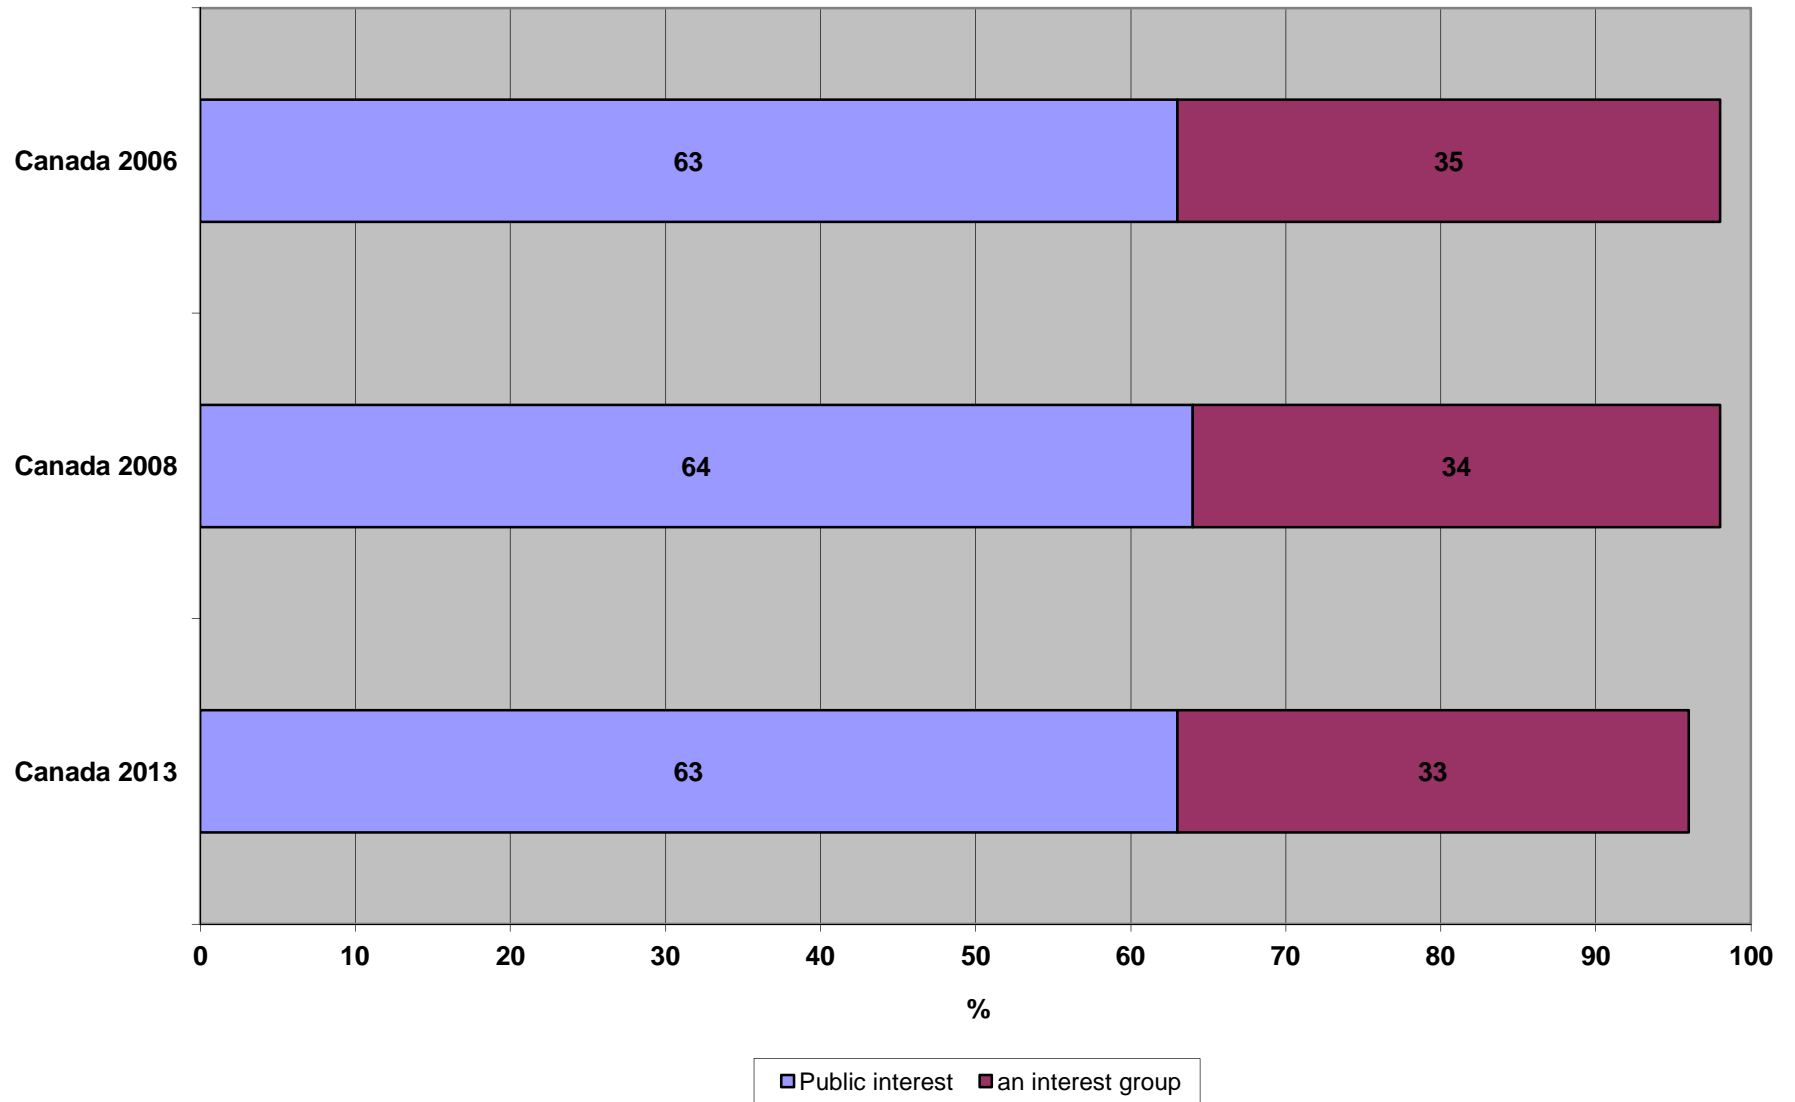

Charities are important to Canadians (by age)

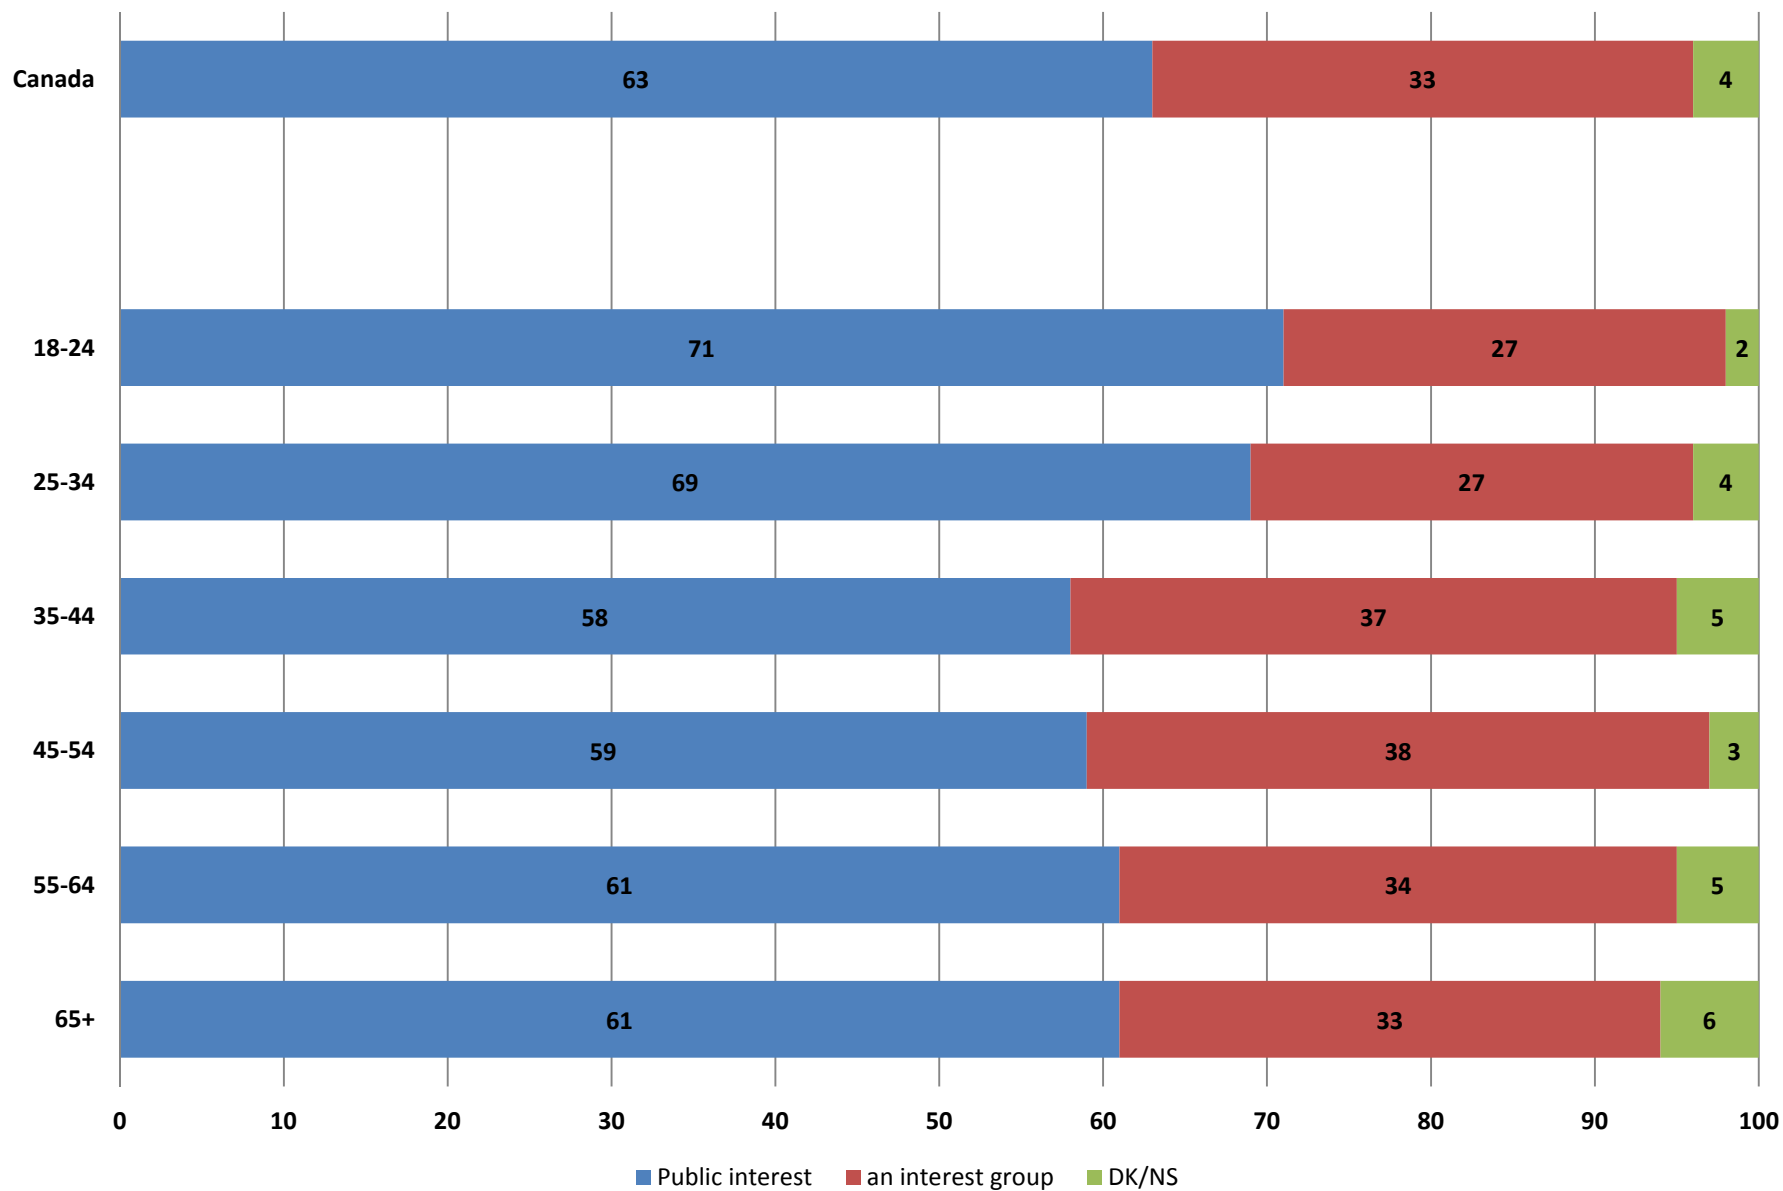

Charities are important to Canadians (by household income)

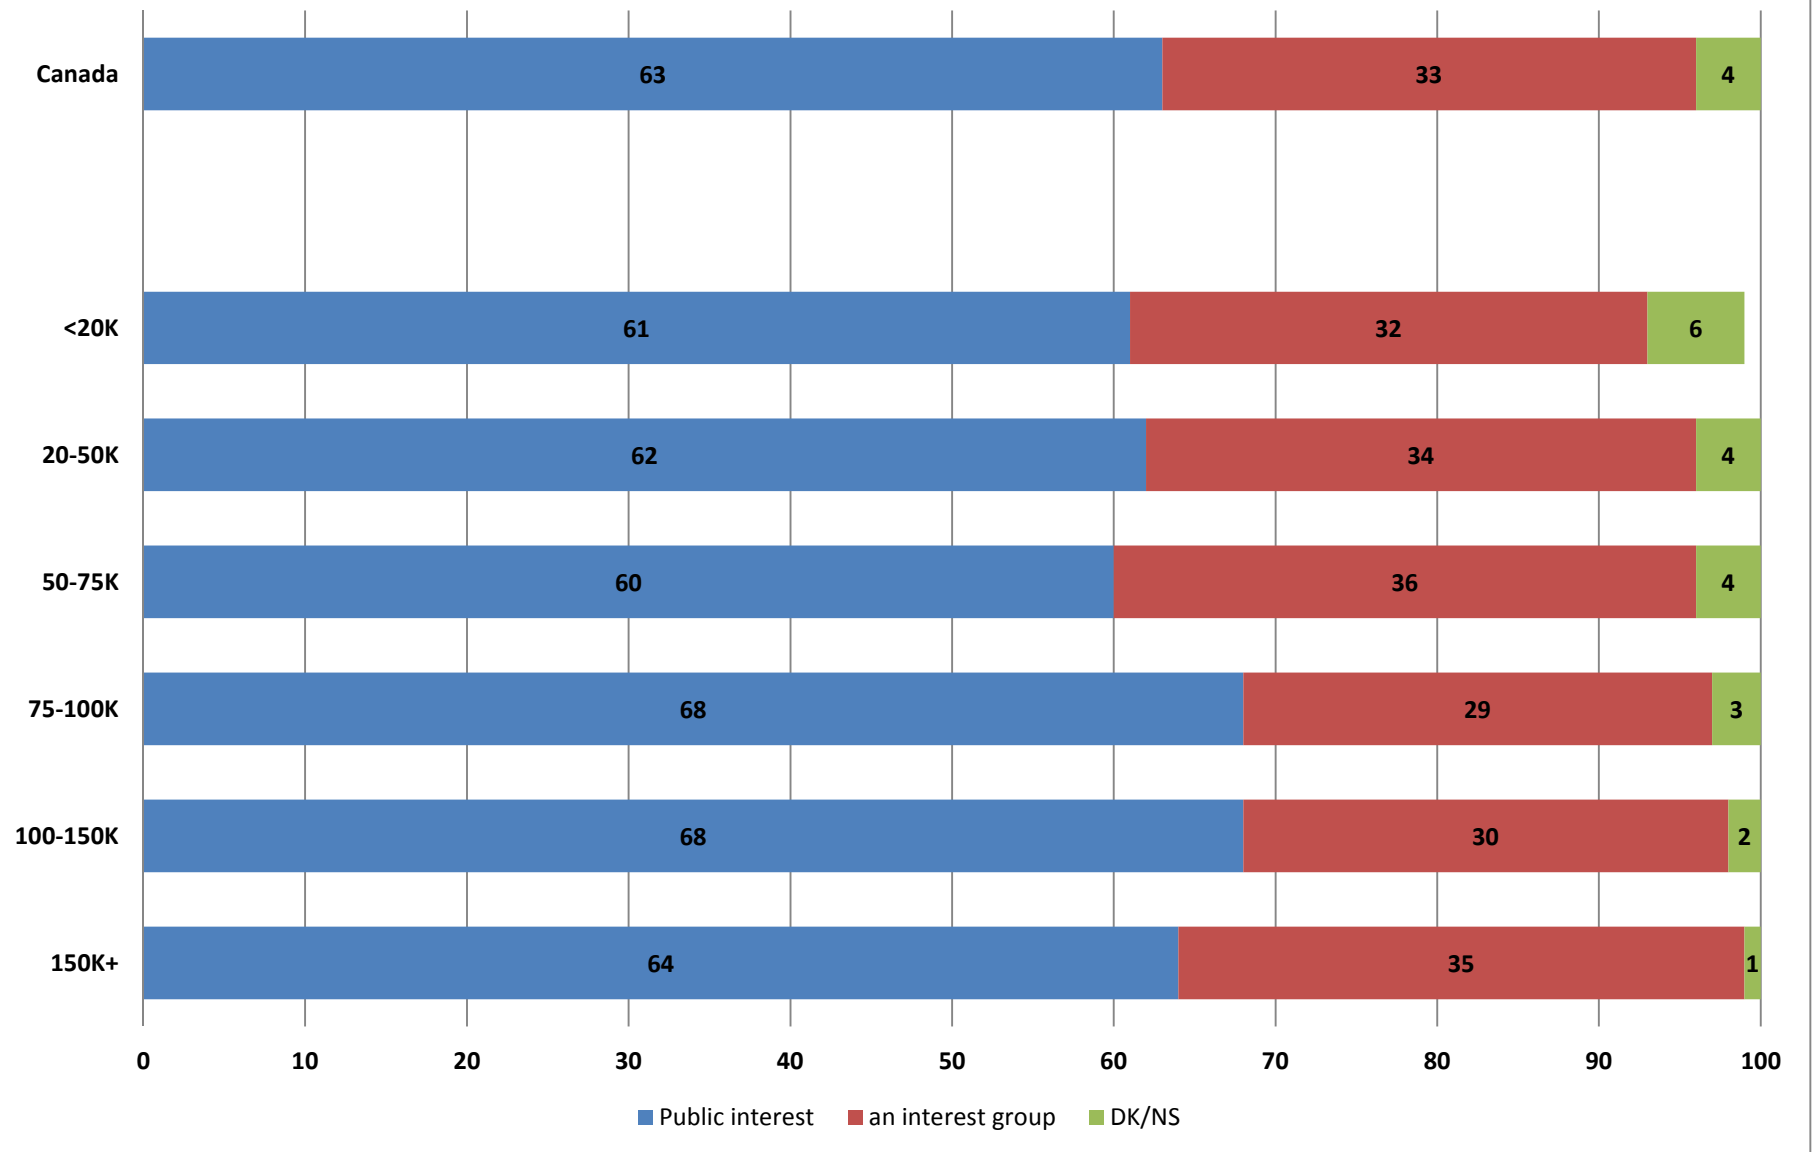

Do charities speak in the public interest or as an interest group?

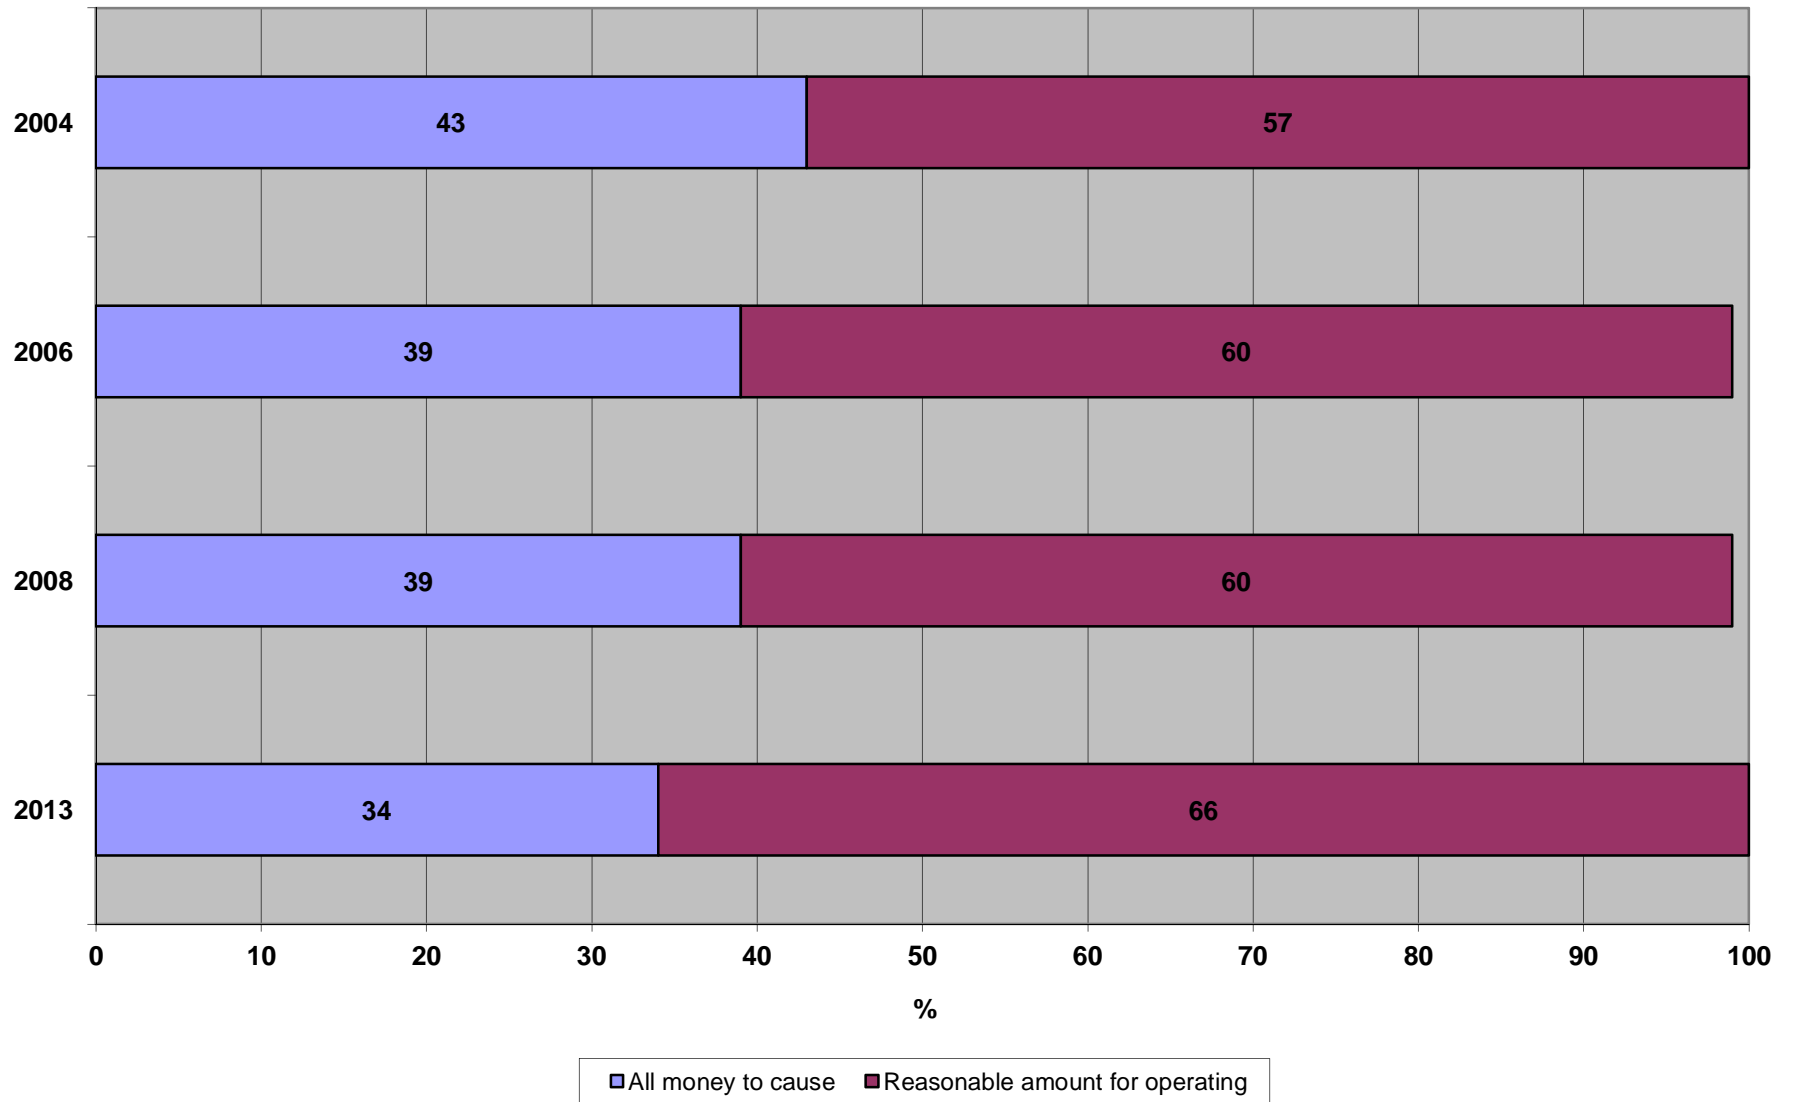

Do charities speak in the public interest or as an interest group?

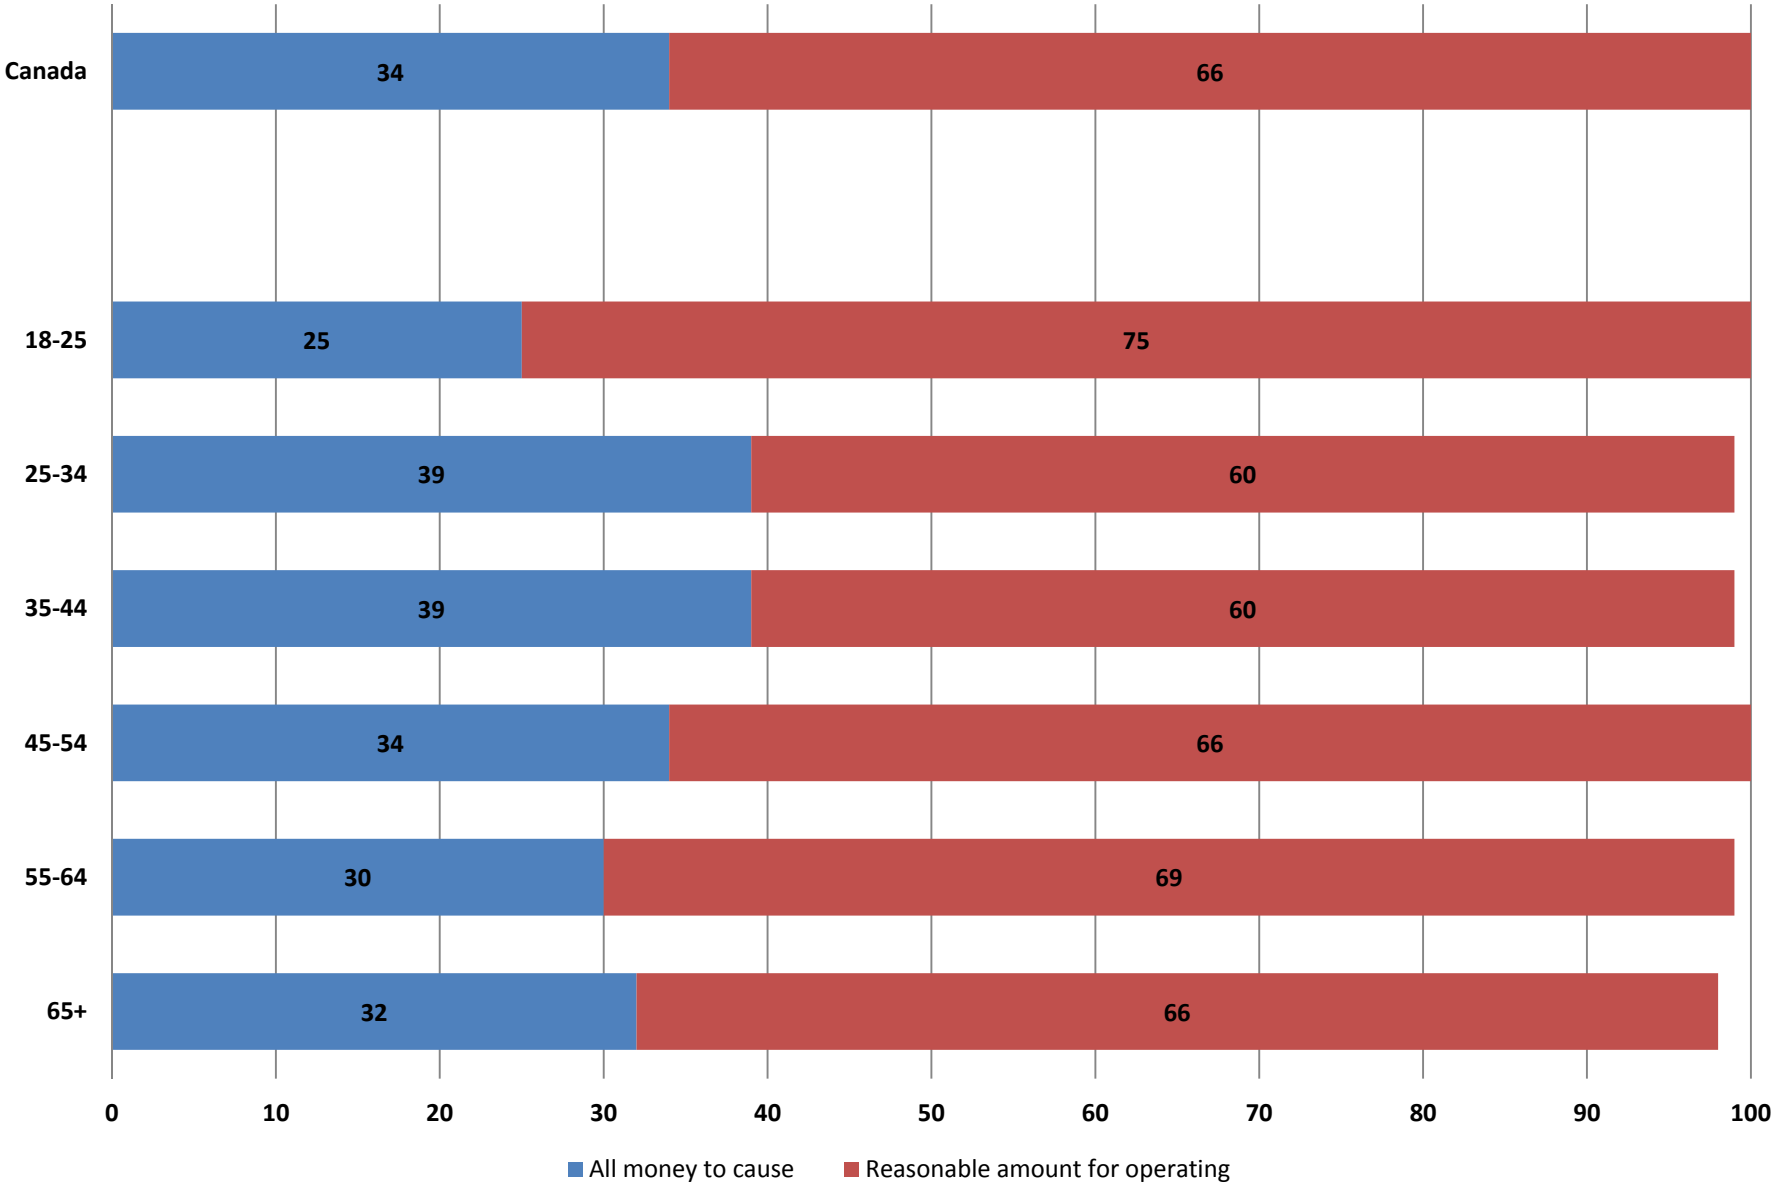

Do charities speak in the public interest or as an interest group? (by household income)

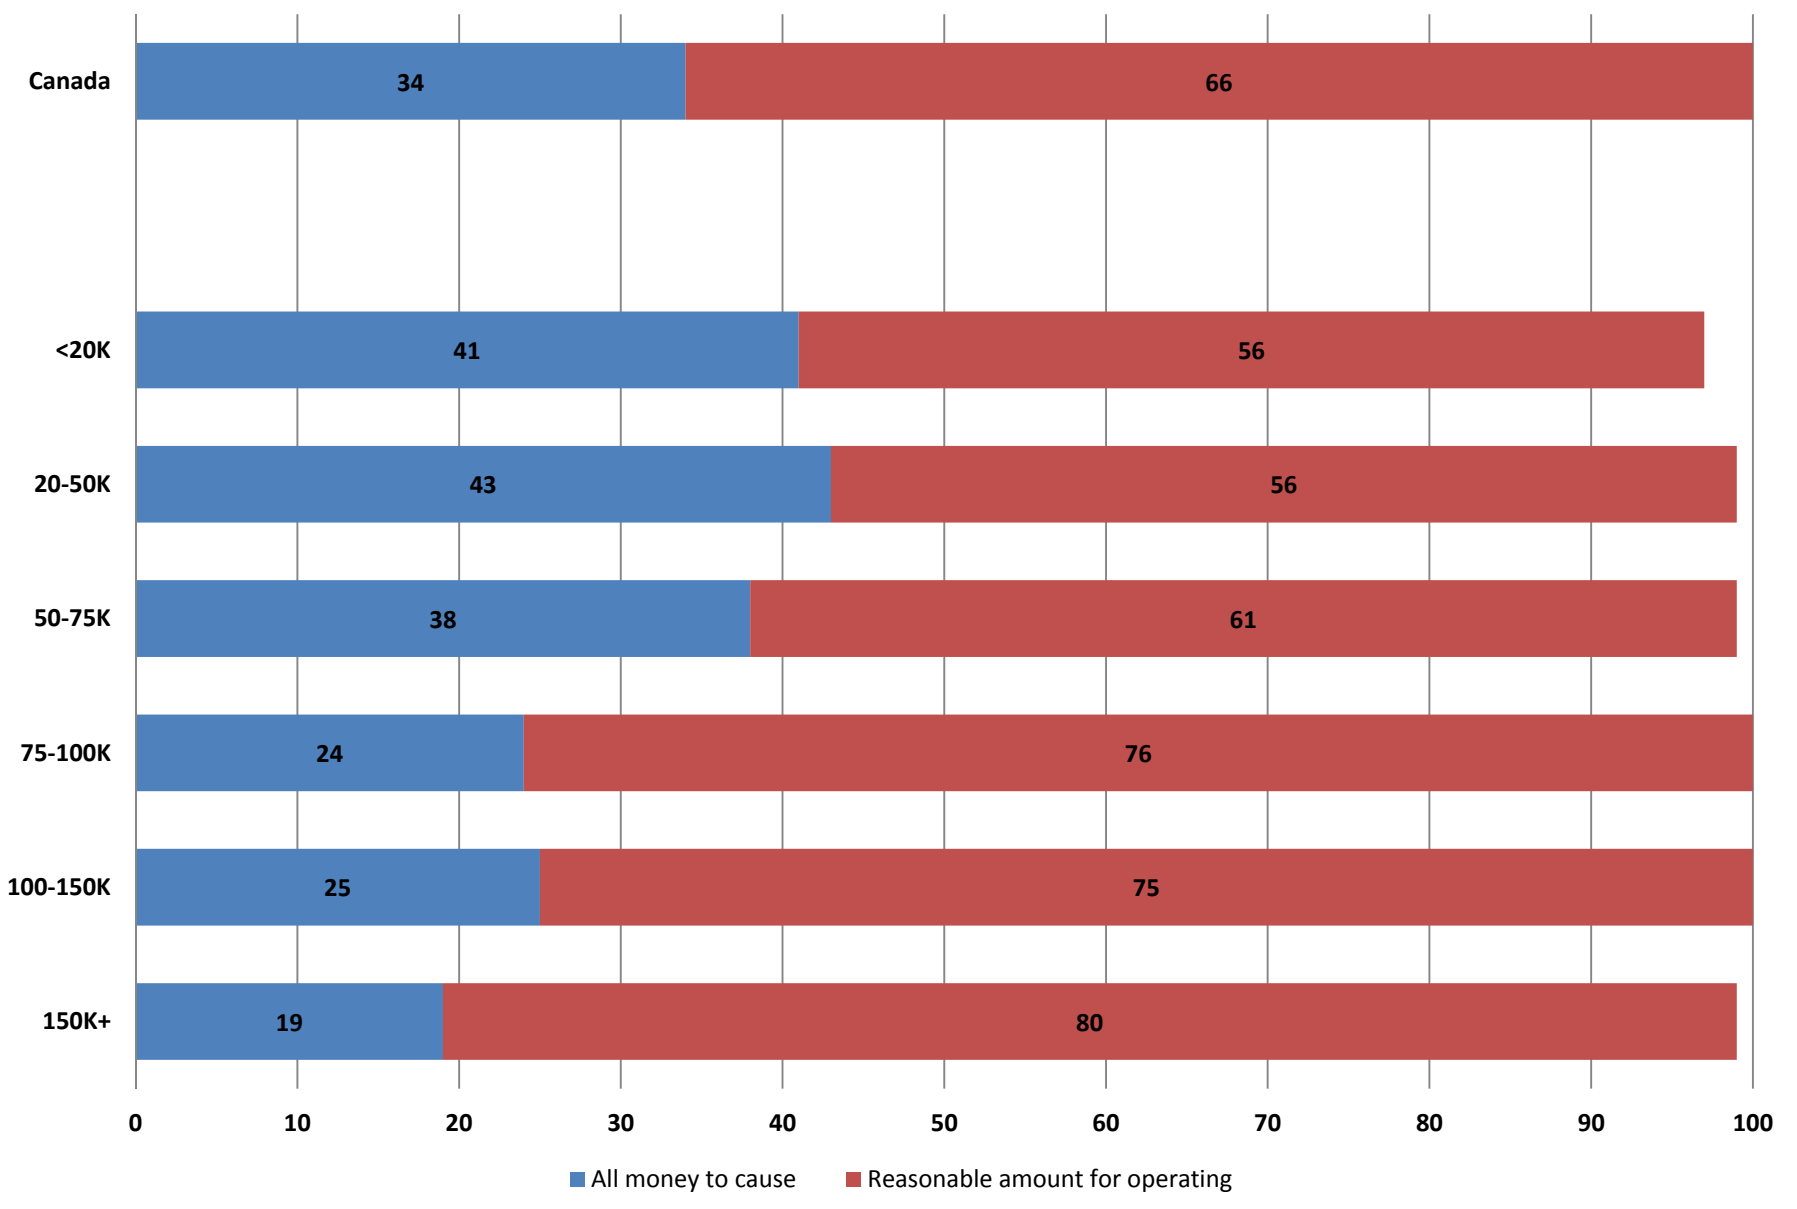

Expected use of donations (Canada)

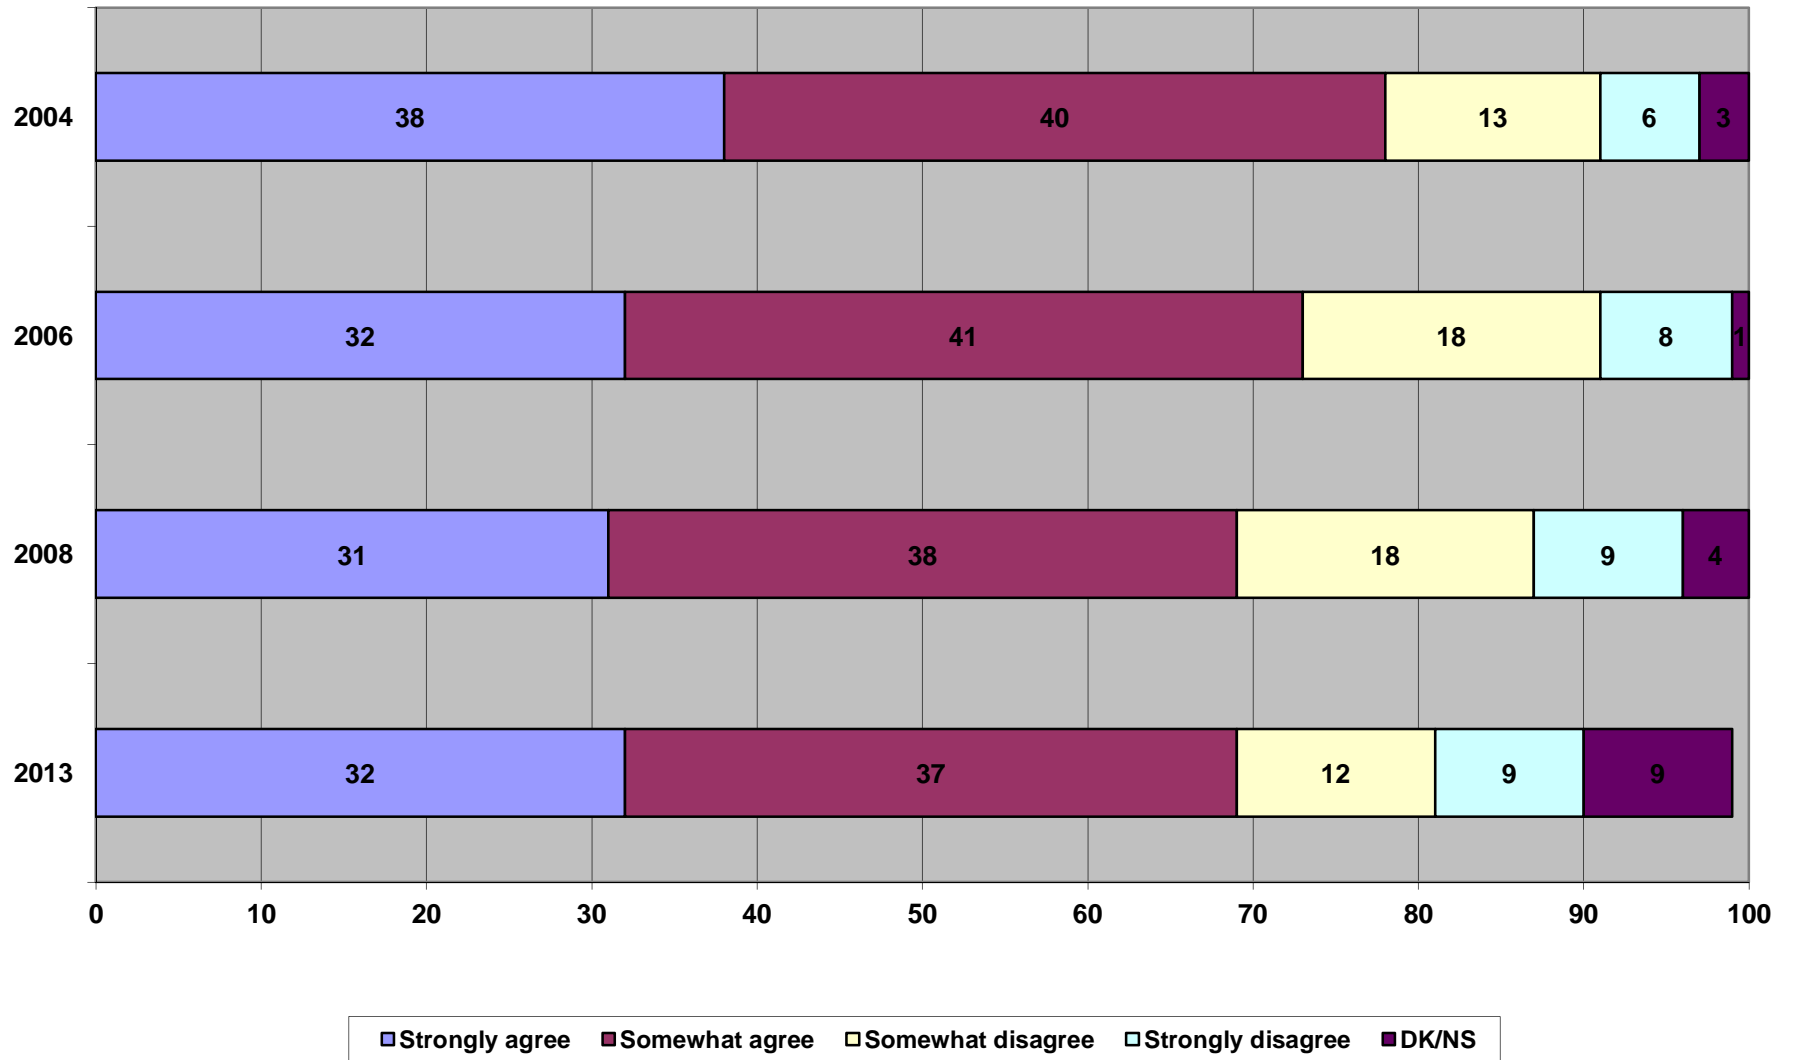

Expected use of donations (by age)

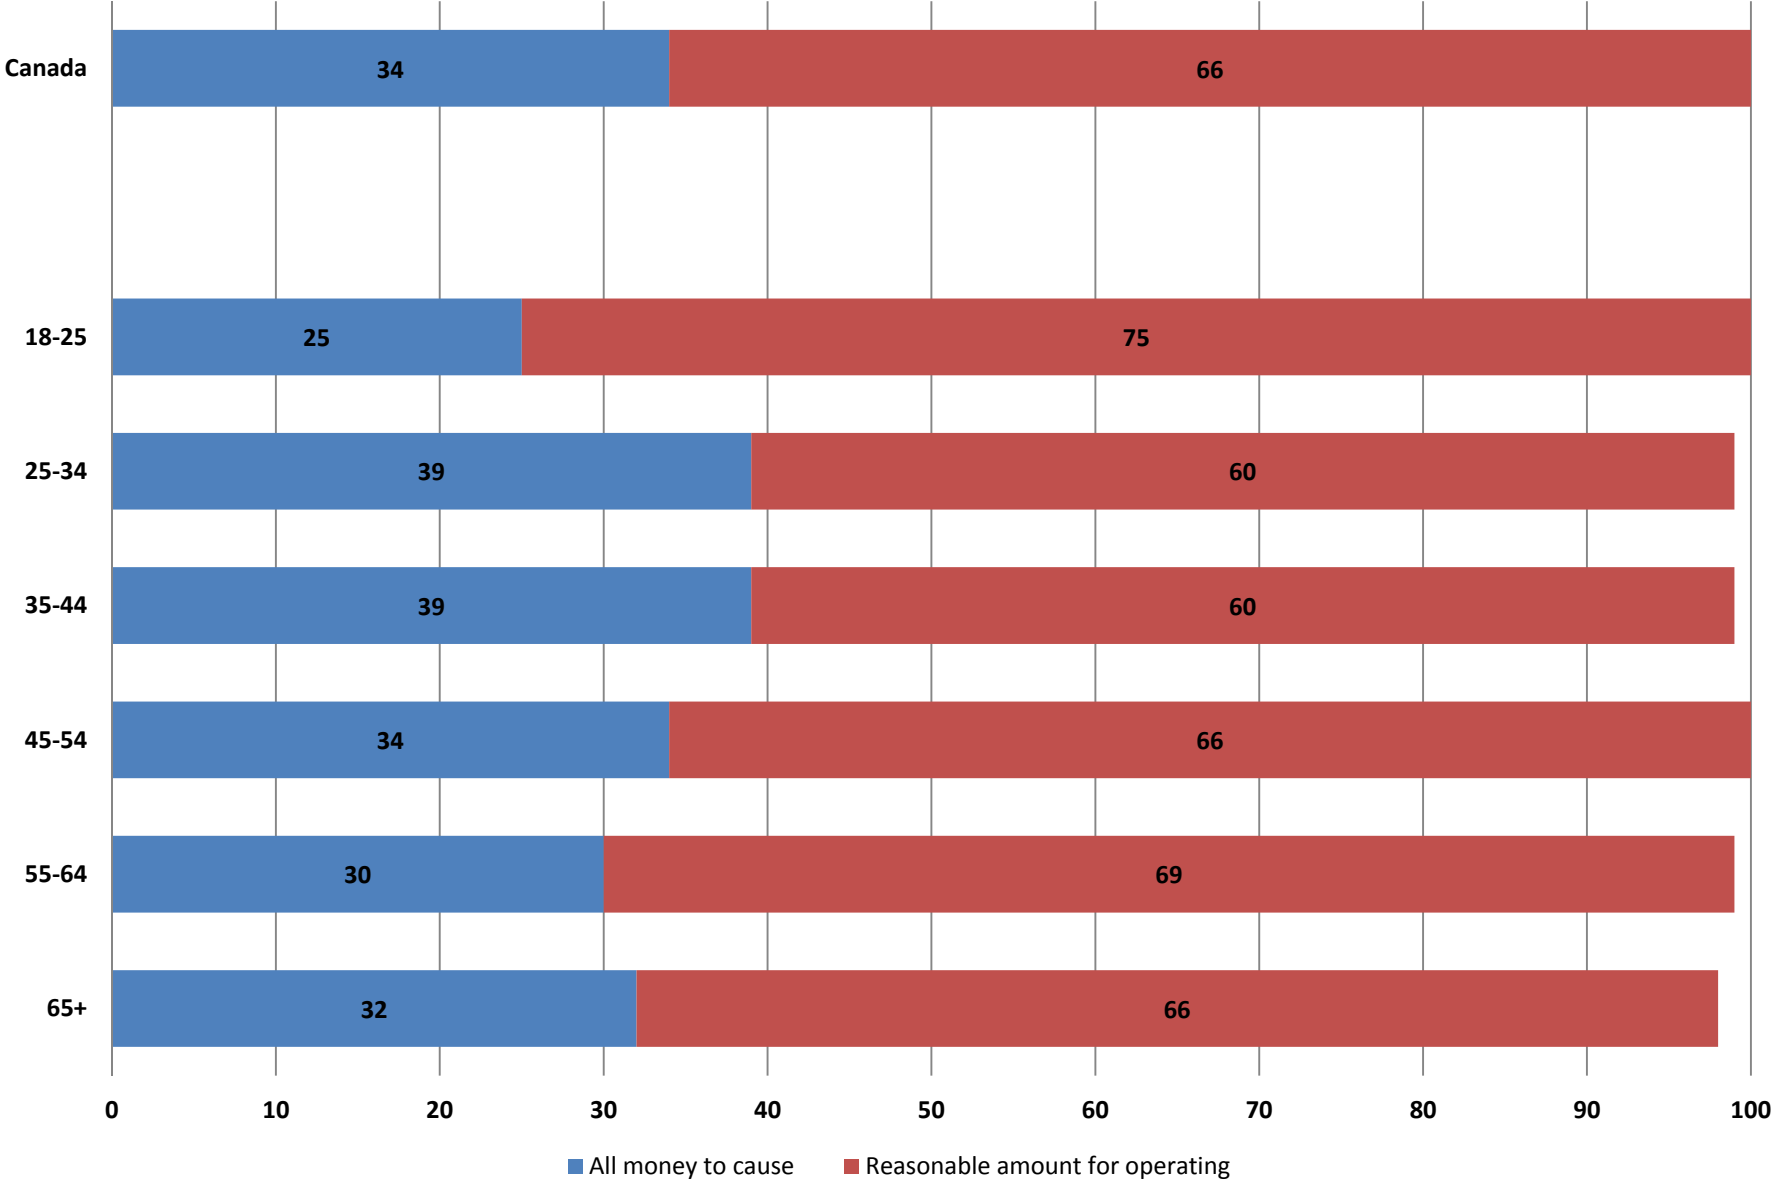

Expected use of donations (by household income)

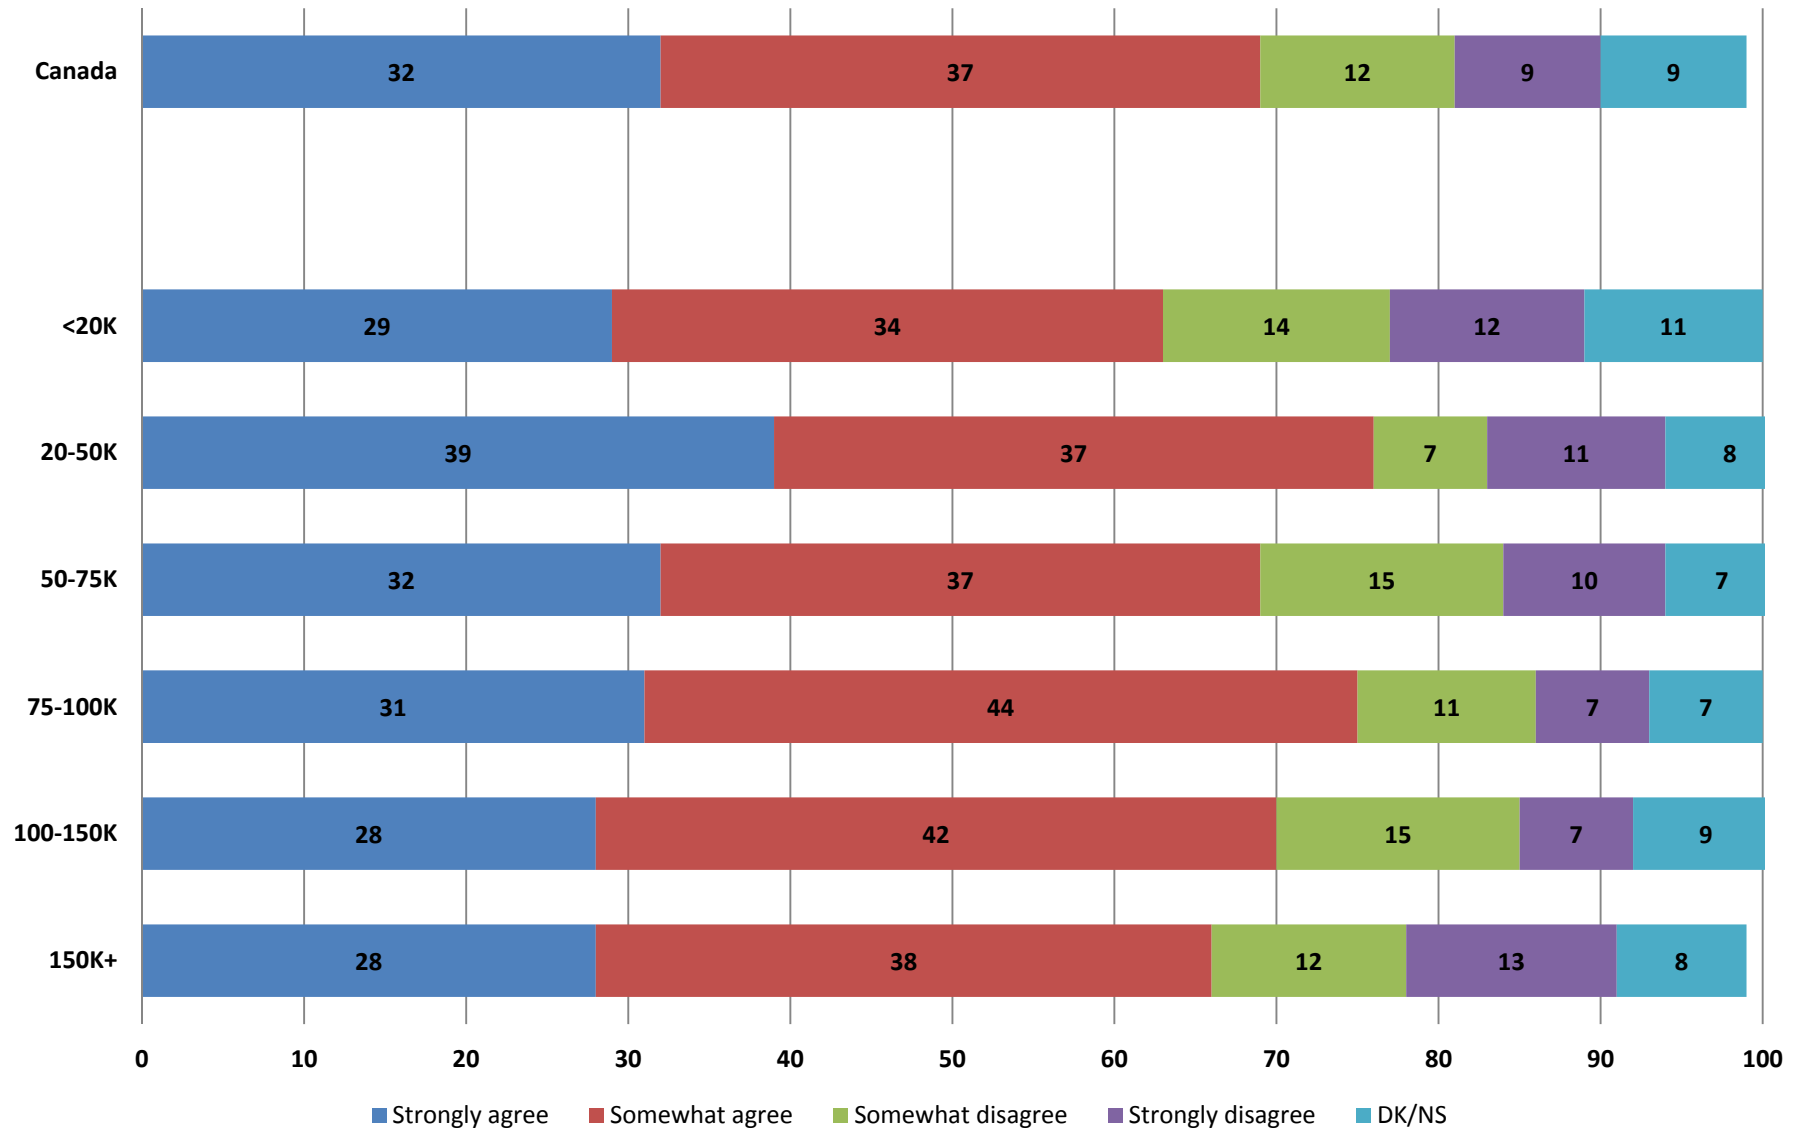

Advocacy laws should be changed to permit charities to advocate more freely for their causes (Canada)

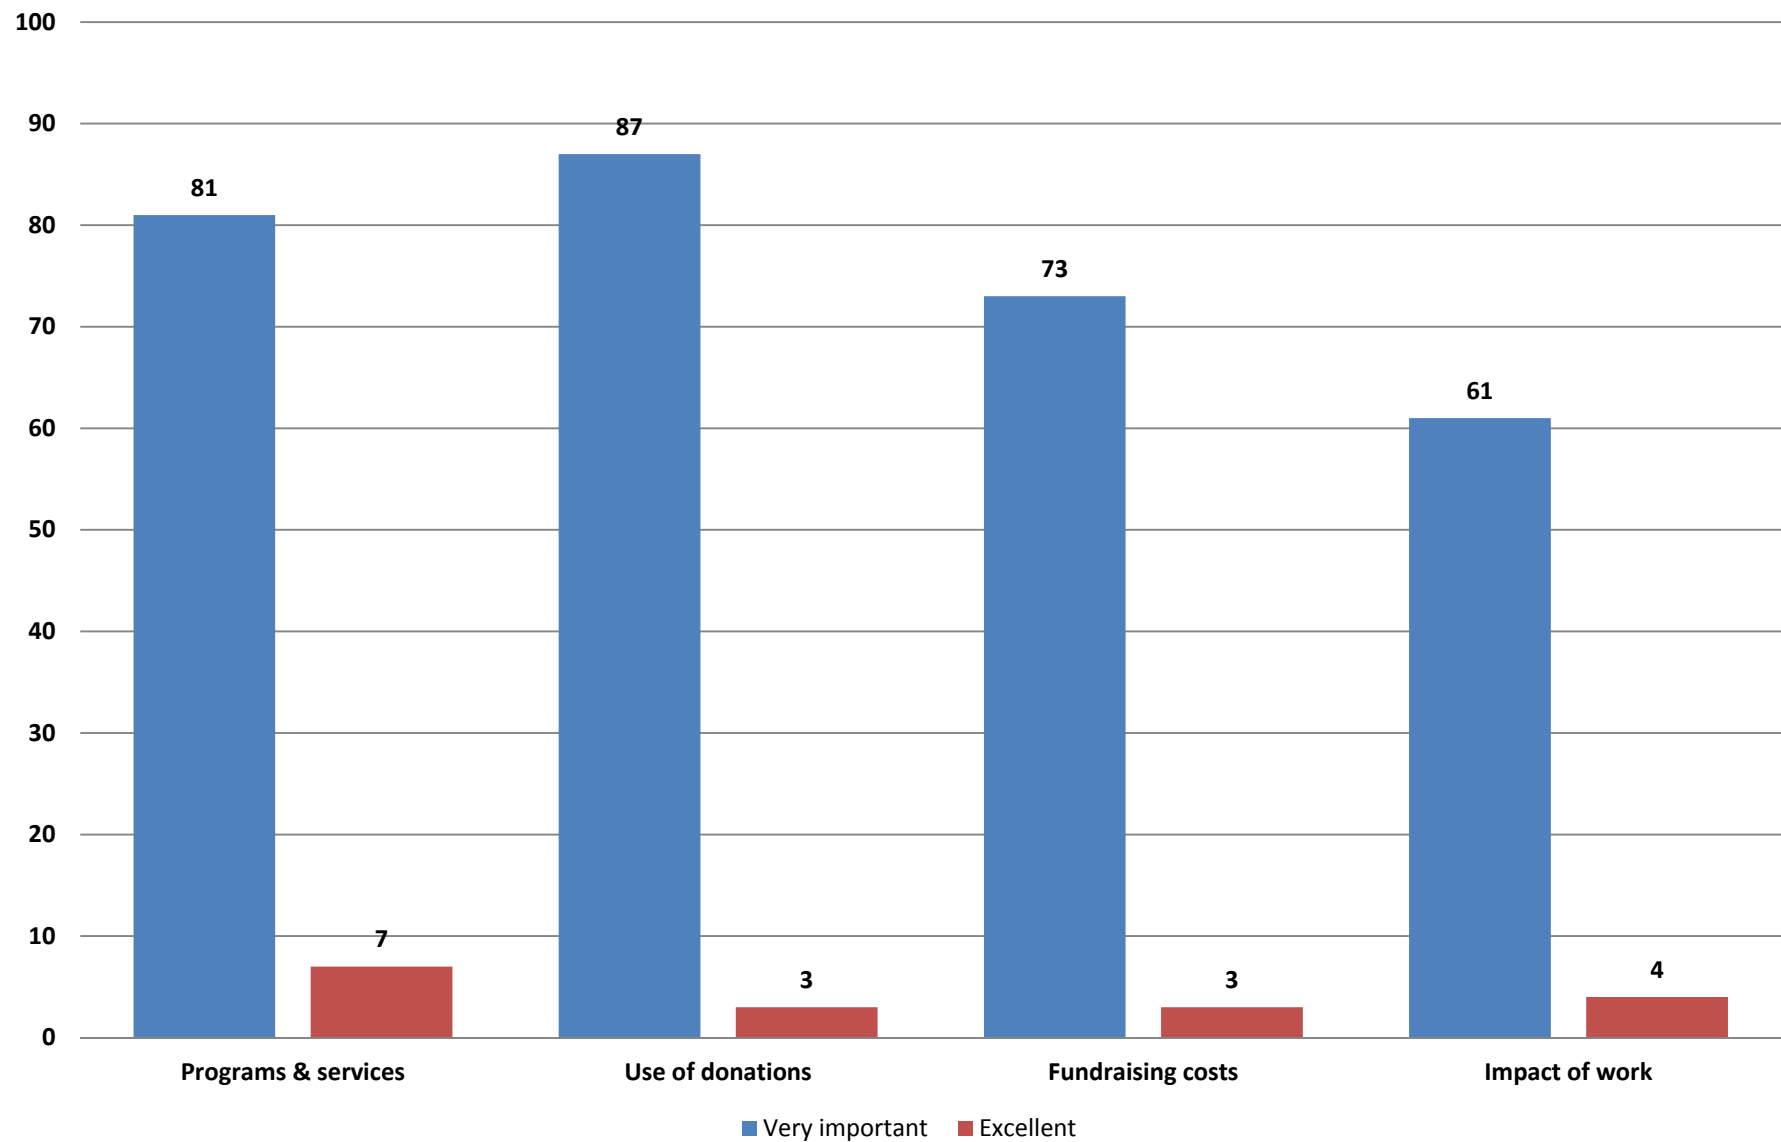

Expected use of donations (by age)

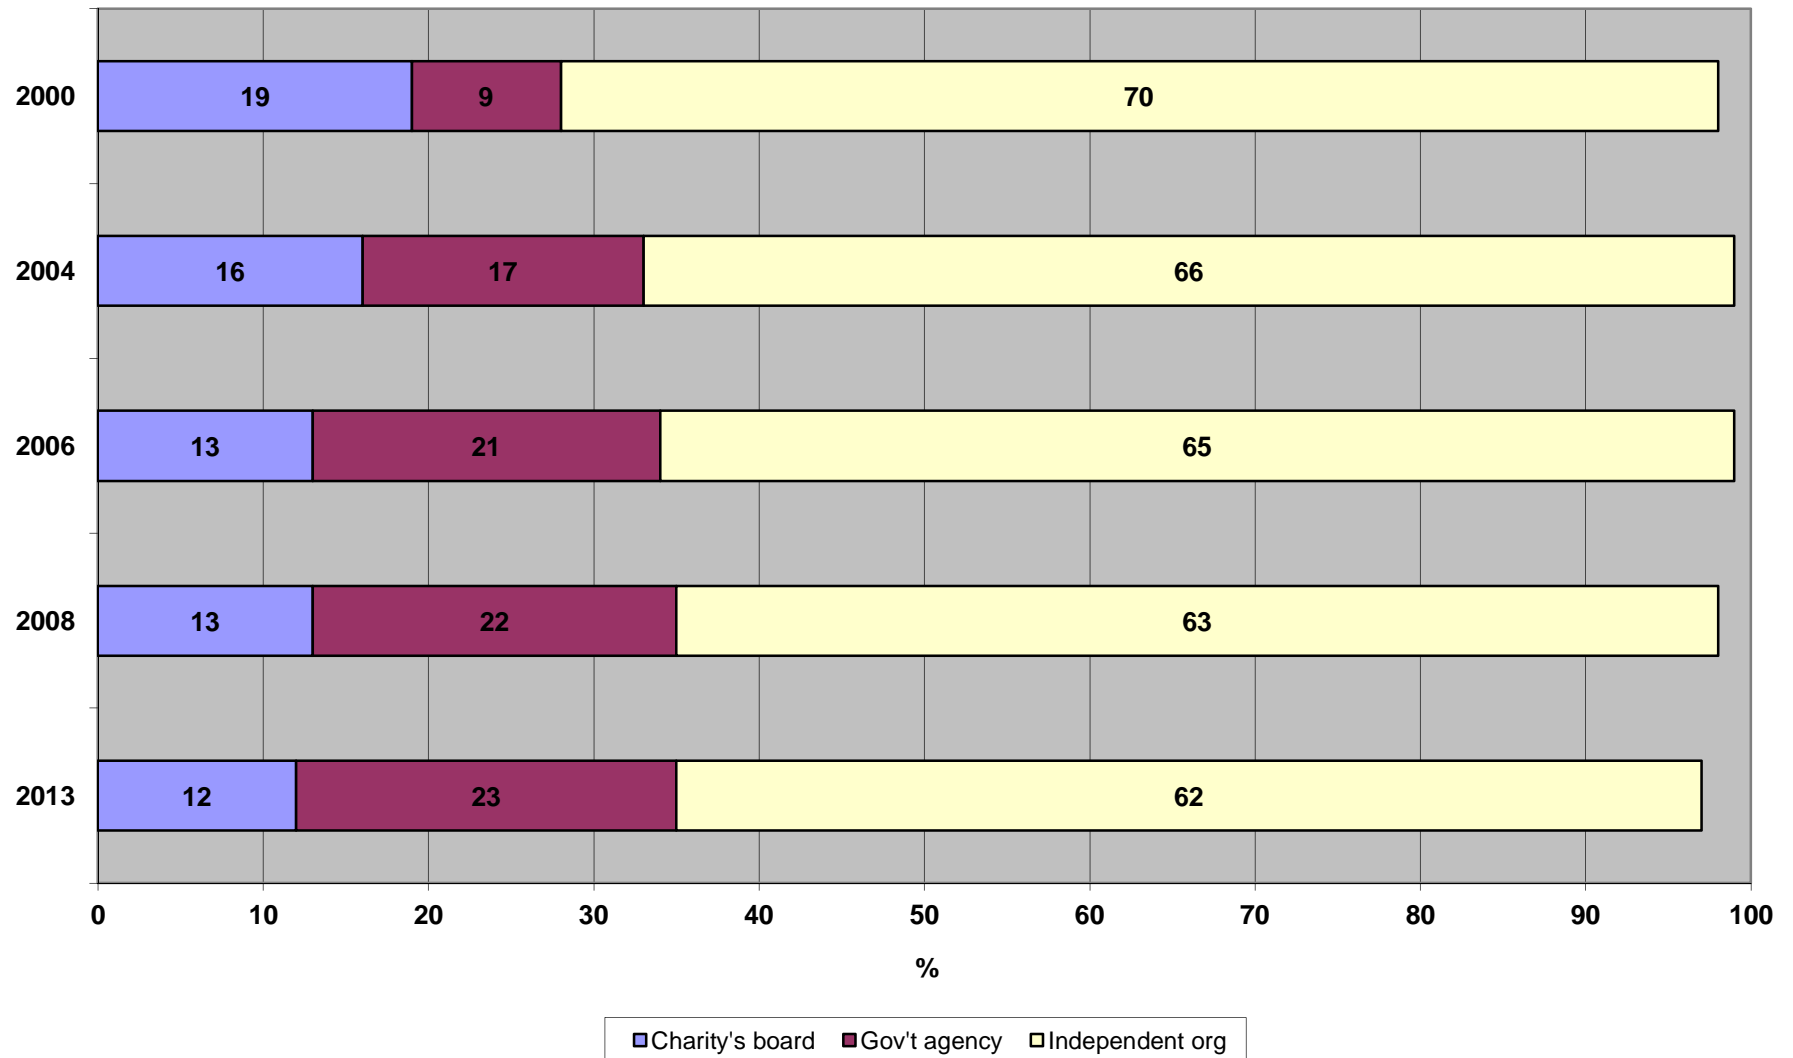

Advocacy laws should be changed to permit charities to advocate more freely for their causes

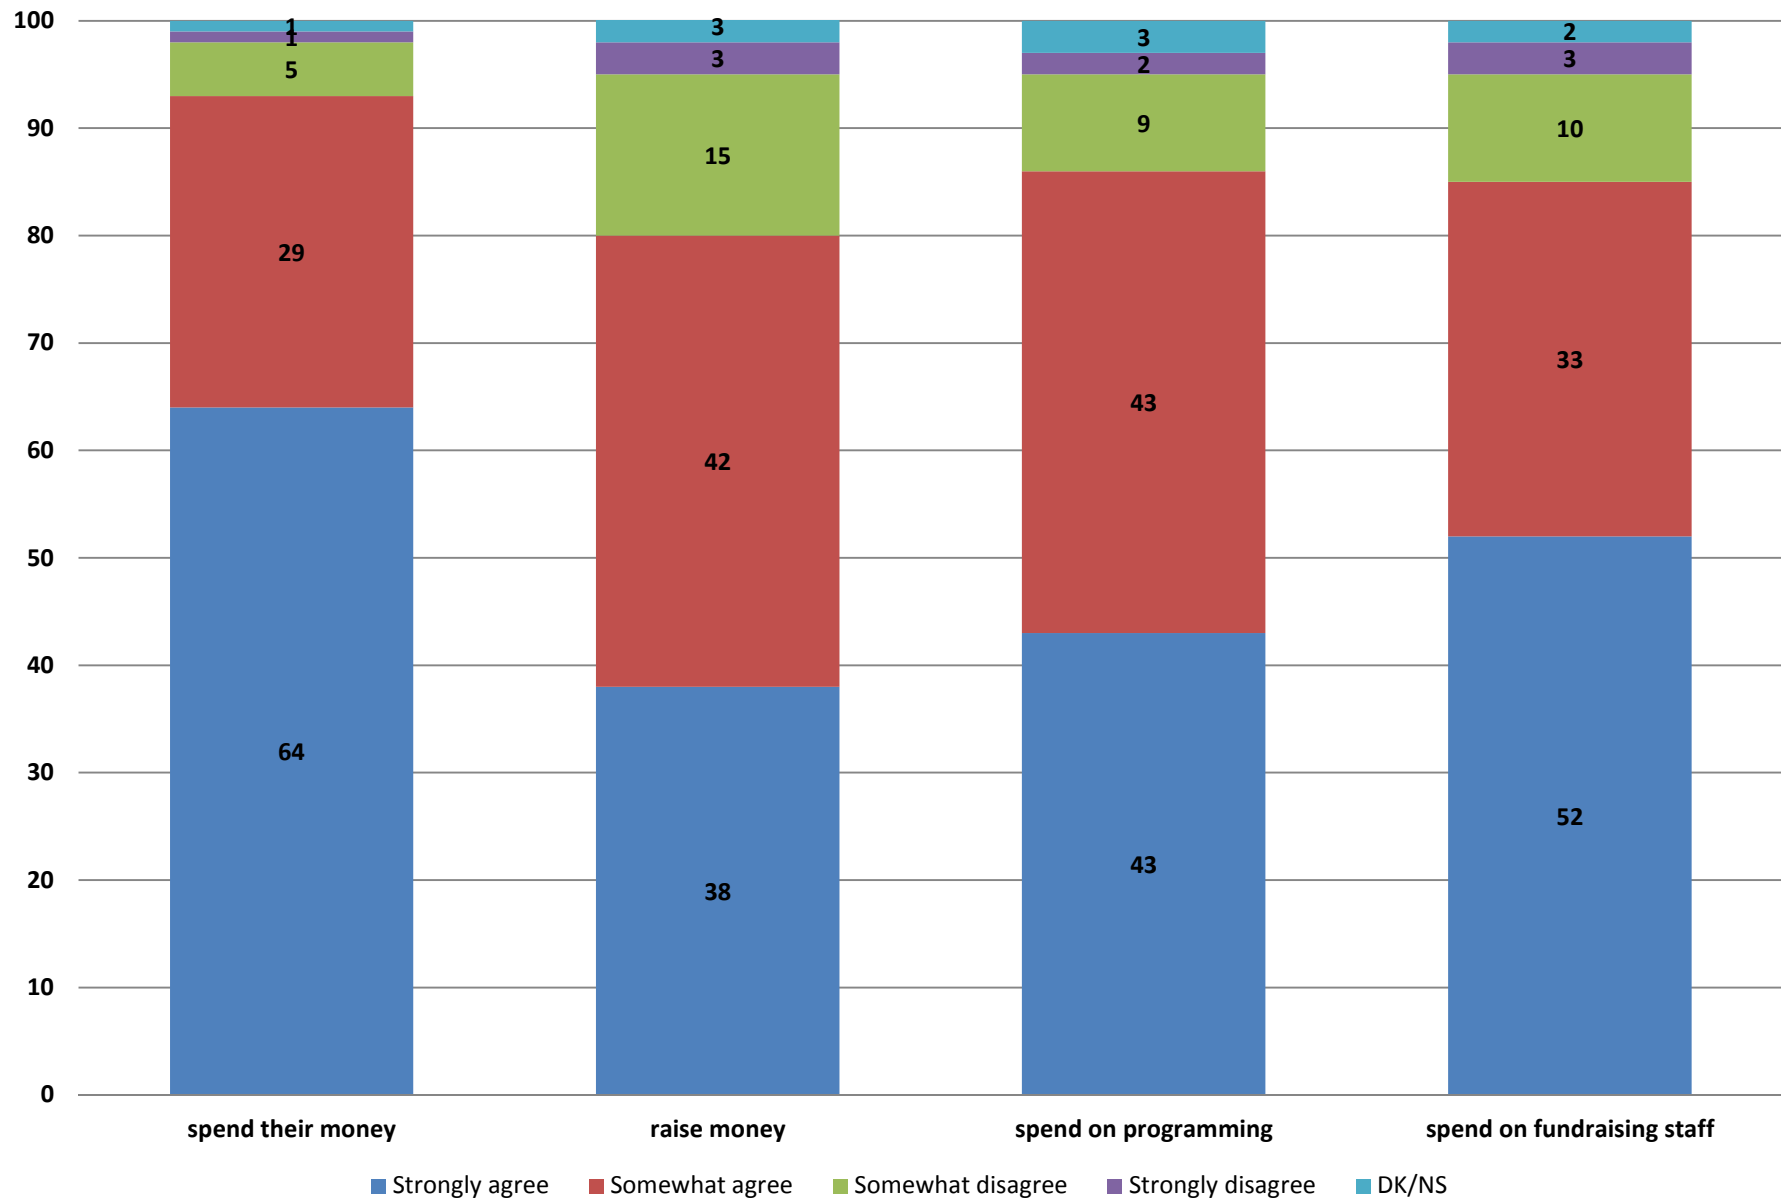

Very important to get information vs charities do excellent job in providing information

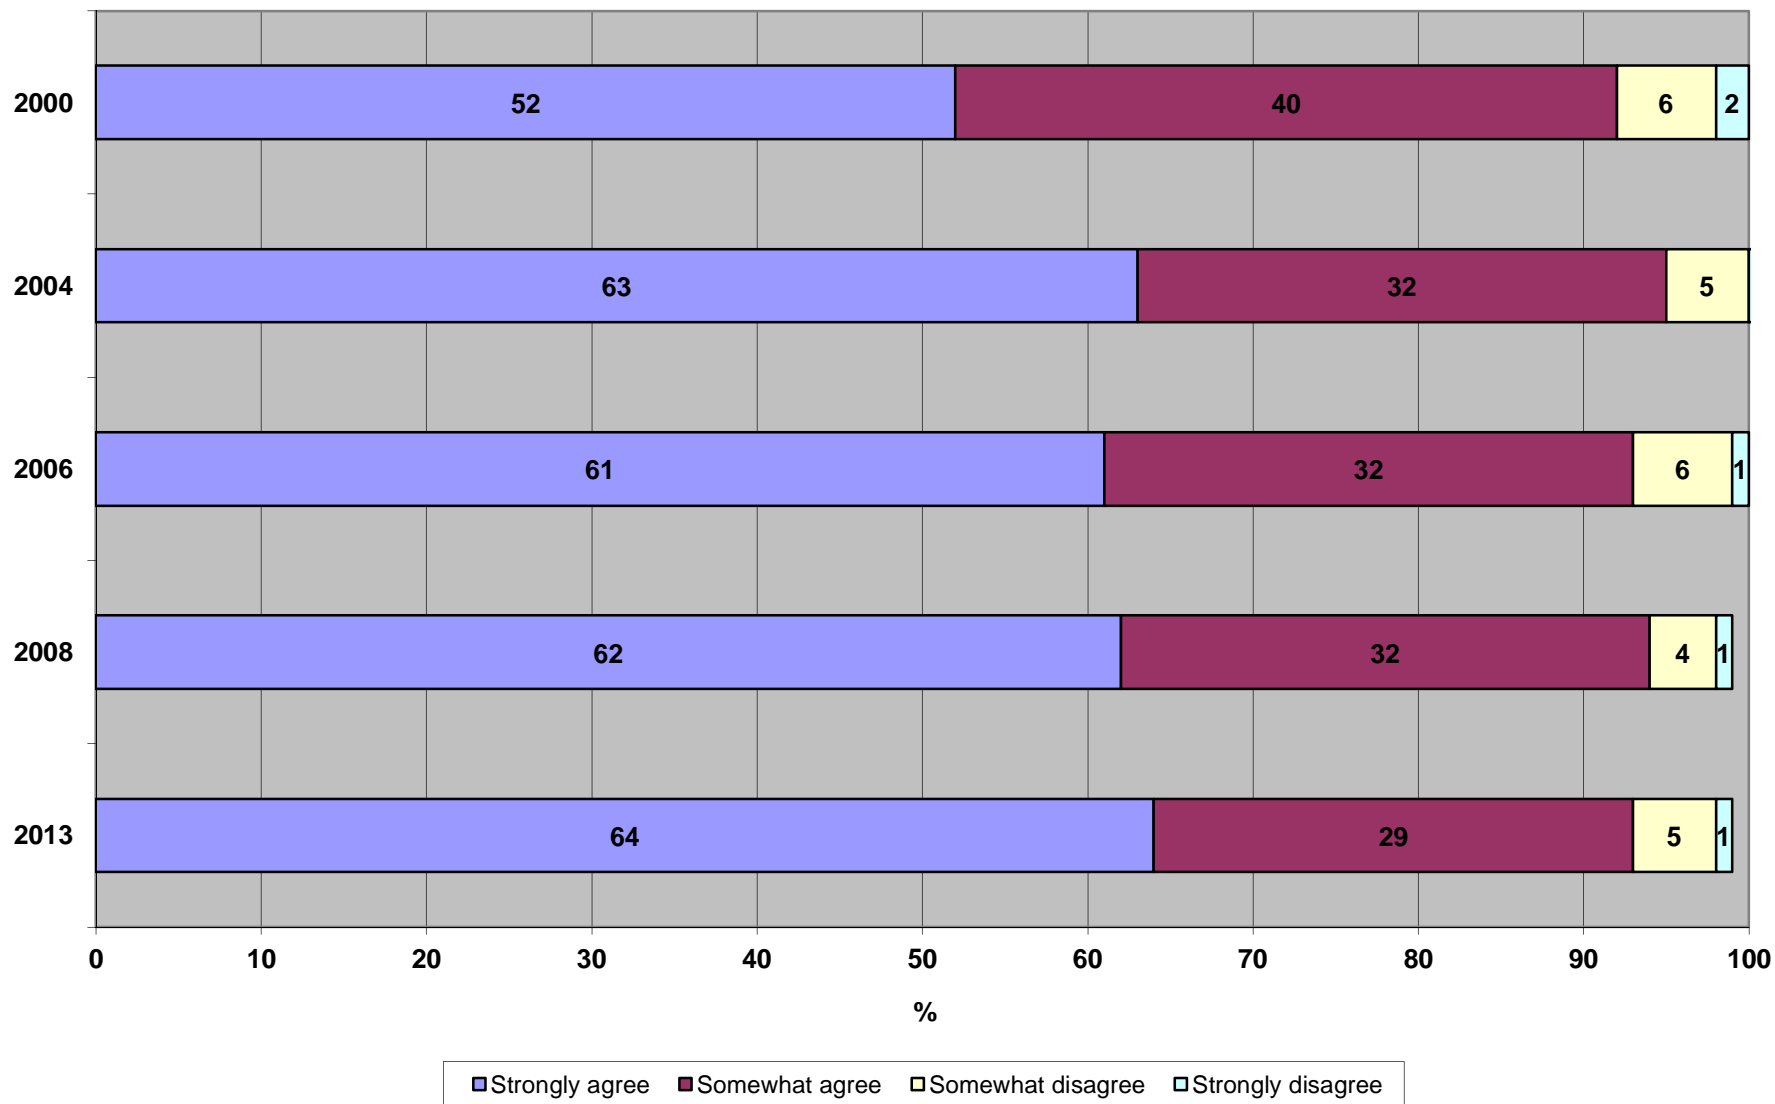

Which should be responsible for watching over the activities of charities: the charity's board of directors, a government agency or an independent organization? (Canada)

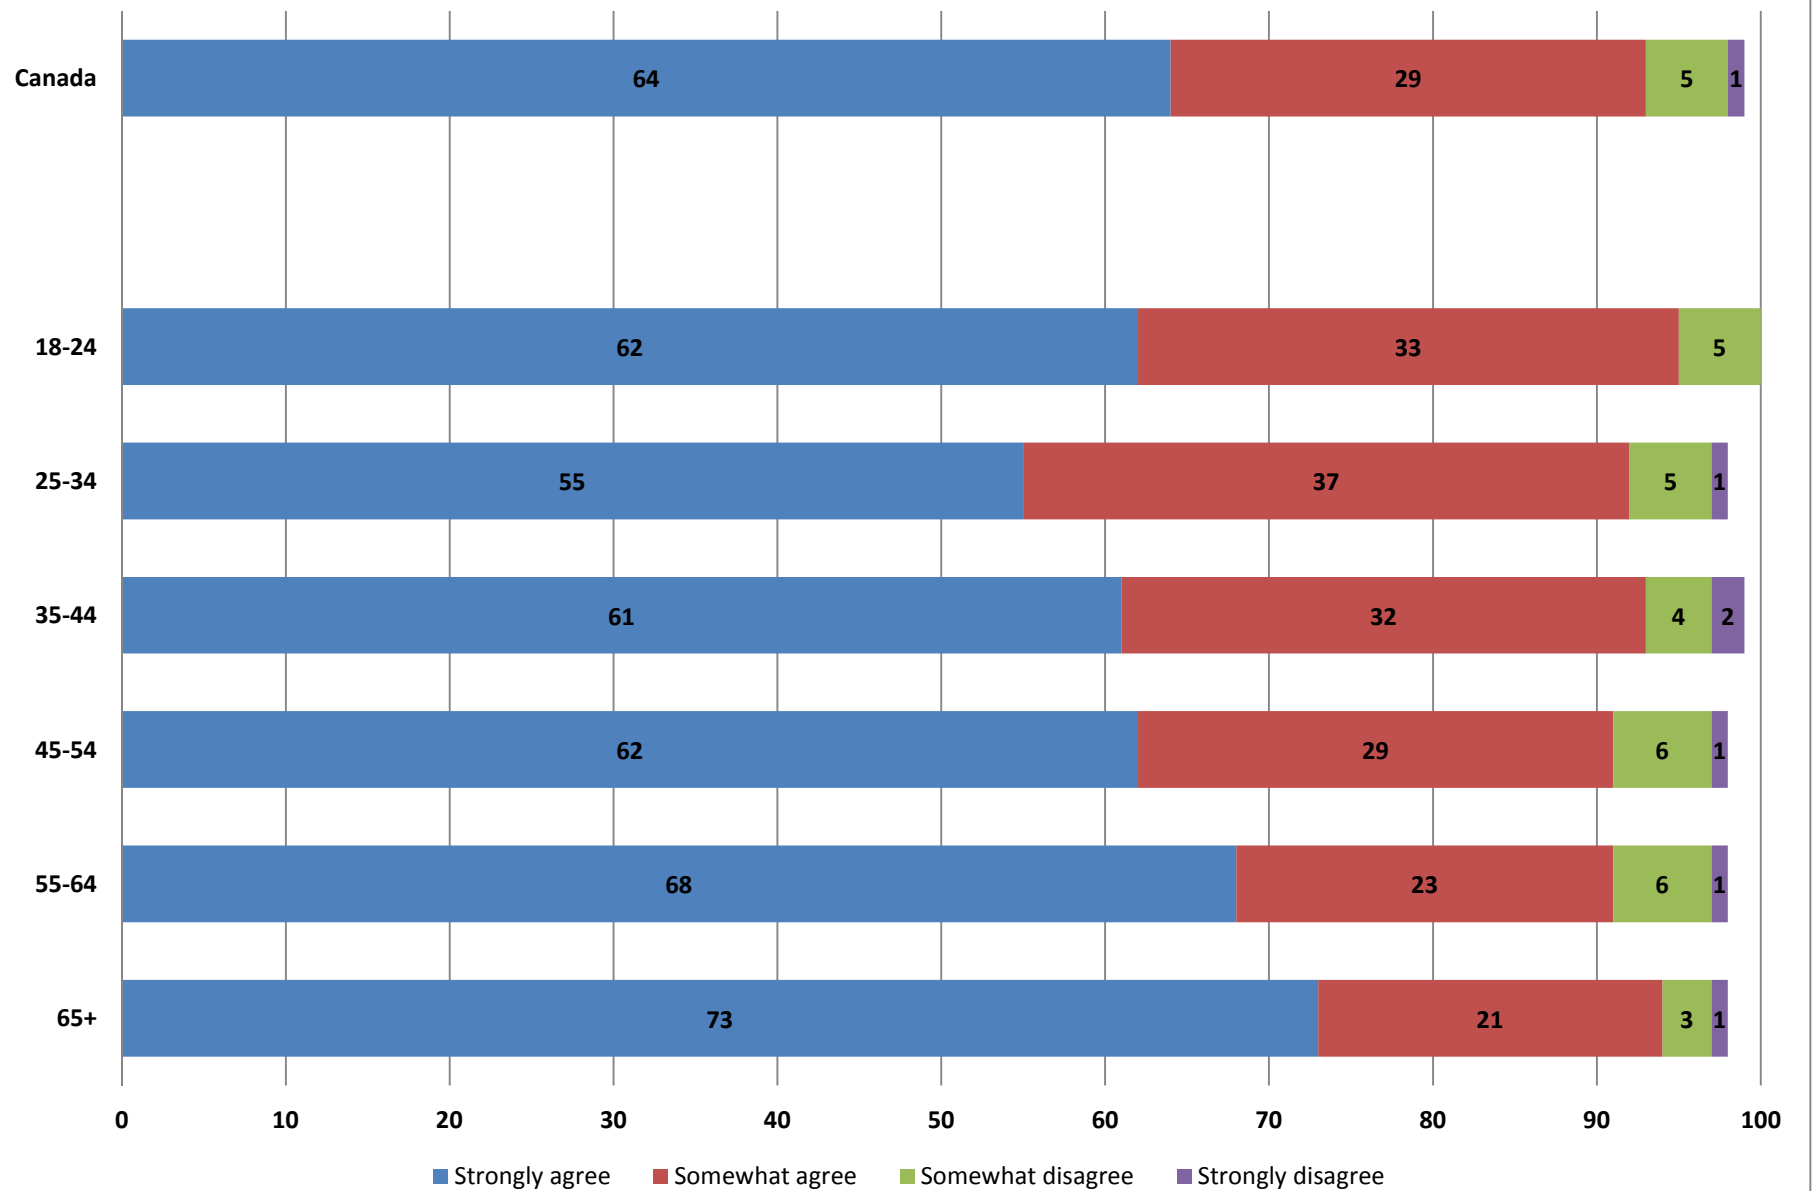

More attention should be paid to how charities ...

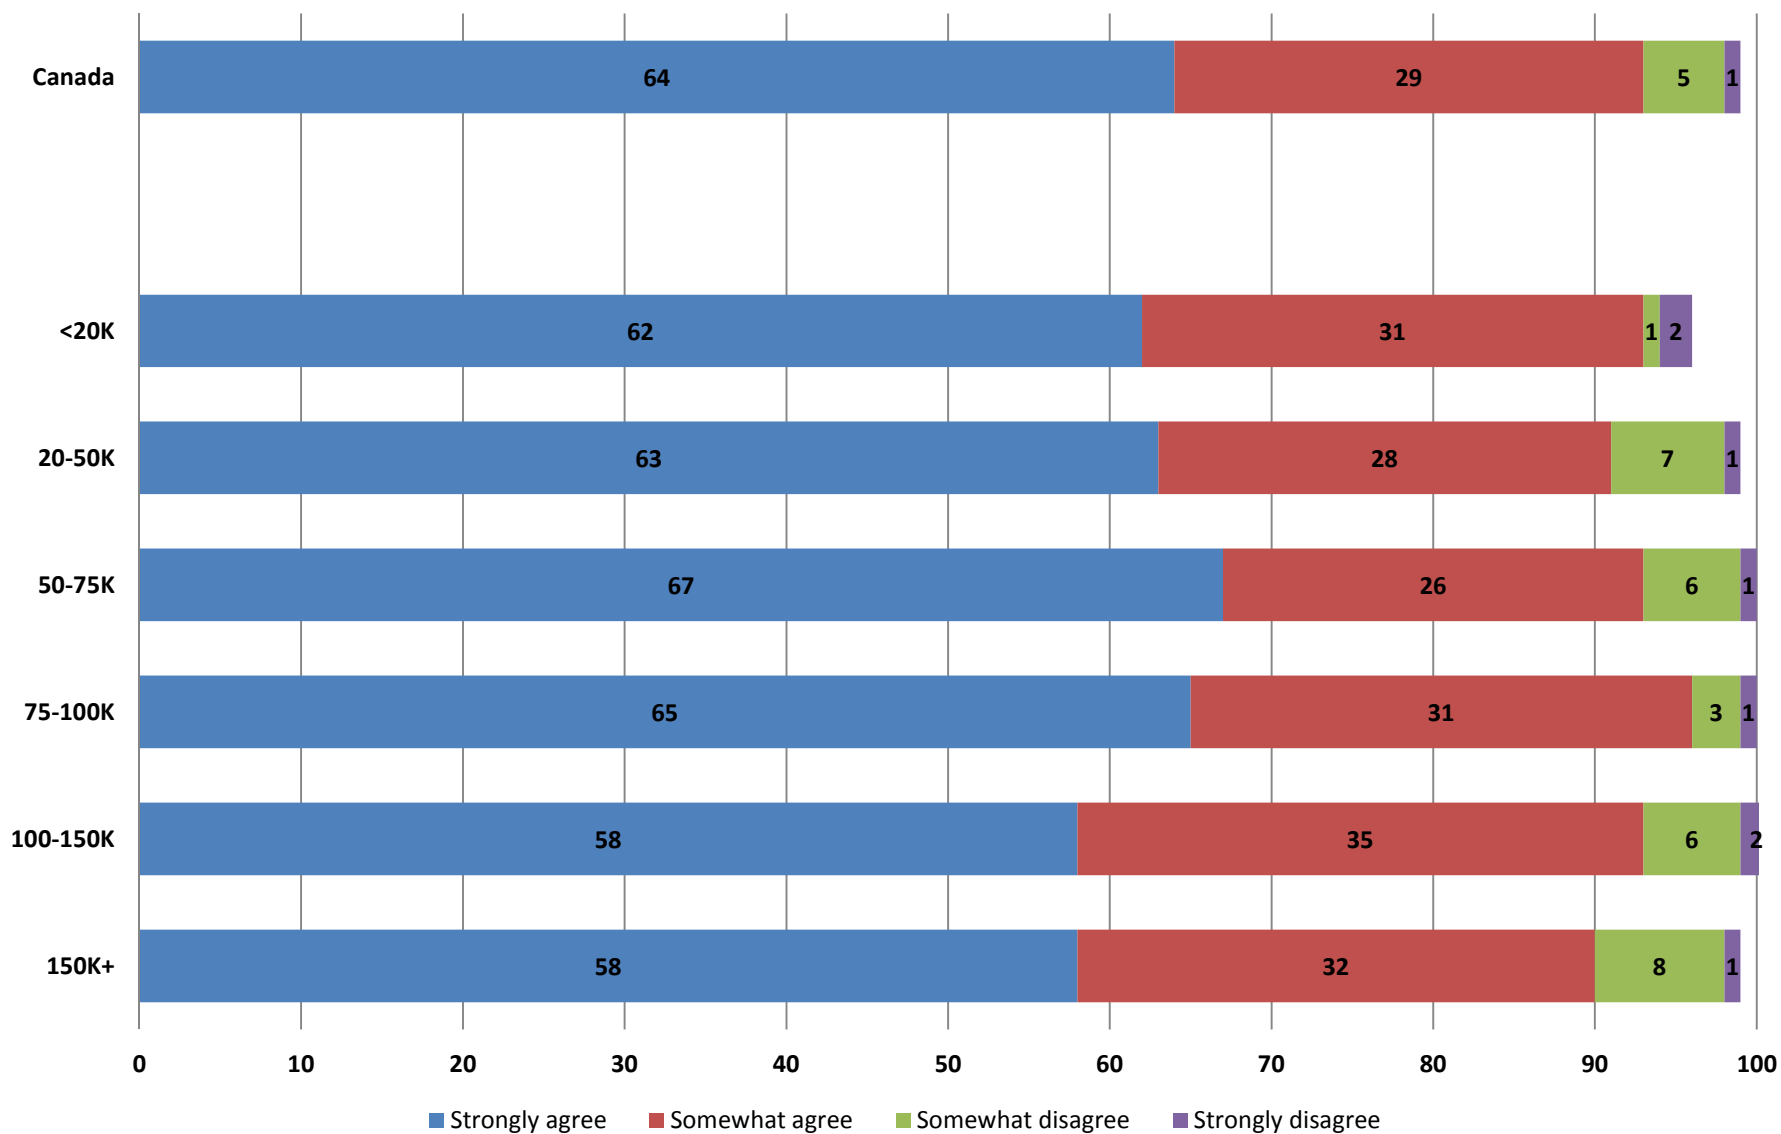

More attention should be paid to the way charities spend their money (Canada)

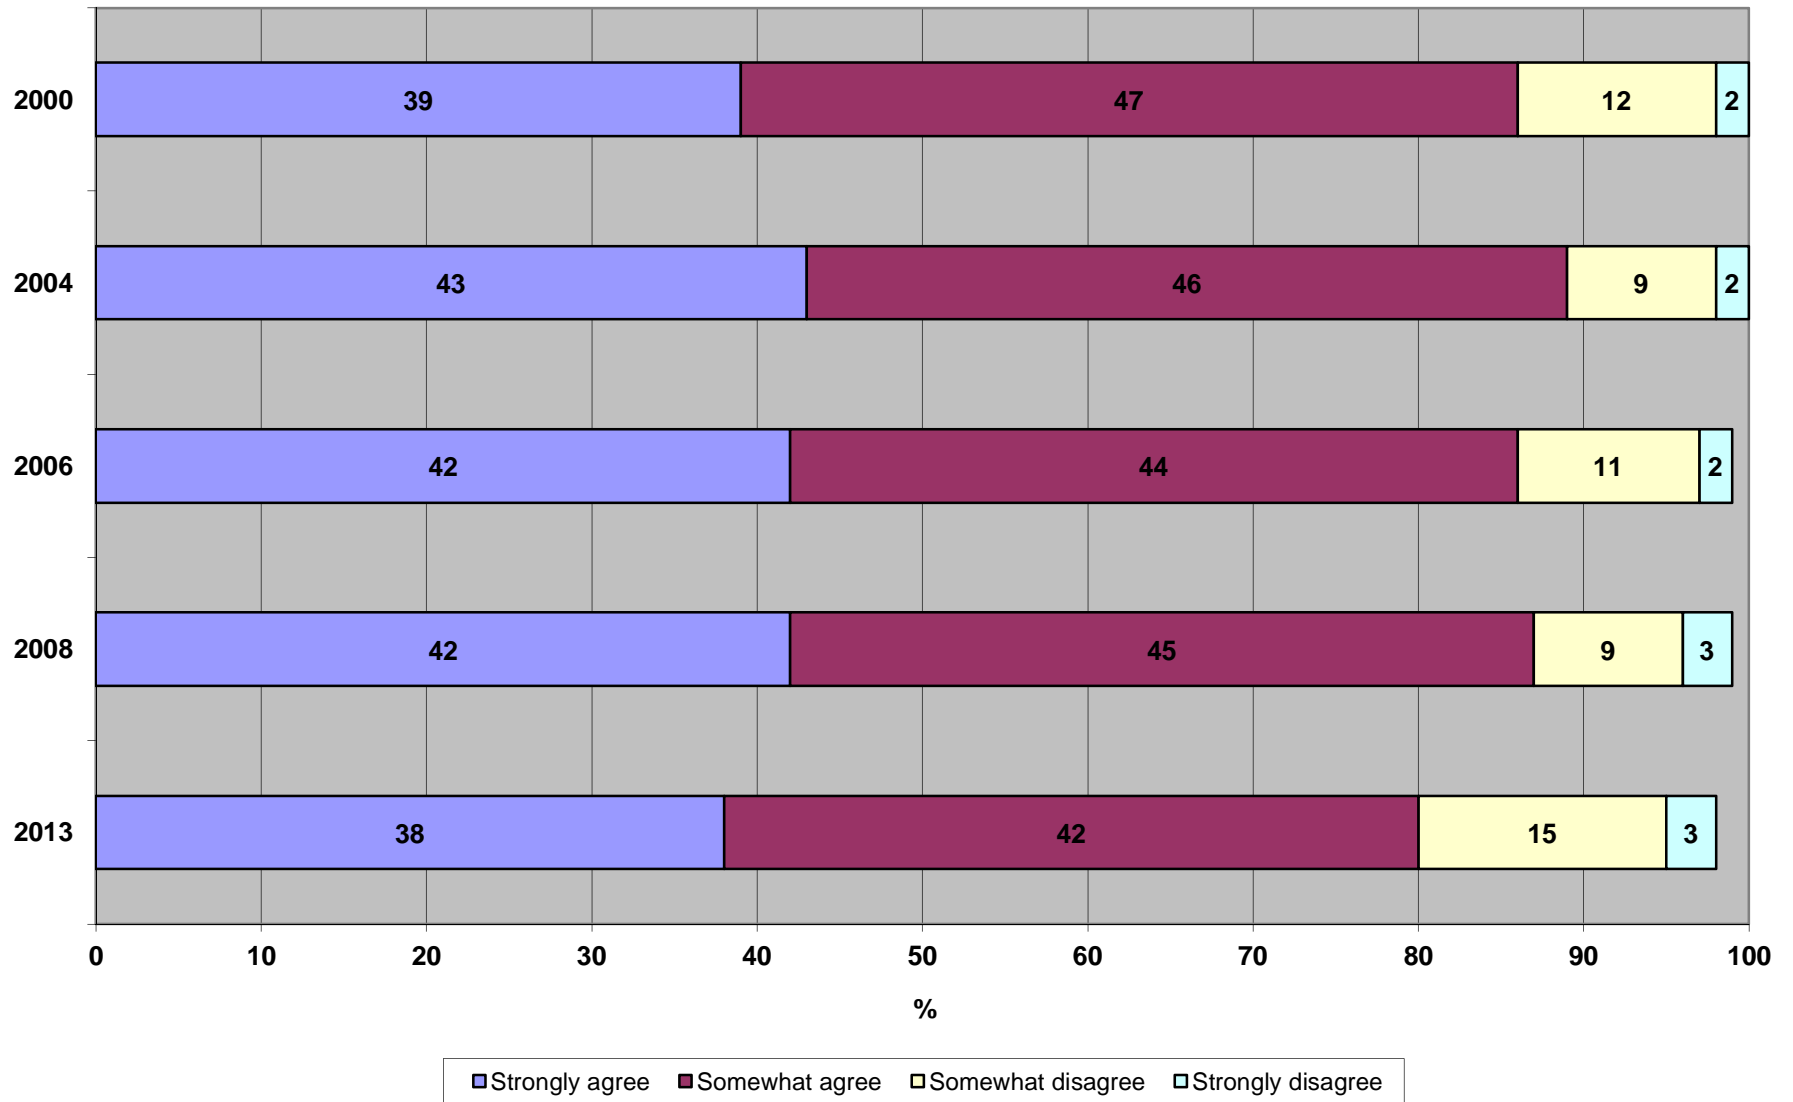

More attention should be paid to the way charities spend their money

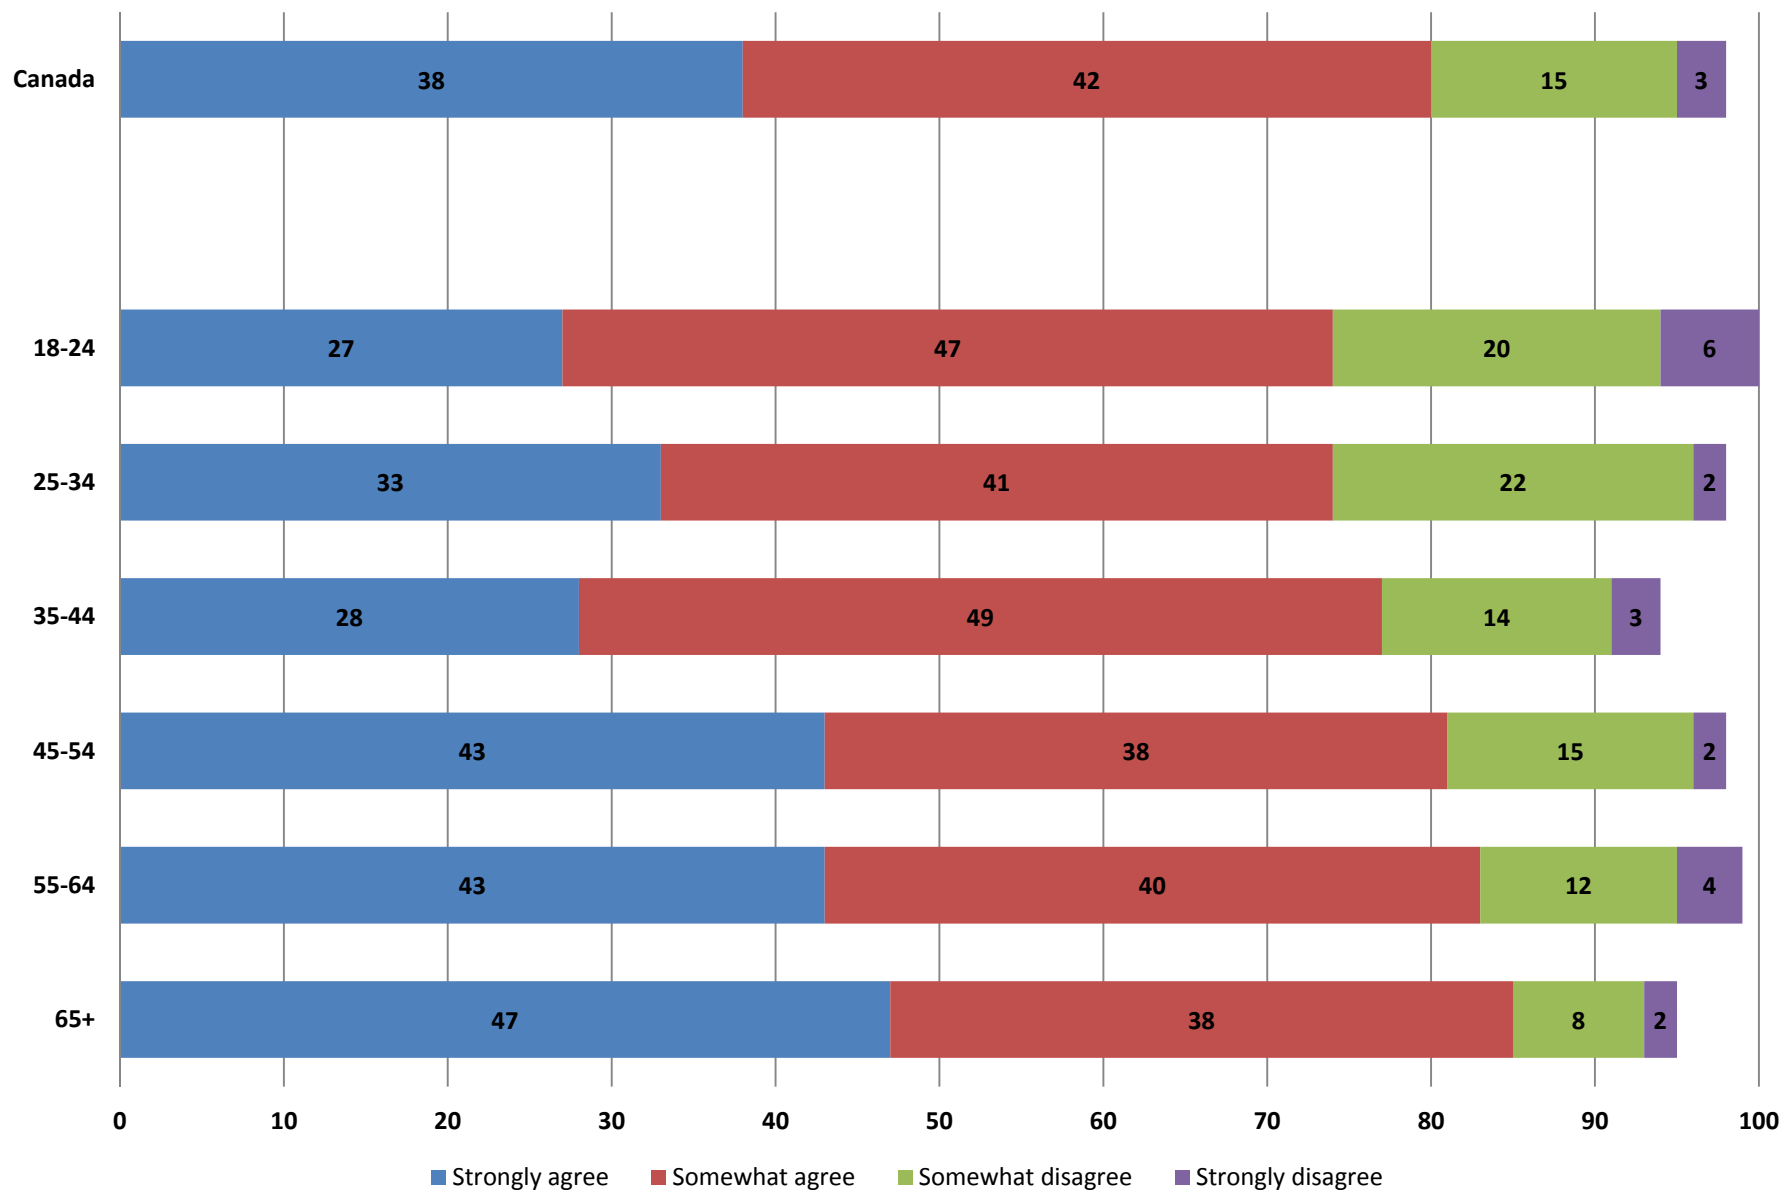

More attention should be paid to the way charities spend their money (by household income)

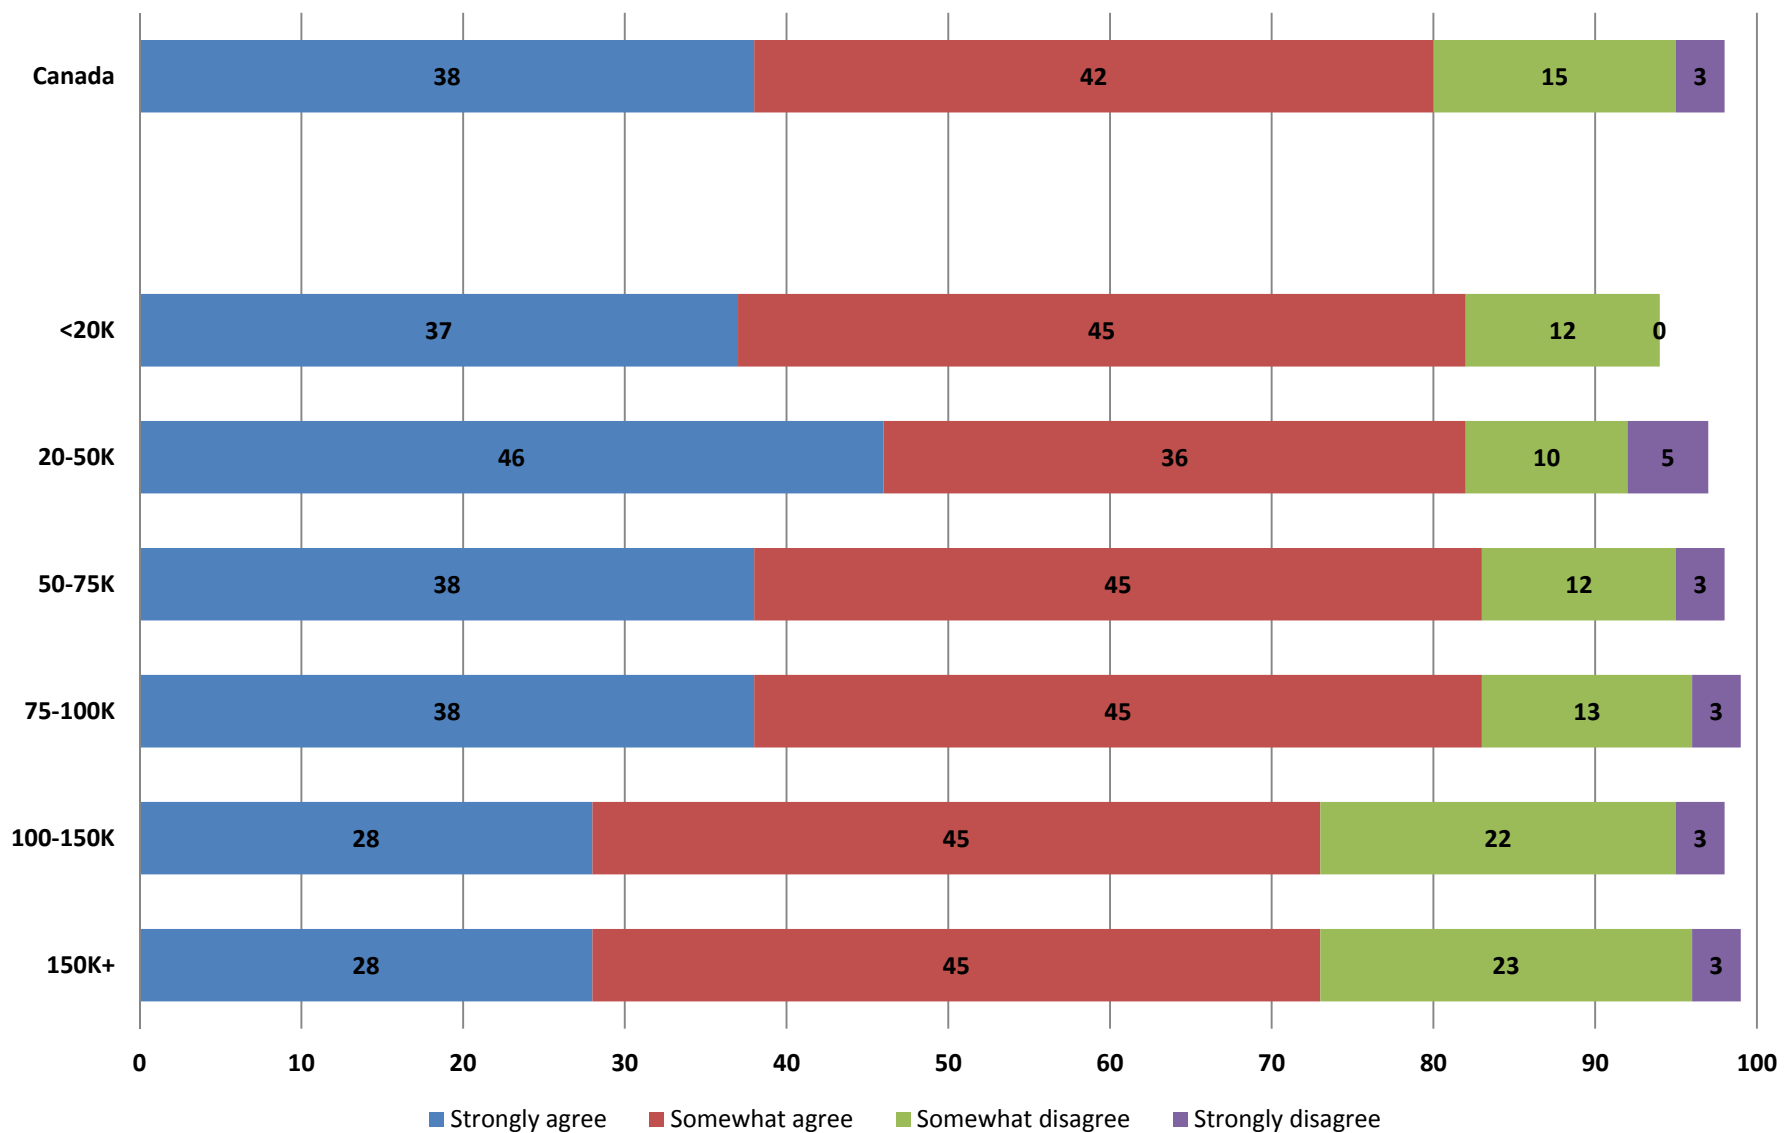

More attention should be paid to the way that charities raise money (Canada)

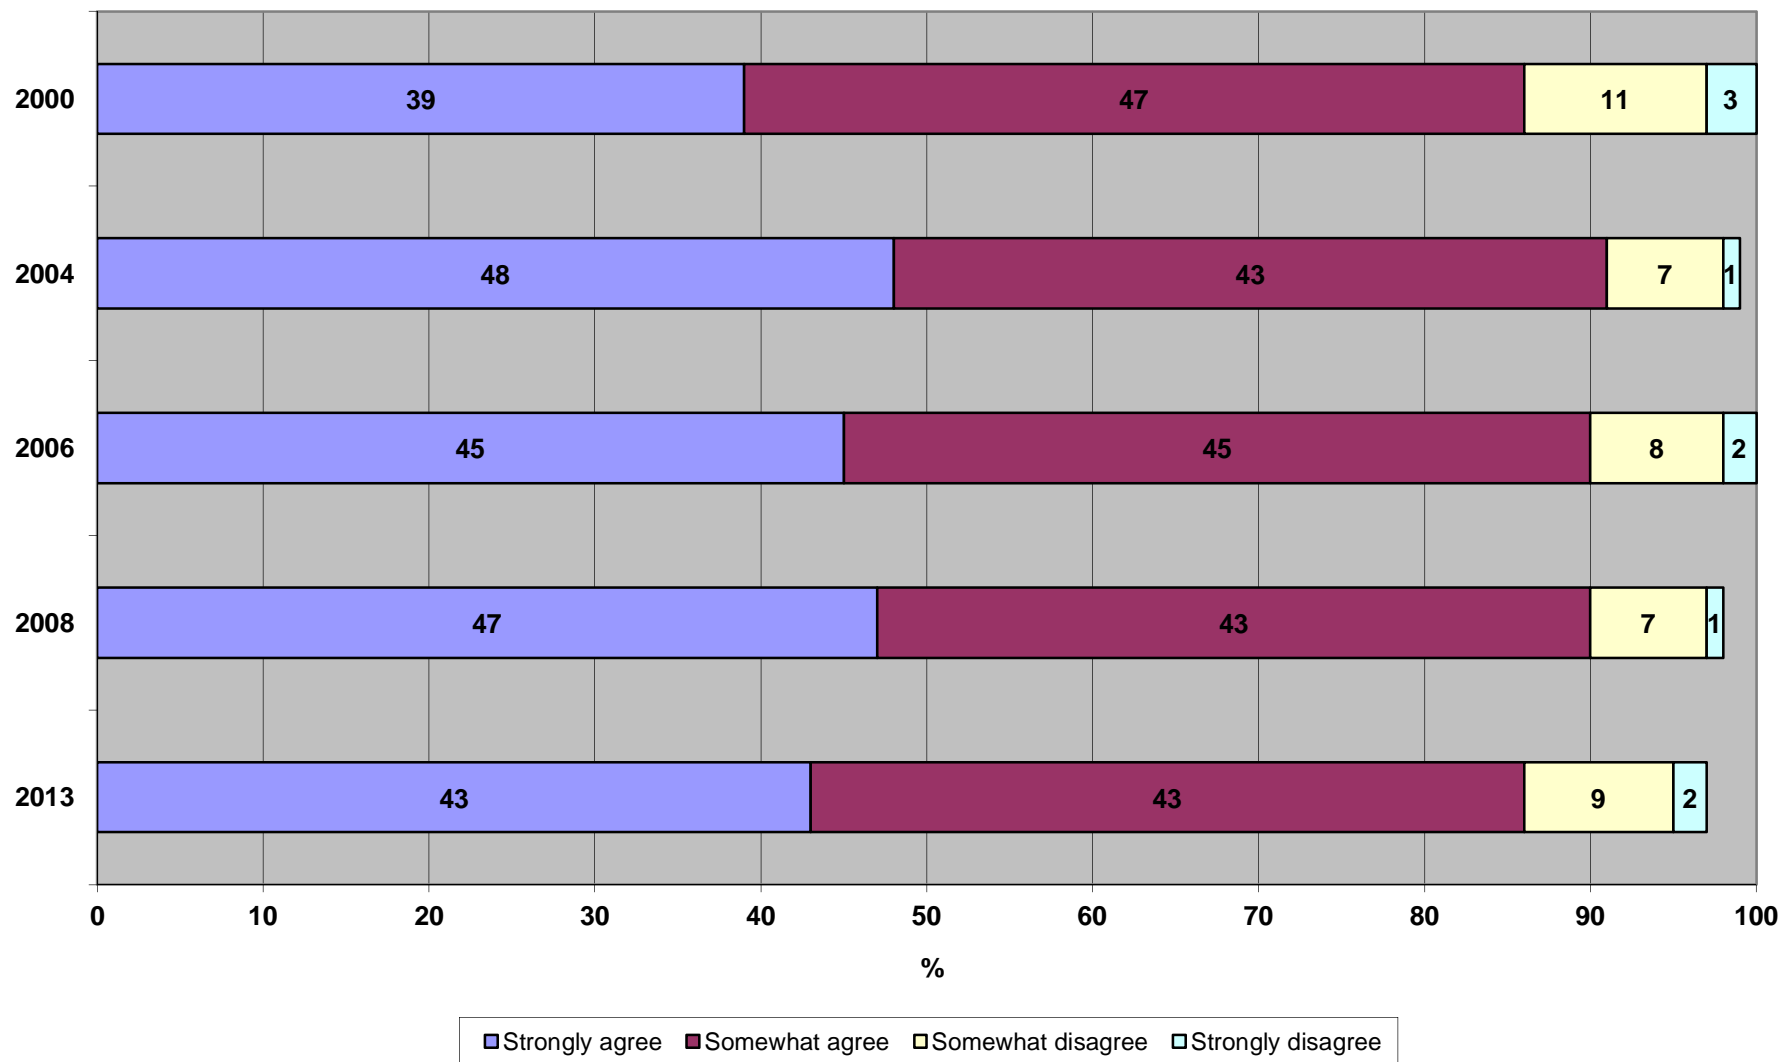

More attention should be spent to the way charities raise money

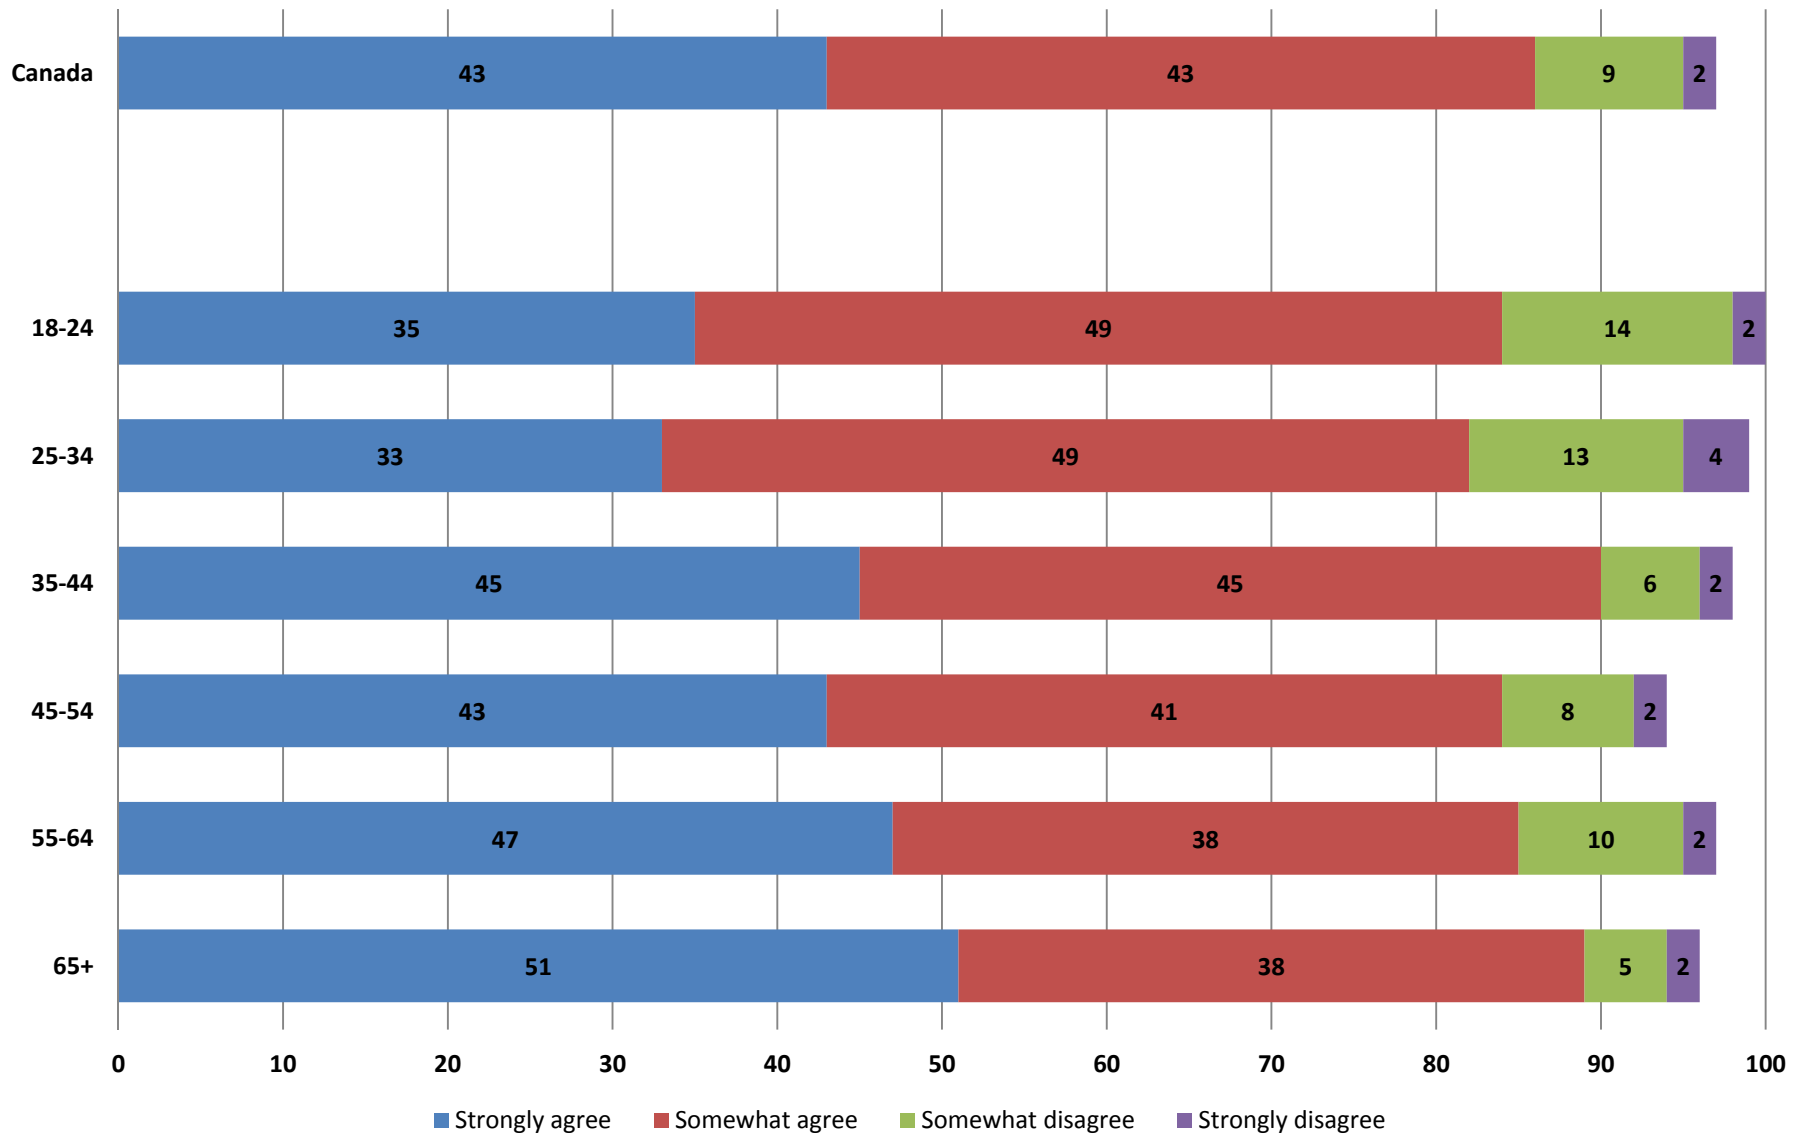

More attention should be paid to the way charities raise money (by household income)

More attention should be paid to the amount of money charities spend on program activities
(Canada)

More attention should be paid to the amount of money charities spend on program activities

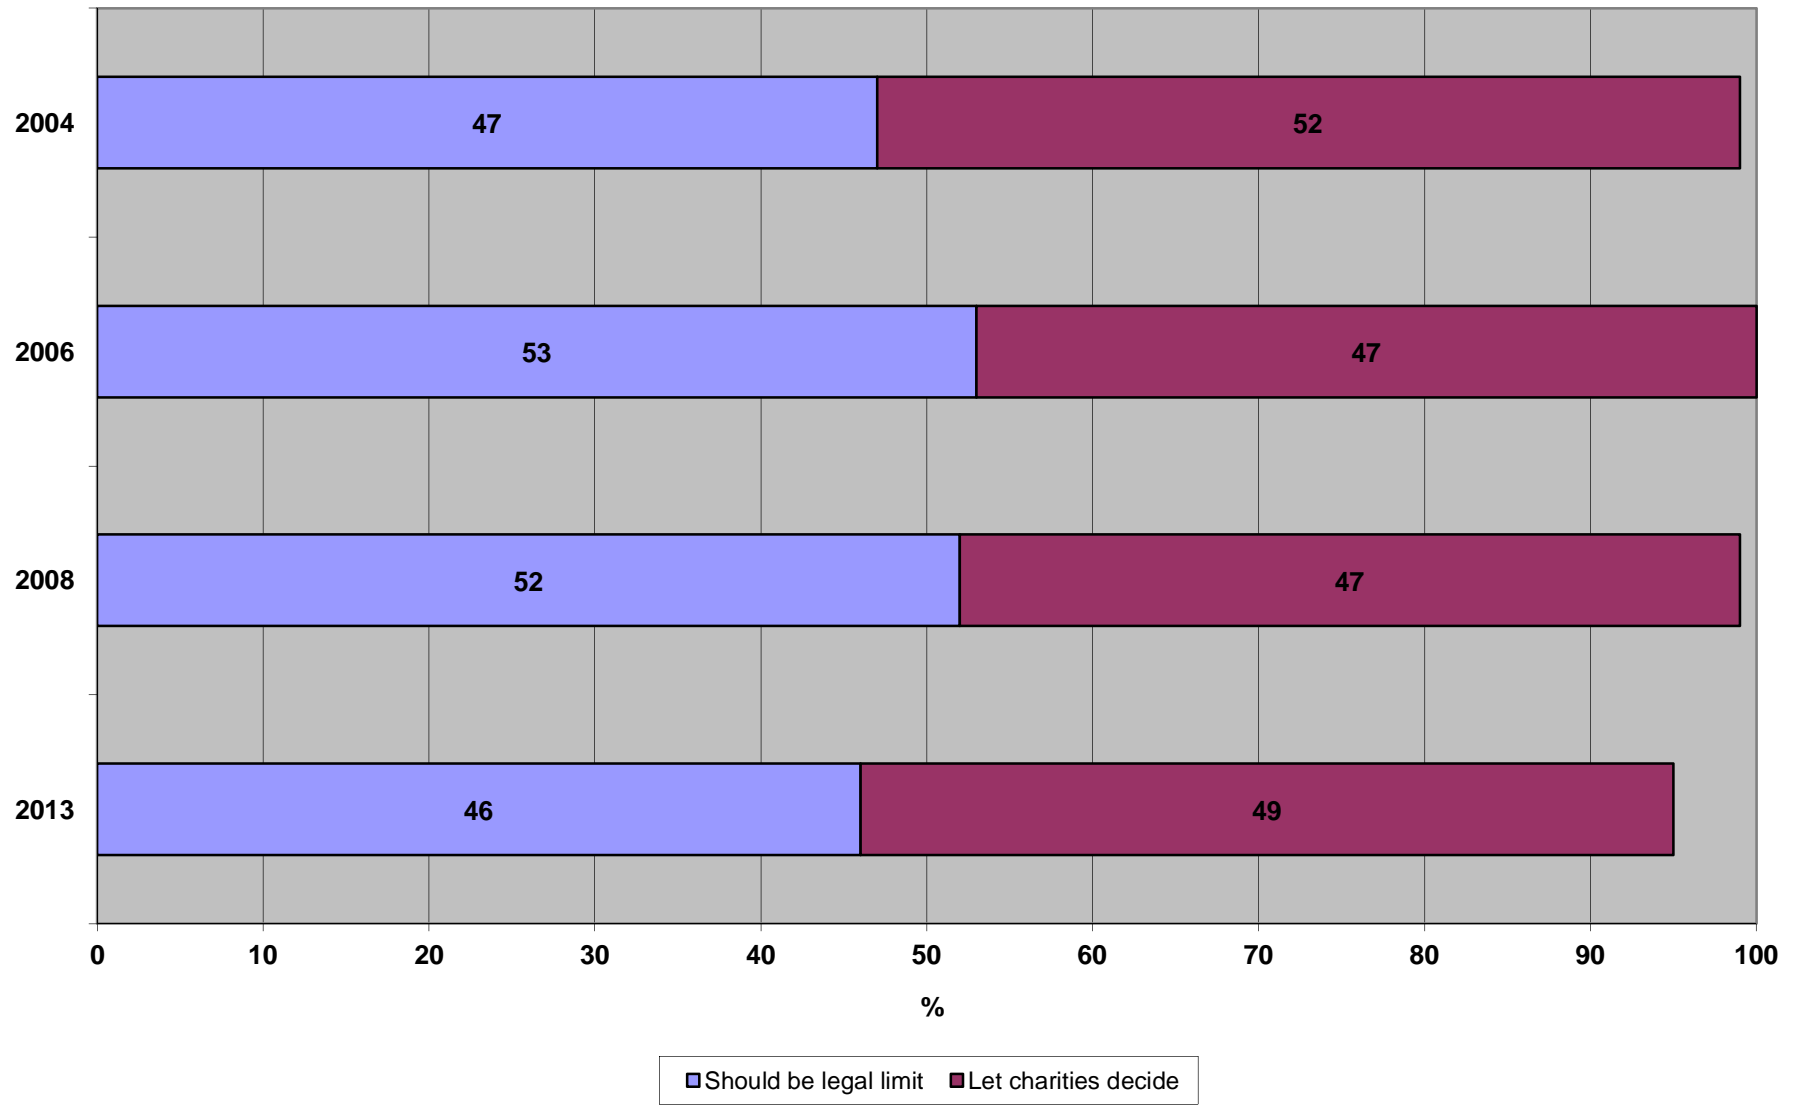

More attention should be paid to spending on program activities (by household income)

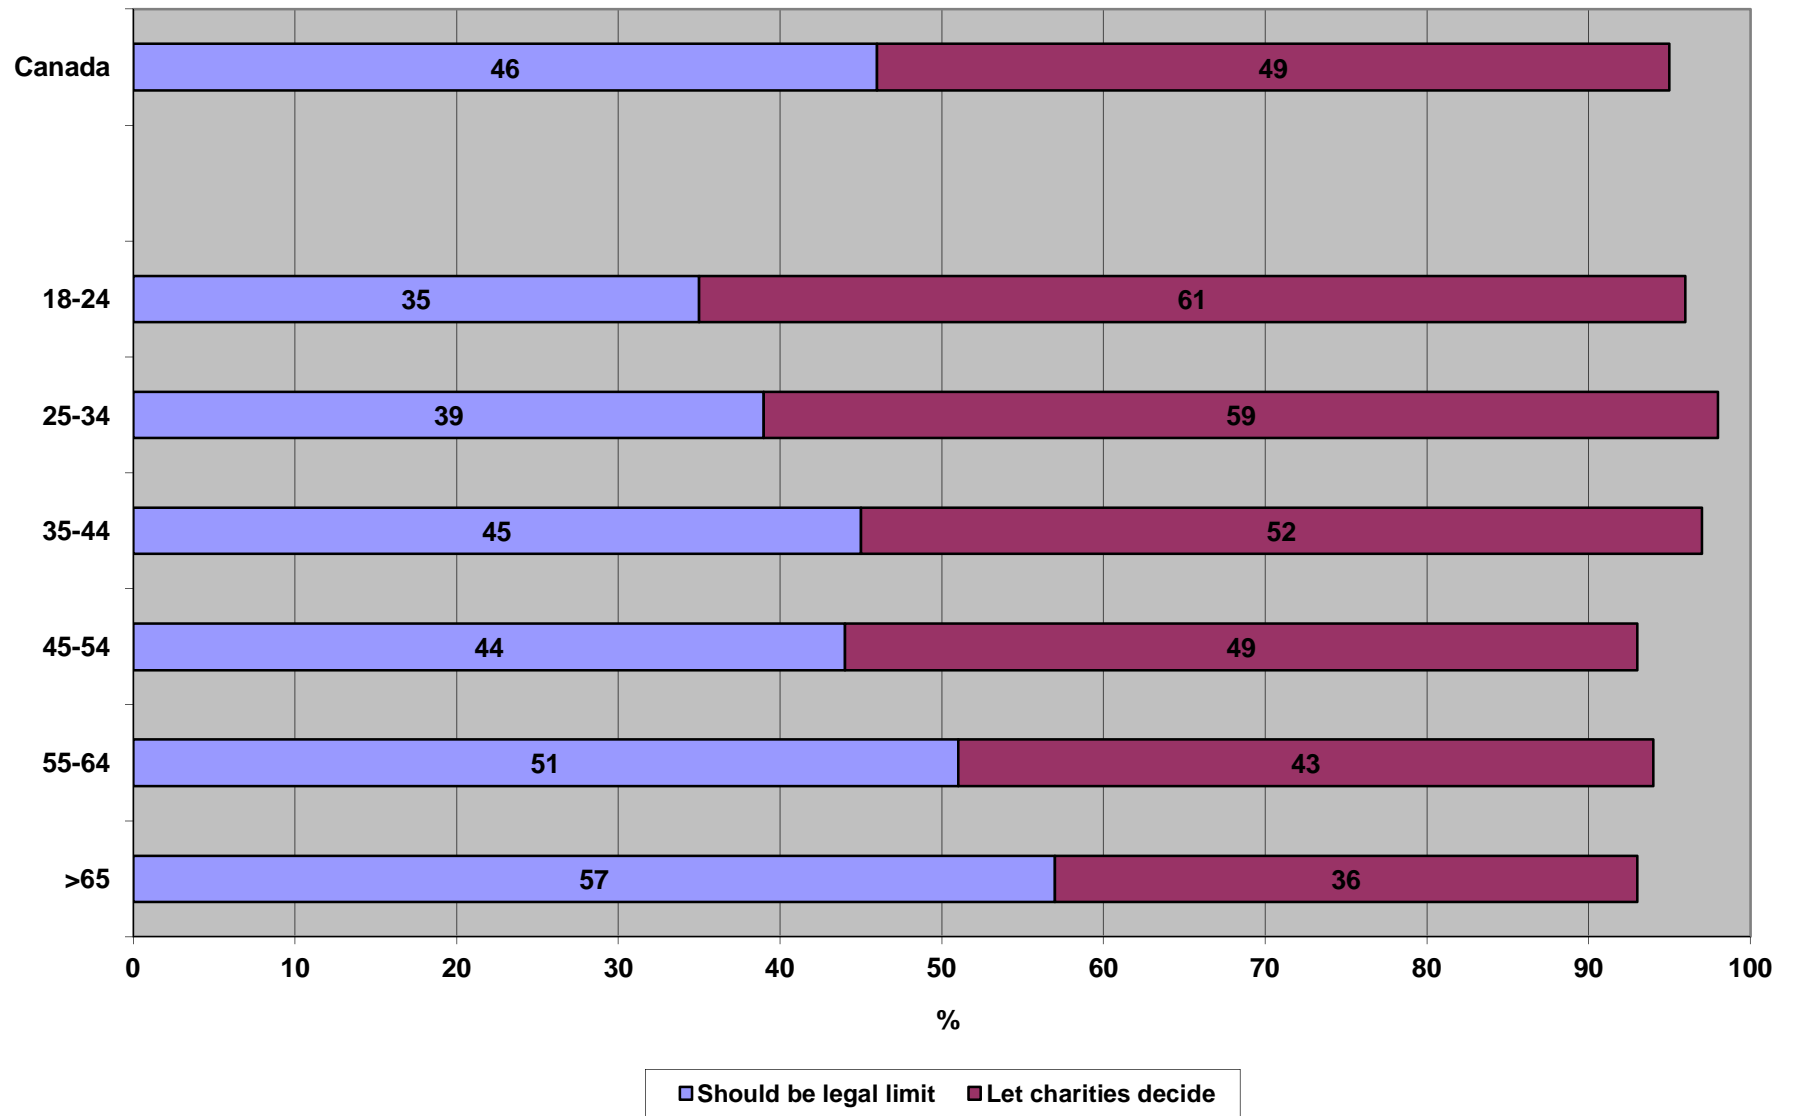

On each fundraising request, charities should be required to disclose how donors' contributions are spent? (Canada)

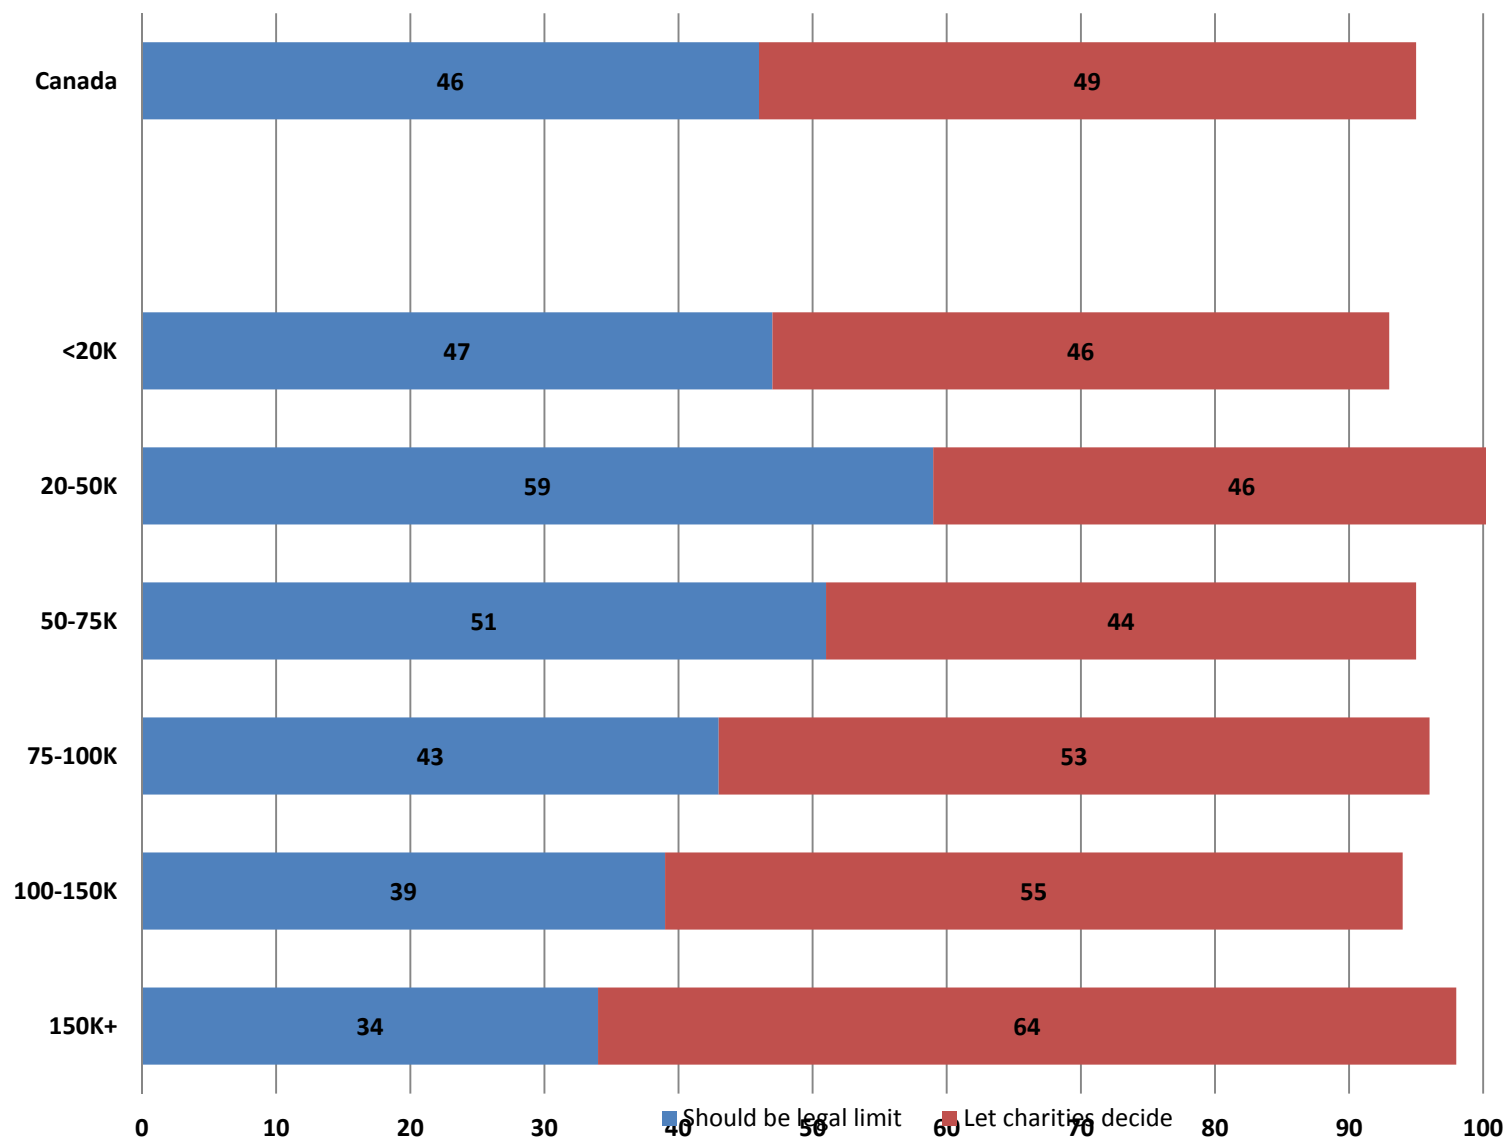

Limit on fundraising costs

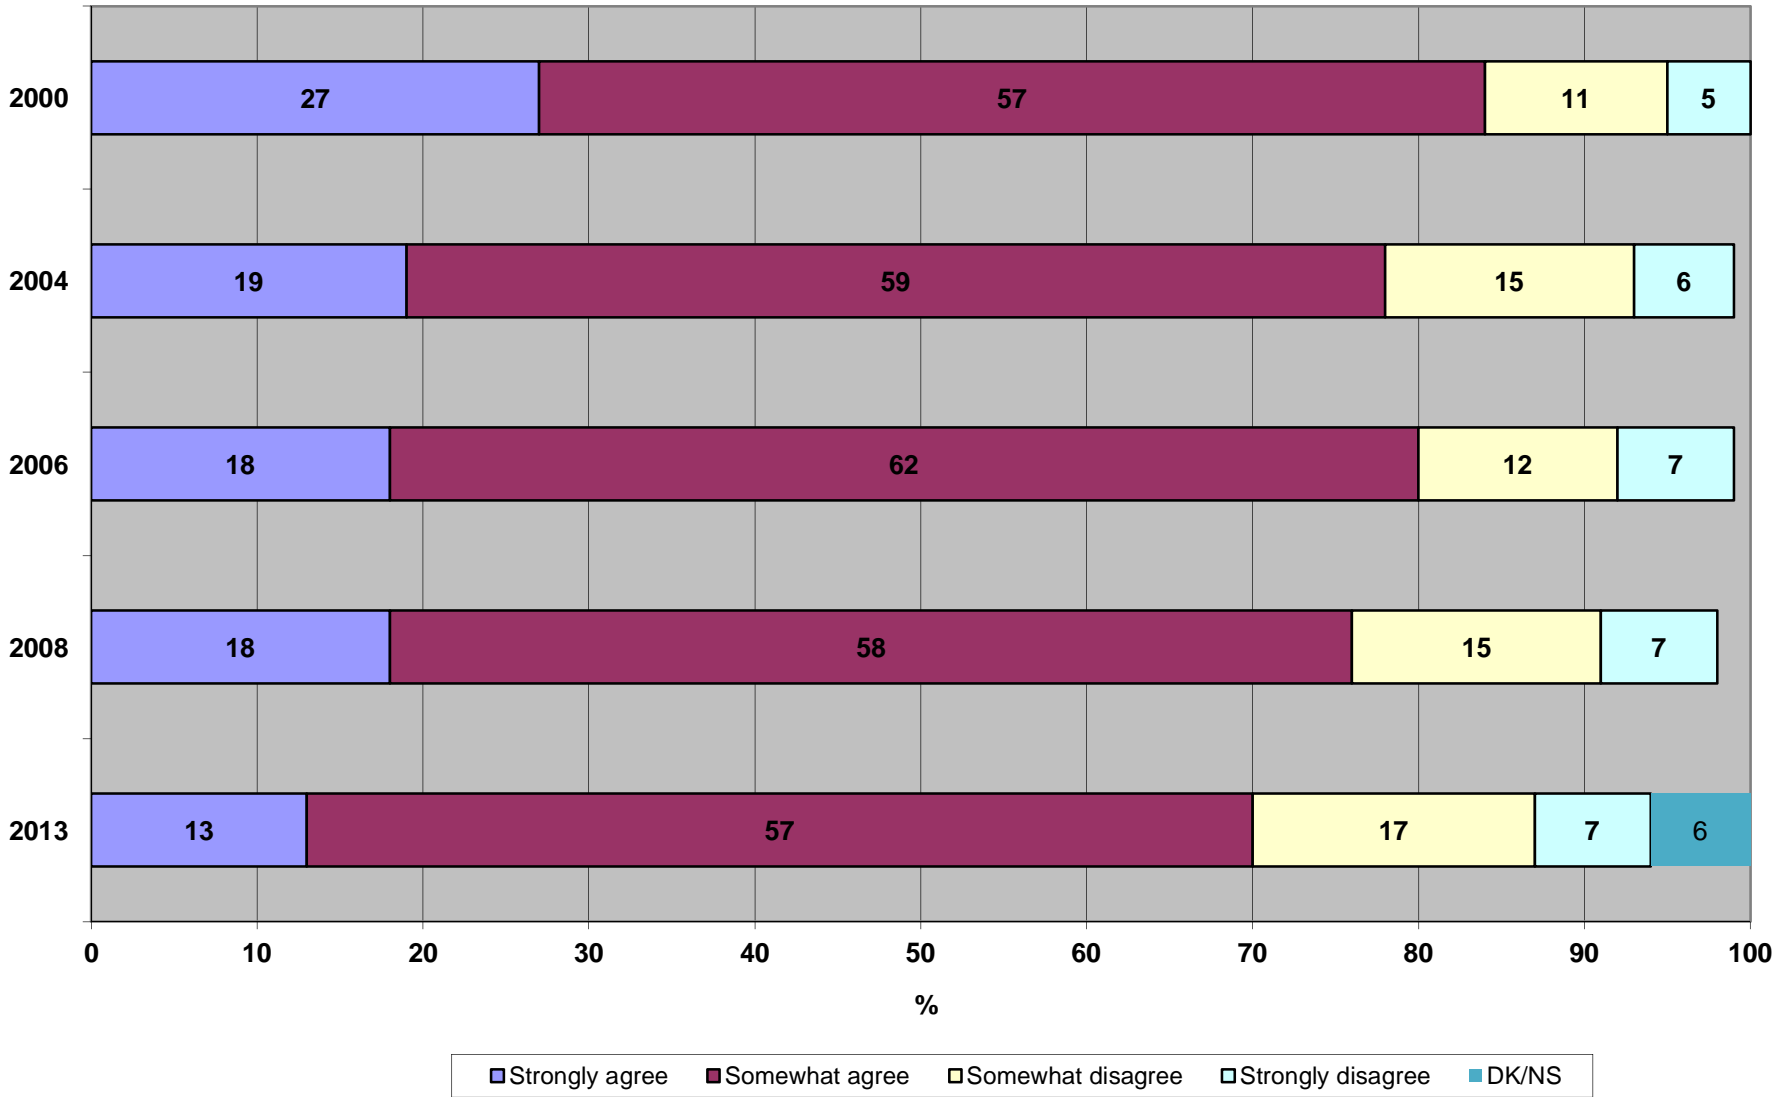

Limit on fundraising costs (by age)

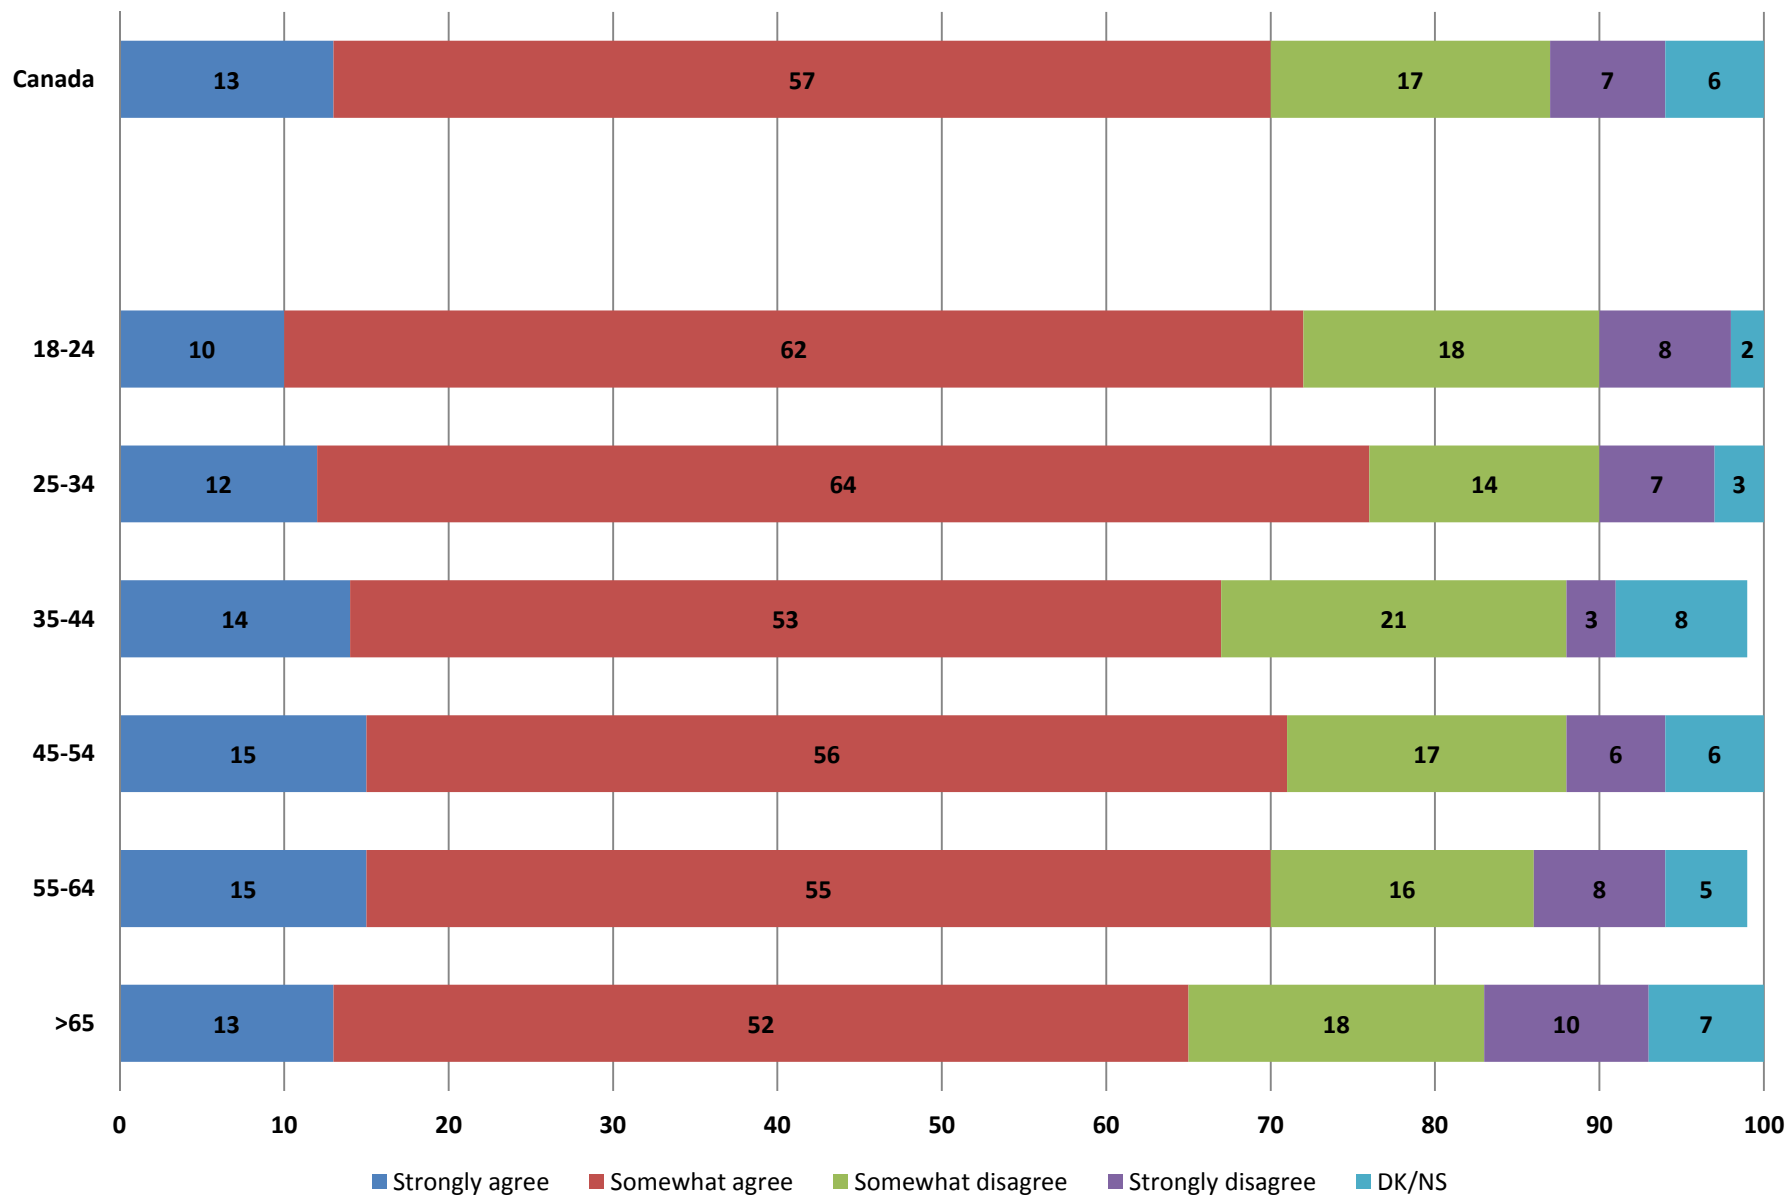

Should there be a legal limit on fundraising costs or should charities decide for themselves? (by household income)

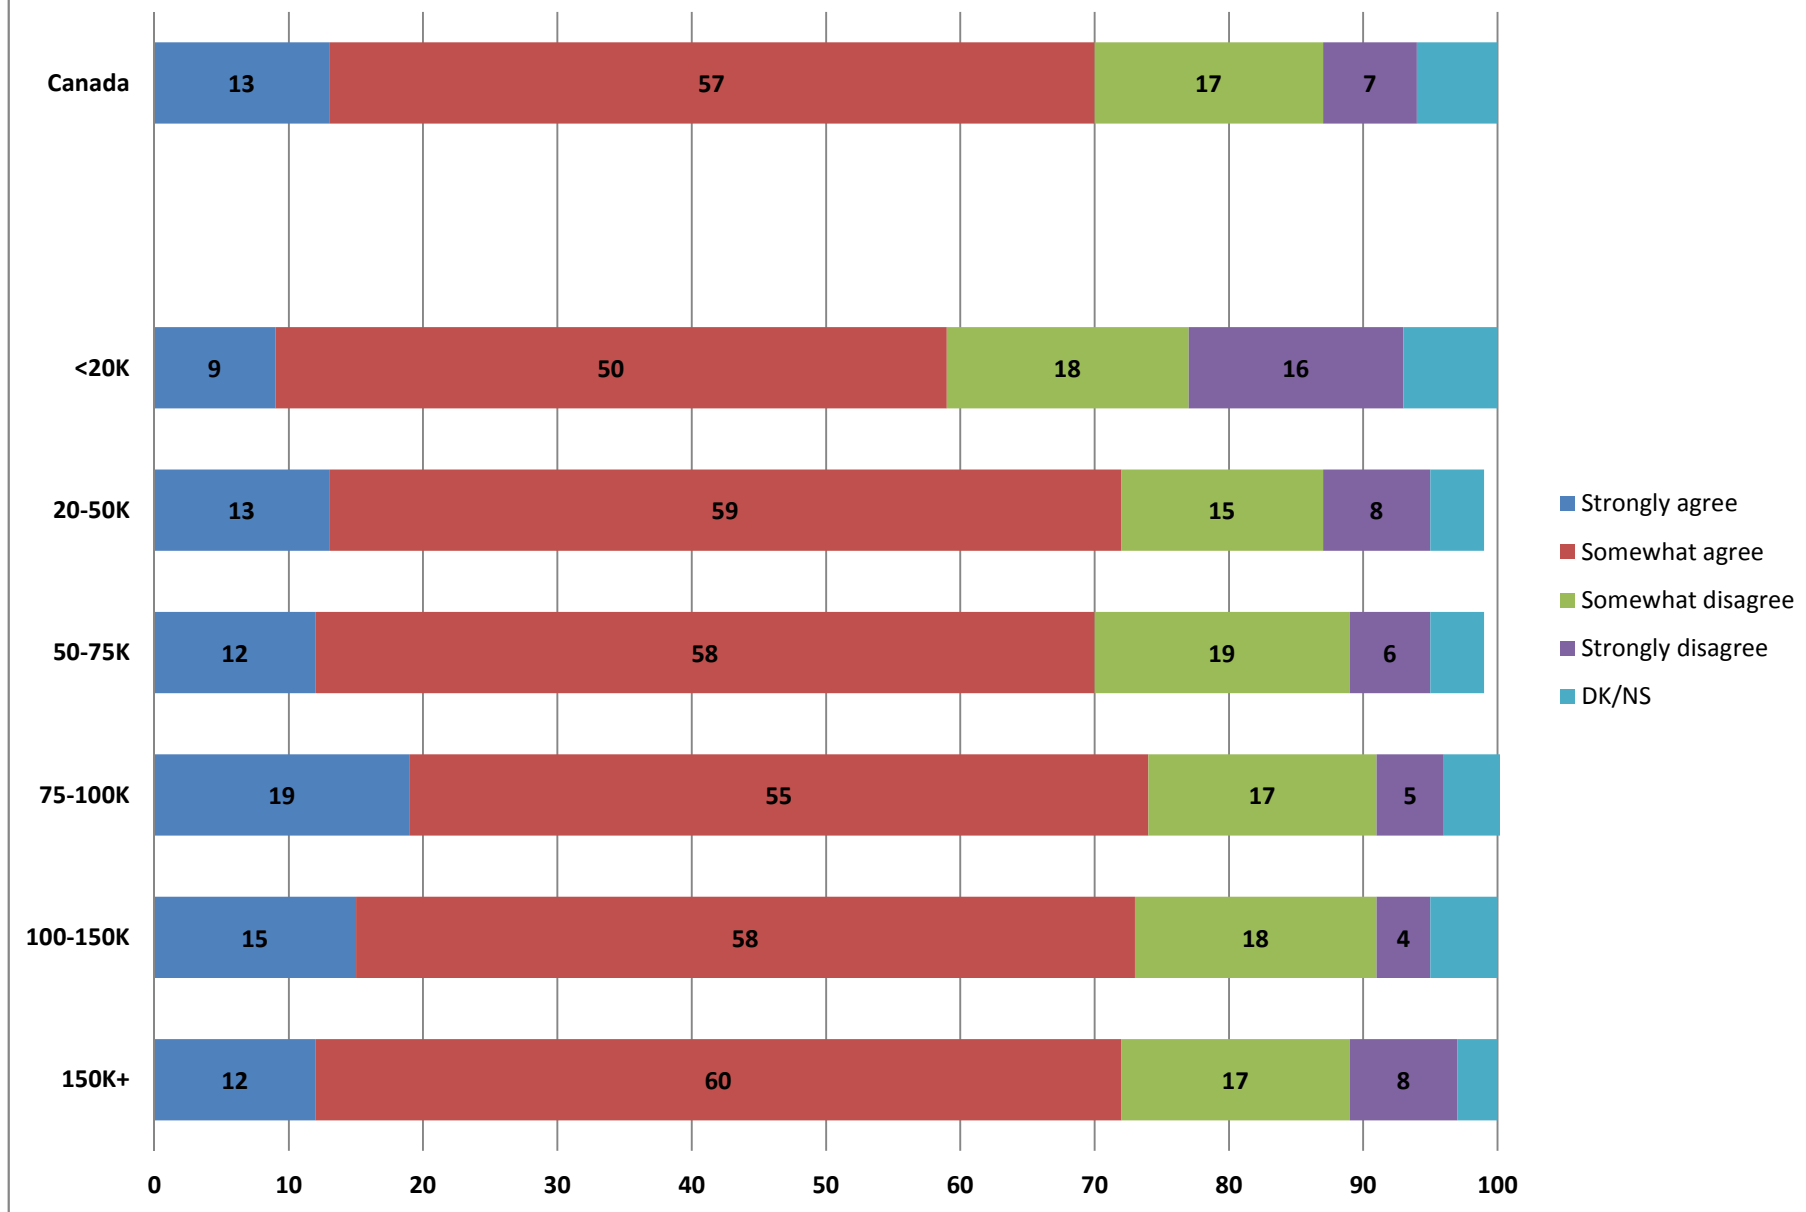

Charities are generally honest about the way they use donations (Canada)

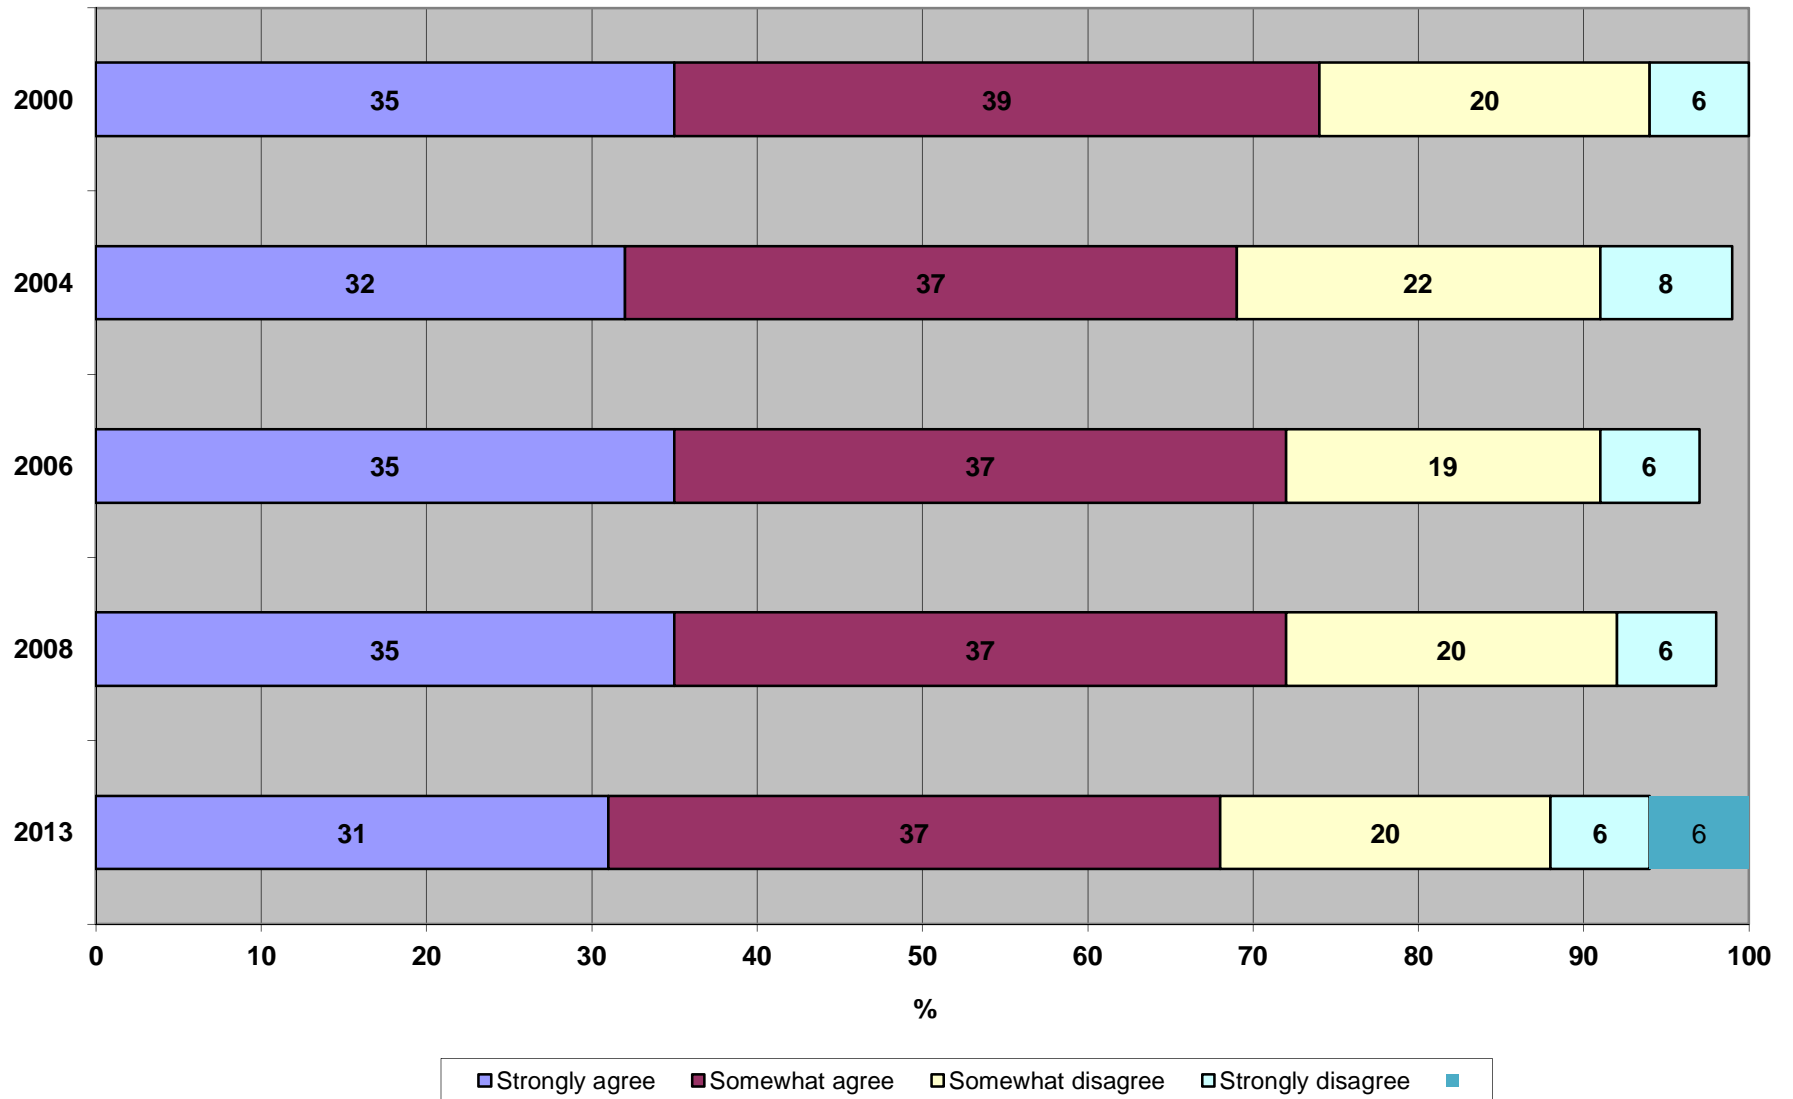

Charities are generally honest about the way they use donations

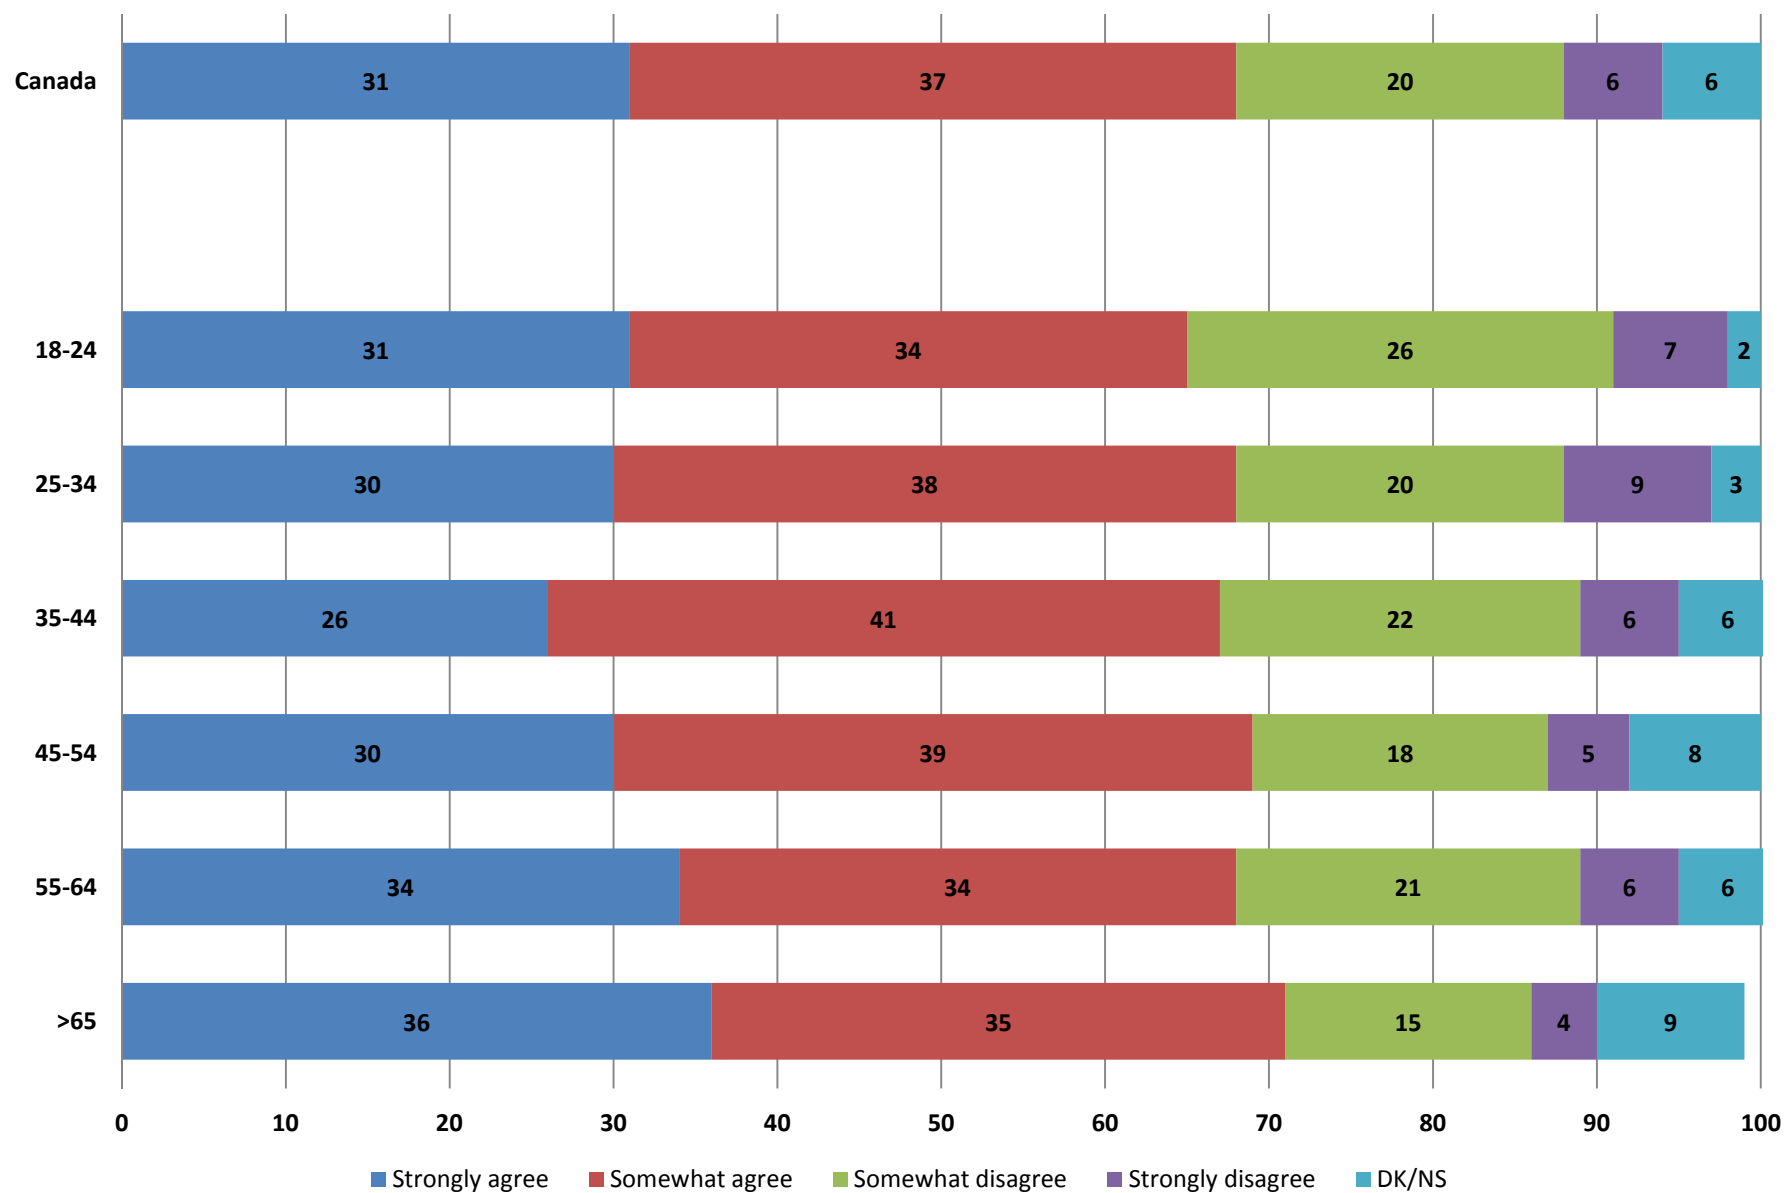

Charities are generally honest about the way they use donations

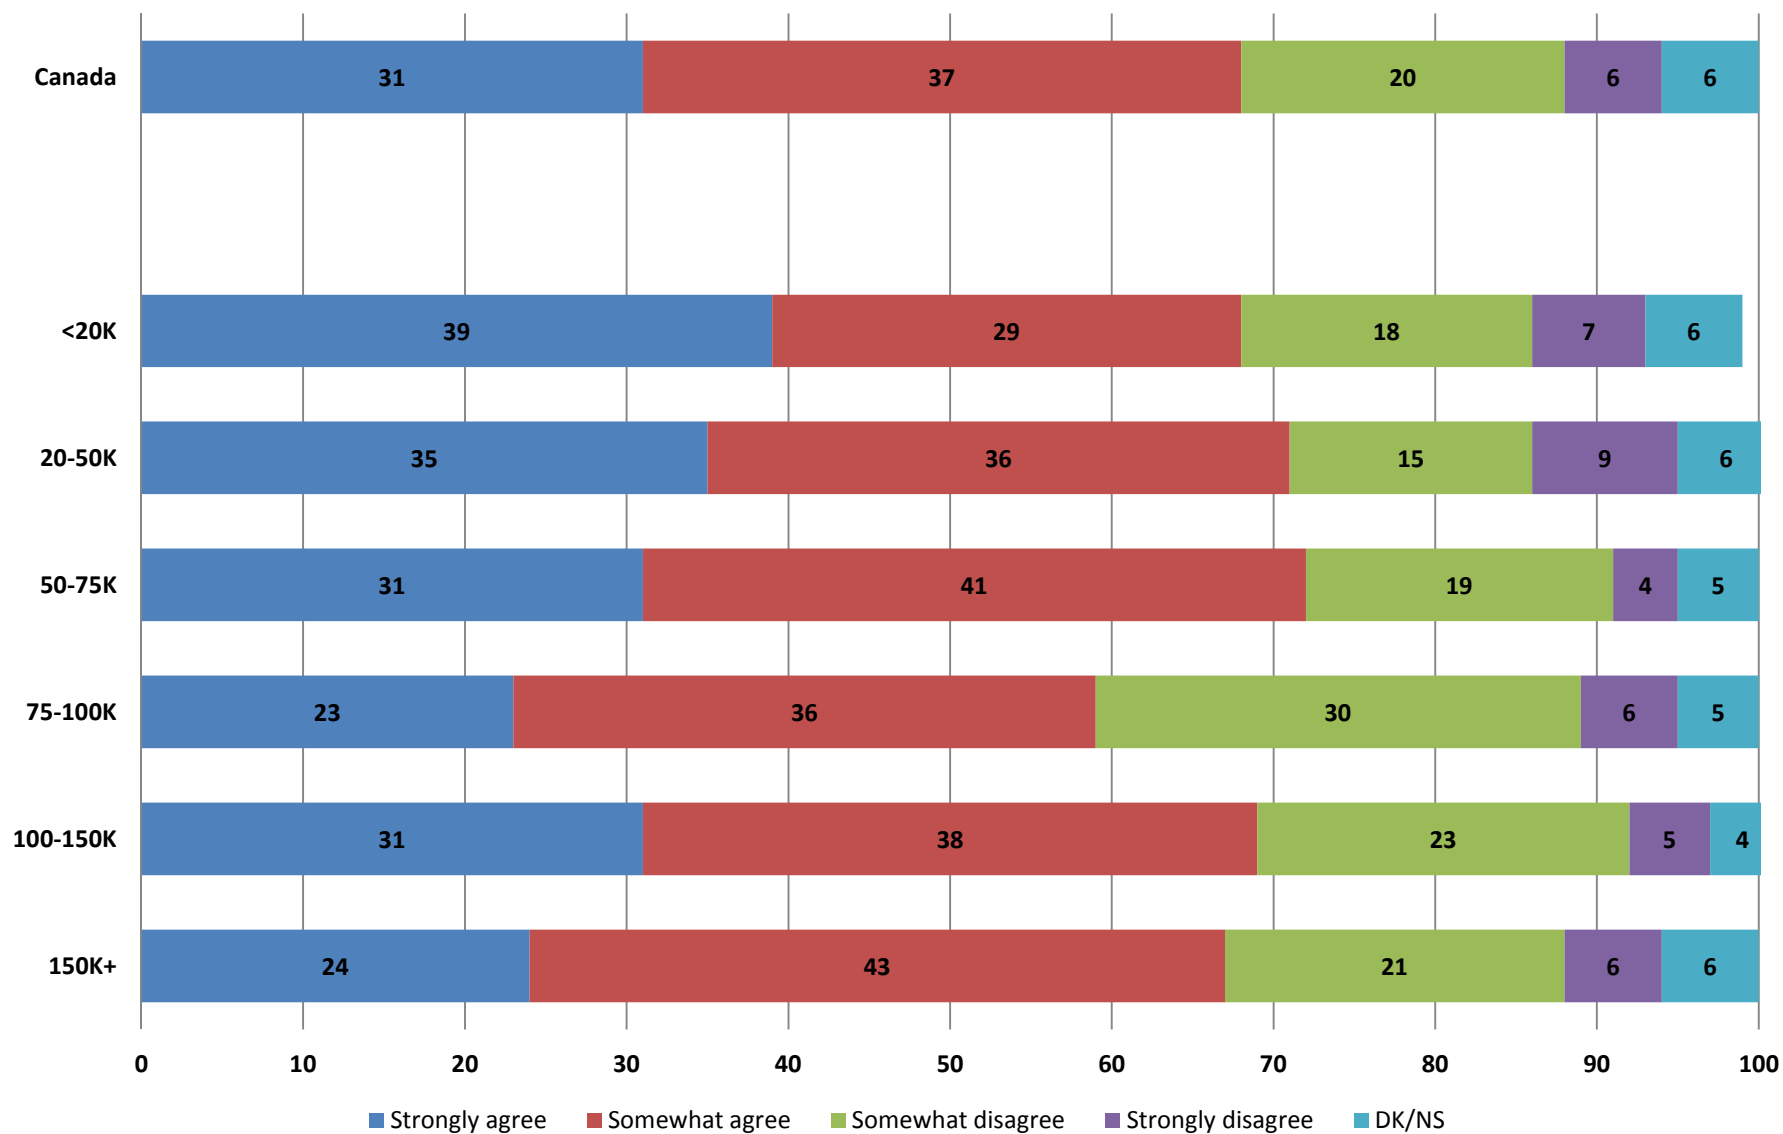

Too many charities are trying to get donations for the same cause (Canada)

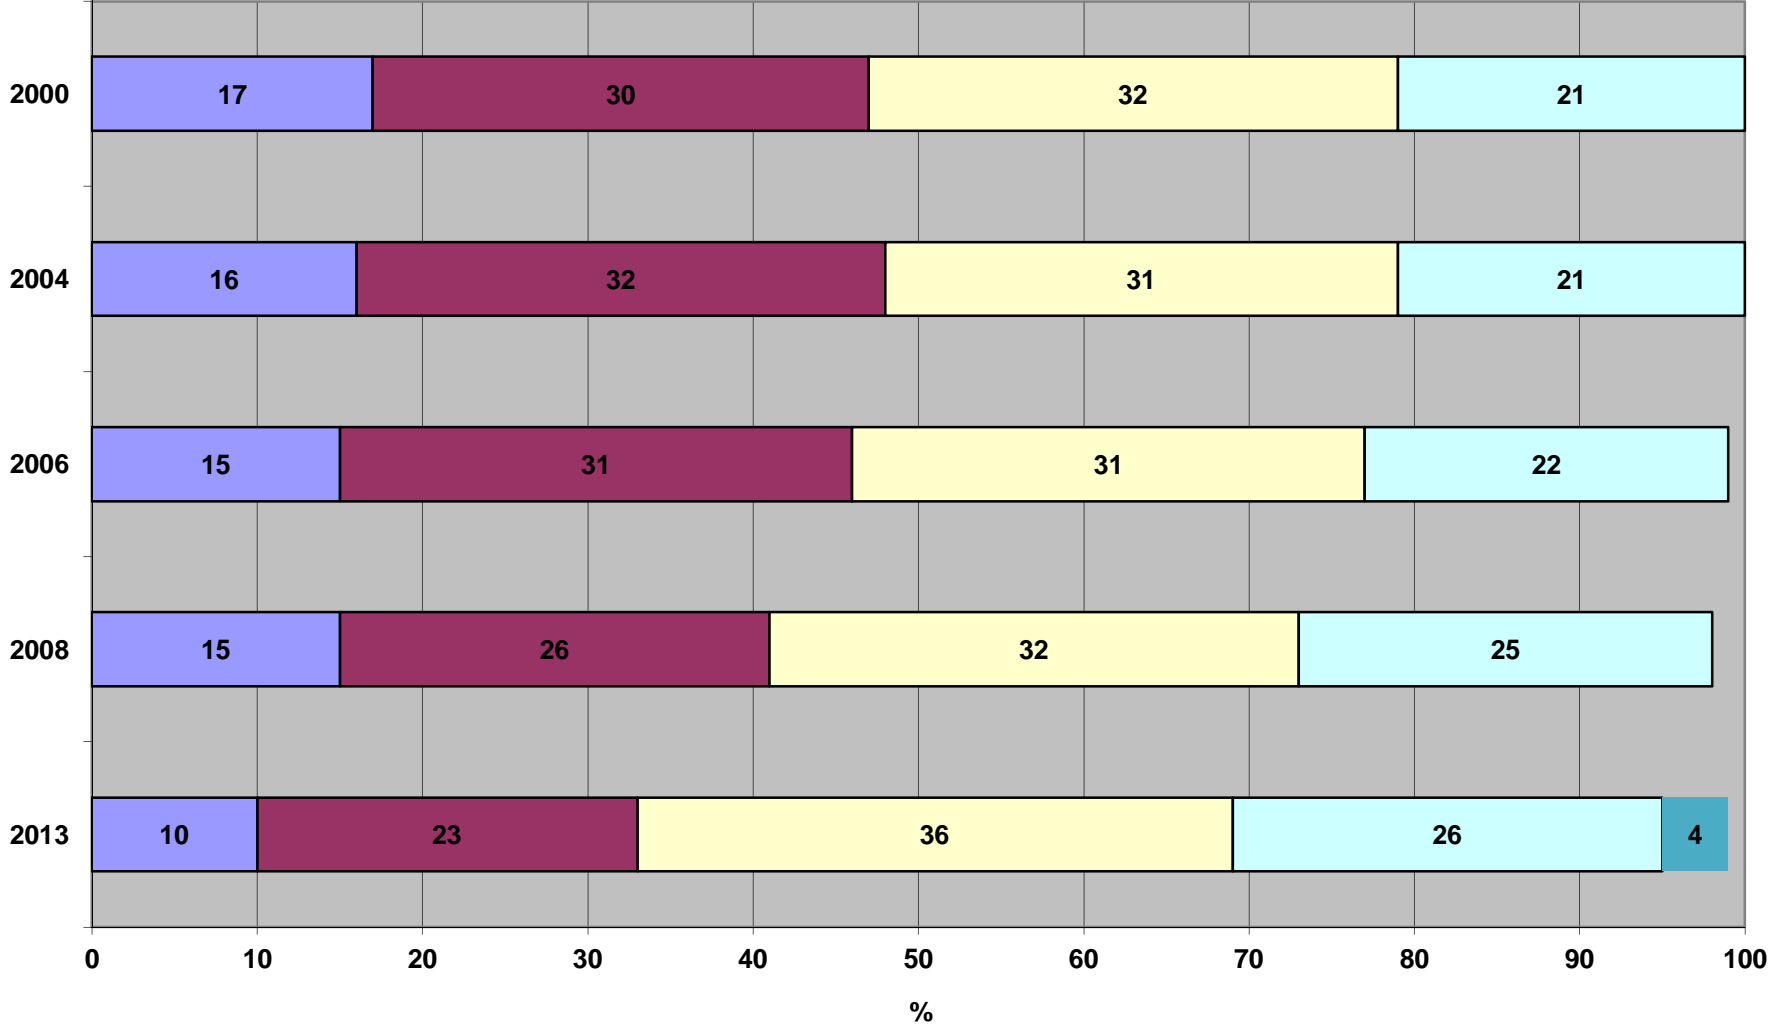

Too many charities are trying ot get donations for the same cause

Too many charities are trying to get donations for the same cause (by household income)

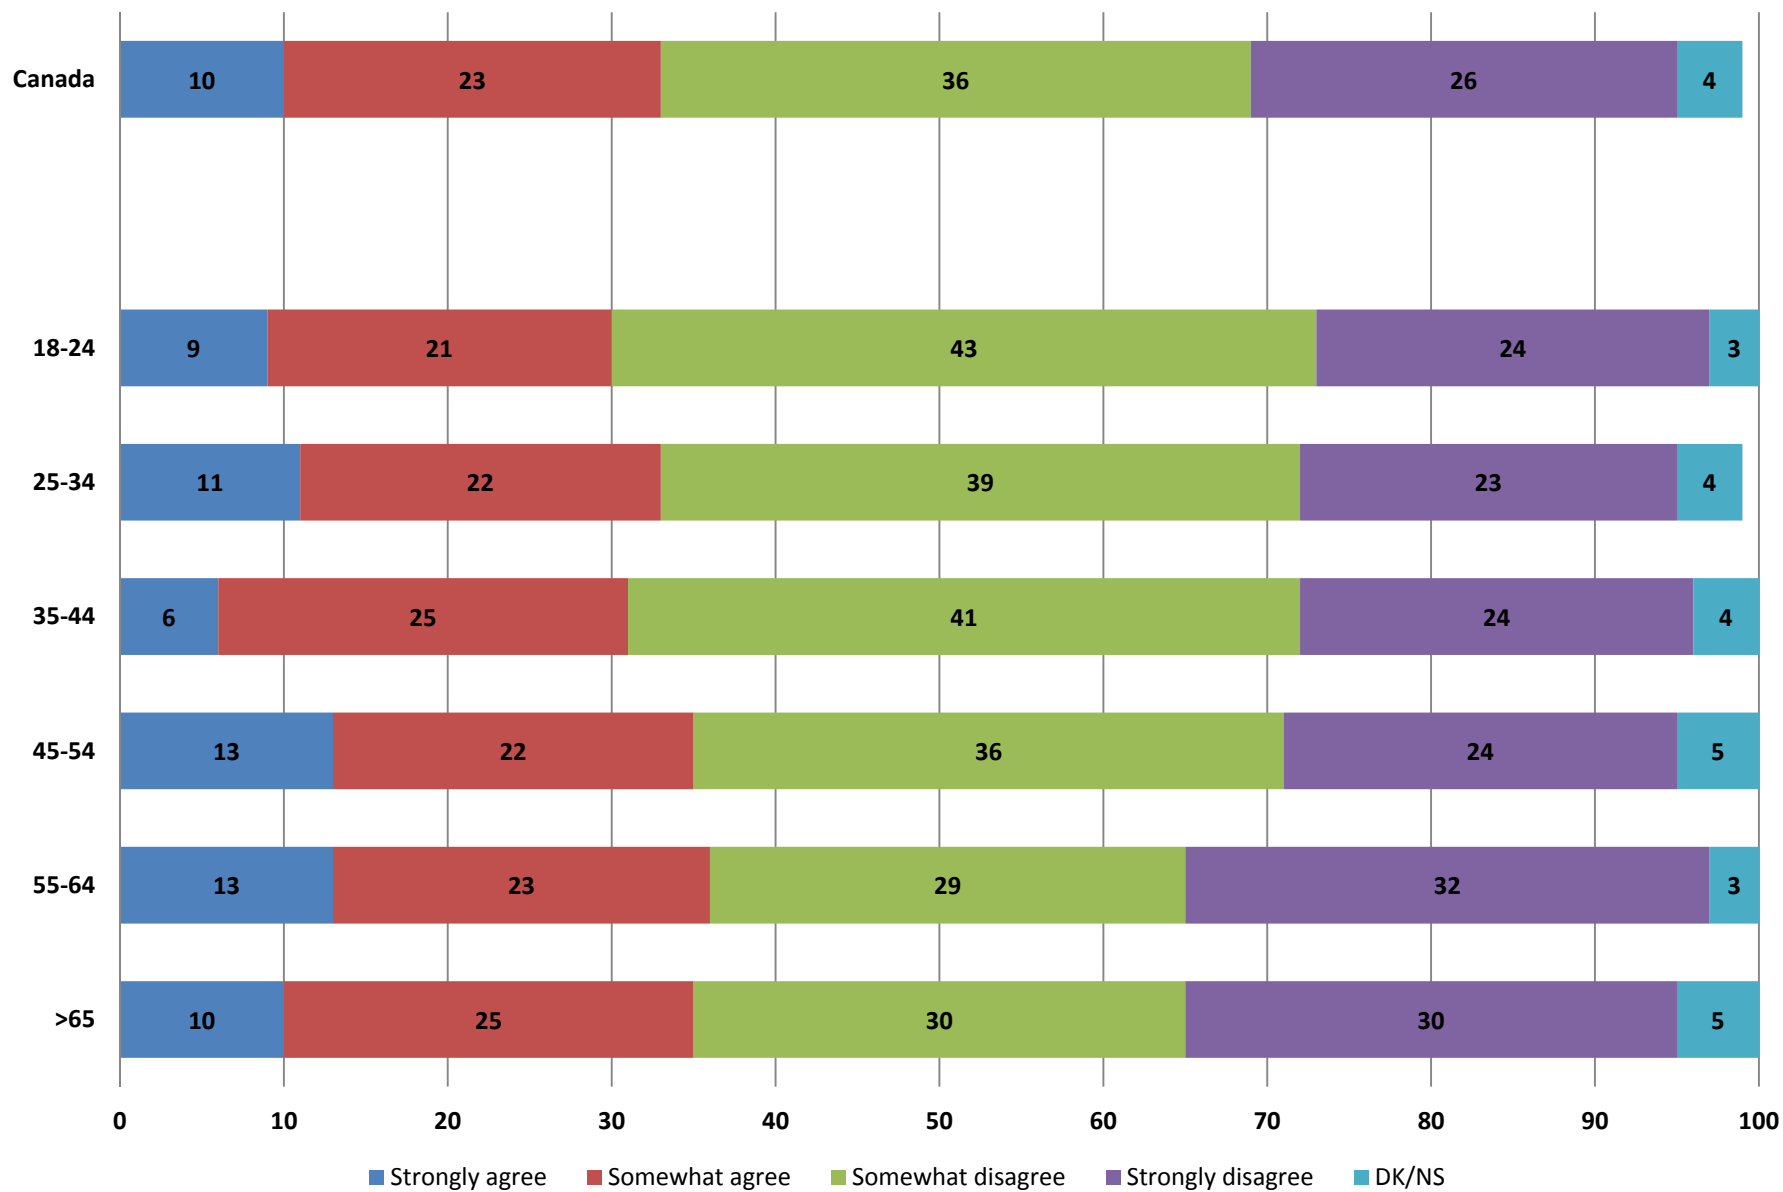

Charities only ask for money when they really need it (Canada)

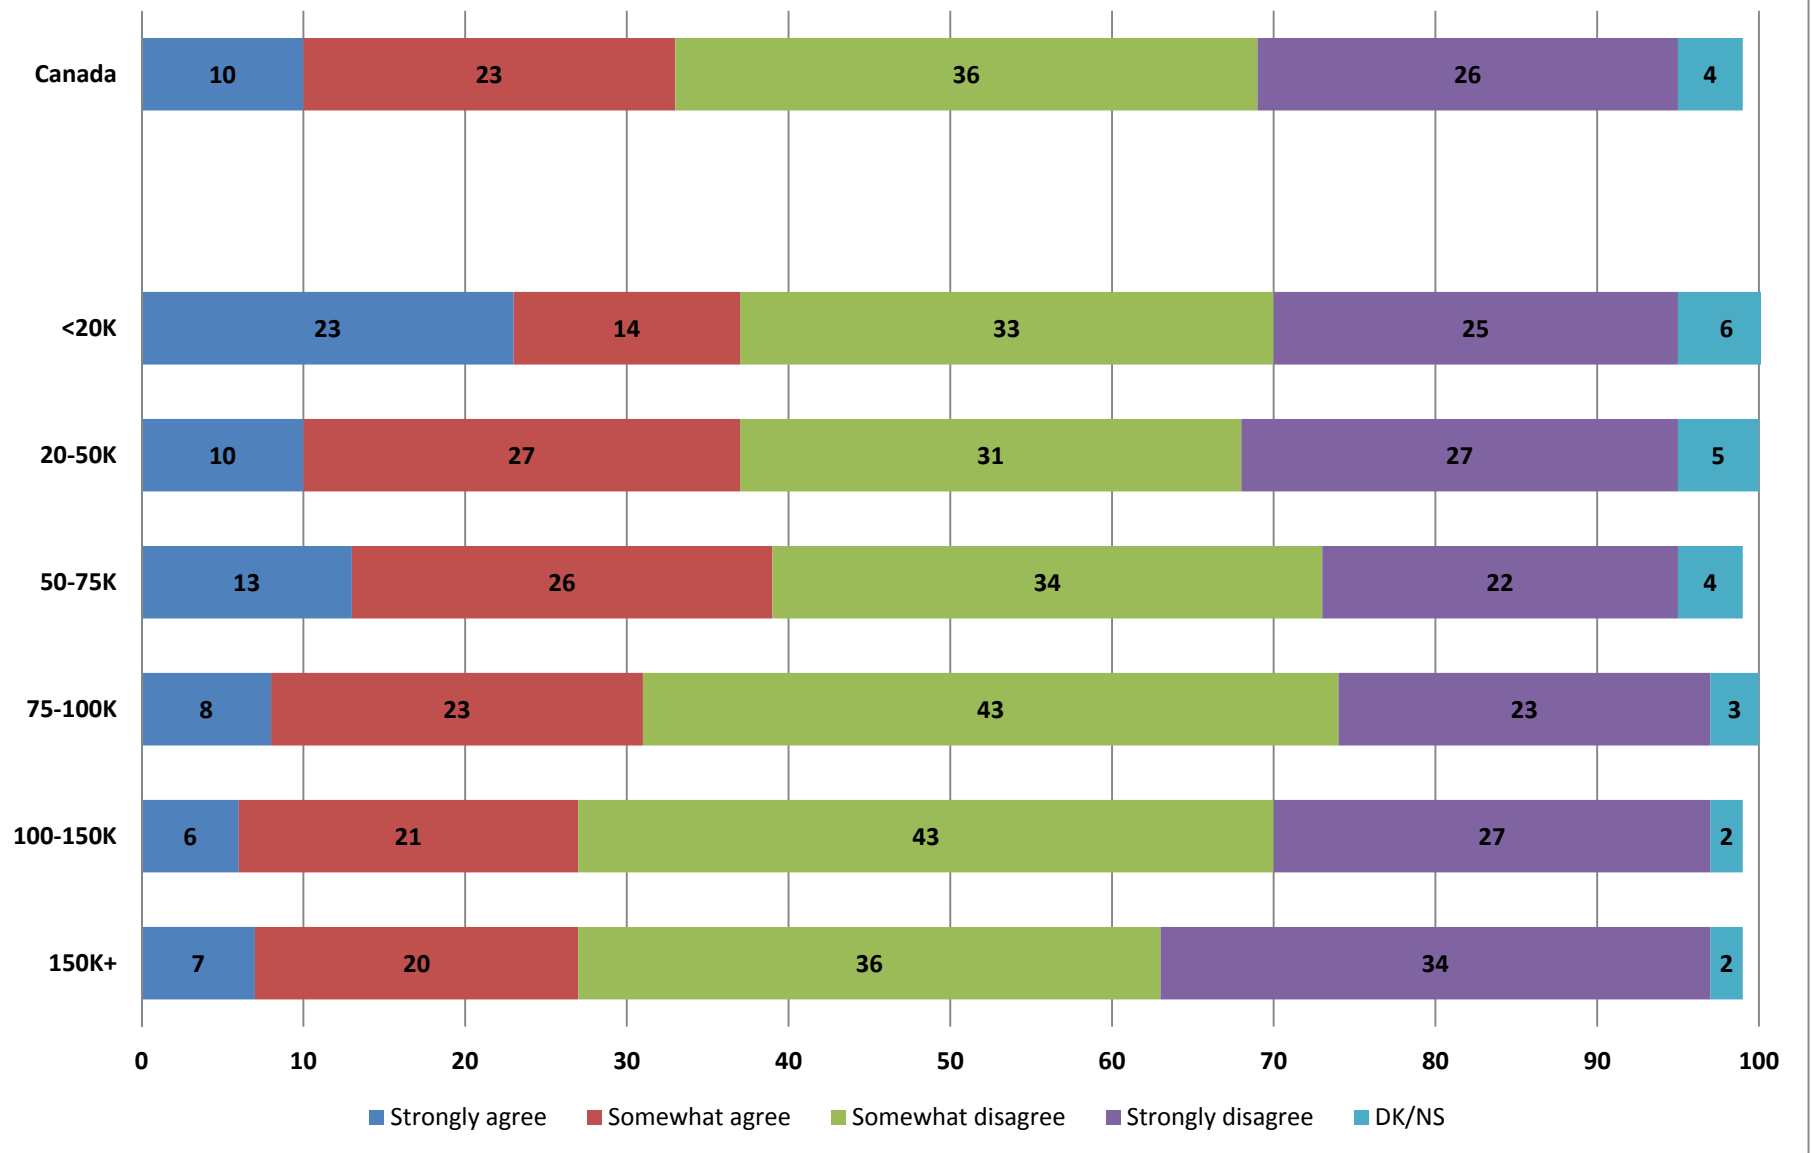

■ Strongly agree
 ■ Somewhat agree
 ■ Somewhat disagree
 ■ Strongly disagree
 ■ DK/NS

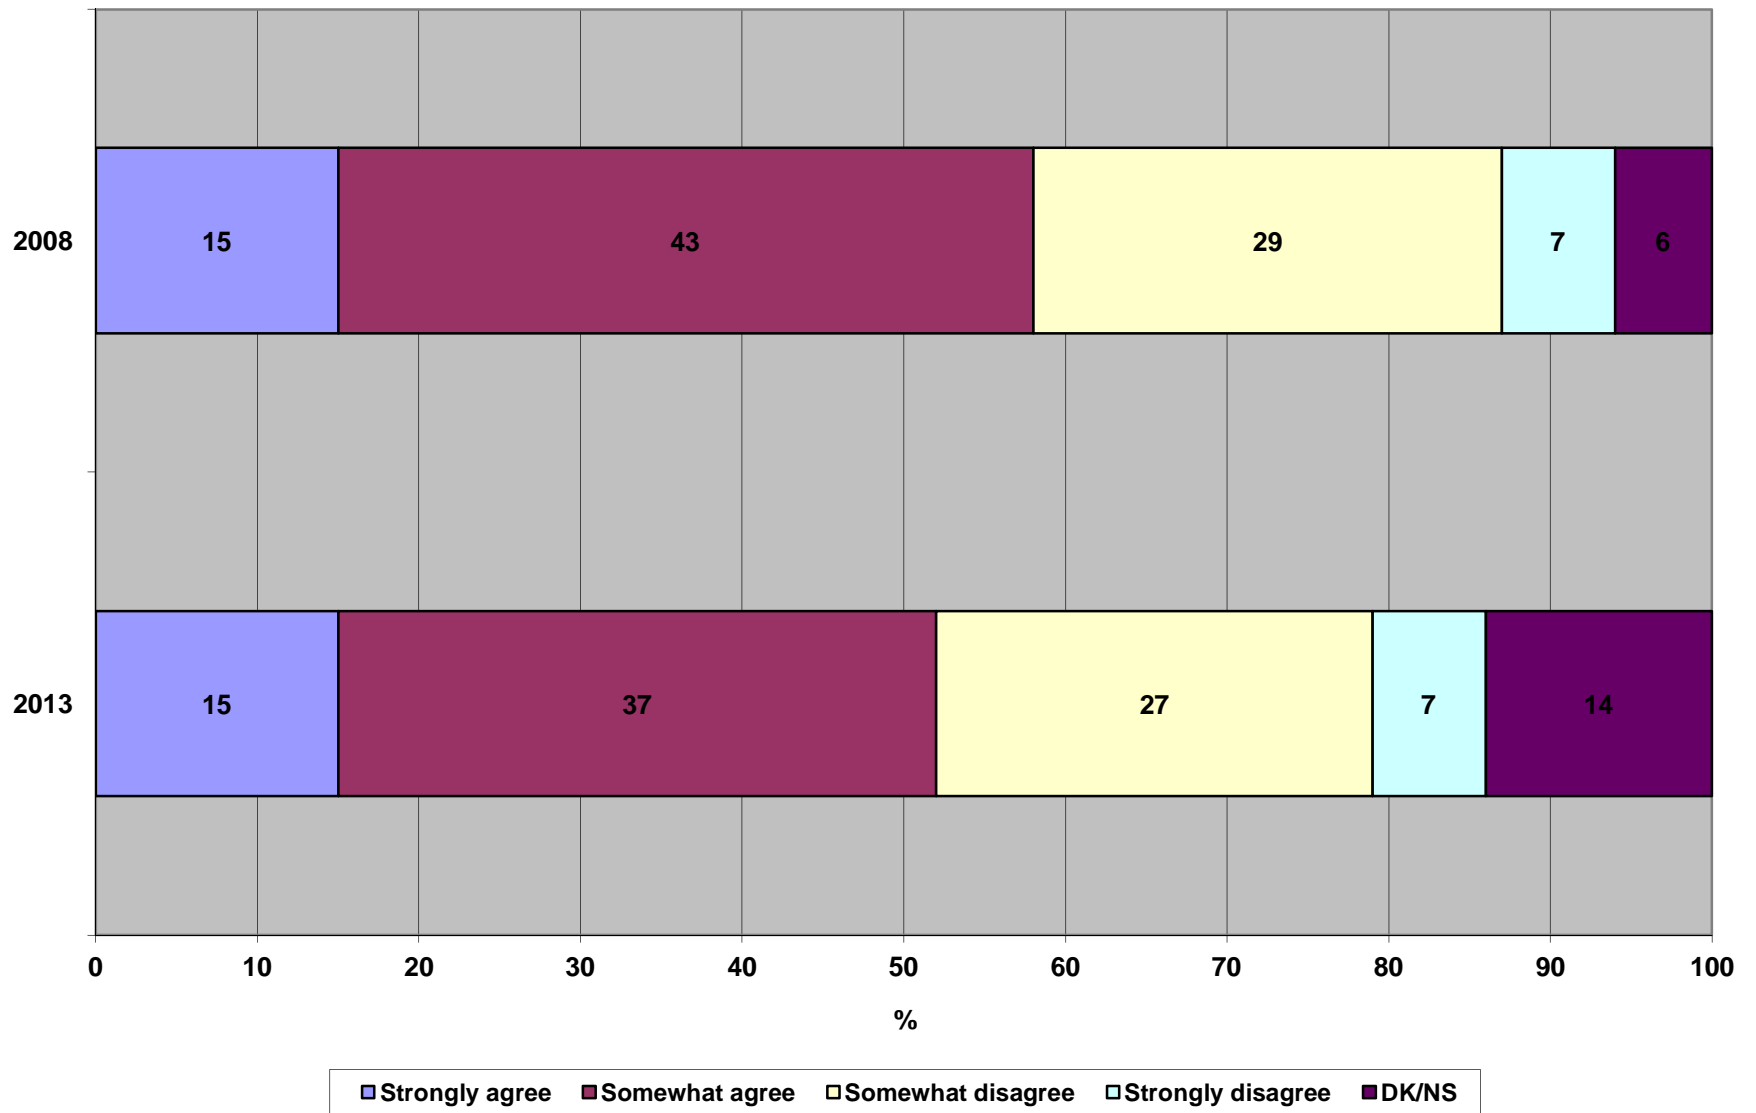

Charities only ask for money when they really need it

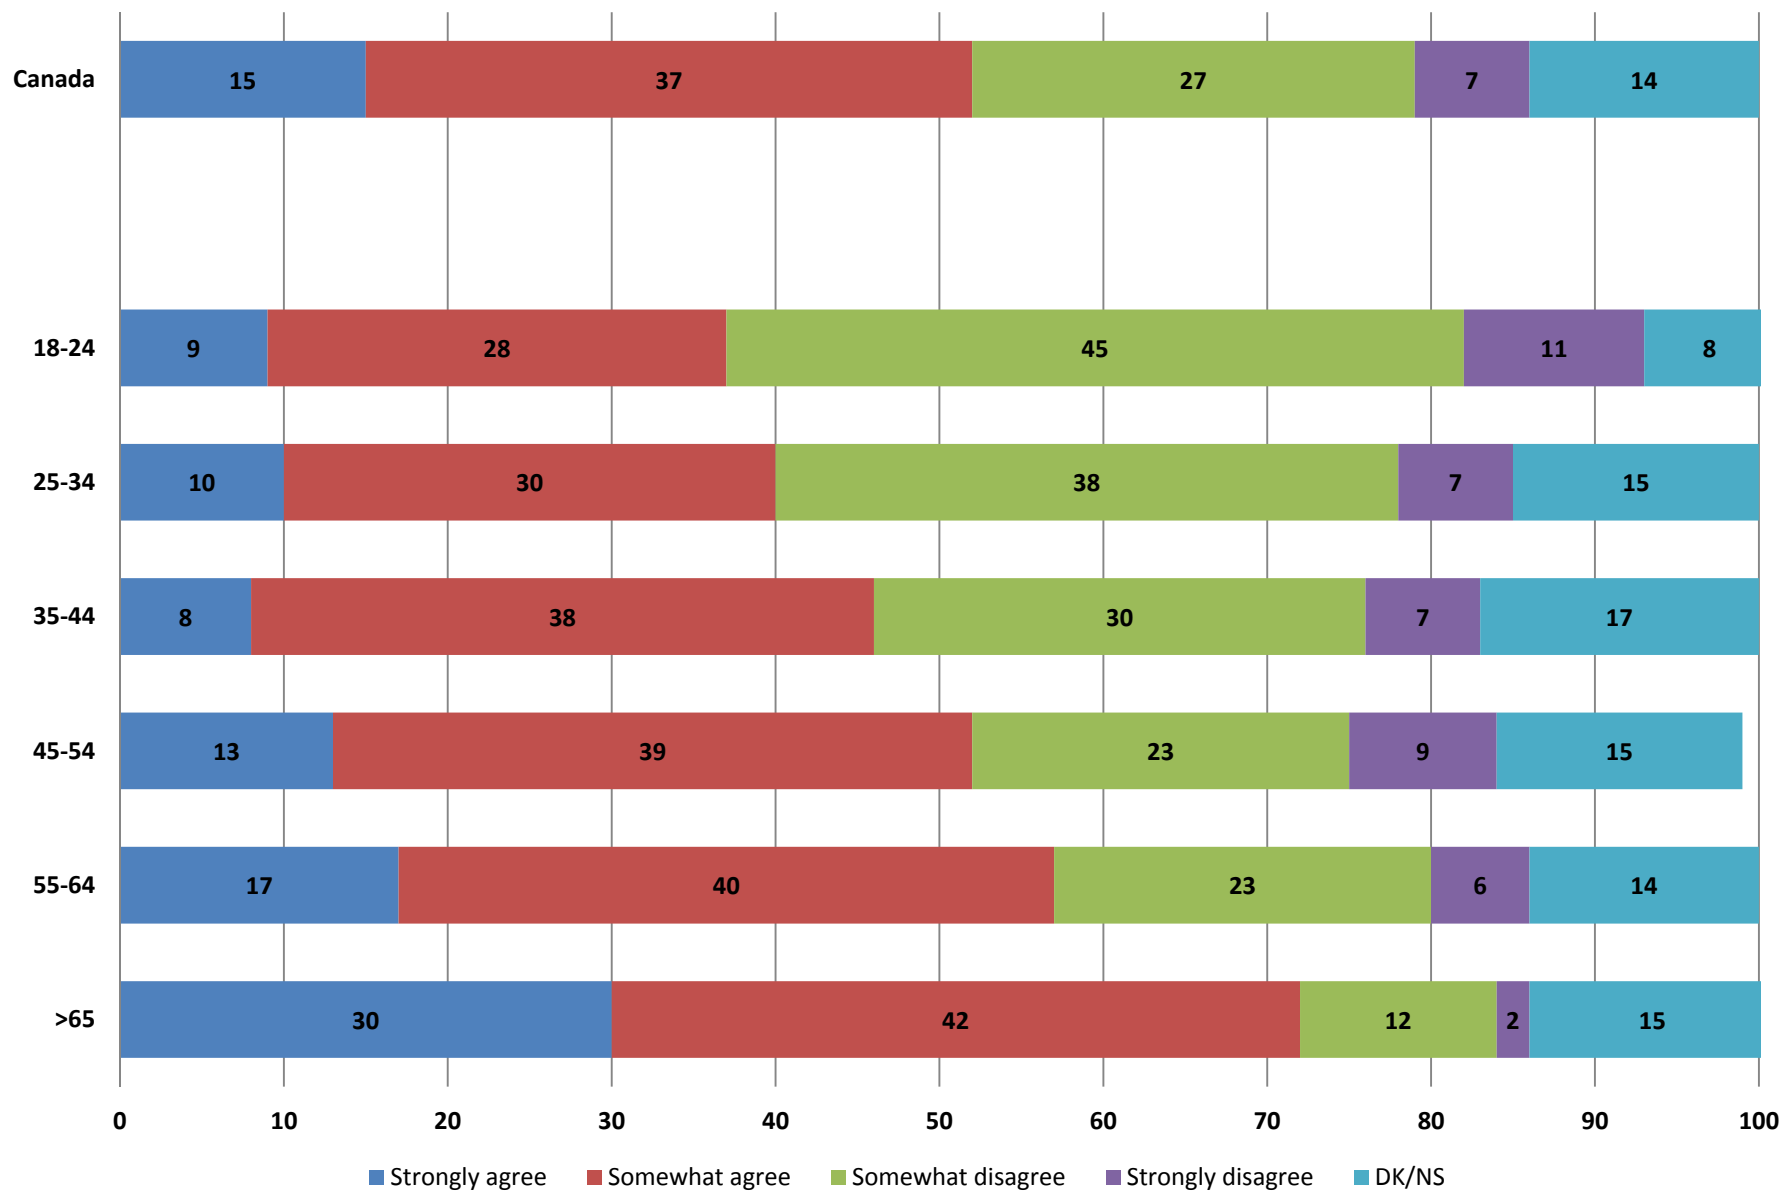

Charities only ask for money when they really need it (by household income)

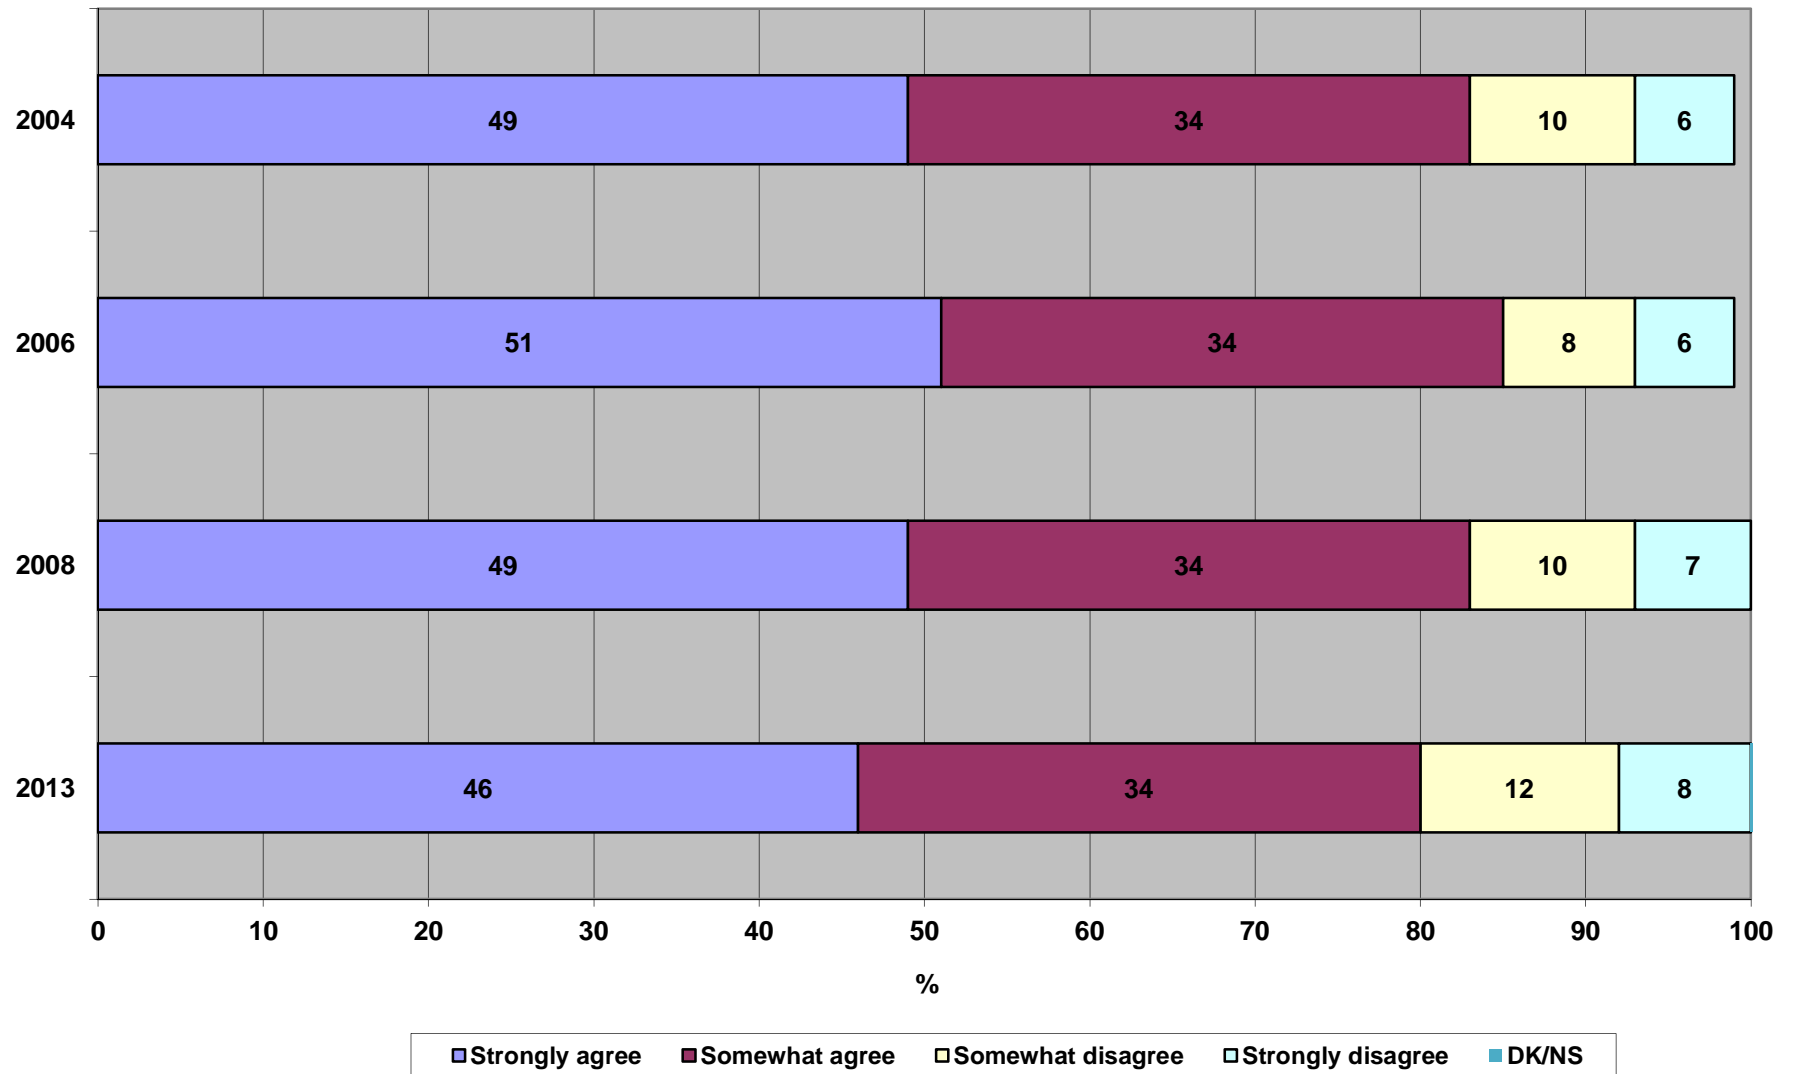

Charities spend too much money on fundraising (Canada)

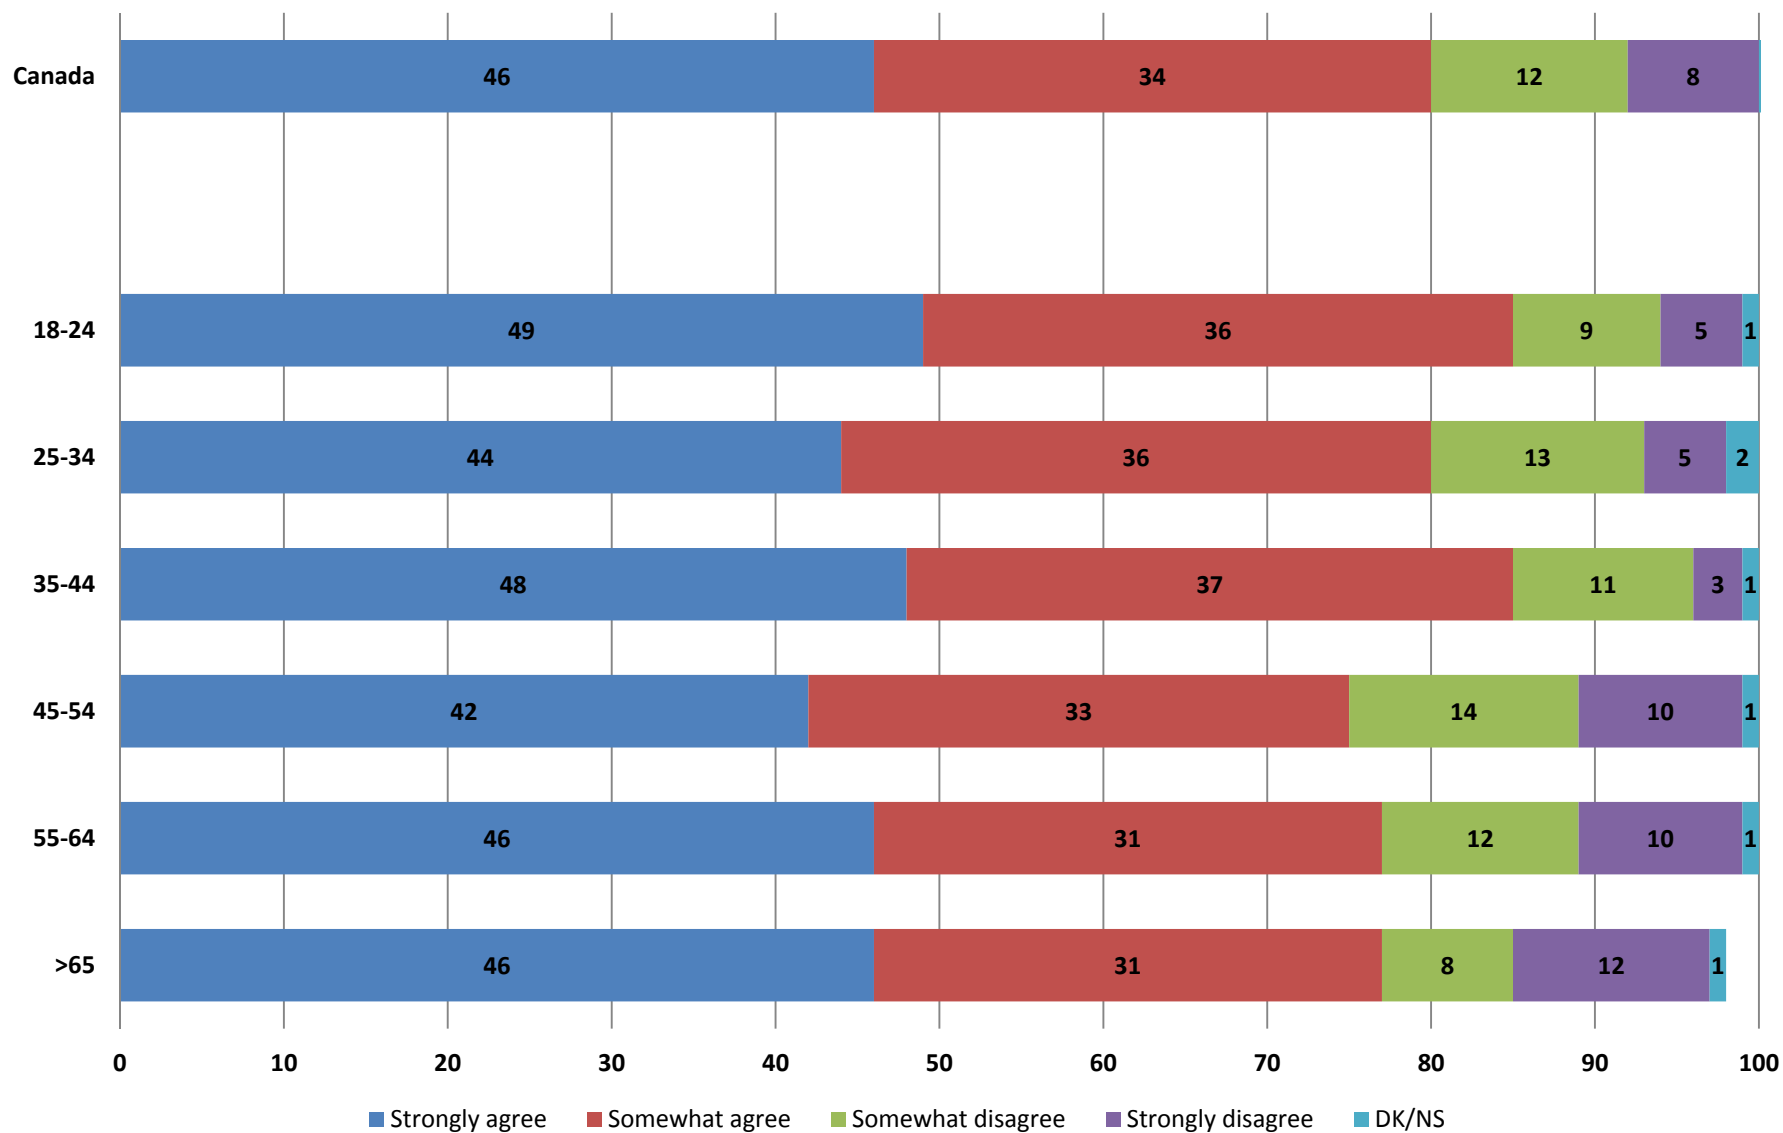

Charities spend too much money on fundraising

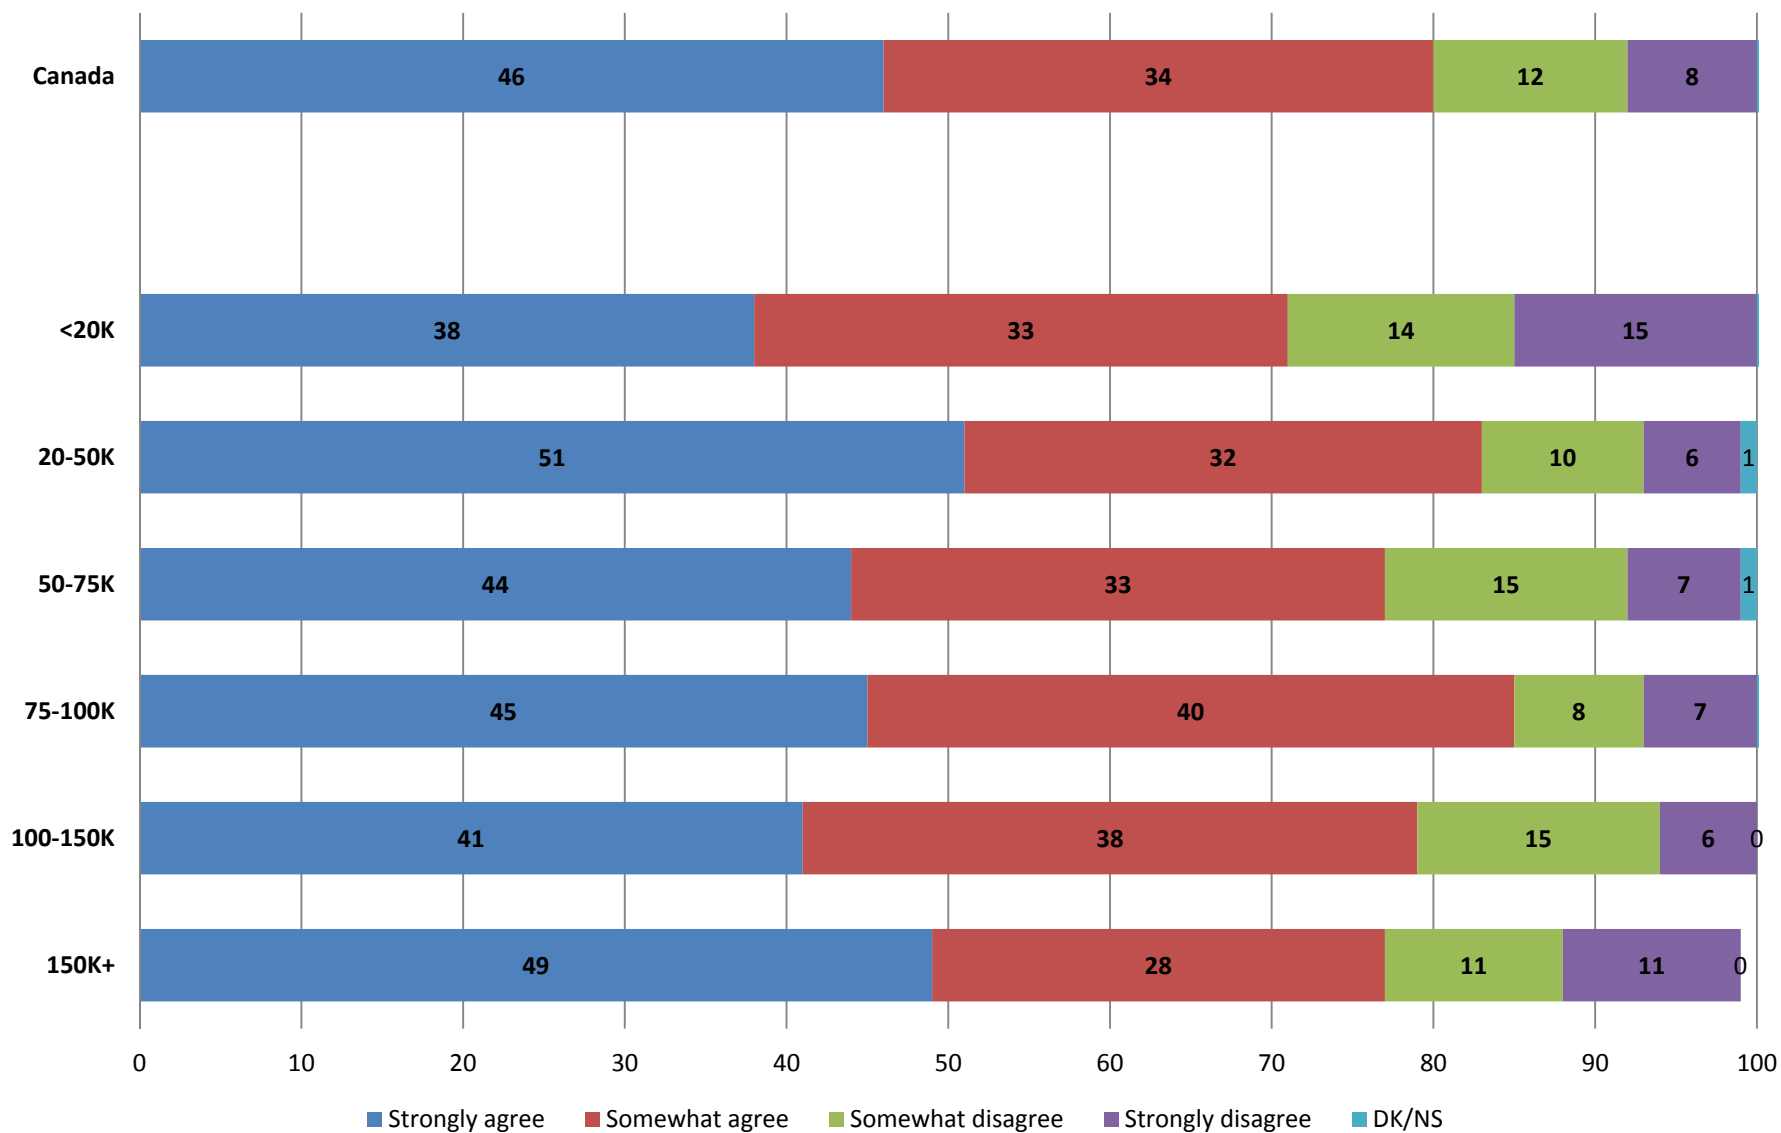

Charities should be able to earn money through any type of business activity they want as long as the proceeds go to their cause (Canada)

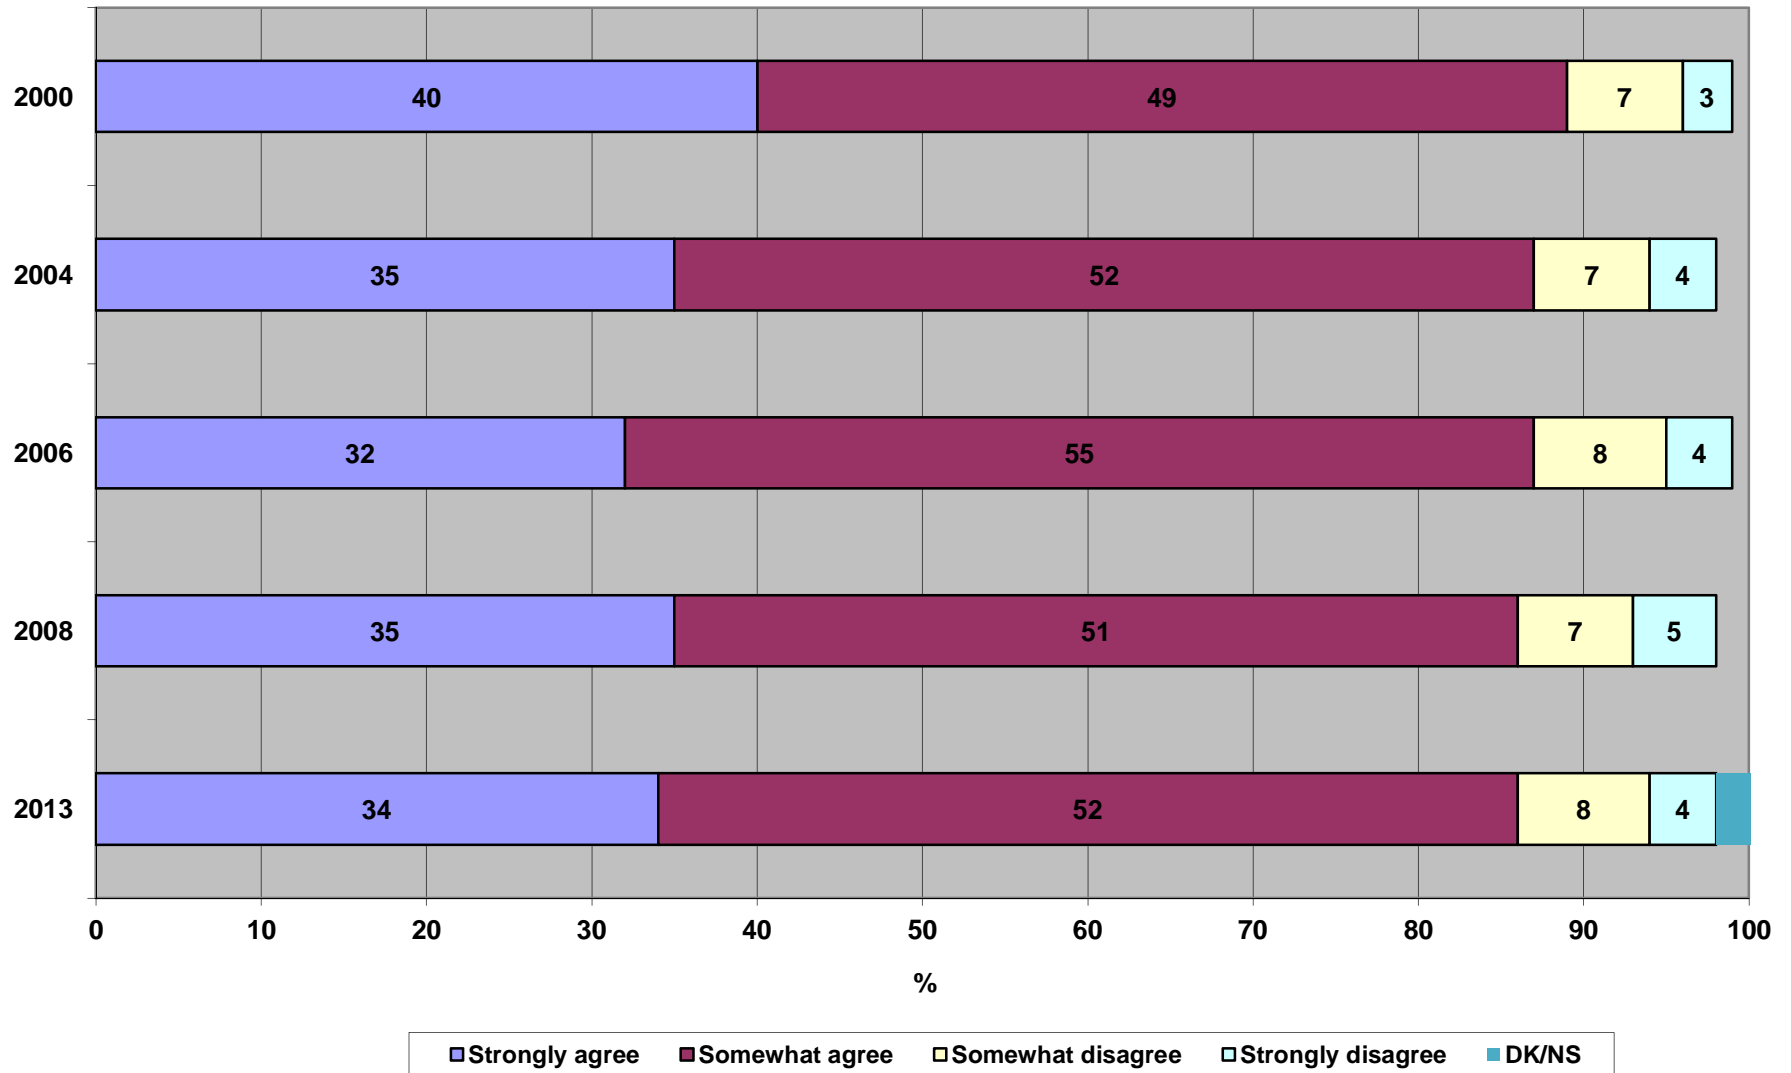

Charities should be able to earn money through any type of business as long as proceeds go to cause

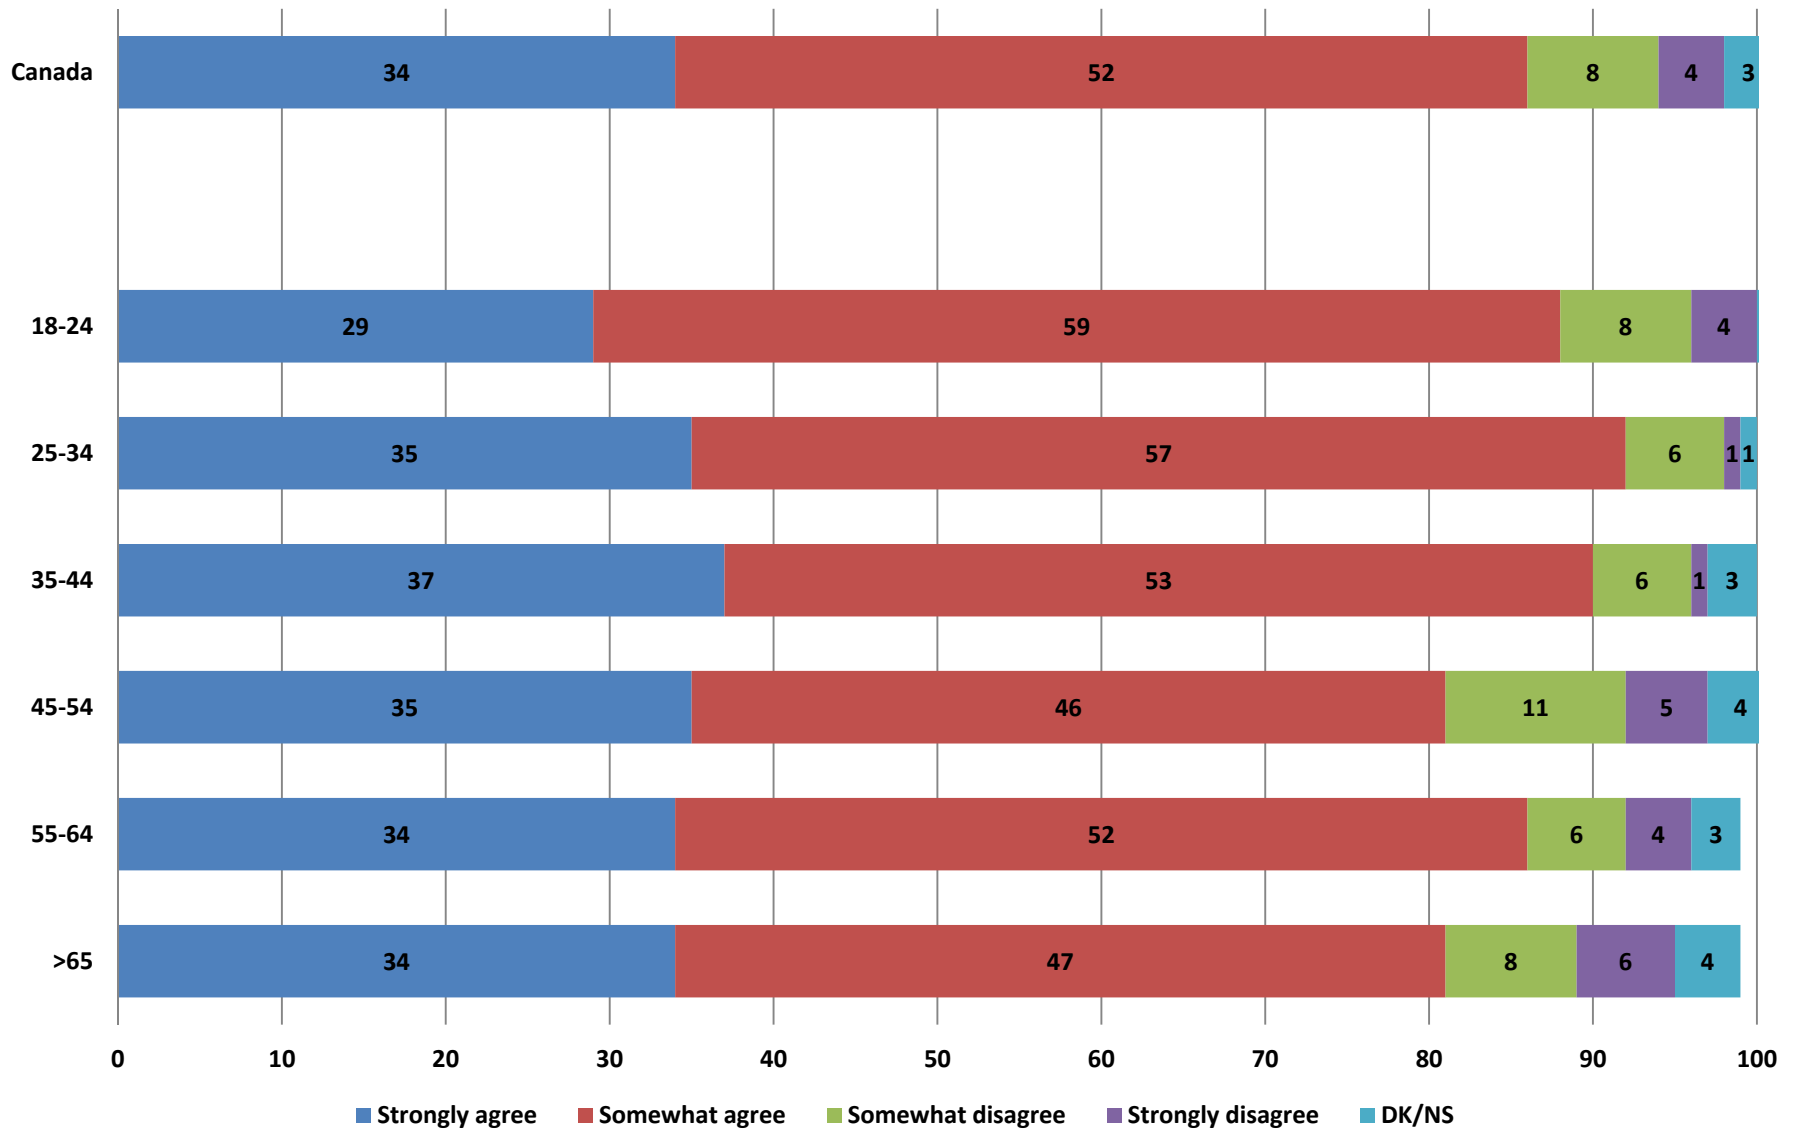

Charities should be able to earn money through any type of business as long as proceeds go to cause (by household income)

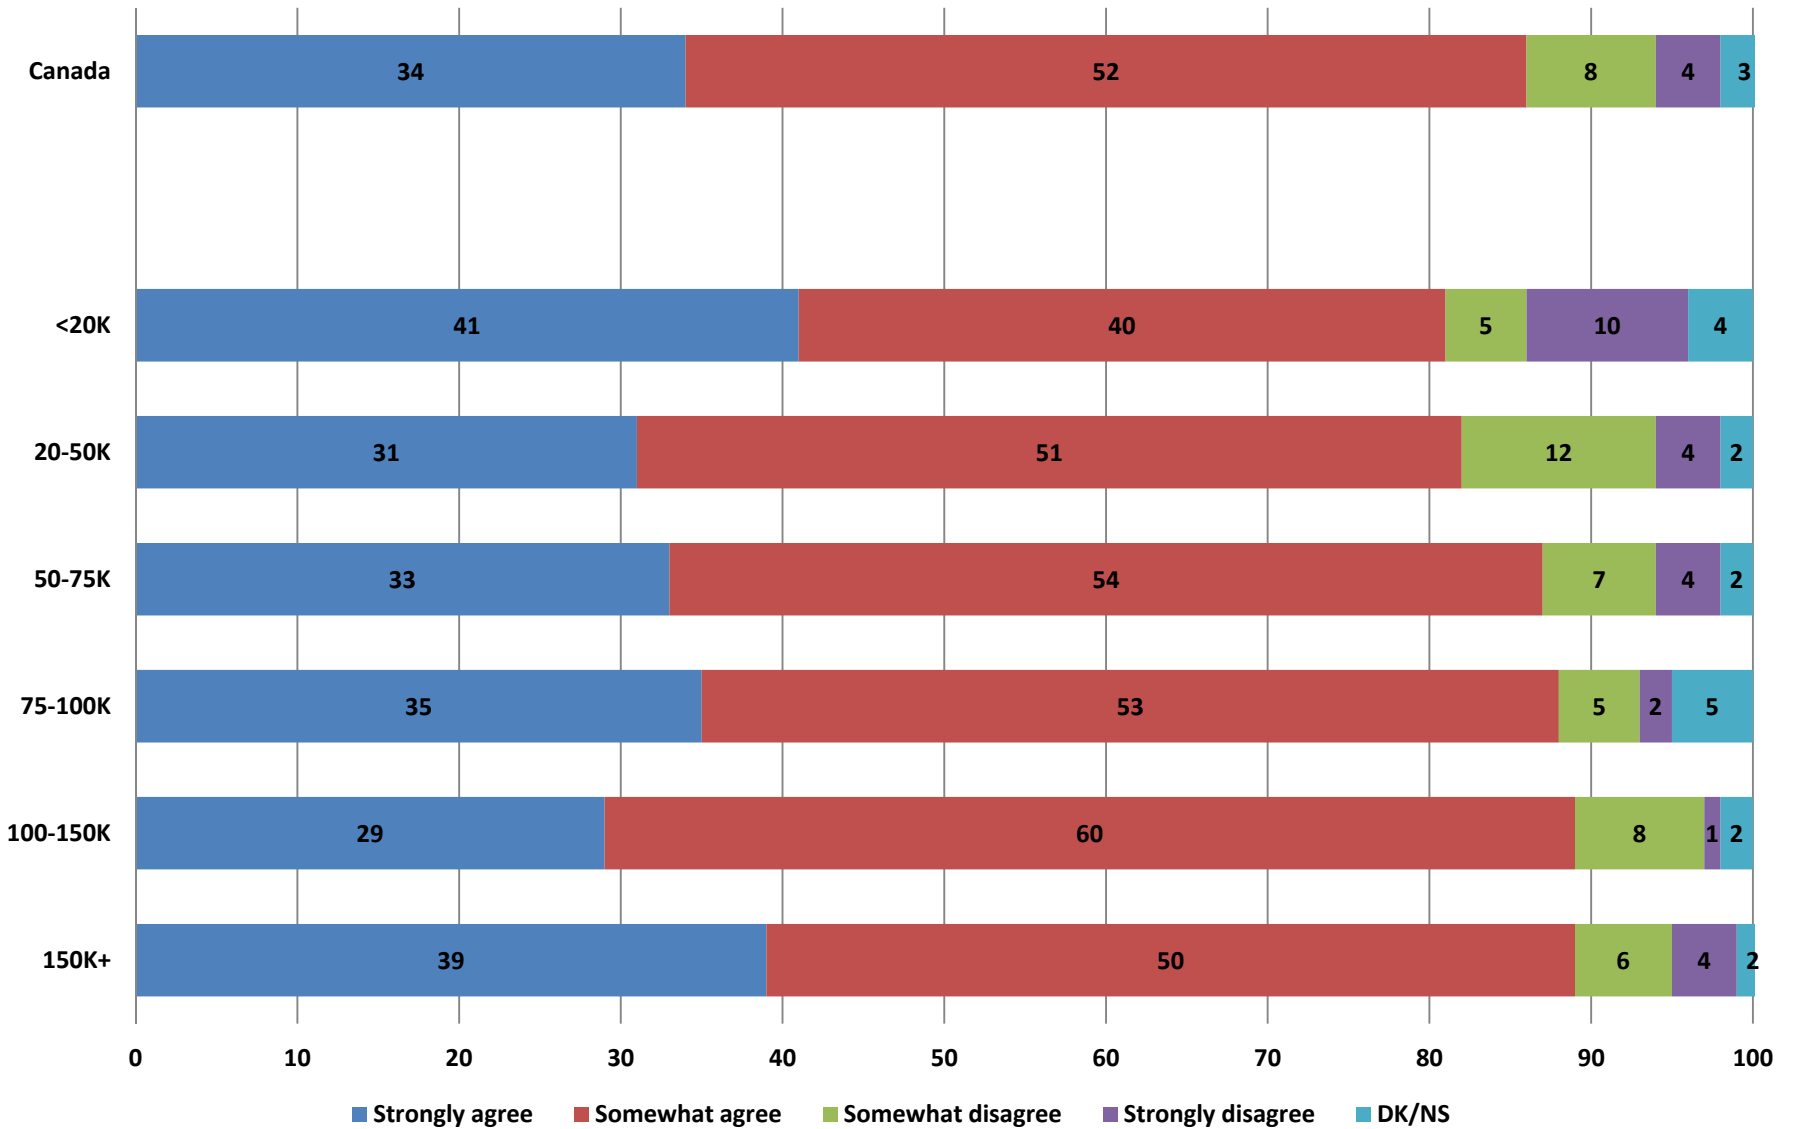

Running a business is a good way to raise money that charities aren't able to get through donations and grants
(Canada)

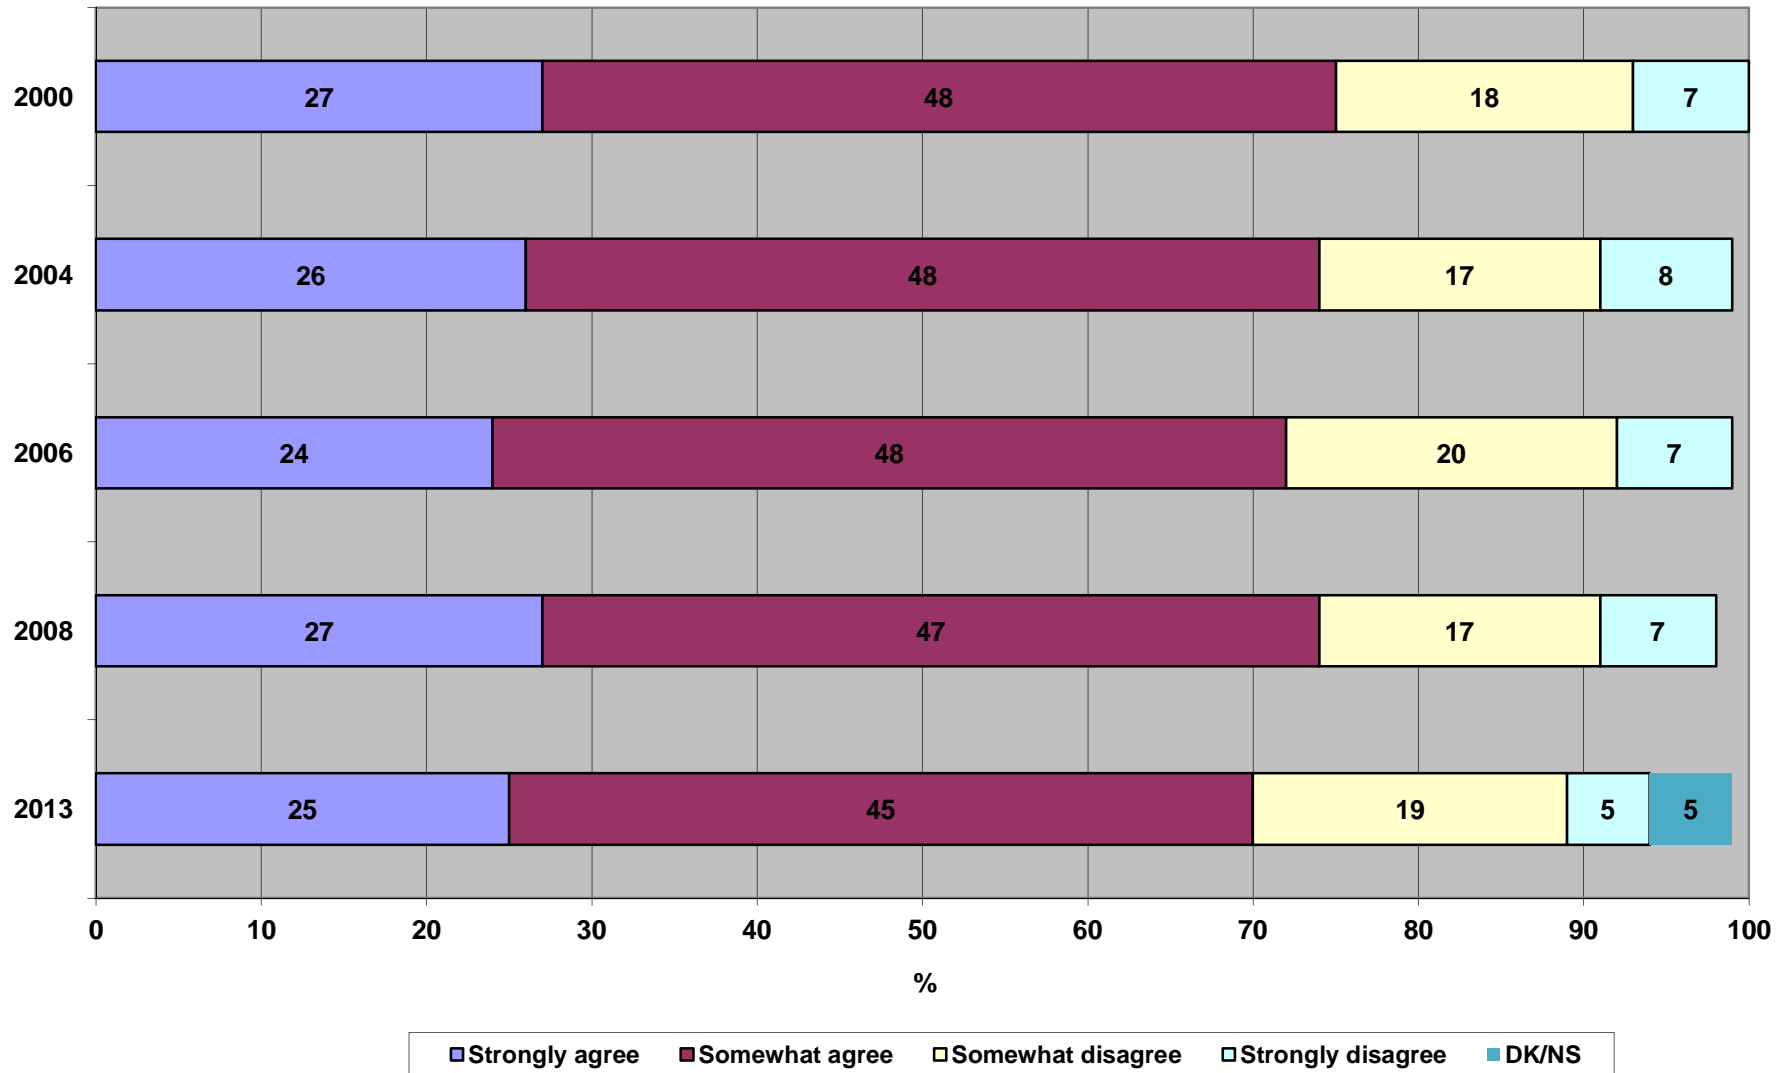

Running a business is a good way to raise money charities can't get from donations and grants

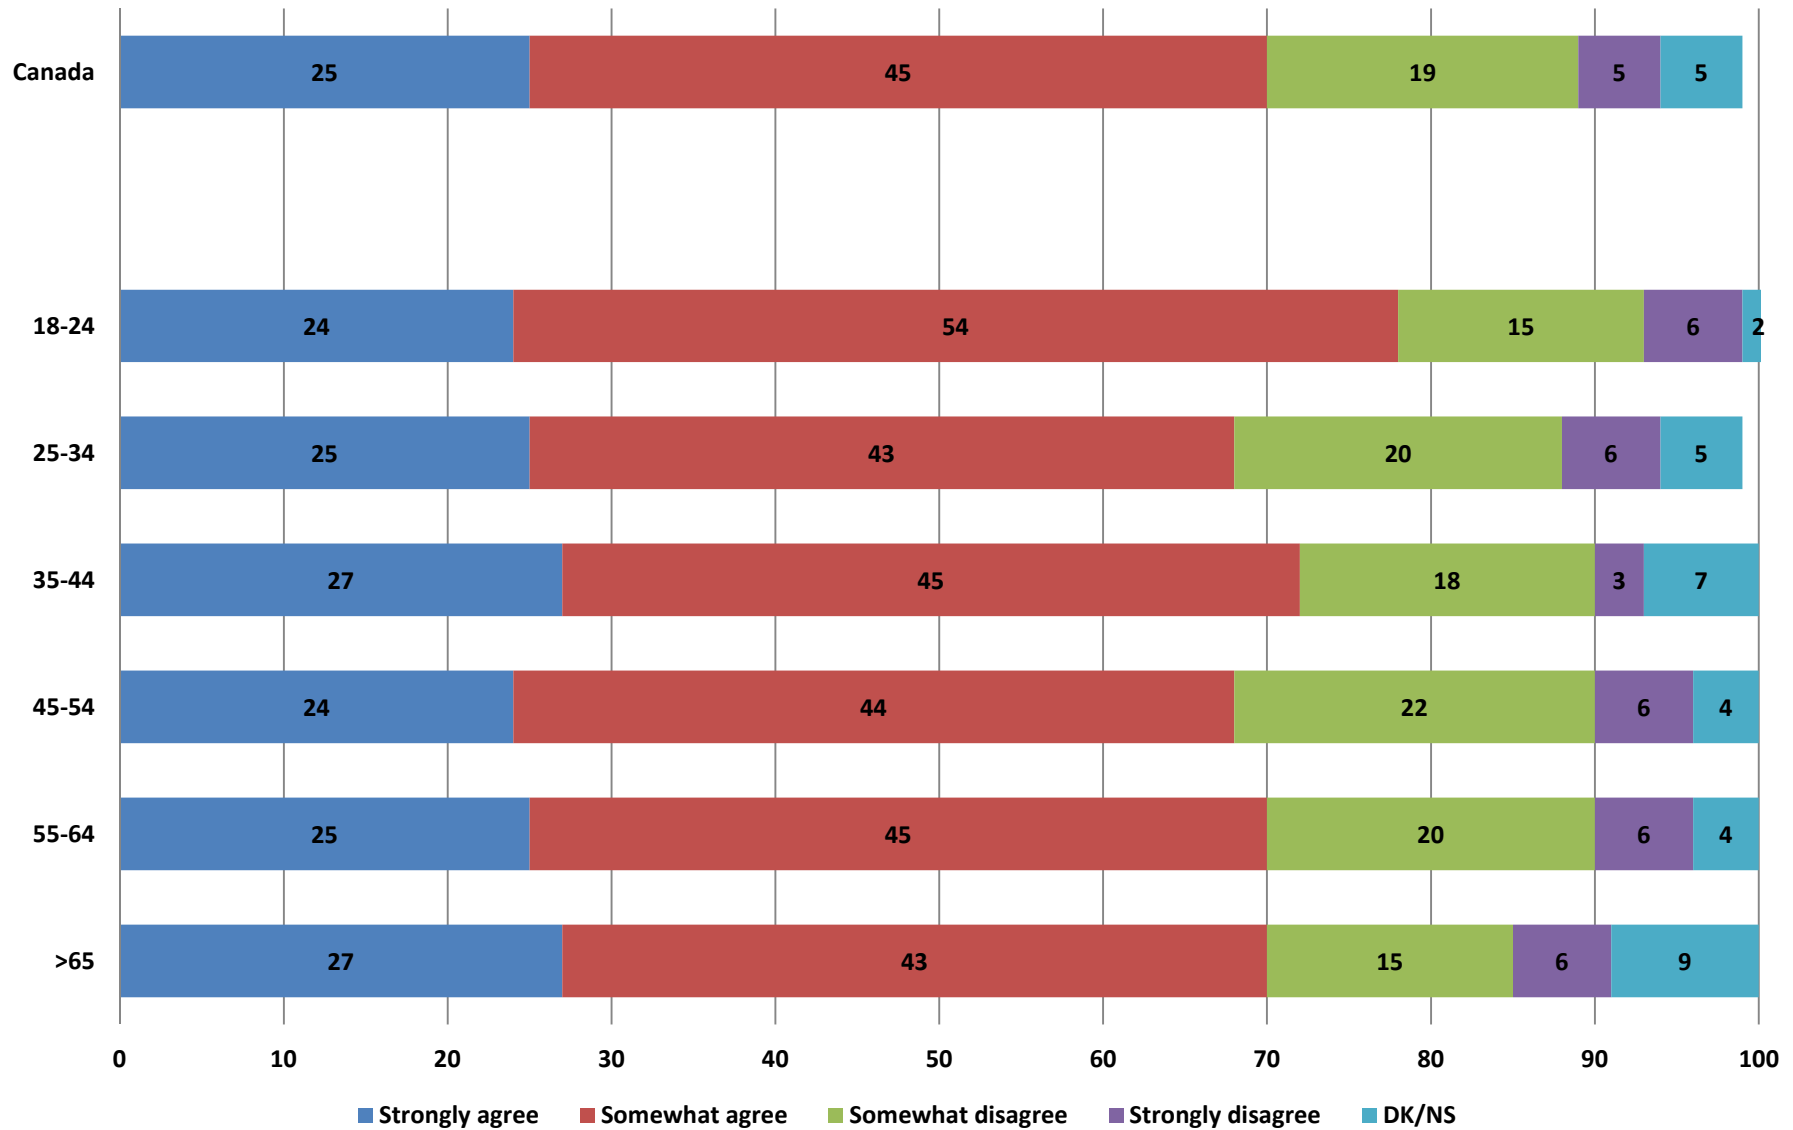

Running a business is a good way to raise money charities can't get from donations and grants (by household income)

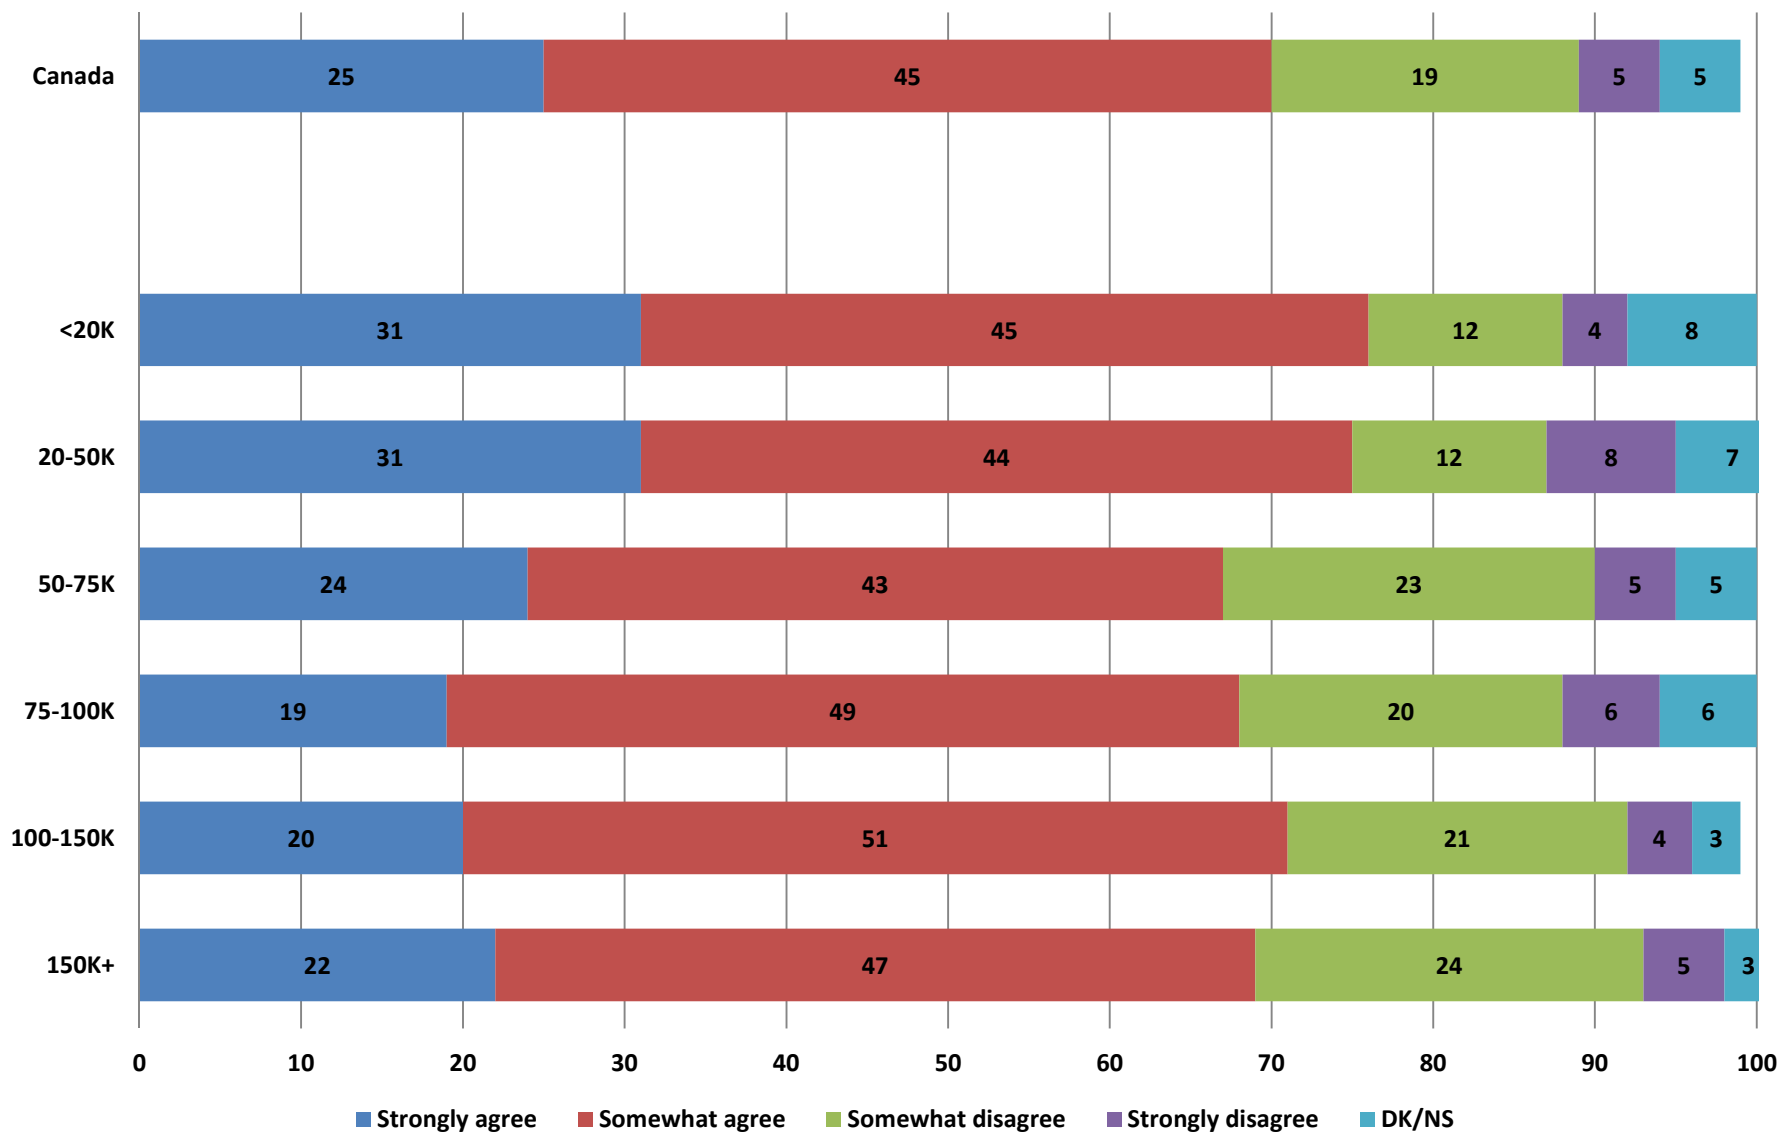

When a charity runs a business, a significant worry is that money could get lost on the business instead of being used to help Canadians (Canada)

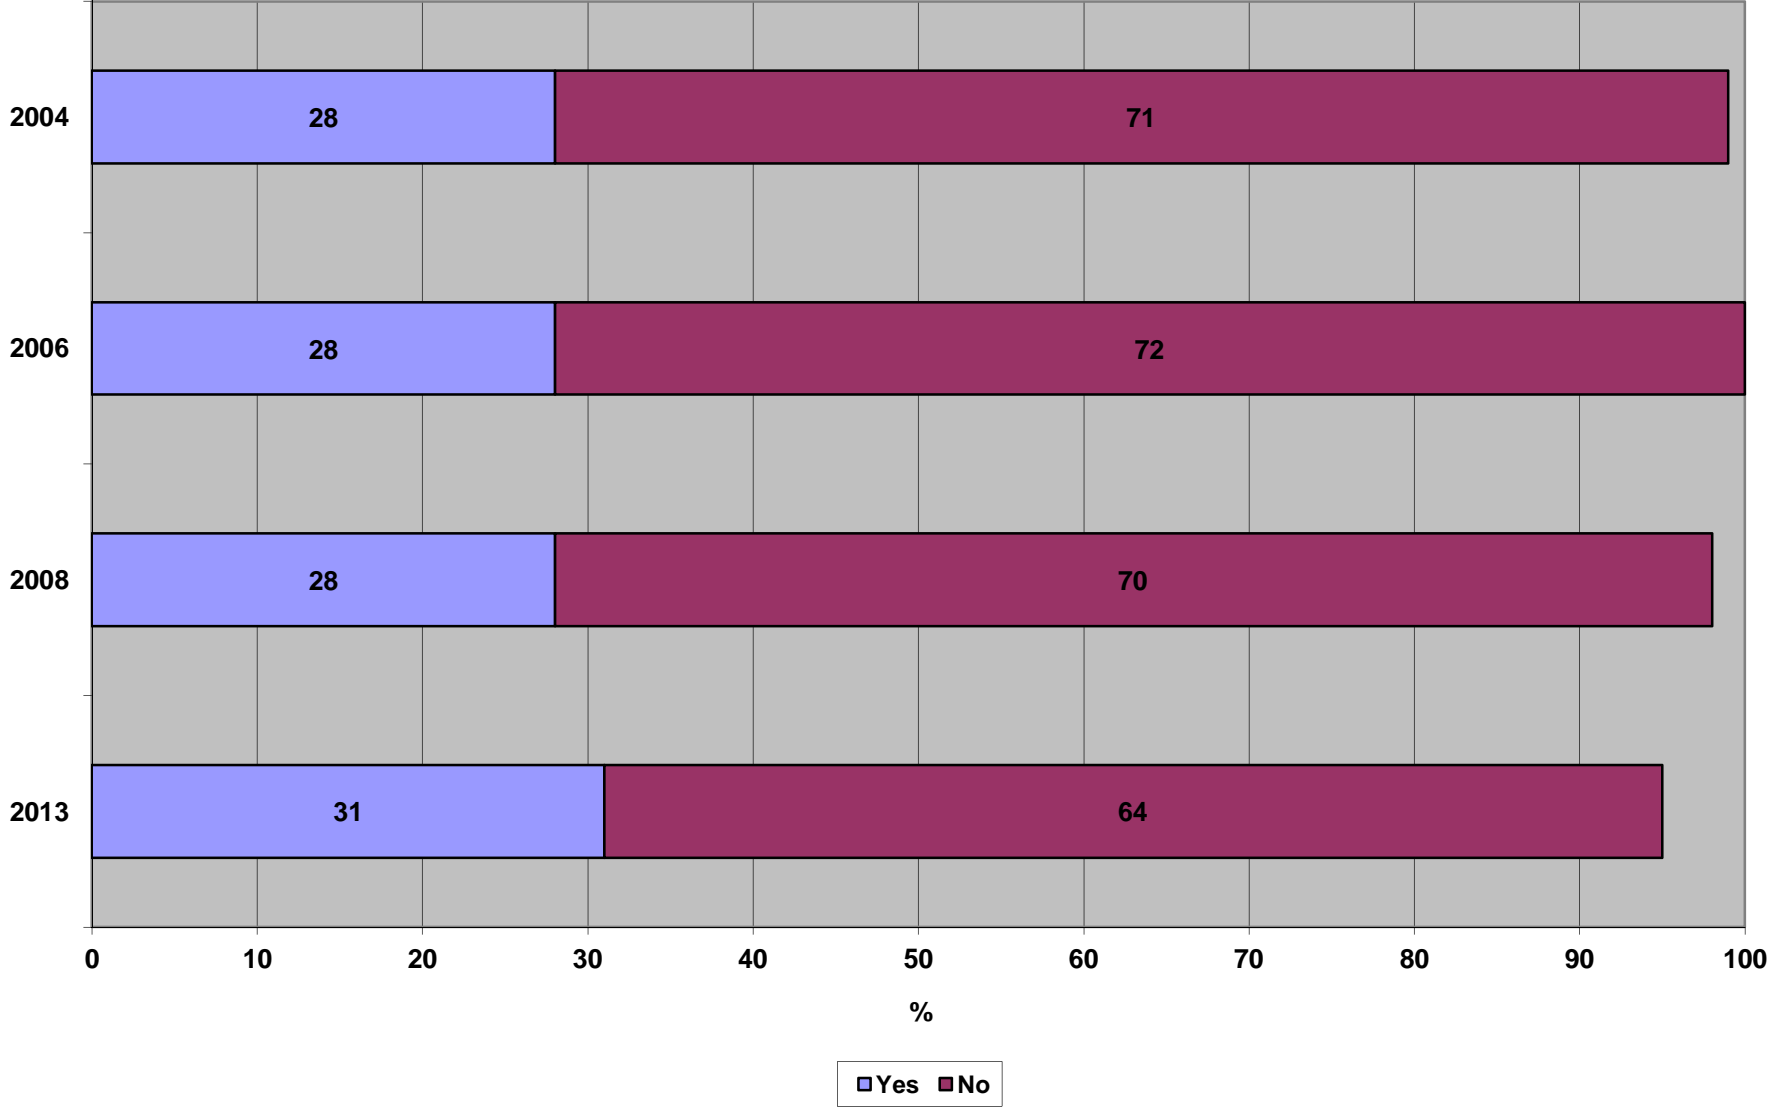

When a charity runs a business, a significant worry is that money could get lost on the business

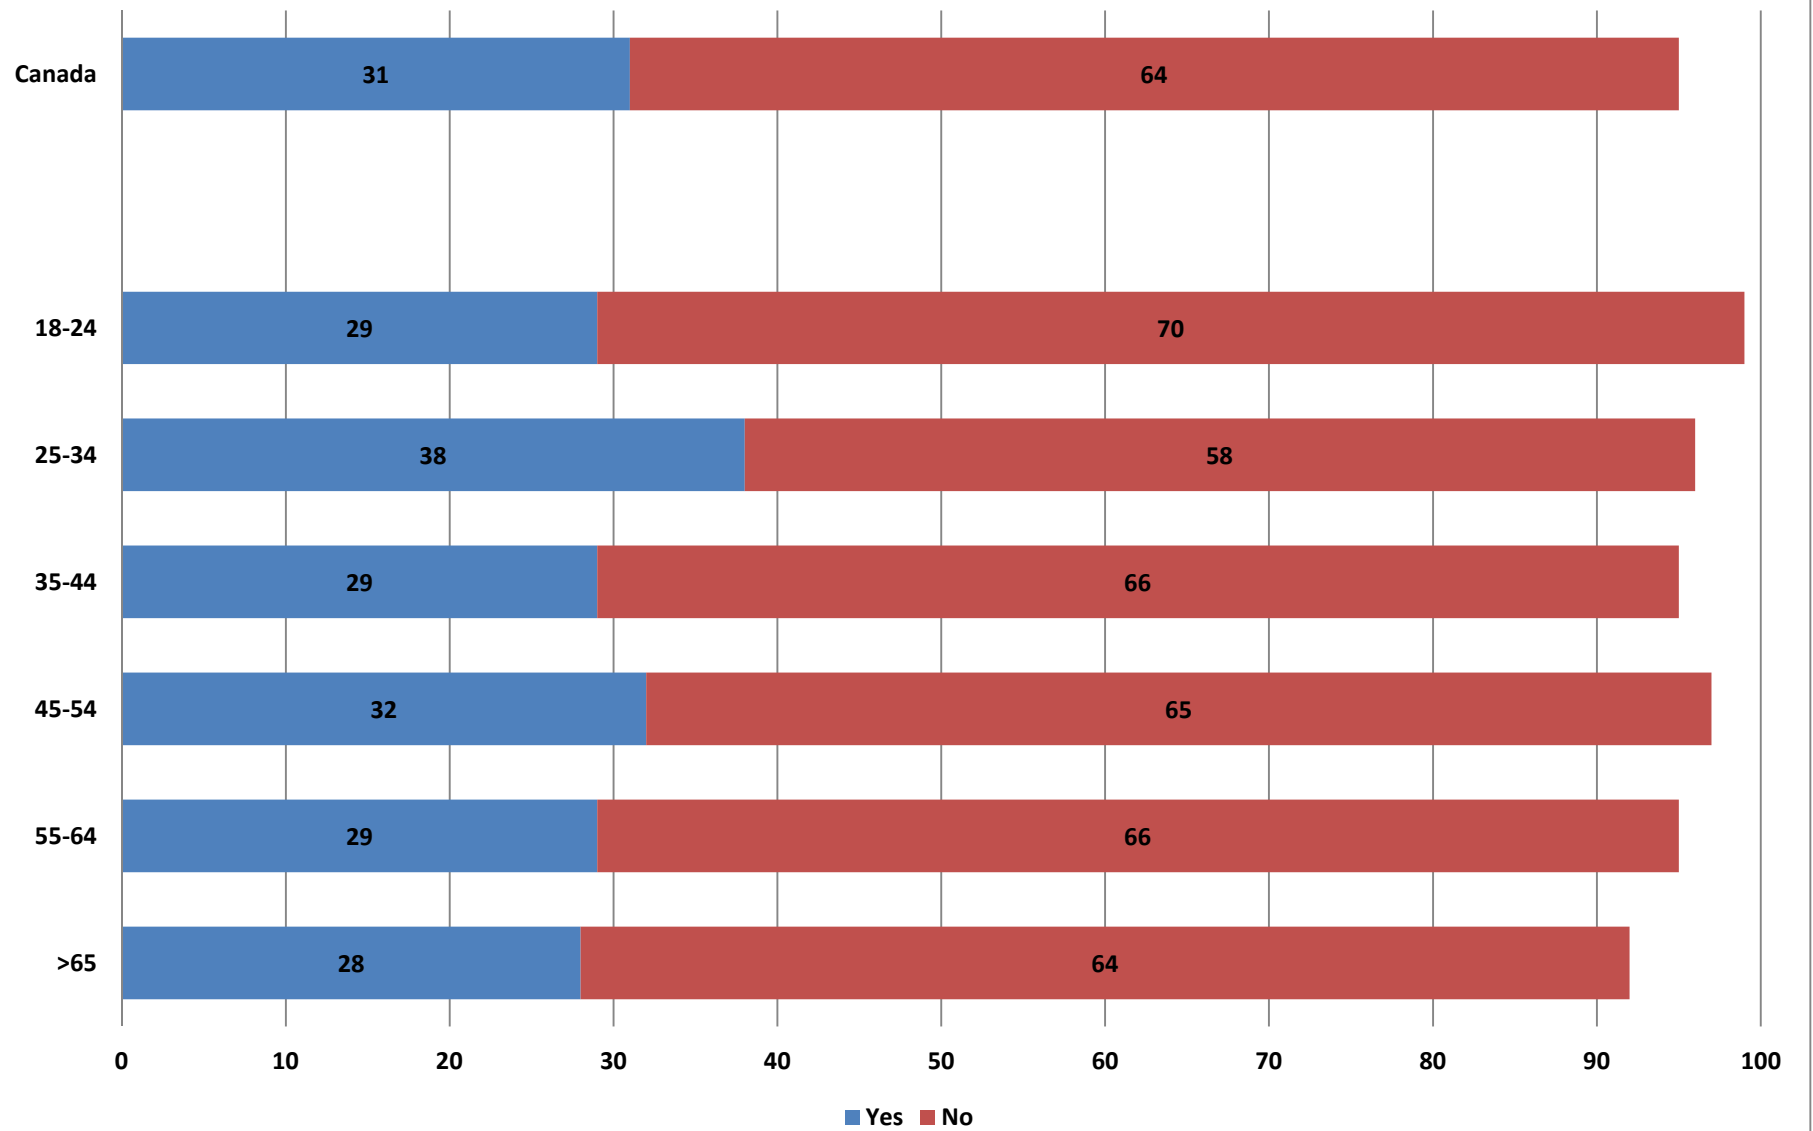

When a charity runs a business, a significant worry is that money could get lost on the business (by household income)

Should charities have to pay taxes on business income if the income is used to support their cause? (Canada)

Should charities have to pay taxes on business income if the income is used to support their cause?

Should charities have to pay tax on business income if the income is used to support their cause? (by household income)

